THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

. . . The State Is Our Campus

Located in Lexington, an urban community of over 140,000 population in the heart of Kentucky's famed Blue Grass region, University of Kentucky is a state-supported, land-grant institution which celebrated its centennial year in 1965.

The present school, which this fall expects 24,000 students and now offers instruction in 10 academic colleges plus a Graduate School and a Community College system of 14 centers, had its beginnings in 1865 when it was established as a part of old Kentucky University. This action by the State Legislature united sectarian and public education under one organization for the first time. Federal funds authorized under the Morrill Act were used to develop agriculture and mechanical arts within KU and, in 1878, A&M College was separated from KU to become a separate state institution on the general site of what is now the the 706-acre main campus. Name changes in 1908 and 1916 resulted in the title by which the school is now known.

the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is fully accredited in its respective colleges and departments by all of the major professional societies and educational organizations.

An acting president, Dr. Albert D. Kirwan, currently is guiding the University of Kentucky ship of state in the interim between the departure of President John W. Oswald and the selection of a new chief executive officer. Dr. Oswald is returning to the University of California after serving UK for five years.

Dr. Kirwan, 63-year-old native Kentuckian with a wide range of acquaintance and great degree of respect, brings to the presidency a full background as professor of history, former Dean of Men and Dean of Students and past Dean of the Graduate School.

In 1938, he became the second UK alumnus to assume head coaching duties with the football Wildcats and held the position for six seasons.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring inter-collegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A board of directors, headed by the University President in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program. Exofficio members, in addition to the president, include Vice Presidents for Student Affairs and University Relations, President of the K-Men's Association, Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary to the board, and a student representative—all appointed by the president. Twelve other men, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of one of the nation's top athletic programs is Bernie A. Shively, a former Illinois grid All-American and a veteran of over 25 years in the post of Director of Athletics.

The Association's Board of Directors is composed of the following:

Chairman (President)

Vice Chairman (V.-P. Stu. Affairs)

Dr. W. L. Matthews, Jr., Secretary

Dr. Ralph Angelucci

KENTUCKY'S COLORS

The blue and white of the University of Kentucky are known to sports fans everywhere. Officially the colors are Yale blue and white, but in the beginning, when the Lexington institution was still known as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky, the colors were "Stoll blue" and white. One day back in the 1890's a group of Kentucky football stalwarts met to choose their school colors. Someone suggested blue and white—"blue like Dick Stoll's necktie"—and those colors were immediately adopted. "Dick" Stoll was to become Judge Richard C. Stoll, distinguished public servant and, for more than fifty years before his death, a member of the U.K. board of trustees.

HEART ATTACK TAKES KENTUCKY'S BERNIE SHIVELY

The collegiate athletic world is mourning the Dec. 10 death of Bernie A. Shively, active and distinguished director of athletics at the University of Kentucky.

He suffered a heart attack at his home and died soon after at a nearby hospital.

Extremely active in NCAA and Southeastern Conference affaffirs, Shively had held numerous posts in both and was one of the nation's best-known—and most respected—athletic figures.

A member of the NCAA Executive Committee at the time of his death, Shively had recently left the Chairmanship of the NCAA University Basketball Tournament Committee. He had served as chairman of the NCAA Summer Baseball Committee, as chairman of the SEC Basketball Committee, and for the past 15 years had been president of the Southeastern Conference Coaches and Athletic Directors Association.

Illinois All-America

Shively joined the Kentucky staff in 1927 as football line coach, following a brilliant athletic career at Illinois. An All-American as a blocking guard for Red Grange, he also was Big Ten heavyweight wrestling champion and a track standout.

In 1933, he was appointed head of the UK Physical Education Department, and five years later became director of athletics. He continued coaching until 1946, handling football, track and baseball at various times.

Under his leadership, Kentucky greatly expanded and improved its physical facilities and developed a fine athletic program.

Shively is survived by his widow, Ruth; a son Doug, who coaches on the Kentucky staff, and a daughter Suzanne.

Three of the nine assistant coaches on Paul Bryant's 1951 Kentucky staff have become leading coaches at other schools. Charlie McClendon is now head coach at LSU, Jim Owens at Washington and Paul Dietzel now at South Carolina after tours as LSU and Army.

When Kentucky beat West Virginia 28-8 in the 1965 Homecoming game, it was the 16th time in 18 years the Wildcats had won their Homecoming contest. The only losses in that period were to Tennessee (26-16) in 1961 and Georgia (17-14) in 1963.

Kentucky's defense has shut out 216 opponents in 695 football games since 1881. The Wildcats have been held scoreless 151 times.

HARRY C. LANCASTER

Acting Director of Athletics

The appointment of Harry C. Lancaster as acting director of athletics of the University of Kentucky effective Sept. 1, was hailed in athletic, academic, alumni and lay circles as a most appropriate move, as well as a just and fitting recognition and reward for a person who has given more than a quarter century of dedicated service to the University.

Furthermore, there was no doubt that Lancaster was fully capable of filling the vacancy left by the death Dec. 10, 1967, of longtime director of athletics Bernie A. Shively. During the interim, Robert L. Johnson, vice president of student affairs, also served as acting athletics director before moving to the University of California at Berkeley.

Lancaster accepted the appointment with "mixed emotions . . . Regret that the death of Bernie Shively made it possible, pleasure in that it will give me an opportuntiy to make a greater contribution to the University to which I have given 26 years, or about half my lifetime."

He announced no long-range plans, but immediately began instigating short-range programs with the "full cooperation of coaches and staff," as he had predicted, "for their objectives are the same as mine-the finest over-all athletic program that we can give the people of the State of Kentucky."

Lancaster picked up the reins of administrative leadership with ease, thanks to the respect of colleagues, players, associates and persons with whom he has come in contact during a varied and productive career of coaching and teaching. In fact, the appointment gave him an opportunity to expand beyond his nationally known role of assistant to basketball's winningest coach Adolph Rupp.

The Rupp-Lancaster association, begun after the latter was discharged from the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant (s.g.) in 1946, has been one of mutual respect and harmony. Rupp, who always prides himself as one who "surrounds myself with the best people for the job at hand," made Lancaster a full assistant in 1948. During the two previous years, the youthful veteran had busied himself by serving- as part-time assistant while carrying on teaching duties and studying for a master's degree.

The dual duties, plus extra studies, were second nature to Lancaster, who had served as assistant football and basketball coach at Georgetown College (1932-33) and Paris High School (1933-34), head basketball coach at Bagdad High School (1934-36) and principal and coach at Gleneyrie High School (1936-42) and physical education instructor at UK in 1942. He was to carry on that trend of carrying extra loads, serving as UK's baseball coach for 17 seasons prior to relinquishing the post following the 1965 campaign and teaching a physical education class during the past 18 years.

Basketball was his forte, however, and he became recognized as one of the game's master strategists and designer of offenses and defenses to fit certain situations. In addition to coaching Rupp's freshman teams, he has always been at the side of the "baron" during the heat of battle. In his own right, Lancaster has traveled extensively and received a signal honor when he was invited to prepare the Greek National Basketball Team for the 1968 Olympics. A six-week tour in Athens was cancelled when Lanaster was asked to stay home and serve as acting athletics chief of staff.

Traveled To Greece In 1951

Lancaster had traveled to Greece in the summer of 1951 on a special athletic assignment for the U.S. State Department. The mission called for him to act as an advisor to Greek Basketball Federation officials in Olympic procedures and other matters. He also conducted numerous clinics and coaching schools and gave public lectures on the cage sport. During the summer of 1962, he helped Coach Rupp conduct clinics for Army personnel in the Far East Theater and worked with Rupp on the team's Middle East Tour in 1966 and a clinic in Germany in the summer of 1967.

It is ironic that Lancaster gained greatest fame in basketball, since he always considered himself a better football player. He was an all-conference halfback for three straight years and captain during his last two seasons at Georgetown College and also played semi-pro ball in Louisville and Cincinnati. His success on the basketball court was equally great, however, as he earned three all-conference nominations and two team captaincies. As a coach, he has guided Kentucky yearlings to 204 victories, against only 57 losses, against formidable competition that included the more elite junior college clubs and top-notch service teams during the past 18 seasons. He posted respectable records as a baseball coach and gave the school its winningest seasons in history by posting identical 18-8 marks in 1959-1960.

A native of Paris, Ky., Lancaster attended Paris High School, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball under Coach Blanton Collier. At Georgetown College, he was president of Kappa Alpha Social Fraternity and the Student Body during his senior year. He is one of four persons named honorary K-Men by the organization of sports letter winners at the University.

He is married to the former Miss Katherine Louise Wright of Christiansburg, Ky. They have a daughter, Mrs. Dan Spain Jr., and two grandchildren, Kevin, 6, and Dana, 3, of Concord, Calif. His father, U. F. Lancaster, resides at Richmond, Ky.

When Kentucky met West Virginia in Lexington in 1965, it was the first time since 1955 that the homecoming opponent had not been a Southeastern Conference member. Kentucky beat Rice 20-16 in that year's homecoming game and downed the Mountaineers, 28-8. Independent Houston embarrassed UK, 56-18, in 1966 and West Virginia fell last year, 22-7. Vanderbilt is this season's Homecoming foe.

GALS' COACH FIRST UK MENTOR

Prof. A. M. Miller, who became Kentucky's first football coach in 1892, was chosen because he had learned about the game from sideline observations while a student at Princeton. His only previous coaching experience was at a girls' school in Pennsylvania.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH Charles Bradshaw

After six hectic years, Charlie Bradshaw stands high as a coach and gentleman fully vindicated in his promise to rebuild the shattered foundations of Kentucky football into a solid front and re-establish a winning tradition.

Exemplifying the faith placed in his hard work philosophy and procedures is the unique "lifetime" contract tendered the youthful and determined ex-Wildcat upon the successful (6-4) completion of an adversity-plagued 1965 season. The new pact, believed unique to college-coach relationships, assures Bradshaw of tenure similar to that given academic personnel. At such time as he ceases to perform his current coaching duties,, he will have the opportunity to take another position on the University staff.

Bradshaw, a 43-year-old former UK end and assistant coach, returned to his alma mater in 1962 to take on the difficult task of repairing a sputtering Kentucky football machine that had not run well since the glorious early fifities Bowl Era.

The magnitude of the repair job probably never will be fully understood by anyone less closely connected with it than the self-sacrificing Bradshaw. Only he could take a positive approach to the almost impossible problems—and, more importantly, stick with it in the face of increasing odds. How he tackled the assignment of producing a winner out of the meager raw material reflects the type of person Charlie Bradshaw is—the personification of qualities of inner fortitude, outwardly serious demeanor, ability, confidence, integrity and quiet determination. He is an inspirational leader possessing the valuable trait of exuding enthusiasm and confidence to a degree that inspires those around him—players and assistants—to get the job done in a way that pays off with success. He demands great effort of himself and others in the belief that success cannot be purchased easily.

Bradshaw Influence Felt Around State

Bradshaw's influence not only is paying off with success on the gridiron—his 1965 team posted the school's best record since 1956—but also is being felt around the state. Coaches, alumni, general public and prospective Wildcats are rallying to the side of Bradshaw's long-range program in a fashion never before seen in the State of Kentucky.

He believes in the direct way of doing things. The emphasis is on how to win instead of what mistakes can be costly enough to cause a loss. He makes a habit of being fair, sincere and honest with his team and in turn expects the same from his players. He stresses the pride to be gained from 100 percent effort and of doing things right—which he feels to be synonymous with winning football. The church and school also play prominent roles in the plan of devoutly Christian (Baptist) Bradshaw.

The football philosophy of Bradshaw, who assumed his first head coaching position in January, 1962, when he succeeded Blanton Collier as the institution's third alumnus coach, was schooled into him by nine years' service in an assistant's capacity on the staffs of UK and Alabama. Yet, the approach to the game taken by the Wildcat mentor is mainly and uniquely Bradshaw's own.

Charlie grew up in Montgomery, Ala., and started his football at the age of 15 in Sidney Lanier High. Upon graduation, he was attracted to the University of Kentucky and attended one semester in 1942 without seeing any grid action.

After that first semester, he withdrew to enter the Marine Corps. He served for three years and saw 19 months' action in the Pacific Theater. Following his discharge, Bradshaw returned to UK to play on Paul Bryant's first three Wildcat aggregations. He earned the first of four letters as a center in 1946 and picked up his three subsequent monograms as a 165-pound end. Attempting to get in an allowable fourth year of competition as a graduate student in 1949, he was ruled ineligible after three games by the SEC Commissioner.

Bradshaw remained on the coaching staff as a student assistant for the remainder of the season and then, in 1950, returned to his home town high school (Sidney Lanier in Montgomery, Ala.) as coach and co-ordinator of a junior high program—a position he retained until chosen an aide on the first UK staff of Blanton Collier in 1954. After five years as end coach and later offensive backfield coach, Charlie moved in 1959 to Alabama as a line tutor for Coach Bryant.

Graduated From Kentucky In '49

Coach Bradshaw was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1949 with an AB in Commerce and physical education and later was awarded a master's degree in school administration. He married his high school sweetheart, Martha Austin of Montgomery, in 1945 and they have a daughter, nine-year-old Leigh, and a son, Charles Austin, born just prior to 1964 season.

Bradshaw's first six seasons at Kentucky have been remarkable in view of the fact that they have been beset by all manner of troubles—ranging from lack of talent and wholesale departures of players unwilling to pay the price for eventual success to untimely bad luck and injuries to key personnel. Fighting back with all the resources and determination at his command, the dedicated coach kept his Wildcats' collective head above water as he built a solid base that has begun to show results.

In 1962—his first season—Bradshaw's "Thin Thirty" (only 28 men finished the campaign) won just three games. Despite the presence of eight sophomores in the lineup the next season, Kentucky refused to give up and won three again. After suffering through two rebuilding seasons with a combined record of 6-11-3, Bradshaw's 1964 force proved itself a coming power. The team upset two preseason choices for the national title (Mississippi and Auburn), won some other games with hard in-fighting and claimed a second place tie in the tough Southeastern Conference. The experts were startled by the bold Wildcats, who made their highest finish in more than a decade and a significant jump from 11th place the year before. In 1965, Kentucky climbed another rung on the ladder as it put a 6-4 record on the books despite being plagued by injuries. The Wildcats were in bowl contention all the way until dropping the final two games following injury to All-America quarterback Rick Norton. They ranked 17th in the final UPI poll—marking their first appearance at the end of the season among the nation's top 20 since 1954.

Bradshaw, honored as National Coach of the Week in 1964 following his team's stunning upset of Ole Miss, served as an assistant on the Grays' coaching staff for the 1962 Blue-Gray Game in his hometown of Montgomery, Ala.

WILDCAT COACHING STAFF

BILL CONDE

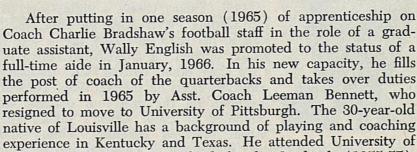

Offensive Line

Newest addition to the staff assisting Head Coach Charlie Bradshaw is Bill (Moon) Conde, a former Wildcat player of the glorious early fifties "Bowl Era." The 41-year-old coach, appointed in spring 1962, succeeds resigned aide Ray Callahan and spends most of his time working with the offensive line. During his undergraduate days at Kentucky, Conde saw action as an offensive guard and linebacker on defense with three of the greatest teams in school history—the elevens of 1949 ('50 Orange Bowl), 1950 (SEC champ and '51 Sugar Bowl), and 1951 ('52 Cotton Bowl). Although seeing only extensive reserve duty behind some great guards, Conde won a letter for his help all three seasons. He graduated from the University in January, 1952, and picked up an MA degree here the following year. Moon launched his 15-year (7 high school and 8 collegiate) coaching career by accepting an assignment to help Coach Bradshaw in 1952 at Sidney Lanier High in Montgomery, Ala. From there, he moved in 1953 to the head coach position at Corbin (Ky.) High School and then spent three seasons (1954-56) at the larger Louisville Male High as line coach for UK grad Charley Kuhn. After a one-year (1957) stint at Catholic High in Charleston, W. Va., Conde went back to Louisville as head man at Manual High. In his one season there, he tutored a 7-3 record. For the next seven years (1959 through 1965), Bill assisted on the grid staff at Virginia Tech. He was engaged in private business most of 1966, but jumped at the opportunity to return to his alma mater. He is married to the former Helen Isaac of Charleston. No children. Born 10/13/26.

WALLY ENGLISH

Quarterbacks

Louisville and operated three seasons as a quarterback for the Cardinals (1955-57). English started his coaching career in his hometown of Louisville as an assistant on the staff at DeSales High School in 1959 after a service hitch. The next four years (1960-63), he spent as head coach of Louisville's Bishop David High and then was at Mt. Carmel High in Houston, Texas, for the 1964 season before returning to his native state. Shortly after his return, English joined the Kentucky staff as a graduate assistant. Born 6/28/37 and married to the former Peggy Karem of Louisville . . . They have three sons—Jon, 7; Steven, 6; and Daniel, 4. In 1961, he was the leading passer of the Louisville Raiders in the United Football League.

Former All-Conference defensive back and academic All-America while performing at University of Alabama, Leon Fuller was added to the University of Kentucky football coaching staff shortly after the 1965 season. The slightly-built, youthful Fuller moved to the Wildcats from Oklahoma State, where he had served as an assistant for three years. A native of Nederland, Texas, Fuller was a four-sport standout in high school there before entering Tyler (Tex.) Junior College. At Tyler, Leon attained Junior College All-America honor in 1958.

He then transferred to Alabama for a final two years of competition and played under Charlie Bradshaw, then a Crimson Tide assistant, in 1959 and 1960. In addition to lettering both seasons, Fuller was chosen as an All-SEC defensive back, made the Academic All-America team and was selected as Alabama's outstanding athlete in 1960. He was named to play in the Shrine North-South Game and the Senior Bowl following Alabama's appearance in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Fuller has the distinction of serving as his team's captain in his final year as a schoolboy, junior college, and collegiate performer . . . Born 7/28/38 in Nederland, Tex. . . . Married last June to former Pamela Mitchell of Riverside, Calif.

PHIL OWEN

Freshmen

Phil (Duke) Owen, a highly-successful schoolboy coach at Mt. Sterling (Ky.) High for nine years, joined the Bradshaw staff at his state university just a few weeks before the 1964 season opened. A 37-year-old native of Lebanon, Ky., Duke (like two other current UK assistants) is tutoring in the collegiate ranks for the first time. He worked primarily with the freshmen for the past four seasons, enjoying an undefeated campaign in 1964. Owen's varsity assignment for the 1967 season involved coaching centers and kickers. Owen attended high school in his hometown of Lebanon and later enrolled at Georgetown College, where he was an outstanding halfback for four years prior to graduation in 1953. He served as the Tigers' captain in both his junior and senior seasons. The UK aide began his coaching career at Mt. Sterling in 1955 following released from two years Army service in Europe. During his nine-year tenure, his teams posted winning records six times and he was honored as Central Kentucky Conference "Coach of the Year" in 1960. He guided the Trojans to Recreation Bowl wins in 1959, '60 and '62 and served on the staff for the 1959 schoolboy East-West classic . . . Born 1/12/31 . . . Married to former Florence Deeb of Louisville and they have two sons—David 10, and Mitchell 8.

Experienced through stellar collegiate line play at University of Alabama and as a member of Coach Paul Bryant's Crimson Tide coaching staff, Charley Pell became a Bradshaw aide shortly after the 1964 season. Familiarity with his new boss and the confidence Bradshaw places in Pell stems from his three-year player-coach relationship at Alabama. Pell began his collegiate career as freshman in 1959 while Bradshaw was an Alabama assistant and missed playing under Bradshow's direction only in 1962 when the coach had moved to Kentucky as head man. During his playing days, Pell operated as a six-foot, 190-pound guard, tackle, end and linebacker to earn three letters. He was a member of the 1961 National Championship team and also lettered in basketball and track. Pell, who played with Tide in Bluebonnet Bowl as a sophomore, joined UK tackle Junior Hawthorne as a post-graduate participant in the 1963 Crusade Bowl. Following graduation from Alabama in '63 he stayed on as an assistant for one season (1963) and then spent a year in private business in Huntsville, Ala. At UK, he now works mainly with the defensive interior line . . . Born 2/27/41 in Albertville, Ala.

JIM POYNTER Offensive Backfield

Former Kentucky Wildcat fullback Jim Poynter joined the football coaching staff of his alma mater following the 1965 season and brought with him credentials as one of the state's most promising young mentors. In five seasons in the high school ranks, he directed his teams to a composite record of 40-10-1 for one of the best marks in history among Kentucky high school coaches. The 31-year-old native of Danville, Ky., is a 1961 graduate of the University of Kentucky where he lettered two years as a fullback under Coach Blanton Collier. He capped a sterling career in 1960 by winning the Lexington Salesmen's Club award as UK's best defensive back and was cited as a member of the All-America Blocking Team the same year. Upon graduation from UK, Poynter took over as head coach at Glasgow (Ky.) High and gave the school its first winning team in 10 years. His two-year record was 12-8. In 1963, he moved to Clark County (Ky.) High where his teams won 17 games, lost only two and tied one in two seasons. The Cardinals copped a league title in '63 and tied for the top spot the following season. Another move prior to the 1965 season brought him to Lexington Henry Clay High and he proceeded to direct the Blue Devils to a perfect, 11-0-0 record. Henry Clay took the league championship on the strength of its first unblemished record in history and Poynter was honored as "Coach of the Year" in the Central Kentucky Conference. Jim is married to the former Gale Foster of Danville and they have two sons—Darrell 10 and Barry 7 . . . Born 7/1/37.

A holdover from one year (1961) on the Blanton Collier staff, George (Chink) Sengel was retained by Charlie Bradshaw out of confidence in his coaching ability. Sengel's collegiate career at Kentucky spanned three of the same years (1942, 1946-47) as his new boss. A native of Louisville, "Chink" was an All-State end at Louisville Manual High in 1939 and started his collegiate career at Kentucky in 1940. After lettering as the team's regular end in 1942, he spent three years in the Army Air Corps. Returning to UK in 1946, he picked up two more letters prior to graduation in 1948 and then spent one year as a revenue agent. He began his coaching career as a freshman assistant at Kentucky in 1949. For the next five years (1950-54), Sengel served as head coach and athletic director at Clay County High in Green Cove Springs, Fla., and was head coach-AD at Apoptka (Fla.) High two seasons before returning to his home town as end coach for Male High. He joined Blanton Collier's staff in 1961 as coach of ends and now is in charge of the offensive line and ends for Coach Bradshaw. Born 9/14/21 . . . Married to former Mary Alice Duncan of Lawrenceburg, Ky., with two sons—George III 17 and David 10½.

DOUG SHIVELY

Linebackers

Added just before the 1966 campaign to the staff of Coach Bradshaw, Doug Shively is a former Wildcat star and youthful veteran of eight years in the coaching profession. He returned to his Alma Mater after serving in an assistant's capacity for six campaigns with the Virginia Tech Gobblers. Doug, the 30-year-old son of late Athletic Director Bernie Shively, played end for the Wildcats from 1956 through 1958 and served as co-captain of the team in his final season. He also handled punting chores for the gridders and was centerfielder on the baseball team. Following graduation in 1959, he played minor league baseball briefly with the White Sox rookie league team in Holdredge, Neb. Later that year, Shively started his grid coaching career under Clarence Underwood at Thomas Jefferson High School in Port Arthur, Texas. After one season, the rising young mentor switched to Virginia Tech to join the staff of Jerry Claiborne. He served the first year as a freshman coach and then was assigned duties as coach of the linebackers and defensive ends. By strange coincidence, Shively is continuing a pattern that has associated him all through his coaching career with men having UK backgrounds—Underwood, a former coach; Claiborne, an ex-Wildcat and coach; and Bradshaw, who played at UK and was a staff assistant during Doug's playing days. A native of Lexington and former all-sports star at Lafayette High, Shively is married to the former Patsy Moores of Lexington and they have three children—Doug (Chip) Jr., 6½; David, 5; and Kelley, two . . . Born 3/18/38.

CLARENCE UNDERWOOD

Defensive Ends

Back "home" after a 10-year absence from the Wildcat scene, Clarence (Buckshot) Underwood re-joined the Kentucky coaching staff shortly after the end of the 1965 season. His chief responsibility is to shore up the defense—an assignment at which he excels. The tough-but-popular West Virginia native spent eight seasons at the University of Kentucky (1948-55) in his first try at collegiate coaching and proved himself a master to two bosses—Paul Bryant (6 years) and Blanton Collier (2 years)—in the capacity of line coach. In addition to regular coaching duties, Buckshot took on the added responsibility of prodding the gridders in their academic activities during his previous UK duty tour. He started his grid career by playing high school football at Woodrow Wilson High in hometown Beckley, W. Va., and entered Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., following graduation. He lettered in football three years and was on the boxing team at Marshall before finishing with the Class of '38. He began coaching at Beckley High School and spent four years there before serving in the Navy as a lieutenant in World War II. Returning to Beckley High upon his discharge in 1945, Underwood got in two more seasons before joining Bryant's Kentucky staff in '48. He left UK in 1956 to become Athletic Director and Head Coach at Thomas Jefferson High in Port Arthur, Texas. In 10 years, he compiled a 77-26-6 record and won six district championships. He was elected Texas high school Coach of the Year in 1957 and coached the South All-Stars in the 1960 Texas North-South schoolboy classic. Married to the former Edith Smith of Morgan, Ky., and they have three daughters—Janet, 23; Nancy, 20; Barbara, 17 . . . Born 10/3/12.

CHRIS PATRICK

Trainer

Newest addition to the Wildcat football staff is youthful Chris Patrick, a Tennessee native (Fayetteville) who took over as head football trainer last March succeeding Ralph Berlin—who moved to the NFL Pittsburgh Steelers. The 30-year-old Patrick, graduate of the University of Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky University (MA 1963), has an extensive background in training dating from his student days in 1957. From 1957 to early 1961, he was an assistant trainer for the Vols on a part-time basis. During a six-months military stint that followed, he was assigned to the Army Medical School in Texas. After his tour of duty, Patrick started work on his master's degree at Eastern and simultaneously served as head trainer for all sports. He also worked one season as an assistant football coach at Earlanger-Lloyd High School in northern Kentucky. After graduation from Eastern, he spent some time at Furman University and then in 1964 joined Florida State as associate trainer. In 1965, the travelling trainer switched to Mississippi State—the post from which he transferred to Kentucky. During three years with the Bulldogs, Patrick also lectured at football clinics and authored technical articles. Last December, he served as head trainer of the Grays in the annual Blue-Gray Game in Montgomery, Ala.

BUSTER BROWN—Equipment Manager: Handling the duties of handing out thousands of dollars' worth of football gear to the team is a seasoned veteran, S. C. (Buster) Brown. The tough-but-popular Brown served the University athletic teams in the capacity of Equipment Manager for several years before World War II. After wartime work as a stevedore on the West Coast, Buster returned to Kentucky and his old job in 1952.

KEN KUHN—Information Director: A veteran of 20 years in the job of publicizing Wildcat football and other sports activities of UK, Kuhn came to Lexington via Michigan State from which he was graduated in 1942 and later served as an assistant in the Public Relations Department. Before moving over to the Athletic Department in 1948, he worked two years as News Editor in UK's Department of Public Relations. Kuhn is a past president of the Southeastern Conference Sports Publicity Association and active in COSIDA, a national sports information group.

RUSSELL RICE, Asst. Information Director: After 16 years of valuable experience in the newspaper field, Rice transferred his talents in 1967 to the UK Sports Information Office to assist in publicizing Wildcat sports. In moving to the University, he left a position of Sports Editor of the Lexington Leader which he had held since 1962. A native of Paintsville, Ky., Rice won letters in high school football, basketball and baseball. He attended Kentucky Wesleyan one year before transferring to UK, from which he graduated in 1951. He is an avid fisherman and past president of the Kentucky Casting Association.

HONORS COME LATELY

From its football beginnings in 1881 through 1942, Kentucky had only one player named to a recognized All-America team. In the short span of years since, no less than nine have earned first team mention on the national honor rolls and four of the stars were repeaters. In 1965 alone, three UK players added their names to the list—the first time this was done in school history. Twenty-three Wildcats have received All-Conference recognition a total of 31 times since the loop was organized in 1933.

TO PROMOTE SPIRIT AND SUPPORT

Charlie Bradshaw and other members of the University of Kentucky athletics staff, long concerned with rather lacadaisical student interest and support of the total athletic program, saw positive action taken in 1967 to overcome this drawback.

The "sophisticated" attitude of students reached a critical stage when the body started ignoring cheerleaders and ridiculing teams during the 1967 season.

Early in October of that year, the late Bernie A. Shively, athletic director, and Sandy Bugie, homecoming chairman, met to discuss Homecoming 1967 and to talk about lack of spirit and pride in the University in general and the football team in particular.

The outcome of this discussion was a called meeting of interested students and a representative of a public relations firm which has dealt with similar problems on another campus.

Meeting with Mr. Shively and Miss Bugie were Steve Cook, president of the Student Government; Robert Walker, chairman of the Student Activities Board; and Guy Mendes, Sports Editor of the Kentucky Kernel.

As a follow-up to that meeting, Miss Bugie and Mr. Walker were invited to kick-off Homecoming 1967 by speaking to the Lexington Quarterback-Tip Off Club. They told the group that Homecoming is a time of tradition and pride, but those two elements were missing at the University of Kentucky.

The Q-T Club accepted the challenge to participate in all Homecoming activities, as did the student body, and attendance at all the events was most pleasing. For the first time in years, students seemed willing to back the team and work with them for victory.

On a bitter cold Homecoming Day, the student body and others stayed to the very end as the Wildcats defeated West Virginia, 22-7.

The following week, Miss Bugie and Walker discussed with Dr. John W. Oswald, then UK president, different means of promoting the athletic program.

Mr. Shively felt a student athletics board was one possible approach to the problem. He met with the students that afternoon, rehashed the morning meeting and helped set up the Student Athletics Committee.

A letter to Dr. Oswald asked that the president appoint the committee, keeping in mind that the SAC was to act as a liason between the student body and the president, the athletics board, the athletic director and outside supporting groups.

The committee was also to promote spirit, pride and enthusiasm in the athletic program at all levels and to work with coaches of all sorts in recruiting and other phases. The over-all task of SAC was to create a favorable image of the non-athletic side of the University.

Another program of SAC is the newly organized Student-Faculty Quarter-back Tip-Off Club which will meet in the Grand Ballroom of the Student Center the first of each week, in season, to view game films and meet with coaches.

OUTLOOK FOR 1968

With added strength at all positions, thanks to a redshirt program just beginning to bear fruit and experience gained by last year's large sophomore crop, Coach Charlie Bradshaw definitely looks for improvement in his 1968 version of the Kentucky Wildcats.

A big obstacle, however, is a schedule which begins with Missouri, ends with Tennessee and sandwiches in between such powers as Oregon State, Ole Miss, Auburn, LSU, Georgia, Florida, West Virginia and Vanderbilt.

Bradshaw will have at his disposal some 30 lettermen, a dozen or so redshirts and some fine candidates up from the freshman squad. The over-all strength, however, will depend on return to form of key players injured during the past year.

Foremost among the latter group are Stan Forston, Roger Gann and Fred Conger. Forston, who figured to work into a starting quarterback position as a sophomore, received a knee injury opening week of fall practice last year and was kept out of spring contact work while muscles strengthened.

Gann, leading ground gainer with 245 yards in 66 carries before receiving a knee injury in the LSU game Oct. 21, also missed spring contact work along with Conger, a fine linebacker who injured a knee in the Ole Miss game Sept. 30.

During Forston's absence, sophomore David Bair worked into the starting lineup last season and led total offense with 634 yards rushing and 85 passing. He completed 66 of 165 passes (40.3%) but was prone to throw interceptions (21). Sophomore Bernie Scruggs of Atlanta edged Bair in total offense in the spring and was selected by coaches as "Most Valuable Player" in the annual Blue-White Game.

Quarterback Position Looms As Question Mark

The big questions: Will Forston be available for full or spot duty? Has Bair gained enough savvy to avoid interceptions? Will Scruggs prove too valuable to keep on the bench?

A major improvement in the backfield is the addition of Raynard Makin, big sophomore from Hobbs, N. M. who is being billed as one of the best Wildcat fullback candidates since Bill Leskovar (1949-50-51).

Makin gave excellent running and blocking performances in the spring. Jim Mitchell, held out of competition as a soph, gives good depth at fullback.

On the pass-receiving ledger, split end Phil Thompson and wingback Joe Jacobs are back after finishing one-two in receptions their sophomore year. Vic King is a solid back-up man for Thompson while Jacobs is adequately supported by Jay Reynolds, Paul Martin and Phil Forjan.

Derek Potter, who caught 19 passes for 206 yards in 1967, is back for his final year at tight end. Dave Hardt, big sophomore from Attleboro, Mass., should make Potter hustle to keep the No. 1 position.

Improvement is expected in the offensive line, although Dwight Little and Ronnie Roberts will be missed. Len Rush, who was held out of action last season after making the All-SEC sophomore team two years ago, was most improved offensive player in spring practice. Bob Freibert, a senior who didn't letter last year, should be adequate at the other tackle. Louis Wolf and Kenny Wood are experienced guards backed mostly by inexperienced reserves.

Defense is a question mark, especially in back of the line, where Conger's absence and inexperience in the group as a whole could be harmful. Conger underwent a second operation in the spring and hopefully will be ready for competition this fall. Wilbur Hackett, switching from offense, gave a boost to the linebacking corps and had a fine spring game. Marty New also indicated he is ready to live up to expectations while newcomer Frank Rucks spent lots of anxious moments adjusting to varsity action.

Cary Shahid, Tom Ferguson and Bill Duke add experience to the group while sophomores Tom Duffy, Randy Crutcher and Dave Sullivan stand in the wings.

The defensive tackle corps is seasoned and fairly deep, with George Katzenbach, Marty Joyce and Doyle King furnishing experience and know-how. Katzenbach, five-year senior, was pleasant surprise in the spring while Joyce was named most improved defensive player.

Middle of the defensive line is anchored well with fine soph Dave Roller battling junior Steve Koon for noseguard. The defensive secondary returns intact with Al Phaneuf at one side and Phil Greer the other. Al Godwin is a tough challenger up from the frosh squad. Charles Blackburn started and lettered last year at safety.

Over-all, the squad should be somewhat faster. The kicking game will be adequate, with Hardt giving punch to the punting side, along with Lyons. Bobby Jones, a non-scholarship sophomore, kicked well in spring while regular kicker David Weld continued to recover from an ankle injury.

Dicky Lyons and Dick Beard are fine tailbacks and, if Gann returns to form, the Wildcats should be richly endowed at this position.

In the final analysis, the Wildcats need a few breaks and seem to deserve such in light of the injury-plagued 1967 season.

Kentucky's Larry Seiple punted 35 times for a 42.1-yard average in 1964 to rank sixth in the nation as a sophomore. However, he was ranked only third in the Southeastern Conference behind Frank Lambert of Ole Miss, who led the nation with a 44.1 average, and Alabama's Buddy French, 42.9. Seiple kicked two 63-yarders during the season and had a 66-yard punt in 1965 when he averaged 39.8 for seventh place among the punters.

* * * *

Kentucky senior end Al Phaneuf of Montreal, Quebec, is the first Canadian ever signed to a Kentucky football grant-in-aid. He led the freshman team in receiving in 1964 with eight catches in four games for 144 yards and one TD, was held out of action in 1965, then became a starting defensive half-back in '66 and '67.

POSITION ANALYSIS

- ENDS—Strong . . . Especially on DEFENSE, where Jeff Van Note, a definite All-SEC contender will be back with Dick Palmer, a quick junior who was named SEC Lineman of the Week for performance against Tennessee in close game of 1967 . . . Don Porterfield, a big talented freshman, is capable reserve for Palmer . . . On OFFENSE, leading pass-catcher Phil Thompson (36 catches for 377 yards and two touchdowns in soph season) is back at split end and being challenged by fellow junior Vic King, who switched from linebacker at mid-season and got key catch in victory over Vanderbilt . . . Senior Derek Potter (19 catches for 206 yards in '67), a two-year starter, will be challenged by big Dave Hardt.
- TACKLES—Good depth on DEFENSE, where veteran George Katzenbach served notice in spring he is ready to live up to expectations which didn't materialize past two seasons . . . Mike Boulware, who lettered as soph and was sometime starter, will challenge . . . Marty Joyce, used on goal line and short yardage situations in soph year, was named most improved defensive player in spring and will battle junior Doyle King on right side . . . Sam Marvis and Ed Zaremba, both redshirts, and freshman Bruce Sauerbry round out crew. On OFFENSE, Len Rush was named most improved offensive player in spring . . . Started as soph and was named to All-SEC Soph team, but didn't see action last season . . . Bob Freibert, senior, has earned one letter.
- GUARDS—Some experience returning in form of Ken Wood and Louis Wolf on OFFENSE, but position still a question mark . . . Wood hurt knee in spring and has been bothered by injuries during career . . . Wolf is capable performer . . . Dave Hanson, redshirt, had good Blue-White Game filling in for Wood . . . Redshirt Marty Yerdon may also get a call here . . . DE-FENSIVELY, the position seems capable manned by freshman David Roller and junior Steve Koon . . . Joe Loftus is No. 3 man here.
- CENTERS—Good strength in redshirt sophomore Pat Eckenrod and senior Bill Cartwright . . . Eckenrod won the Blue shirt in spring, but Cartwright has two years experience going . . . Sophomore Roddy Wolfe is back-up man.
- QUARTERBACK—Definitely stronger . . . Stan Forston will be back, but strength of knee injured in opening week of 1967 fall practice still big quesquestion mark . . . Dave Bair, pressed into service during middle of soph year, has most experience, but was challenged in spring by Bernie Scruggs, frosh offense leader who was Most Valuable Player in Blue-White Game . . . Hugh Bland stands in the wings.
- FULLBACKS—Improved . . Big sophomore Raynard Makin has served notice he could be offensive fullback long sought by Coach Bradshaw . . . Got his chance in spring . . . Makin impressed with his blocking . . . Big battle should develop, with redshirt Jim Mitchell also very much in picture.
- HALFBACKS—Strongest position, with Conference scoring leader Dicky Lyons out to make his final season an All-America one . . . Backing up do-it-all Lyons at TB are Dick Beard, excellent runner, and Roger Gann, team's leading rusher before receiving knee injury in LSU game . . DEFENSIVELY, veterans Al Phaneuf and Phil Greer are back at the corners for final season . . . Big challenge should come from sophomore Al Godwin, who led Frosh pass-receivers last season as a wingback, but seems just as adept on defense . . . Senior Rod Cloyd, redshirt Al Borne and soph Jack Mathews give good depth here . . . At safety, Chuck Blackburn is back after winning starting berth in soph year . . . Big challenge is from Soph Dave Hunter, decathlon record-setter from Pine Bluff, Ark.

WINGBACKS—Sufficiently staffed, with Joe Jacobs, second leading pass-catcher (30 for 316 yards and one TD) back for second varsity season . . . Jay Reynolds, redshirt, and soph Paul Martin are ample reserves . . . Phil Forjan also fills in well.

LINEBACKERS—Question mark . . . Fred Conger, outstanding sophomore injured in second game of 1967, underwent another knee operation after missing contact work in spring practice . . . Frank Rucks is fine soph in need of experience . . . Marty New had good spring before receiving minor injury . . . Cary Shahid, letterman, is challenged by Wilbur Hackett, Frosh back converted, who did a fine job in spring . . . Don Holland is yet at rover, backed-up by newcomer Tom Duffy and junior Bill Duke . . . Tom Ferguson, junior, and sophs Donn Miller and Randy Crutcher fill out the group.

One of Kentucky's most thrilling football comebacks fell short in Auburn two years ago. Trailing 17-0 in the third period, the Wildcats rode Rick Norton's bombs to three touchdowns (passes of 76, 74, and 44 yards), but missed tries for two-point pass conversions as Auburn won, 23-18.

WILDCAT MASCOTS HAD COLORFUL NAMES

Over the years, Kentucky athletic teams have been spurred on in efforts toward victory by numerous colorfully-named wildcat mascots. Records indicate the first animal was given to the University in 1921. Named "Tom," this live Kentucky wildcat died quickly captivity and was replaced with "TNT." Other live macots followed—including "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale," and "Colonel"—only to pass from the scene due to death or being turned loose in the mountains after they did not thrive out of their native habitat. The current mascot, displayed at football and basketball games by SUKY (student pep organization), is a stuffed Kentucky wildcat obtained in 1958 from a Brooklyn taxidermist.

The most points scored in a single game by a Kentucky football team was 87 against Wilmington in 1914. The visitors failed to score on Stoll Field that day. One week later, the Wildcats defeated Maryville, 80-0. During that 5-3 season, they also defeated Earlham, 81-3.

STOLL FIELD - McLEAN STADIUM

Much confusion among the general public and the sports-writing fraternity apparently exists over a seeming duplication of titles in referring to the University of Kentucky's football setup along "Avenue of Champions."

Officially, by action of the University Board of Trustees, the general area encompassing the playing field is known as "Stoll Field." Likewise by authority of the same body, the stadium proper is known as "McLean Stadium."

Kentucky's first football field, occupying the general site of what is now an intramural field west of the stadium, was first given a name when it was dedicated on October 14, 1916, as Stoll Field in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of the University of Kentucky. Soon after the first sections of the present concrete stadium were completed on September 4, 1924, the new field site and stadium were likewise officially known as Stoll Field.

The first attraction to be held on the new Stoll Field was a football game with the University of Louisville on October 4, 1924. A gridiron clash between Kentucky and the then-powerful Centre College team was the first game played in the fully-completed stadium on November 1, 1924.

The later reference to the concrete stands as "McLean Stadium" has existed since November 1, 1924, when the stadium was officially dedicated in memory of Price Innes McLean and a bronze plaque placed in the south stands by the Class of 1925. McLean, regular center on the 1923 Kentucky football squad, died November 7, 1923, as the result of injuries sustained in the U.K. Cincinnati game played in the Queen City the afternoon before.

Major expansions of McLean Stadium in 1948, 1949 and 1959 have resulted in a current over-all seating capacity of approximately 37,500. The latest construction installed 3,655 new permanent box seats at a cost of $115,000 and increased capacity by 1,629. New-type, "iodized" lights were installed in 1961.

A complete "face lifting" was accomplished on Stoll Field during the spring of 1962 at a cost of several thousand dollars. In the interest of preparing a durable turf that will eliminate the almost annual resodding process, a complete new drainage system was installed and tons of specially mixed topsoil hauled in to replace the existing hardpan. The project also raised the crown of the playing surface for better visibility by spectators. With the special strain of Bermuda grass thriving to an extent never before seen at Kentucky, the Wildcats now entertain foes on one of the best football fields in the nation.

New practice facilities were prepared in 1960 for the football Wildcats on the University farm. As part of a $320,000 Sports Center, the varsity and freshman gridders now practice on an area equivalent to five football fields in size. Along with the new field, they have space in a large new dressing room building—making a facility recognized as one of the best in the nation.

The former practice lot and dressing room building, off Rose Street, were abandoned to make way for a new men's dormitory.

"Avenue of Champions" came into being in the spring of 1950 as an honorary title for that stretch of Euclid Avenue running between the University's $4,000,000 Memorial Coliseum and McLean Stadium. The street was officially re-named by the City of Lexington in recognition of the UK athletic teams' unprecedented success of 1950 in annexing the Southeastern Conference titles in both football and basketball and their national championships in the Sugar Bowl grid game and the NCAA cage tournament.

STOLL FIELD 'COW PASTURE' BIRTHPLACE OF DIXIE FOOTBALL

University of Kentucky's campus boasts the distinction of serving as the birthplace of Dixie football. Ironically, however, the forerunners of the present day Wildcats were not involved in the early grid contest.

The first inter-collegiate football game ever played in the South, and probably the first to take place west of the Alleghanies, came about April 9, 1880, on old Stoll Field. This gridiron, located adjacent to the present U.K. stadium, was the site of the early tilt which saw Kentucky University (now known as Transylvania College) take the measure of Centre College, 13¾ to 0. The match, which was said to resemble a combination of soccer and rugby, followed by only six years the introduction of the game of football to the United States.

University of Kentucky (then called A & M College of Kentucky) did not play its first game until a year later on the same field, which once served as the private pasture for University President James Patterson's bovine herd.

Indiana was one of only three foes faced by the University of Kentucky football team in 1918. The Wildcats beat the Hoosiers, 24-7, in the season opener at Lexington, lost to Vanderbilt, 0-33, and defeated Georgetown, 21-3, before cancelling the remainder of the schedule because of a big flu epidemic in the World War I year.

Vito (Babe) Parilli holds the Kentucky career football record of 4,446 yards for 36 games in the 1949, '50 and '51 seasons. Rick Norton is credited with the most offensive plays—812 in 30 games from 1963-65.

Jim Poynter, assistant football coach at the University of Kentucky, was a member of the Chattanooga Times' All-America blocking team in 1960.

SERIES HISTORY: Only one previous game has been played between the Kentucky Wildcats and the Missouri Tigers—that taking place in Columbia three seasons back. UK won that only meeting, 7-0, in an upset that was the forerunner of what was to be a banner season (6-4) for Charlie Bradshaw's grid force. Kentucky holds a spotless record in Big Eight rivalry—annexing a memorable, 13-7, upset of Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl and topping Kansas State, 21-8, in Lexington a decade later.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 18, 1965 (Columbia) UK 7, UM 0—The combination of quarterback Rick Norton and wingback Larry Seiple clicked for a 36-yard touchdown in the second quarter and a valiant Wildcat defense held at the goal line in the final quarter to preserve the lead in sweltering heat in Memorial Stadium. The Tigers had advanced to the three-yard line behind the fine running of Johnny Roland and plunging of Barry Lischer. On first down, third string quarterback Gary Kombrink was stopped for a half-yard gain. Iischer made one and then was hit in the middle of the line by seven Wildcats. With paydirt only feet away, Roland plunged into touchdown territory, but Kentucky's Mike McGraw came up with the ball in the end zone. An official first ruled a safety, but changed the decision to a touchback when he realized Missouri had put the ball in the end zone. A shining light on defense that day for 133 yards as the Wildcats got off to a good start enroute to a 6-4 season. as safetyman. Ray West set a Missouri school record with an 80-yard kick from his own 11 to the UK 8 on a fourth and 19 situation. Norton hit 11 of 25 passes that day for 133 yards as the Wildcats got off to a good start en route to a 6-4 season.

1968 OUTLOOK: Good . . . Quarterback problem appeared less acute with emergence of Terry McMillan, junior college product in spring practice to go with veteran Garnett Phelps. Addition of three other JUCO running backs will give Tigers considerable backfield depth that was lacking last year. Junior Jon Staggers and rookie fullback James Harrison, a 240-pound blaster, should feature Bengal attack out of new "I" formation. Defense, second nationally in '67, returns seven starters, led by Roger Wehrli—all-America aspirant—ends Elmer Benhardt and Bill Schmitt, and guard Carl Garber. Offense line leaders should be Jim Anderson at tackle, Chuck Weber at split end, and Con Rees, center. All are seniors. Missouri graduated its 1-2 ball-carriers—FB Barry Lischner and QB Gary Kombrink—but 1968 offense still could be more versatile, featuring a passing attack that has been subpar the past two years.

SERIES HISTORY: A strange sequence of upsets and near-upsets flavors the comparatively young, but colorful and intense rivalry between the Wildcats and Ole Miss. Twenty-three meetings have been held since the series started in 1944, but it was 1958 before the Rebels could claim a distinctive edge in the battling. The Wildcats got the series off to an auspicious start by winning the first game, but Mississippi took the decision in three out of the next four meetings. The fireworks really started in 1949 as Kentucky claimed a 47-0 upset in Oxford and started on the road to big-time prominence. Since then, the Kentucky game has been a "make or break" situation on the Rebels' schedule. The 1954 meeting in Memphis was a penalty-marred spectacle resulting in several conference records for violations that still stand. In 1955, UK added new fire to the "beat the favorite" series history by upending the defending SEC champs in Lexington for their only loss enroute to a second straight title and Cotton Bowl win. Ole Miss achieved a measure of revenge by winning the next eight in a row. UK extended the SEC "Team of the Decade" nine years ago by forcing a long field goal and a freakish, 51-yard quarterback sneak TD in final seconds for a 16-0 decision. In 1964 and 1965 seasons, Kentucky mustered monumental upsets over the Rebels with the frustrating benefit of freakish big plays.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 30, 1967 (Lexington) OM 26, UK 13—The Wildcats shocked and saddened after Coach Charlie Bradshaw told them of the death of their teammate Greg Page, got in the hole early as the visiting Rebels displayed an impregnable defense and a strong kicking game. Jimmy Keyes got things rolling for the Rebels by kicking a 27-yard field goal on the first Ole Miss drive. A short while later, Bruce Newell swept right end from near the 10-yard line. Near the end of the half, full-back Bobby Wade romped 62 yards for another score and, after Keyes kicked the point, the Rebels led, 17-0. The Wildcats, led by Dicky Lyons, came back magnificently in the second half, marking 80 yards in 12 plays for their first touchdown, a two-yard plunge by Lyons. Keyes kicked another field goal, from the 29, and then Ole Miss scored its final touchdown on an 18-yard pass from Bruce Newell to Mac Haik. Kentucky drove brilliantly for 74 yards in 10 plays for its final score, featuring the Lyons-Phil Thompson passing combo. Lyons carried over from the two for the score. The 26 points was the highest total racked up by Ole Miss against the Wildcats since 1963.

1968 OUTLOOK: Absent from the SEC throne room for the past few seasons, Ole Miss may find the road to complete success a rocky one again this year unless a big sophomore crop matures surprisingly fast. Coach John Vaught (winner of 163 in 221 starts during 21 campaigns with the Rebels) foresees the probability of opening with at least 10 sophs among the top 22 offense-defense starters. Despite the revamping of attack and defense, the Johnny Rebs are not figured to be any degree of "pushover." Besides admitting to substantial progress with the youngsters in spring practice, Vaught will be able to call on the SEC's top ground gainer of 1967—Steve Hindman (829 yards)—as well as many other familiar faces like tight end Hank Shows, fullback Bo Bowen and linebacker Frank Trapp. The key quarterback job likely will be in the capable hands of rookie Archie Manning.

SERIES HISTORY: Former Southeastern Conference football "dormats," Kentucky and Auburn, first got together on the gridiron at Lexington in 1934—the year after the league was organized—and played another game the following season at Montgomery before interrupting their series for nearly two decades. Each held a victory out of the early meetings and the 1954 scrap, which resumed the rivalry, resulted in a 21-14 decision in the Wildcats' favor. Tilts between the new-found powers in the years since have been fraught with frustration. With but three exceptions (1959, 1964 and 1967 the annual clashes have seen neither influence a decisive change in the trend to close games. Kentucky walked away with a memorable 14-12 upset victory in 1961 on the Tigers' home ground where no Auburn eleven had been beaten in 30 straight games. Prior to the win, UK had been able to score on the stingy Plainsmen only once in five years.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 7, 1967 (Auburn) AU 48, UK 7-The Tigers sent footballs flying in all directions in Cliff Hare Stadium and when the smoke of bombardment had cleared, the home team owned a stunning, record-shattering, 48-7 victory. One of the few highlights for the Wildcats was a 71-yard punt return for a touchdown by Dicky Lyons, giving Kentucky a short-lived 7-6 lead in the first quarter. Lyons was injured on an offensive play later in the half and did not return to action. The point total was Auburn's highest in history in a Conference game. The Tigers needed only six plays to open the scoring. Loran Carter's screen pass to wingback Mike Perillard ate up 35 yards to the UK one, where Dwight Hurston cracked over. After Lyons' touchdown, the Tigers regained possession on a Lyons fumble and Carter threw to Freddie Hyatt for a 70-yard touchdown pass. The Tigers marched 80 yards for their third TD-a 10-yard pass from Larry Blakeney to Mike Shows. Blakeney passed to Hyatt from the 22 for a touchdown with 17 seconds left in the half and the Tigers had a commanding 27-7 lead. Early in the second half, Carter took a Terry Beadles' punt and ran 41 yards for a touchdown. The Tigers then scored on an 100-yard run by Blakeney and a six-yard pass from Dwight Brizendine to Frederick.

1968 OUTLOOK: Blessed with a proven operative in the person of senior Loren Carter and more depth than any time in recent years, Auburn definitely is figuring on being a contender for the SEC title in 1968—at least until the final four games on the schedule. The windup pits the Tigers against toughies Florida, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama—which could well sink their hopes for glory of the loop championship and a bowl date. Unfortunately (for Kentucky) the two cats collide early in the season when Auburn should be rolling at much the same speed as the juggernaut that crushed UK 48-7 last season—their worst setback in the series. Coach Shug Jordan has 32 lettermen returning and likely will open with an experienced hand at every position. Quarterback Carter led the SEC last year in passing yardage (1,307) and has some fine receivers on the other end, although Freddie Wyatt will be missed. Ace punter Tommy Lunceford also departed.

1968 OUTLOOK: Coach Dee Andros, whose Beavers electrified the grid world last year with upset victories over National Champion USC and high-ranked Purdue, plus a tie with UCLA, should have a strong squad again. OSU just missed going to the Rose Bowl in 1967. Beavers lost some top men, however, and they will be hard to replace. Offensive backfield of QB Steve Preece, HB Don Summers, WB Bill Main and FB "Earthquake" Enyart remains intact. Fine kicker Mike Haggard is gone, also great punter Gary Houser. Team will be good sized, with fair speed. Need to improve passing game and good receivers needed. Defensive Guard Jon Sandstrom made the Coaches All-America first team. Enyart and Center John Didion were second team All-Americans on wire service picks. Andros was second for "Coach of Year."

SERIES HISTORY: Inaugurated with a game at Baton Rouge in 1949, the Kentucky-Louisiana State grid series is the youngest football rivalry within the Southeastern Conference. A total of 18 meetings make up the series which has been annual encounters with the exception of the 1951 season and the count now stands tipped in the Bengals' favor, 12 wins to five plus a 6-6 tie in 1953. The Billy Cannon-led Tigers, enjoying their greatest seasons during the 1957-59 period, overcame the Wildcats' 4-2-1 edge in the series by taking three straight decisions in these years. UK tied it up eight years ago with a 3-0 upset victory in Lexington and then nationally-ranked LSU survived determined bids for glory by the upstart 'Cats in the last seven seasons to notch successes that again gave it the lead. A new era in the rivalry dawned in 1962 with a pair of youthful ex-Wildcats at the grid helms of the respective schools, but the Tigers hold a seven straight game advantage.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 21, 1967 (Baton Rouge) LSU 30, UK 7—Dicky Lyons scored a record-tying, 95-yard kickoff return, but that was Kentucky's only major offensive thrust as LSU pulled away in the second half in Tiger Stadium to thrill a homecoming crowd of 66,000. Lyons' sparkling touchdown run left the Wildcats behind by only 9-7 as the second half started, but LSU went ahead, 16-7, on a sixyard run by Tommy Allen and an extra point by Hurd three minutes later. The Tigers then took command and wound up scoring on a three-yard run by Allen and a one-yard run by Kenny Newfield. Fred Haynes and Nelson Stokley alternated at quarterback as the Tigers gained 491 yards from scrimmage and established a new school record with 28 first downs. Lyons had the crowd buzzing each time he went back to handle a kick. He fielded eight of them and returned 235 yards, setting a new school record with 160 yards on kickoff returns. Harry Jones had 158 against Tennessee in 1951. The Wildcats had an all-sophomore backfield in the game during one offensive stretch.

1968 OUTLOOK: Although LSU's Tigers return 32 lettermen from the 1968 Sugar Bowl Champion football team, several key positions must be filled if Coach Charles McClendon's crew is to meet with success this fall. Chief losses include the key quarterback position where Nelson Stokley set a raft of new LSU school records last fall; All-SEC center Barry Wilson; All-America end John Garlington, and All-SEC defensive back Sammy Grezaffi. On the plus side of the ledger, enough experienced hands are available to capably man most positions. Tailback Tommy, Allen, last year's leading rusher with 534 yards gained on 106 carries, returns, along with full-back Eddie Ray, the league's leading punter with a 42.9 average. Quarterback Fred Haynes, a senior, will be the man to beat out at that position. Up front, split end Tommy Morel, the team's leading receiver with 28 receptions for 404 yards and three touchdowns, returns for his final season. If the quarterbacking comes through to give the Tigers a passing game to compliment what promises to be another good ground attack, and if the key positions on the defensive unit can be filled, the Tigers could look forward to the 1968 season with optimism.

SERIES HISTORY: Georgia and Kentucky began their rivalry on the football field with a game at Louisville on Oct. 21, 1939. The two schools met almost annually from that time until the series was broken off after the 1949 game and not resumed until 1956 with a game at Athens. During the 22 years that Wally Butts tutored the Bulldogs (1938-60), Georgia laid claim to nine victories in the 14-game series. Kentucky took the initial game in 1939 and tied the following year, but it was 1947 before it picked up another win. All told, UK shows but five victories with the last in 1965. Despite Georgia's superiority, the series generally has been interesting as reflected by the fact that Butts' four SEC championship outfits managed an average win margin of only 11 points over Kentucky. Demonstrating the frustrating turn that the series has taken in recent years is the fact that only 15 points separated the two clubs in the five meetings preceding a 21-7 loss by Kentucky four years ago. In 1965, the Wildcats smacked Georgia with its worst defeat of the campaign—a 28-10 lacing representing the most points ever scored by UK in the series.

LAST MEETING: Oct. 28, 1967 (Lexington) UG 31, UK 7-The Wildcats fought courageously, but five fumbles and five pass interceptions in addition to a seven-yard punt spelled doom as the Bulldog powerhouse took advantage of every mistake. The Wildcats held the invaders scoreless during the second quarter, after the Bulldogs had spurted to a 14-0 first quarter lead on three-yard and one-yard touchdown runs by Bruce Kemp. The visitors drove 89 yards for the first touchdown and then got a gift-a fumble by UK's Dave Bair-on the six. Kemp carried over on the third down. The Bulldogs unleashed an 85-yard mach to go ahead 21-0 near the end of the third period, with Ronnie Jenkins scoring from the one. Kentucky's touchdown came a few plays later after Terry Beadles got the drive started with a seven-yard pass to end Derek Potter. Dicky Lyons perpetuated the march by running 22 yads from punt formation on fourth down for a first down on the Georgia 35. Interference was called at the Georgia three on a pass from Lyons to Phil Thompson. On second down, Lyons took a pitchout from Bair and then lobbed a pass to Thompson who was free in the back part of the end zone. Lyons' kick made it 21-7. Georgia ended the scoring when end Gary Adams recovered a Lyons fumble in the end zone.

1968 OUTLOOK: Georgia's No. 1 problem on offense in '68 will be finding a replacement for the brilliant two-year regular, Kirby Moore. It is likely Georgia will do more passing in '68 than in the past because Coach Dooley is blessed with better passers and better receivers than in the past. Seven '67 offensive regulars are gone: E Billy Payne (to defense), T All-American Edgar Chandler, G Don (Heavy) Hayes, All-SEC; C Ronnie Tidmore; QB Kirby Moore; WB Hardy King and FB Ronnie Jenkins, All-SEC. Graduation losses have stripped the Bulldogs of its fine perimeter defense in '67—E Larry Kohn, all-SEC; E Gary Adams; LB Tommy Lawhorne; LH Mark Holmes and RH Terry Sellers. However, the Bulldogs, who led the SEC in total defense in '67, again should be rugged and will be led by two of the best in the country, All-American tackle Bill Stanfill and All-SEC safetyman Jake Scott.

SERIES HISTORY: One of the oldest rivalries on the Kentucky grid schedule, relations between the Wildcats and Mountaineers date back to Nov. 4, 1905. In that first game at Morgantown, the visiting Wildcats absorbed a 45-0 licking that stands as the biggest advantage either team has enjoyed. The series was interrupted after that contest for 34 years, not resuming until West Virginia visited Lexington for a return engagement in 1939 and absorbed a 13-6 revenge licking. The two teams met annually after that (with the exception of 1943 when UK did not field a team) until the series was broken off again following a game at Morgantown in 1947. Kentucky holds the edge in the series, 8-4-1 and held the distinction of taking the last four decisions until West Virginia stopped the string with an upset victory at Morgantown in 1964 resuming the rivalry. Kentucky's 20-point decision in 1965 was the biggest UK victory in the series since 1944 and the third largest win margin by either team—exceeded only by WVU's 45-0 win in 1905 and UK's 40-9 score in 1944.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 4, 1967 (Lexington) UK 22, WVU 7—Dicky Lyons was practically a one-man offensive show as the Wildcats won their first game of the season at homecoming on Stoll Field. The tricky tailback from Louisville scored all the Wildcat points, plunging over for three touchdowns from short yardage and kicking an extra point and a 33-yard field goal. The latter, Lyons' first field goal attempt in college, came with 27 seconds left in the first half and gave the Wildcats a 9-7 lead they protected valiantly. The Wildcat defense throttled West Virginia's attack throughout, but was especially effective in the second half, holding the Mountaineers to minus three yards rushing and 75 yards passing. The drive for victory began after West Virginia scored the first time it had the ball, marching 59 yards in seven plays. Tom Digon's pass to Ron Pobolish carried 21 yards for the lone Mountaineer score. Lyons was named Southeastern Conference Back of the Week for his sterling performance.

blend of their talent and the experience of 26 returning lettermen could provide the best season yet for third-year coach Jim Carlen. As many as 11 newcomers may be among the Mountaineers' first 22 when the season opens. West Virginia stresses a Southern-Style quickness and mobility and a good defense. While the offense sputtered and struggled for two seasons, defense kept West Virginia from being embarrassed. The team ranked ninth in total defense last year. Now offense will get some prize sophomores to work with, and the result should be interesting. Carlen's first team was 3-5-2, the only loser he was ever associated with. Playing with a hobbled Garrett Ford, last year's Mountaineers went 5-4-1 and won the Southern Conference. The outlook is for continued improvement.

SERIES HISTORY: Kentucky and the Vanderbilt Commodores first got together on the gridiron way back in 1896 at Nashville and the rivalry has been perpetuated intermittently ever since with the result that it is one of the oldest in the South from the standpoint of first meeting and number of games. History shows a record solidly in Vandy's favor-23 wins to Kentucky's 13 and four ties. Vandy registered 12 shutouts in the first 26 years of the rivalry and UK did not get into the win column until 1939. However, the postwar record shows only four setbacks. Kentucky's 27-0 homecoming rout of the Commodores in 1960 ended a three-year trend to close games, but the rivalry got back in the groove in 1961 as UK struggled strangely before taking a 16-3 decision. The 1962 contest proved almost a carbon copy of that game as UK just could not connect on all the scoring chances weak Vanderbilt offered and wound up taking only a 7-0 decision. The closeness trend was overemphasized to the degree that both clubs wound up scoreless in 1963 and only one point, (22-21) separated the pair in 1964 as Kentucky broke a four-game losing streak, but hungry UK blasted Vandy, 34-0 in 1965 and notched one of its three 1966 wins at the Commondores' expense. Vandy has not been in the winning column against UK since 1959.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 11, 1967 (Nashville) UK 12, VU 7—The Commodores, playing on a wet, muddy field before a homecoming crowd, scored the third time they got the ball, getting possession on a Dicky Lyons' fumble on the Vandy 48 and driving to paydirt in eight plays. Jim Whiteside scored from the two with 6:33 left in the opening quarter, Tom Meriwether's kick was good and the Wildcats began a chase which was to last most of the game. The Wildcats got the ball on a punt late in the third quarter and drove 70 yards in 12 plays to score on a Lyon's run around left end on fourth and inches. A two-point try failed and Vandy led, 7-6. The Wildcats went ahead on Dave Bair's keeper around right end to climax a brief scoring march with 1:92 left. The winning drive was set up by Lyons' 51-yard return of a Vandy punt. The Wildcats then marched from the 28 in eight plays. Vandy had one last chance. An 11-yard pass to Bob Goodridge produced a first down on the Commodore 40. But quarterback Gary Davis lost nine yards when he slipped in the mud. Chuck Blackburn then intercepted a Davis pass to sink the Commodores.

1968 OUTLOOK: As Coach Bill Pace enters his second season at the helm of the Commodores, signs continue to point toward a gridiron resurgence. With 26 lettermen back, the 1968 Commodores will be bigger, stronger, and quicker than the '67 edition, but depth will continue to be somewhat of a problem. There is an abundance of experience on defense, where eight starters return, including two-time All-SEC linebacker Chip Healy. On offense, the problem is to replace the great passing attack of last season. The Commodores should present a more balanced offense this fall, as soph Allan Spear and redshirt Jack Jakobik juice up the tailback slot. The quarterback job will be handled by either senior Chuck Boyd or sophomore John Miller. Junior Dave Strong, redshirt Curt Chesley, and soph Karl Weiss will make a fine corps of pass receivers.

SERIES HISTORY: The Wildcats have enjoyed things pretty much their own way over the years of the grid rivalry with Florida, posting an advantage of 12 wins to the Gators' six in the 18 contests played since the series started with a 52-0 shellacking administered to Florida in the final game of the 1917 campaign. The Sunshine Staters could manage only a pair of victories prior to 1952, but the outcomes since then have been less one-sided. In the first four years (1952-55), the two schools each produced two winning efforts-oddly enough the even year encounters (1952-1954) were Gator victories while Kentucky took its decisions on the odd years. This aspect of the strange trend of the series came to a halt with the UK success in 1956. But another unusual angle developed as a field goal with only seconds remaining played a vital part in the Wildcat wins. In 1955, a scant 23 seconds remained when Delmar Hughes, a quarterback sidelined earlier in the contest by a broken nose, came off the bench to kick a successful 20-yard field goal that gave UK a 10-7 decision. A year later, tackle Lou Michaels booted a rain-soaked ball 34 yards to put the Wildcats in front to stay. This time, only two seconds remained before the end of the first half.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 18, 1967 (Gainesville) UF 28, UK 12—The Wildcats scored first on a 21-yard pass to Dicky Lyons from David Bair in the first quarter, but the Gators weren't to be denied on a sunny afternoon in Gainesville. Led by All-SEC tailback Larry Smith, who gained 70 yards, Coach Ray Graves' squad roared back in the second quarter. Harmon Wages, relegated to starting quarterback in place of injured Larry Rentz, guided the hometown crew 59 yards in 13 plays, sending Smith over from the one on a fourth-down play. Kentucky's chance for an upset was still alive until Wages took command in the second half. His first drive ended in a punt, but the Gators scored the next two times they got the ball. Bill Gaisford's interception of a rushed Bair pass gave Florida the ball on their own 38 with 10:44 left in the third quarter. Five plays later, Wages scored from the seven. The Wildcats closed the margin to 21-12 with a 43-yard drive, climaxed by Lyons' one-yard run with 1:36 left. A 12-yard touchdown pass from Wages to Jim Yarbrough sealed the Wildcats' doow.

1968 OUTLOOK: Florida features one of the finest runners in modern SEC history (742 yards rushing as a soph, 754 as a junior) in Fullback Larry Smith. But Coach Ray Graves (55-26-2) is also blessed with two proven QB's, Larry Rentz and Jackie Eckdahl, and will continue to emphasize the passing game if he can find a replacement for graduated Richard Trapp, the school's all-time top receiver. Eckdahl may play flankerback, as Rentz did early in '67. Tight End Jim Yarbrough (6-8, 257) and guard Guy Dennis are all-star material in the offensive line. David Mann leads a rugged linebacking corps Coach Graves considers the best ever at Florida, Steve Tannen is tops among the defensive backs and Tackle Jim Hadley is toughest of the defensive linemen. Punting is good with Rentz (39.9 average in '67), but Wayne Barfield, who set a new NCAA record of 52 consecutive PAT kicks may be sorely missed.

SERIES HISTORY: Among the oldest football rivalries in the nation, the Kentucky-Tennessee series dates from a memorable encounter in Knoxville 75 years ago. In that meeting, Oct. 21, 1893, the Wildcats annexed a 60-0 victory to get the warfare off to an auspicious start in a fashion that hasn't been equalled in the many and colorful renewals of the traditional rivalry. Except for three war years (1917-18 and 1943), the two schools have met annually on the gridiron with the result that the Vols hold a distinct-but-fading edge of 35 wins to Kentucky's 19 and nine ties. Tennessee's sparkling advantage has become tarnished in the past few seasons as Kentucky started reversing the victory trend with an upsetting tie in 1952 and ate into the Vol's polished record with successes in eight of the last 15 meetings. The seniors on the 1955 UK squad became the first class in 43 years to graduate with the accomplishment of never playing in a game in which the Vols emerged victorious and they bowed out in a blaze of glory, triumphing 23-0 over the bowl-hungry Vols in the most one-sided Kentucky win since 1935. Tennessee took the 1961 meeting for its first victory in five years, but UK's courageous "Thin Thirty" fought back to win a 12-10 squeaker in 1962. The Vols caught Kentucky in a let down four seasons back to annex a 19-0 decision, but Kentucky capped a strange 1964 campaign in glorious fashion by capturing a hard-fought, 12-7 victory over the equally-inconsistent Tennesseeans. Without passing star Rick Norton, injured the week before in the Houston game, Kentucky could not cope with the Vols in '65 and dropped a 19-3 decision.

Since 1925, the two schools have stimulated their grid rivalry with a rotating trophy-a battered old beer barrel. Many shenanigans on the part of the rival student bodies have added to the color of the series. Following the 1953 UK win, disgruntled Tennessee students raided the Kentucky campus and "kegnapped" the barrel-holding it until persuaded to return it by threats of reprisal against their coon dog mascot, Smoky. In 1955, UK students visited the Tennessee campus hiding place of Smoky and "dognapped" him. UT students promptly retaliated by painting up the Kentucky campus in a surprise raid and carting away "Colonel," UK's stuffed wildcat mascot. A trade was engineered at the '55 game. For a couple of years, things were comparatively quiet. Then the stunts erupted again in 1958 as Vol students caught a guard "napping" and slipped away with UK's stuffed Wildcat. Despite promises to return it at halftime of a nationally-televised basketball game, the mascot wasn't given back until nearly four months later. A post-game sidelight to Kentucky's victory in 1959 saw a strange calm shattered by rioting UK students protesting a faculty refusal to reward the win with a traditional pre-Thanksgiving holiday. Up to 5,000 demonstrators and onlookers carried on for about four and one-half hours, marching on the UK president's home and setting a bonfire at a main intersection in downtown Lexington. The famed beer barrel, which had remained in hiding during "Tennessee week" in 1960, came up missing almost four months later under unusual circumstances. Vanderbilt students "kegnapped" the trophy in a surprise attempt to gain support of Vol fans for the Commodores' basketball team which was meeting the Wildcats in Knoxville in a playoff for an NCAA Tournament berth. The stunt backfired, however, as UK won. Embarrassed Vandy students did not return the trophy until several months later. Seven years ago, another chapter was added to the keg's history as two UK freshman players forgot to bring the barrel to the game and the Vols left town without claiming it. Kentucky sent the keg on to Knoxville later. Since then, a strange calm has surrounded the old beer barrel.

LAST MEETING: Nov. 25, 1967 (Lexington) UT 17, UK 7—Tennessee's bowlbound Vols were a heavy favorite and ranked second in the nation, but the Wildcats gave no quarter in the season finale on Stoll Field. In fact, the Wildcats won everywhere except on the scoreboard as they consistently stopped the vaunted Vol offense. In the long run, pass interceptions were the Wildcat downfall. The Vols, loser only once in eight previous games and in possession of an Orange Bowl bid, uncorked two first-quarter touchdowns for a 14-0 lead, but then spent the rest of the afternoon wondering how UK could find such spirit of resistance. The embattled Kentucky defense held Tennessee's fine running attack to an embarrassing 68 yards. Leading the Wildcats was Dick Palmer, whose sterling play as defensive end earned him SEC Lineman of the Week honors. Dicky Lyons accounted for the Wildcat points, whistling 68 yards from scrimmage to the Tennessee three on the third play of the third quarter and then scoring from the three. He then kicked the point. A field goal by Kal Gremser from the UK 13 ended Wildcat hopes for an upset.

1968 OUTLOOK: A major overhauling of Tennessee's offense will be required in 1968 to compensate for the loss of stars who sparked the Vols to three straight bowl engagements. Last year's SEC Coach of the Year, Doug Dickey, must look to new faces to advance the ball in the absence of quarterback Dewey Warren, tailback Charlie Fulton, center Bob Johnson and all but four other members of the offensive platoon. Bubba Wyche leads in the battle to succeed Warren at quarterback. Called on for pinch hit duty in '67, he was at the controls as the orange shirts upended Alabama in the key victory on their 1967 SEC championship path. Fullback Richard Pickens is a strong runner and blocker. With flanker Richmond Flowers eyeing an Olympics hurdles berth and planning to delay his senior season until 1969, Pickens is the lone backfield resturnee. But it is mainly up front where the rebuilding task appears most difficult Tennessee's defense gathered steam as the 1967 season progressed. The monster man and right halfback from that unit graduated and safety Jones has switched to quarterback, but the remaining eight stars return intact.

Kentucky and Virginia Tech football staffs have a close "kinship." Tech Athletic Director Frank O. Moseley was an assistant at UK from 1947-51; head coach Jerry D. Claiborne played and served as an assistant at UK and assistant Joe Moss also spent a year on the UK staff. Kentucky assistants Doug Shively and Bill Conde both served as assistants at Tech.

* * * *

Ralph Kercheval, now a thoroughbred horse trainer in Lexington, still holds the Kentucky, national and Southeastern Conference records for the most punts in a season. He punted 101 times in 10 games in 1933. He also holds the UK, national and SEC record of most yards (4,394) on punts during a season (1933). He set an SEC record by averaging 52.0 yards on 10 kicks against Cincinnati in 1965). He leads the individual career high for total rushing attempts (397 in 30 games), rushing yards (1,699), kickoff returns (38) and most yardage on kickoff returns (909).

Background Briefs

BAIR

DAVE BAIR Jr. QB 6-0 184 21 (7/27/47) Greensburg, Pa. Salem HS Coach Robert Williams Major: Physical Education Letters: 1

Pressed into service in mid-season last year, Bair had an experience edge over other signal-calling quarterbacks and is definitely a prime candidate for the No. 1 position . . . Led the team in total offense in 1967, completing 66 of 154 passes for 634 yards and gaining 85 yards in 46 running attempts . . . Inexperience showed, however, as he threw 21 interceptions . . . Had fine spring practice, completing 42 of 91 passes for 543 yards and four touchdowns in scrimmage . . . Also ran well, carrying 75 times for 365 yards and three touchdowns . . . Best game as UK Frosh came against Virginia Tech Frosh, when engineered two quick touchdowns to cement 37-8 Kitten victory . . . All-State and All-WPIAL at Greensburg Salem as connected on 99 of 200 passes for 1,700 yards and led Lions to consecutive seasons of 9-1 and 8-2 in final two schoolboy years . . . Also standout pitcher on baseball teams, posting 20-2 career mark.

DICK BEARD Jr. TB 6-2 207 21 (9/26/46) Altoona, Pa.

Altoona HS Coach Earl Strohm Major: Phys. Educ. Letters: 0

One of most powerful "in close" runners on squad, Beard served notice this spring that he has finally "caught up" and is ready to make a major contribution to the Wildcat effort . . . Missed competition during frosh season and 1967 spring drills while winning battle of books, but showed potential at talback by gaining 134 yards in 39 carries at tailback last season . . . Ankle injury during second game (Mississippi) kept him out of much competition . . . Comes off fine spring practice in which he gained 247 yards in 79 carries and scored eight touchdowns . . . Scored three touchdowns and gained 67 yards in 18 carries to lead the Blues over the Whites, 27-20, in the spring Blue-White Game . . . Attained All-State notice while playing halfback on both offense and defense in high school at Altoona, Pa. . . . Was a linebacker in Pennsylvania's famed Big 33 All-State game.

JERRY BENTLEY Soph. Tackle 6-2 210 19 (11/7/49) South Shore, Ky. McKell HS Coach Tom Sims Major: Education Letters: 0

An All-State tackle who helped the Bulldogs of Tom Sims to championships in 1965-66-67, Jerry is equally adept at defense or offense but apparently has settled at an offensive tackle post, backing veteran Len Rush on the left side . . . Jerry also played baseball and basketball and ran track . . . Captained the McKell team which finished 8-1 in 1966 . . . Loves to swim and ride horseback.

CHUCK BLACKBURN Jr. Safety 6-2 203 22 (7/10/46) Westerville, Ohio

Westerville HS Coach Nick Decenzo Major: Bus. Adm. Letters: 1

Switched from offensive end to safety at mid-season and held starting berth at latter position during last half of season . . . Intercepted two passes ni victory over Vanderbilt . . . Joined Kentucky team first in fall of 1965 as offensive end and defensive halfback . . . Saw most of freshman year action at end and wound up season third among Kitten pass receivers with eight catches or 65 yards and one TD . . Didn't participate in practice or games during sophomore year, but returned for good spring practice in 1967 . . . Came to UK by way of Staunton (Va.) Military Academy, where he played in 1964 following three years at Westerville High School . . . Won 10 athletic letters in three sports . . . Scotch nationality . . . Father is ceramic engineer and Chuck plans to enter business after graduation.

HUGH BLAND Soph. QB 6-2 191 19 (4/3/39) Bardstown, Ky. St. Joseph Prep Coach Fred Francis Major: Business Letters: 0

A former All-State quarterback who led St. Joseph Prep to an 8-0-3 record in 1966, Hugh had a couple excellent spring scrimmage sessions but missed the Blue-White Game because of a minor injury . . . Completed 13 of 36 passes for 147 yards and a touchdown in spring drills while playing behind junior Dave Bair and sophomore Bernie Scruggs . . . As a Frosh last season, completed six of 20 for 94 yards . . . Set total offense record of 1,900 yards at St. Joe, where he also is record holder for most passing yards (1,400) and TD passes . . . Played four years basketball, ran three years track . . . Hopes to coach.

MIKE BOULWARE Jr. Tackle 6-2 221 19 (12/14/48) Columbus, Ohio Bishop Watterson HS Coach Dick Walker Major: History Letters: 1

Saw extensive action and often was a starter at defensive tackle last season . . . Battled George Katzenbach for No. 1 spot this spring and will be a prime contender in the fall . . . Gives the Wildcats good, solid performer at that position . . . Regular quick tackle for '66 frosh and doubled on defense . . . Eager to succeed and learn through hard work . . . Led his high school team to undefeated season in final school-boy year of 1965 . . . Also played basketball, baseball and was a member of the swimming team . . . Born in Washington, D.C.

BILL CARTWRIGHT Sr. Center 6-2 198 21 (2/13/47) Princeton, Ky. Caldwell Co. HS Coach Fred Clayton Major: Agriculture Letters: 2

A two-time letterman, Cartwright will have sterling competition from big Pat Eckenrod, who came out of the "redshirt" ranks to edge the veteran as No. 1 center in spring practice . . . Bill's experience started with relief duty in 1966, continued with starting assignments last season . . . Impresses with his quickness, hitting ability and willingnes to work . . . Played every position except quarterback at Caldwell County High School, which he helped to state AA grid championship and an undefeated season in 1963 . . . Played in East-West All-Star game . . . Plays guitar and

ROD CLOYD Sr. Def. Back 6-0 186 21 (5/2/47) Lawrenceburg, Ky.

Anedson HS Coach Bob Kincer Major: Phys. Educ. Letters: 0

This Kentucky native will be counted on to provide back-up duty as a defensive cornerback . . . Hal a good spring, intercepiting one pass and recovering a fumble ... As a Kentucky freshman three years back, Rod worked chiefly as a reserve quarterback... Posted third best rushing record on team with 42 yards gained from his signal-calling position... Second among yearlings in passing as he connected four times in 12 tries for 50 yards... His high school team posted a 9-1 second record when he was senior and team captain . . . Honorable mention All-State . . . Plans career as coach and teacher.

FRED CONGER Jr. LB 6-0 218 19 (11/2/48) Feasterville, Pa.

Neshaminy HS Coach John Petercuskie Major: Phys. Educ. Letters: 1

Plagued by injuries since coming to Wildcatland, this fine linebacker missed spring practice because of a knee operation which hadn't healed sufficiently . . . Played well against Indiana in 1967 opening game, received injury in second game. (Ole Miss) . . . Broke wrist in pre-season practice as a freshman two seasons ago and missed action in the Kittens' first three games . . . Returned to duty in season finale against Vanderbilt Frosh and proved one of game's standouts in interior line . . . Operated as a guard with the freshmen, but easily switched to linebacker . . . A hard hitter with lots of speed, quick reactions, alertness and dedication . . . A former star guard for the Neshaminy Redskins, he played both defense and offense in the 1965 Big 33 Game . . . Plans to play pro football or coach.

RANDY CRUTCHER Soph. LB 6-0 185 19 (4/5/49) Johnson City, Tenn. Science Hill HS Coach Kermit Tipton Major: Biology Letters: 0

Improving with experience, Randy has the potential to contribute much to the Wildcat effort in future years . . . As an All-Conference player at Johnson City, helped lead the Toppers to Big 7 Conference championships in 1965-66 . . . Best year was 9-0-1 in '65 . . . Played end in high school, winning three letters . . . Lists skiing and tennis as hobbies . . . Born in Birmingham, Ala . . . Father is pharmacist.

RICK DEASON Soph. End 6-3 202 19 (3/5/49) Hopkinsville, Ky.
Hopkinsville HS Coach Fleming Thornton Major: Education Letters: 0
Wildcat coaches feel this former All-State guard-end-tackle has qualifications for greatness if he matures with experience and applies himself wholeheartedly . . . Caught two passes at end for UK Frosh last season . . . Seems settled now on defense . . . Was key factor in Hopkinsville winning streak of 27 straight games, including state championships in '65 and '66 . . . Lettered in track, swimming and wrestling . . . Loves to sketch, hunt and participate in water sports . . . Won art award in high school.

DENNIS DRINNEN Sr. Tackle 6-1 225 21 (9/6/46) Loveland, Ohio
Loveland HS Coach Stanley McCoy Major: Commerce Letters: 1
Scheduled to see a lot of action at the vital offensive tackle position, Dennis Scheduled to see a lot of action at the vital offensive tackle position, Dennis is a seasoned veteran back for his final year as a Wildcat . . . Played in Ohio North-South Come. South Game.

ORIGIN OF "WILDCATS" NICKNAME

Kentucky's athletic teams are known to sports fans as the Wildcats. This first and only nickname borne by University varsities had its origin in 1909 in a speech made by Commandant Corbusier, then head of the military department of old State College. Speaking to a chapel audience of students on the showing of the Kentucky football team in defeating Illinois six to two, the Commandant declared "they fought like Wildcats." The tag was popularized by word of mouth and by the press with the result that it has since become synonymous with all major Kentucky athletic teams.

While the name is old in origin, no claim is made regarding precedence over similar nicknames boasted by Northwestern, Villanova and about 10 other major athletic teams.

An alumnus in 1947 presented a live Kentucky Wildcat to SUKY, student pep organization. Named "The Colonel," the cat served as a live mascot for UK teams until his death in 1955. The current mascot is a stuffed wildcat obtained from a Brooklyn taxidermist just before the 1958 football season and named "Tucky." Plans under way to get a new live cat.

PAGES OUT OF THE HISTORY BOOK

Kentucky's first inter-collegiate football game of record occurred Nov. 12, 1881, when Kentucky A & M College took the measure of Kentucky University (later Transylvania) by a score of 71/4 to 1 . . . One of the most illustrious pages in UK football history covers the perfect-season exploits of the 1898 team which became the first and only Kentucky grid outfit to go undefeated, untied and unscored on . . . Spring practice was held for the first time in UK grid history in 1926 by Coach Fred Murphy . . . Coach E. R. Sweetland experimented with a new formation at the start of the 1910 season that saw all four backfield men lined up side by side instead of in the conventional pattern with the quarterback directly behind center . . . One of the greatest individual performances ever seen on the nation's gridirons took place in Lexington in 1914 as Kentucky quarterback Jim Park, later active in politics, passed for five TD's and personally scored five more in an 81-3 rout of Earlham . . . Only All-America Babe Parilli has come close to surpassing the school record as he twice connected for five scoring aerials in the 1951 season . . . The "Kentucky Babe" still holds the all-time SEC record for TD passes thrown in a single season, accounting for 23 in regular season play in his junior year of 1950. He connected for one more as the Wildcats upset Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, 1951 . . . Kentucky copped the Southeastern Conference football championship for the first and only time in history in the 1950 season.

Kentucky's longest touchdown play, rushing, was a 91-yard run by Harry Jones against George Washington in 1951. The longest touchdown, passing, was Kentucky played its first night football game, possibly the first in the South, against Swanee in Lexington Oct. 4, 1930. The Wildcats shut out the opposition with a 37-0 victory.

Dicky Lyons, in his first varsity season (1966) for the University of Kentucky, appeared in every category of individual offensive and defensive statistics, quite a novelty in this day of two-platoon football.

- INDIVIDUALS -

SCORING-UK's Dicky Lyons (TB) led SEC with 73 points (11 TD's, 4 PAT kicks, 1 FG) . . . Second man in team scoring, End Phil Thompson with 12 points also returns.

RUSHING-QB-TB Lyons ranked 8th in conference with 473 yards on 138 carries . . . Next two rushing leaders on team-TB Roger Gann (3.7 average) and FB Dick Beard (3.4)-also are back.

PASSING—QB Dave Bair, who returns this season, finished 7th among league passers despite tendency to throw interceptions (21 in 10 games) . . . Posted 634 yards in 66 completions in 164 tries—a 40.2 percent clip . . . Lost from 1967 unit was QB Terry Beadles (29 completions for 303 yards) . . . Back is Lyons, who connected for 195 yards while doubling at quarterback.

RECEIVING—Two of Kentucky's receivers—E Phil Thompson and WB Joe Jacobs ranked among top 10 in Conference and both return . . . Thompson was 5th with 36 catches for 377 yards and Jacobs 8th in 30 for 316 . . . The next three team pass catchers also are back.

KICKING-Lyons ranked 6th among SEC punters with an average of 37.7 for 46 kicks.

RETURNS-Lyons was at his best in this category-ranking second in the league on both kickoff returns (474 yards on 18 returns) and punt returning (390 yards on 24).

VICTORY KICKS

A game unique in University of Kentucky football history occurred in 1900. Kentucky beat the Louisville YMCA, 12-6, without running a single offensive play during the entire game. Kicking on first down every time they gained possession of the ball, Kentucky made its scores through the recovery of opponent fumbles in the end zone.

UK TOSSES FIRST PASS IN '06

The first forward pass ever attempted by a Kentucky football team was thrown in a game played at Lexington Oct. 13, 1906—the year that the forward pass was legalized by national rules—against Eminence Athletic Club. Accounts of this early contest do not mention whether the pass was completed or the name of the thrower. Earl Stone was listed as quarterback of Coach J. White Guyn's Kentuckians.

Kentucky's two recipients of the Birmingham Quarterback Club's award for Most Valuable Player in the Southeastern Conference were tackles. Bob Gain won the honor in 1949, Lou Michaels in 1956. Gain and fellow tackle Walt Yowarski also earned positions on the all-time Sugar Bowl team for their performance in a 13-7 Wildcat victory over Oklahoma in the 1951 renewal of the classic.

* * * *

Jim Park of Lexington scored five touchdowns and passed for five more as Kentucky beat Earlham 81-3 in 1914. Babe Parilli passed for five touchdowns on two different occasions in 1950 and Bob Davis scored five times twice in his career, once in 1936 and once in 1937, but no player has beat Park's record of doing both in the same game.

* * * *

Ralph Kercheval, who holds all the Kentucky punting records, set the South-eastern Conference record when he averaged 52.0 yards on 10 kicks against Cincinnati in 1933. His longest, however, was a 78-yarder against Georgia Tech in the same year.

* * * *

Kentucky's football Wildcats finished sixth in the nation in pass defense in 1956 with a 47.9 yards per game average. A last-minute, desperation 83-yard scoring pass by Mississippi State, however, cost the Wildcats the game and the national pass defense title. Without that one play, their average would have been 39.6 yards per game, well below the 42.0 (by Florida) that led the nation.

Bob Davis of Kentucky scored five touchdowns and gained 267 yards rushing in a game against Washington & Lee in 1937.

* * * *

Kentucky football records show the first forward pass attempted by the Wildcats was thrown Oct. 13, 1906, against the Eminence Athletic Club. However, it is not known whether the pass was completed or who threw it.

* * * *

Bobby Cravens, the halfback who held Kentucky's football rushing record until it was broken in 1964 by Rodger Bird, did not score a touchdown until the 17th game of his career, against Memphis State in 1955.

* * * *

The University of Kentucky played the first football games by any of the present Southeastern Conference members in 1881, splitting two games with a school then known as Kentucky University and losing one to Kentucky A&M.

* * * *

Al Bruno of Kentucky and Al Lary of Alabama set the Southeastern Conference record for touchdowns by a receiver with 10 apiece in 1950. Bruno also set the record of four in one game in that year.

University of Kentucky's football press box on Stoll Field rates as one of the best in the country from the standpoint of both working facilities and service to writers—so says the Football Writers Association of America. The national organization in 1958 added Kentucky to an exclusive list of schools that had been cited in both categories. Up to that time, only 67 institutions had won the award for press box services and 45 for facilities since the FWA started officially honoring the nation's best press boxes and sports publicity departments (who are responsible for service) several years ago.

TOTAL 695 GAMES (120 Opponents)			373	283	39

* Record includes four games (2-2) with Mississippi A & M, which later became known as Mississippi State.

 Record includes 19 games (13-5-1) with Kentucky University, which became known as Transylvania in 1909.

* * * *

The most shutouts by a Kentucky football team in one season were the nine whitewashes by the 1907 Wildcats. Oddly enough, the team's only loss that year was a 40-0 beating at the hands of Vanderbilt.

* * * *

In 675 football games since 1881, Kentucky has shut out its opponents 215 times, or nearly one-third of the time. The Wildcats have won 368 games during the same period.

Kentucky's football teams since 1881 have won 371 games, lost 375 and tied 39, for a winning percentage of .570.

Footnote A — Although numerical scoring had not yet been introduced in Rugby football, either here or in Great Britain, when Kentucky and Transylvania (then known as Kentucky University) played their series in 1881, persons in charge of the games obviously had arrived at some sort of agreement assigning numerical values to the various scoring plays. Records never existed and men who played in the games are now deceased. All we can do is accept the scores printed in the newspapers—and surmise that a touchdown perhaps counted ¼ point and that a goal or an end-kick (a punt into the modern end zone) counted 1. That seems logical, since in the ratio scoring of that day, a touchdown was worth one-quarter of a goal. The end-kick, a British heritage, undubtedly was introduced because all realized that green players would score few goals, if any.

Footnote B — The football rules took no official position on the score of a forfeited game until 1908 when it was pegged at 1-0 to make it different from any other score possible in the game. By common consent, forfeited games prior to that were entered into the records as victories by 6-0 for the offended team—everywhere, that is, except in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, predecessor of the Southern Conference and the Southeastern Conference. In the S. I. A. A. the 6-0 practice was followed unless the offended team had a greater number of points. In that case, the offended team won by the greater score to nothing. Thus, Kentucky's forfeiture to Central University in 1900 is 6-0, since Kentucky led by 11-0 at the time. Kentucky led Cumberland by 12-11 in 1905 when the Tennesseans forfeited. The Blue and White, under S. I. A. A. rules, gets credit for a 12-0 victory.
