

March 28th

The Faculty met as usual. Mr. Southworth was reported as having left a class and taken another without permission. His case was referred to the Profr. concerned. Mr. Foster applied for an honorable discharge. Having had some trouble with his club he was required to settle that matter before the discharge could be obtained. Neill and Barker were allowed to stay in the office of the city civil-engineer two or three hours per day. Neill was excused from class in Botany. Those reported in the club-reports as indebted were required to pay up immediately. Mr. Memphis, who obtained an honorable discharge March 21st, having procured sufficient money to allow him to remain at school, was, at his request, allowed to remain.

The Deamille club having, through their officers, employed a cook after she had been sent off of the College grounds on account of her bad character, it was resolved that the President should reprimand them publicly. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

April 4th

The Faculty met at the usual hour. Messrs. Neill and Barker were excused from attending Chapel. A request of the students of this College to give a dinner to the old students of the University, sometime during the month of May, was granted. Messrs. Occure and DeRose asked permission to leave the working department. They were directed to procure the consent of their parents and of the Superintendent of the working department and then present their petitions. Pres. Patterson was requested to write to E. D. Marshall's father in regard to his general neglect of duty.

Mr. Hayden was allowed to change his boarding house.

An honorable discharge was granted to Mr. Chas. Johnson. An honorable discharge was granted to Mr. F. Harvick provided he procure the consent of the Superintendent of the working department. A furlough for three weeks was granted to Mr. Scumy. There being no further business the Faculty adjourned.

Jas. G. White,

Sec. of Faculty.
