My dear Sweet Lady of mine:

How wonderful it is to think that within two weeks I will be with you and very soon afterwards claim you as my own. How little the pleasure I now seem to compound with the joys that are soon to come. Now that the great day is set the time has already begun to go by more quickly.

Your letter of Tuesday came as usual just as I was starting in the day and it made me so much more ready to go forward and gave me a most cheerful and look.

It is certainly a shame about that telegram. But you are a great manager. I see from what you did when you finally got the union. You have so much to do and ought not to do a thing but look sweet as usual and ditch other people. While I think of it, when do you want me to come for I want to help you and your mother if I can? If you don't specially need me I will likely get there Wednesday night.
