*On the train
Wednesday - night*

My dearest One

Each succeeding hour and each mile we go, takes me most sadly from your dear self - But for the assurance of the loved ones you have with you, who will love you and care for you so well, leaving you would have been almost too much to bear - But leaving you as I did with your loved ones I felt no shadow would cross your horizon -

And 'tis a good thing you are not with me, for I am making a mean fun-
