

index showing the names of those members upon whose orders penalties have been imposed. Attention is called to the head note of each index.

Each member can easily possess full knowledge of all changes which occur in the status of the penalties herein exhibited, by entering in the margin all such re-instate-ments as shall from time to time be reported, which, with the aid of the usual current notices and monthly pamphlets will afford ample information of the standing of each person and horse named in the record.

For the convenience of members, we have issued a revision of the monthly pamphlet for December 31st, 1875, containing the names of all persons and horses then remaining under penalty, and showing the date and character of each penalty, details of which information are embraced herein.

A table of errata will be found at page 275, which embraces all errors we have discovered, and members and others are requested to report any inaccuracies they may find in any part of the work.

THOMAS J. VAIL,

Secretary and Treasurer.
