

18 Sept. 67

Dear Father Louis,

I think your idea to wait until James Laughlin comes to discuss the Niles is a good decision. songs. I hope J. will be able to come. My dates for going to N.Y. are mid-October and perhaps I can see him then about the Fiedler Aphorisms. In the meantime, I have written to him that I am coming on Victor's estate affairs (the two trustees of the collection can both be in N.Y. on the 17th and 18th and I feel that I must go then though it is not a good time as I shall have to miss a class). James probably knows Helen Wolff. Victor knew her when she and her husband did the Peguy and V. designed and printed it.
Due to the new set-up here, I will forward your request for the Norman Cohn, Pursuit of the Millenium to Mrs. Virginia Walker, ^{Division of} Interlibrary Loan. I have no 'packager'. However, I will always be able to do a more involved request when you make it.

Sincerely,

Carolyn R. Hammer

Would you feel that you could 'introduce' me to Helen Wolff by a letter in advance? When I hear from James, I will write again.
