

Kentucky Kernel

Vol. XXII, No. 67

Established 1894

University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky

Independent since 1971

Monday, November 14, 1988

UK preparing to open campus branch in downtown library

Dr. David Roselle

STEVE SANDERS/Kentucky Staff

UK President David Roselle and Ronald Steensland were on hand last Friday to announce the opening of a campus branch downtown.

By MEREDITH LITTLE
Staff Writer

UK announced plans Friday to open a campus branch in downtown Lexington geared toward working adults.

"What we'll be doing is taking the University of Kentucky downtown," said UK Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs Donald Sands.

The University of Kentucky Downtown Center will be a technological education program focusing on computer education and training for working adults and businesses.

"It is an extension of the University, which provides access and convenience for people to take classes in the downtown area," said John Smith, who has been helping to develop the program the last few years.

The center is expected to open in March 1989 in the Lexington Central Public Library.

Smith said that although many universities have downtown centers, UK's center will be the first to be located in a public library.

"It will be the first program like this in the nation," she said.

"The Downtown Center came out of a program that we've been offering in the downtown Lexington area for the last five years, called 'Downtown at Noon,'" Smith said.

The Downtown at Noon program was started in 1983 to offer classes in the old Public Library at noon to working adults in the downtown area.

The program has been attended by 10,000 people in the last five years and has won two national awards. The program's success encouraged the library to have UK open a campus extension in its new library at Main and Limestone.

The University was invited to set up a center in the library using their classroom space: three professional computer classrooms, three seminar rooms and a lecture-style room, in addition to the 100-seat auditorium and other multi-purpose rooms," Smith said.

The Downtown Center will be linked by computer to the main campus systems and staffed by UK administrative staff. The classes will be taught by UK faculty and instructors from University Extension.

Adults will comprise 31 percent of UK's total student body and the center is geared for this segment, according to a press release on the center.

Non-credit professional development classes and seminars will be highlighted at the center along with specific classes for area businesses and industries. But UK credit classes also will be offered along with custom-designed training programs.

"I think there will be a wide variety of courses," Sands said.

"It will provide whatever is needed... classes that will help people work toward degrees, that will help people work for business, that will help them learn to use of computers and word processors, specific job-related programs."

Sands said that credit courses would be

See CAMPUS Page 7

Burch expected to be named interim athletics director

Associated Press

A longtime University of Kentucky administrative official considered to be a close ally to UK President David Roselle will be named interim athletics director, according to a published report.

Roselle could name lawyer Joe Burch to replace Athletics Director Cliff Hagan as early as next week. The Courier-Journal reported in Saturday's editions.

Burch, a UK official for 22 years, is one of the school's investigators in an ongoing joint inquiry with the National Collegiate Athletic Association into allegations of wrongdoing in Kentucky's basketball program.

The move is seen as a part of Roselle's plan to restructure the administration of the athletics program in the wake of the investigation.

One NCAA allegation charges that the athletic department has operated with a "lack of appropriate institutional control" over the program.

Burch said Friday he could not comment on whether he would be appointed to succeed Hagan.

Roselle is expected to offer Hagan, a former two-time All-America center who has been athletics director since 1975, another position at UK.

Hagan would not comment Friday on reports of Roselle's plans. But he suggested

Thursday that he was being made a scapegoat for problems within the basketball program.

Meanwhile, former Gov. A.B. "Happy" Chandler, a UK trustee and member of the Athletic Association board of directors, and former UK basketball player E.P. "Pete" Grigshy promised Friday to fight any move to fire Hagan.

Chandler and Grigshy said it is basketball Coach Eddie Sutton who should take responsibility for any wrongdoing linked to the program.

"If Sutton is guilty of these alleged infractions, let him pay," said Grigshy, an associate superintendent of Floyd County schools. "Mr. Hagan shouldn't be a scapegoat. He's done too good a job down there."

"There are thousands of people in Kentucky who are going to fight for Cliff Hagan, if they have to," Chandler said.

Roselle named Burch, 50, to UK's legal staff in August 1987. Burch was UK's dean of students from 1975 to 1987 and held several other temporary posts through which he won a reputation as an effective administrative trouble-shooter.

He is expected to oversee the $13.7 million UK athletics program until a permanent director is chosen through a national search.

See BUCH Page 7

Student government meeting a success, SGA members say

By ELIZABETH WADE
Assignment Editor

More than 40 students from southern universities met with the UK Student Government Association to discuss campus issues that students across the country face at a regional conference this weekend hosted by UK.

The UK SGA held the 11th annual American Association of University Students southern regional conference for the first time this weekend.

The conference, which was the largest AAUS conference ever according to UK SGA representatives, began Friday and ended Sunday. It was held at the UK Student Center and the Lexington Harley Hotel.

"We submitted to it before but this was the first time we got it," said Kim Fowler, a senator-at-large and regional chairman.

"It was excellent, it was the biggest regional conference ever held," said Leah McCain, SGA vice president. "The largest one before had 20 people."

SGA senators also attended the conference's various workshops and drew participants to and from the hotel, McCain said.

Workshops covered issues such as teacher evaluations, campus safety, minority

See CONFERENCE Page 7

United Way expected to pass funding goal, officials say

By SARA WOODWARD
Contributing Writer

Officials with the UK United Way fund drive, which began in August and has been a success for the past 15 years, are expecting to exceed this year's goal of $37,800 by the time the campaign ends on Nov. 22.

The drive has already collected $34,000, which is 99 percent of the goal, according to Ralph Derickson, co-chairman of the UK United Way Cabinet.

"We are again very pleased with the generosity of the faculty, staff, and students," Derickson said. "It is a good feeling to see the UK community share in the broad concern for people who need relief."

"It is a real tribute that the UK employees contributed more than ever before," said Kris Muller, UK campaign co-chair. "It shows a wonderful concern for the Lexington community by a faculty, staff, students and retirees."

Several departmental records already have been broken this year. The UK Hospital and Medical Center have combined their efforts to raise $140,000. One of their events was Octoberfest, an outdoor carnival that sold handmade crafts and baked goods.

The retired UK faculty and staff also has passed last year's mark by 25 percent, raising $12,500, Derickson said.

The student body also has become involved by sponsoring several events. The Boyd Hall Haunted House, held on Oct. 31, raised $1,000. Other events, including the Men of Haggan revue and a flag football tournament, are just winding up.

Derickson said that most of the money has been collected by the students, but is not yet counted in the total.

"The money the students collected may put UK over their goal," he said.

Fred Hull, general campaign manager for United Way of the Bluegrass, is optimistic about the eight-county campaign.

RANDAL WILLIAMSON/Kentucky Staff

DOWN AND OUT: UK Tight End Charlie Darrington is tackled by Florida defender, Bill Lang, in this weekends game at Commonwealth Stadium. UK lost to the Florida Gators 24-19.

Bowl hopes dashed in UK's loss

By BARRY REEVES
Staff Writer

Florida took UK out of the bowl picture on Saturday, and possibly out of a winning season, with a 24-19 victory in Knoxville on Saturday.

"We are still 5-3," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "If we win, we will still have a winning season."

UK seemed to have the game in hand when it recovered a Florida fumble snap at their own five-yard line at the end of the third quarter to stop the Gator threat. But UK defensive back Albert Burks was called for defensive holding on the wide receiver, in what is said to have been a break call by the referee.

"I don't see how it was called, but it was," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said.

"To me, the play might even have been over when the call was made."

have a slim chance at a bowl," UK defensive back Chris Tolbert said.

UK also still has a chance for a winning season when it takes on Tennessee in Knoxville on Saturday.

"We are still 5-3," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said. "If we win, we will still have a winning season."

UK seemed to have the game in hand when it recovered a Florida fumble snap at their own five-yard line at the end of the third quarter to stop the Gator threat. But UK defensive back Albert Burks was called for defensive holding on the wide receiver, in what is said to have been a break call by the referee.

"I don't see how it was called, but it was," UK coach Jerry Claiborne said.

"To me, the play might even have been over when the call was made."

"I thought it was unusual," UK defensive lineman Vic Adams said. "I don't really understand the call."

The referees would not come over to the UK bench and let the staff know what the call was or who it was on.

"They wouldn't give me any explanation, they wouldn't come over to the sideline," Claiborne said. "It is a dead ball foul, then it should be our ball."

"I asked the ref who (the penalty) was on and he couldn't give us the number," Adams said. "That is very strange."

The Gators were allowed to keep the ball and scored on the next play when tailback Emmitt Smith took the ball in for a touchdown from the five-yard line.

See BIRTH Page 4

Correction

Due to a reporter's error, a story in Friday's Kernel about voter registration mix-ups misquoted Bill Maxwell, sponsor of the College Republicans.

Maxwell said that his organization, the College Republicans, did not purposely lose any registration forms.

TODAY'S WEATHER
Contributing Writer

65°-70°

Today: Sunny
Tomorrow: Mostly cloudy

SPORTS

Wildcats will host Sweden in tonight's exhibition game.

See Page 5

DIVERSIONS

'Child's Play' marks debut of devilish doll.

See Page 8

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Information on this calendar of events is collected and coordinated through the Student Center Activities Office, 203/204 Student Center, University of Kentucky. The information is published as supplied by the on-campus sponsor, with editorial privilege allowed for the sake of clarity of expression. For student organizations or University departments to make entries on the calendar, a Campus Calendar form must be filled out and returned to the Student Activities Office.
DEADLINE: Forms will be accepted no later than the Monday preceding the publication date.

14 MONDAY

- Academics (through 11/23): Advance Registration for 1989 Spring Semester
- Political: "Chandler, racism, reaction: what happened? who's next?"; Free, Student Center 206; 7:30 p.m., Call 233-9223

15 TUESDAY

- Movies: UK Japanese Programs present "The Hidden Fortress"; $4 adults, $2 child; Worsham Theatre, 6:30 p.m., Call 272-4262
- Concerts: University Series: The Cleveland Quartet, $13 public, $8 student and senior citizen; Concert Hall, 8 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Other: UK Fencing Club — Beginners welcome; equipment provided; Free, Alumni Gym; 7:30-9:30 p.m., Call 8-5564
- Other: Euche Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636

special events

- Academics — 11/14-11/23: Advance Registration for 1989 Spring Semester
- Other — 11/15: UK Fencing Club — Beginners welcome; equipment provided; Free, Alumni Gym; 7:30-9:30 p.m., Call 8-5564
- Other — 11/15: Euche Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/16: Table Tennis Doubles Tournament; $1 each; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/17: Alpha Gamma Rho/Alpha Delta Pi Greek Night at the Oscars; $2 Memorial Hall; 7 p.m., Call 8-6707
- Other — 11/17: Art at Lunch; Free; UK Art Museum; Noon; Call 7-5716
- Other — 11/17: Nine Ball Bank Tournament; $2; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/18: Speed Chess Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/19: Backgammon Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 3 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/20: Scrabble Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 3 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other — 11/20: UK Wheel Cats vs. Knoxville; Section Center; Noon; Call 7-3928
- Political — 11/14: "Chandler, racism, reaction, what happened? who's next?"; Free; Student Center 206; 7:30 p.m., Call 233-9223
- Political — 11/21: "After the election: where do we go from here?"; Free; Student Center Room 206; 7:30 p.m., Call 233-9223

weekly events

- ### MONDAY
- Other: Judo Club Meeting; Free; Alumni Gym; 5:30 p.m., Call 233-3923
 - Other: Cycling Club Ride; Free; Section — front; 2:30 p.m., Call 233-1438
 - Other: "Cornerstone Music Practice"; no talent required — just energy; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 7:30 p.m., Call 254-3714
 - Other: UK Parents Networking (babysitting co-op)
 - Religious: Worship Service — a casual time of singing and worship; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 9 p.m., Call 254-3714
- ### TUESDAY
- Other: Campus Aerobics; Free; K-House; 4:30-5:30 p.m., Call 254-7766
 - Other: Aerobics; Free; Newman Center Room 3; 5:50-7 p.m., Call 266-6920
 - Other: Game Night; Free; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Other: SAB Indoor Recreation Committee Meeting; Free; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Other: Bridge Lessons and Games; Free; Student Center Game Room; 7:30-10 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Other: UK Fencing Club — beginners welcome; equipment provided; Free; Alumni Gym; 7:30-9:30 p.m., Call 8-5564
 - Other: UK Cycling Club Meeting; Free; Section Center 207; 8 p.m., Call 233-7438
 - Religious: Tuesday Night Together — Baptist Student Union; Free; 420 Columbia Avenue; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-3989
 - Religious: Genesis II; Free; Newman Center; 7:9 p.m., Call 272-2485
 - Religious: Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA); Free; Newman Center; 7:30 p.m., Call 255-8566

16 WEDNESDAY

- Movies (through 11/19): Singin' in the Rain; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Movies (through 11/19): The Harder They Come; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 10 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Concerts: Piano Department Recital; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Seminars: Mr. David Frank, UK, "Effect of v-sis Transformation on Platelet-derived Growth Factor Receptor"; MN 463; 4 p.m., Call 7-7060
- Other: Table Tennis Doubles Tournament; $1 each; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Religious: Catholic Traditions; Free; Newman Center Room 10; 7:30 p.m.
- Meetings: Webb Archaeological Society, speaker Pat Guiggins; Free; Lafferty Hall; 7:30 p.m.; Call 252-3942

17 THURSDAY

- Theatre (through 11/19): Joseph and His Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber; $4, $5; Guignol Theatre; FA; 8 p.m., Call 7-1385
- Other: Alpha Gamma Rho/Alpha Delta Pi Greek Night at the Oscars; $2; Memorial Hall; 7 p.m., Call 8-6707
- Other: Art at Lunch; Free; UK Art Museum; Noon; Call 7-5716
- Lectures: Evidence and Inference: The Challenge of the New Historicism; Free; POT 18th Floor Board Room; 3:30 p.m., Call 7-2901
- Workshops: "Conflict Resolution"; Free; Student Center Room 203; 2:4 p.m., Call 7-1109
- Seminars: Black Political Empowerment and the Public Policy Agenda; Free; Student Center Third Floor Ballroom; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-1772
- Other: Nine Ball Bank Tournament; $2; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Intramurals: Intramural Turkey Trot (3.1-mile run) sign-up by 11/16; Call 7-3928
- Religious: Student Round Table; Free; Newman Center Room 1; 8 p.m.

arts/movies

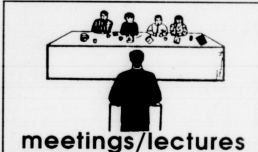

- Concerts — 11/15: University Series: The Cleveland Quartet; $13 public, $8 student and senior citizen; Concert Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts — 11/16: Piano Department Recital; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Concerts — 11/18: Lexington Philharmonic; Richard Ilman, trumpet; $12.50, $15, $17.50, $20; Concert Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts — 11/19: Michelle Gingras/Guest Clarinet Recital; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Concerts — 11/19: Tim Lake in Concert (benefits hearing aids for the needy); $5 students, $8 other; Memorial Hall; 8 p.m., Call 252-5917
- Concerts — 11/20: Center Sunday Series: The Central Kentucky Youth Symphony Orchestra; Free; SCA Concert Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts — 11/20: Kentucky Wind Quintet; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Concerts — 11/20: Center Sunday Series: The Kentucky Wind Quintet; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts — 11/20: Faculty Recital: The Concord Trio/Daniel Mason; Violin; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Exhibits — 11/18: Gallery Series: "The Fabulous Fiddle"; Free; Peal Gallery; Noon; Call 7-8634
- Exhibits — 11/21-11/20: SAB Visual Arts committee presents Timothy Bird Exhibit; Free; Rosdall Gallery; 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Movies — 11/15: UK Japanese Programs present "The Hidden Fortress"; $4 adults, $2 child; Worsham Theatre; 6:30 p.m., Call 272-4262
- Movies — 11/16-11/19: Singin' in the Rain; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Movies — 11/16-11/19: The Harder They Come; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 10 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Movies — 11/20: "Singin' in the Rain"; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 7 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Theatre — 11/17-11/19: Joseph and His Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber; $4, $5; Guignol Theatre; FA; 8 p.m., Call 7-1385

18 FRIDAY

- Exhibits: Gallery Series: "The Fabulous Fiddle"; Free; Peal Gallery; Noon; Call 7-8634
- Seminars: Arthur Hubbard, University of Cincinnati, "Vibrational Spectroscopy of Molecules Attached to Metal Surfaces"; Free; CP 137; 4 p.m., Call 7-7060
- Concerts: Lexington Philharmonic; Richard Ilman, trumpet; $12.50, $15, $17.50, $20; Concert Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Sports: UK Cool Cats Ice Hockey vs. Tennessee; Away; 8 p.m., Call 265-4873
- Seminars: Black Political Empowerment and the Public Policy Agenda; Free; Student Center 3rd Floor Ballroom; 9-11:45; Call 7-1772
- Other: Speed Chess Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m.; Call 7-6636

19 SATURDAY

- Sports: Wildcat Football vs. Tennessee; Away; 1:00 p.m., Call 7-3838
- Sports: UK Cool Cats Ice Hockey vs. Tennessee; Away; 8 p.m., Call 265-4873
- Concerts: Michelle Gingras/Guest Clarinet Recital; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Sports: Wildcat Basketball vs. Duke; Away; Call 7-3838
- Sports: UK Men's and Women's Swim Team vs. Bowling Green University; Free with UKID; Home; Call 7-3838
- Sports: UK Soccer Team; SEC Tournament; Call 266-7447
- Other: Backgammon Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 1 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Sports: UK Wheel Cats vs. Knoxville; Section Center; 7 p.m., Call 7-3928
- Concerts: Tim Lake in Concert (benefits hearing aids for the needy); $5 students, $8 other; Memorial Hall; 8 p.m., Call 252-5917

meetings/lectures

- Lectures — 11/17: Evidence and Inference: The Challenge of the New Historicism; Free; POT 18th Floor Board Room; 3:30 p.m., Call 7-2901
- Meetings — 11/16: Webb Archaeological Society, speaker Pat Guiggins; Free; Lafferty Hall; 7:30 p.m., Call 252-3942
- Seminars — 11/16: Mr. David Frank, UK, "Effect of v-sis Transformation on Platelet-derived Growth Factor Receptor"; MN 463; 4 p.m., Call 7-7060
- Seminar — 11/17: Black Political Empowerment and the Public Policy Agenda; Free; Student Center 3rd Floor Ballroom; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-1772
- Seminars — 11/18: Arthur Hubbard, University of Cincinnati, "Vibrational Spectroscopy of Molecules Attached to Metal Surfaces"; Free; CP 137; 4 p.m., Call 7-7060
- Seminar — 11/18: Black Political Empowerment and the Public Policy Agenda; Free; Student Center 3rd Floor Ballroom; 9-11:45; Call 7-1772
- Workshops — 11/17: "Conflict Resolution"; Free; Student Center Room 203; 2:4 p.m., Call 7-1109

20 SUNDAY

- Movies: Singin' in the Rain; $1.95; Worsham Theatre; 7 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Concerts: Center Sunday Series: The Central Kentucky Youth Symphony Orchestra; Free; SCA Concert Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts: Kentucky Wind Quintet; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4900
- Concerts: Center Sunday Series: The Kentucky Wind Quintet; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 3 p.m., Call 7-4929
- Concerts: Faculty Recital: The Concord Trio/Daniel Mason; Violin; Free; SCA Recital Hall; 8 p.m.; Call 7-4929
- Other: Scrabble Tournament; S1; Student Center Game Room; 3 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other: UK Wheel Cats vs. Knoxville; Section Center; Noon; Call 7-3928

21 MONDAY

- Sports (through 11/23): Women's golf UCLA Desert Classic; California; Call 7-3838
- Exhibits (through 11/30): SAB Visual Arts committee presents Timothy Bird Exhibit; Free; Rosdall Gallery; 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Call 7-8867
- Sports: UK Cross Country NCAA National Championship; Ames, IA; Call 7-3838
- Political: "After the election: where do we go from here?"; Free; Student Center Room 206; 7:30 p.m., Call 233-9223

looking ahead

- 11/24-11/26 — Academics: Thanksgiving Holiday — Academic Holiday
- 11/25-11/26 — Sports: Lady Kat Basketball UKIT; Alaska; Call 7-3838
- 11/25 — Sports: Wildcat Basketball — Great Alaskan Shootout; Alaska; Call 7-3838

WEDNESDAY

- Other: Judo Club Meeting; Free; Alumni Gym; 5:30 p.m., Call 233-3923
- Other: AD&D; Free; Student Center 205; 7 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other: Call of Clubs/Role Playing; Free; Student Center 205; 9-11:30 p.m.; Student Center Game Room; Call 7-6636
- Other: Table Tennis Meeting; Free; Section Squash Room; 7:30-10 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Aerobics; Free; Newman Center; 5:50-7 p.m., Call 266-6920
- Religious: Student Faith Sharing; Free; Newman Center; 9 p.m., Call 255-8566
- Religious: Holy Eucharist; Free; St. Augustine's Chapel; 5:30 p.m., Call 254-3726

THURSDAY

- Other: Campus Aerobics; Free; K-House; 4:30-5:30 p.m., Call 254-7766
- Other: Chess Club; Free; Student Center Game Room; 7:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other: "Cornerstone Drama Practice"; no talent required — just interest; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 8:30 p.m., Call 254-3714
- Other: AD&D; Free; Student Center 205; 7:10-10:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
- Other: UK Fencing Club — beginners welcome; equipment provided; Free; Alumni Gym; 7:30-9:30 p.m., Call 8-5564
- Other: Aerobics; Free; Newman Center; 5:50-7 p.m., Call 266-6920
- Religious: "Decision Point — Bible Study"; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 8 p.m., Call 254-3714
- Religious: D & L Grill — Devotion and Lunch; S1; 429 Columbia Avenue; 12:15 p.m., Call 7-3989
- Religious: Christian Student Fellowship Bible Study; Free; 502 Columbia Avenue; 7 p.m., Call 233-0313

FRIDAY

- Other: UK Cycling Club Ride; Free; Section — front; 2:30 p.m., Call 233-7438
- ### SATURDAY
- Other: AD&D; Violents; Free; Student Center Game Room; 10 a.m.-3 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Other: Star Trek Role Playing; Free; Student Center 205; 7:10-11:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Other: Twilight 2000/Role Playing; Free; Student Center 205; 7:10-11:30 p.m., Call 7-6636
 - Religious: Sunday Obligation Masses; Free; Newman Center; 6 p.m., Call 255-8566

SUNDAY

- Religious: Collegiate Worship Service; Free; 502 Columbia Avenue; 11 a.m., Call 233-0313
- Religious: Sunday Obligation Masses; Free; Newman Center; 8, 10, 11:30, 5 and 9:30; Call 255-8566
- Religious: Holy Eucharist; Free; St. Augustine's Chapel; 10:30 a.m., Call 254-3726
- Religious: Holy Eucharist; Free; St. Augustine's Chapel; 5:30 p.m., Call 254-3726

MONDAY

- Other: Judo Club Meeting; Free; Alumni Gym; 5:30 p.m., Call 233-3923
- Other: "Cornerstone Music Practice"; no talent required — just energy; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 7:30 p.m., Call 254-3714
- Other: UK Cycling Club Ride; Free; Section — front; 2:30 p.m., Call 233-7438
- Other: UK Parents Networking (babysitting co-op)
- Religious: Worship Service — a casual time of singing and worship; Free; 508 Columbia Avenue; 9 p.m., Call 254-3714

sports

- Intramurals — 11/17: Intramural Turkey Trot (3.1-mile run) sign-up by 11/16; Call 7-3928
- Sports — 11/18: UK Cool Cats Ice Hockey vs. Tennessee; Away; 8 p.m., Call 265-4873
- Sports — 11/19: Wildcat Football vs. Tennessee; Away; 1:00 p.m., Call 7-3838
- Sports — 11/19: UK Cool Cats Ice Hockey vs. Tennessee; Away; 8 p.m., Call 265-4873
- Sports — 11/19: Wildcat Basketball vs. Duke; Away; Call 7-3838
- Sports — 11/19: UK Men's and Women's Swim Team vs. Bowling Green University; Free with UKID; Home; Call 7-3838
- Sports — 11/19: UK Soccer Team; SEC Tournament; Call 266-7447
- Sports — 11/19: UK Wheel Cats vs. Knoxville; Section Center; 7 p.m., Call 7-3928
- Sports — 11/21-11/23: Women's golf UCLA Desert Classic; California; Call 7-3838
- Sports — 11/21: UK Cross Country NCAA National Championship; Ames, IA; Call 7-3838

What is Wilkinson's lottery plan?

By MARK R. CHELLEGRIN
Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky. — It appears Gov. Wallace Wilkinson has once again drawn a line in the dirt and dared the General Assembly to cross it.

Or has he?
It all depends on the interpretation of the governor's call last week for a special session of the legislature to enact a lottery.

Some lawmakers took it as just another ultimatum from the governor, who has made a habit of telling the legislature what he thinks it ought to do and then fuming when they decline.
Others read into it an opportunity

ANALYSIS

As the governor's legislative liaison, Tom Dorman, noted, there should be no surprise in those subjects. They have been the central part of Wilkinson's promises for the lottery, which he began promoting it during his gubernatorial campaign.

But the proclamation also includes the following passage among items to be considered:

"The allocation of the net proceeds of the lottery equally among a one-time bonus for Vietnam-era veterans, early childhood programs and programs for the elderly until June 30, 1990.

As the governor's legislative liaison, Tom Dorman, noted, there should be no surprise in those subjects. They have been the central part of Wilkinson's promises for the lottery, which he began promoting it during his gubernatorial campaign.

But the proclamation also includes the following passage among items to be considered:

"The allocation of the net proceeds of the lottery equally among a one-time bonus for Vietnam-era veterans, early childhood programs and programs for the elderly until June 30, 1990.

Wilkinson sets special session, state legislators are upset

By MARK R. CHELLEGRIN
Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Gov. Wallace Wilkinson issued the formal summons for legislators on Friday to attend the special session on Nov. 28, but many lawmakers were unhappy with the guidelines established by the call.

Many legislators complained that Wilkinson's call leaves little room to negotiate how proceeds of a lottery should be spent. Many said the result may be that no specific appropriation is made.

Under Kentucky law, it is up to the governor to set the subjects that can be considered during a special session. The call issued Friday includes enactment of legislation to implement a lottery and other legislation to establish a one-time bonus for Vietnam veterans, early childhood development programs and programs for the elderly.

On the subject of appropriating money from a lottery, the call specifies that the only alternatives are to divide proceeds received until June 30, 1990 equally among the three programs mentioned previously.

Wilkinson's call specifies that in subsequent years, the appropriation would be divided equally between early childhood programs and programs for the elderly.

"It looks like to me it would be up to me to do it," Rep. Kenny Loper, D-Bardonia, said that left little room for compromise.

"I don't like to see it would be up to me to do it," Rep. Kenny Loper, D-Bardonia, said that left little room for compromise.

Tom Dorman, Wilkinson's legislative liaison, said if legislators choose not to go along with Wilkinson, there is only one alternative.

"If they don't appropriate funds for programs under those categories, I would assume they don't meet the standards of the call and therefore (the money) would accumulate, would be unappropriated," Dorman said.

Budget Director Kevin Hable said there is room for compromise.

"I think the intent is to permit legislative involvement in identifying specific programs within the areas of early childhood development and senior citizens programs," Hable said. "I think we have plenty of time between now and the special session... to identify programs that merit funding."

Rep. Joe Clarke, D-Danville, chairman of the House Appropriations and Revenue Committee, said he agreed that if proceeds of a lottery were not appropriated, they would become surplus to the General Fund.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

KEA worried about lottery

Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky. — The head of a leading state teachers' group said he is worried that lottery proceeds earmarked for education will overshadow the need for even more money.

Lottery money used for any education program may cause people to "mistake that as adequate funding for public education," said David Allen, president of the Kentucky Education Association.

Even if the lottery makes double the $70 million a year estimated by Gov. Wallace Wilkinson — an estimate many legislators think is too high — and all the money goes to schools, Allen said "it would come nowhere close" to meeting the financial needs of education in Kentucky.

The association staked out its position as legislators and interest groups pondered Wilkinson's Friday proclamation calling a special session of the General Assembly, beginning Nov. 28, to establish the lottery.

The proclamation limits use of the profits to the three programs Wilkinson advocated in his campaign for governor and the constitutional amendment allowing a lottery: early-childhood education and development, programs for the elderly and a one-time bonus for Vietnam-era veterans.

Supporters of earmarking say it would boost lottery income by giving people more reasons to buy tickets. Many lotteries advertising mentions where the profits go, and Wilkinson's ad campaign for the amendment said a Kentucky lottery would help the state's schools, elderly people and Vietnam veterans.

Many legislators want to delay allocation of lottery money until the regular session beginning in January 1990 — when they would not be bound by the governor's restrictions — because lottery income is difficult to estimate.

Though earmarking lottery profits for the veterans' bonus appears to have considerable legislative support, many lawmakers are skeptical of dedicating the money to other specific programs.

On the subject of appropriating money from a lottery, the call specifies that the only alternatives are to divide proceeds received until June 30, 1990 equally among the three programs mentioned previously.

Wilkinson's call specifies that in subsequent years, the appropriation would be divided equally between early childhood programs and programs for the elderly.

"It looks like to me it would be up to me to do it," Rep. Kenny Loper, D-Bardonia, said that left little room for compromise.

Tom Dorman, Wilkinson's legislative liaison, said if legislators choose not to go along with Wilkinson, there is only one alternative.

"If they don't appropriate funds for programs under those categories, I would assume they don't meet the standards of the call and therefore (the money) would accumulate, would be unappropriated," Dorman said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Clarke said he believes that governors have no authority to spend surplus funds unless necessary to meet an emergency.

It would be up to the 1990 regular session of the General Assembly to decide how to spend the lottery proceeds, "unless they tried to use some gimmick" by declaring an emergency, Clarke said.

Panel set for another Lundergan case

Associated Press

FRANKFORT, Ky. — An Election Day note written on official legislative stationery and sent to poll workers by state Rep. Jerry Lundergan will be discussed at the next meeting of the General Assembly's ethics panel, according to the panel chairman.

Sen. Ed O'Daniel, D-Springfield, said Thursday that spreading the note on stationery of the House of Representatives was inappropriate and defied several ethics panel opinions.

Discussion of the note will be in addition to further consideration of the controversy over Lundergan's catering company, which reportedly catered a major Commerce Cabinet event without seeking a bid on the contract. State law prohibits legislators from holding no-bid contracts with the state on contracts over $25.

Lundergan, a Lexington Democrat, won reelection to his 7th

District seat Tuesday. He sent Election Day poll workers boxes of food with a letter on House stationery, thanking them for their civic participation.

Fayette County Clerk Donald Blevins said Thursday that the Lundergan letter and food boxes will be a part of his election report to the Fayette County grand jury, a report required by Kentucky's new vote-fraud law.

In response to a legislator's inquiry, a 1981 ethics panel opinion advised that it was inappropriate for legislators to use official legislative stationery in their campaigns.

O'Daniel said the ethics opinion has been included in a packet of opinions and information given to legislators at the beginning of every legislative session since.

Lundergan was running against two other candidates who had joined the race after the Lundy's catering controversy arose.

SPRING SCHEDULE UPDATE

Added Courses

AGR 557 001	2	0	TR	1100AM	1150AM	FR 201 007	3	0	MWF	0100PM	0150PM	JOU 501 001	3	0	F	1200PM	0230PM
EN 1160AM	3	0	W	1160AM	1250PM	HIS 104 011	3	0	TR	0200PM	0315PM	JOU 510 401	3	0	T	0500PM	0730PM
EN 695 001	3	0	TR	1200PM	1250PM	HIS 109 044	3	0	TR	0200PM	0315PM	JOU 520 001	3	0	W	0800PM	0830PM
FCR 611 001	3	0	TBA	0400PM	0450PM	MA 109 006	3	0	MWF	1200PM	1250PM	JOU 597 001	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM
WU 781 001	3	0	W			MA 109 025	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	TEL 101 003	3	0	TR	0930AM	1045AM
MT 823 001	3	0	TBA			MA 112 001	2	0	TR	1100AM	1150AM	TEL 101 003	3	0	TR
PT 866 002	1	0	TBA			MA 115 001	4	0	TBA			TEL 299 001	1	0	TBA
TR 866 002	1	0	TBA			MA 121 020	3	0	TR	0200PM	0250PM	TEL 299 001	1	0	TBA
ARC 825 401	3	0	MW	0700PM	0815PM	MA 123 025	3	0	TR	0330PM	0445PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
TR 866 002	1	0	TBA	0600PM	0715PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3	0	TR	1230PM	0145PM	EDP 605 001	3	0	TBA
AS 114 002	1	0	R	1230PM	0120PM	MA 162 013	3</

SPORTS

Tom Spalding
Sports Editor

Bitter loss for Cats

Continued from Page 1

Instead of UK leading 6-0 with the ball, the Gators took the lead 7-6.

"No question about it, it was a big momentum change," Claiborne said.

"I think we should have kept our spirits up a little better," UK defensive lineman Oliver Barnett said.

The play that set up the Florida drive was a fumbled punt return by Tolbert at the UK 27-yard line. Tolbert misjudged the punt, it hit his facemask and rolled away into the arms of Florida's Greg Baldwin.

"I just misjudged it. The wind got a hold of it and it died on me," Tolbert said. "It was a tough ball to catch, but I can't afford to let it happen again."

UK took the opening kickoff and marched to the Florida 31-yard line before the drive stalled. UK kicker Ken Willis was called in and proceeded to boot a career long 48-yard field goal into a 12 mph wind to give the Cats a 3-0 lead with 8:40 left in the first quarter.

On Florida's first possession, the Gators were driving when Oliver Barnett caused a fumble twice in the same play. Barnett hit Florida quarterback Herbert Perry causing a fumble. Perry recovered his fumble and kept running. Barnett hit Perry again, causing a second fumble which was recovered by UK defensive lineman Donnie Gardner at the Florida 38.

The UK offense took advantage of the turnover by moving the ball to the 18-yard line. Then Willis struck again, this time with a 35-yard field goal, to give the Cats a 6-0 lead.

Both teams traded possession up to the half. But the last play of the half was almost a record breaker.

Willis was able to talk Claiborne into allowing him to attempt a 66-yard field goal with 4 seconds left in the half. The kick was long enough but was barely wide to the right.

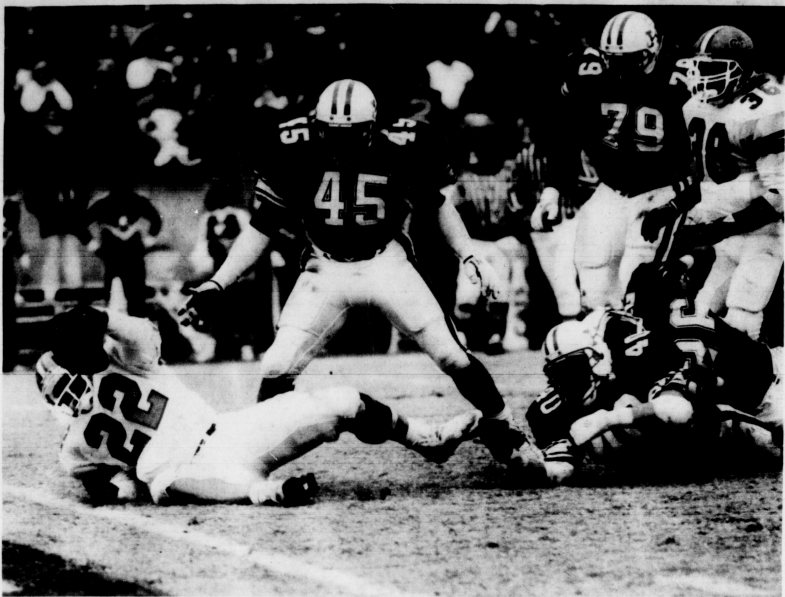

"I told coach Claiborne I could get the distance. I had the wind," Willis said. "I thought I hit it well. It just went wide to the right."

Florida took advantage of the wind in the third quarter and put up 17 straight points to jump out to a 24-6 lead. Florida was able to take advantage of great field position and UK mistakes.

UK's dormant offense then awoke by scoring two touchdowns in the last two minutes of the game, but it was too little too late.

UK had a chance to win the game when it got the ball back with 24 seconds left, but had no timeouts and 92 yards to go. Fohr threw an interception on the next play that ended UK's chances.

"We are real proud of the way our team came back," Claiborne said. "But they had some second and third-string defensive players in the game."

Florida's Emmitt Smith rushes for a Gator touchdown against UK this weekend at Commonwealth Stadium in the Cats 24-19 loss.

The Wildcats play at the University of Tennessee Saturday in the team's last game of the season.

Florida State upsets ninth-ranked Cats

By BRIAN JENT
Assistant Sports Editor

The Florida State Seminoles entered the finals of the Wildcat Classic Saturday night not expecting to beat the ninth-ranked UK volleyball team.

But after their 3-1 match victory over the Wildcats, Florida State coach Cecile Reynaud thought it was a combination of her team playing good and the Wildcats having an off night.

"This is the biggest win that we had," Florida State coach Cecile Reynaud said. "I wasn't expecting to win. We were talking about it before the game: 'We will have to be playing well and Kentucky will have to have an off night.'"

UK coach Kathy DeBoer and the players agreed with Reynaud in that the loss was due to the Wildcats inconsistency and the Seminoles play.

"When you don't come in ready to take things going to get beat," DeBoer said. "We've been beat three or four times this year in these situations."

"We were bad, and they played great. They knew where to hurt us and where to go with the ball," she added.

UK senior Lisa Bokovoy said "Florida State just played great. We just seemed tensed up. When you tense up, you just tend to start playing separate parts of the court and make more errors than you normally do."

The Wildcats committed 32 attack errors, nine service errors and eight reception errors for the entire match.

Besides the UK help, Reynaud also thought that her Gator club served well and played better defense than usual.

"I thought we served pretty tough, and I thought Lisa Bokovoy hit some balls into the net," Reynaud said. "Their timing wasn't quite there for them (Kentucky) which helped us. I thought we played well. Defense, obviously, is what really kept us in the game, which I don't think we are known for."

Florida State, which bettered its record to 24-7, thought they played as a total team as well as the UK players.

"Everybody gave a 100 percent," said Florida State sophomore Maggie Philgence, who led Florida with 20 kills. "We knew we were coming in as underdogs because they are a nationally ranked team."

"They played well together," UK Kim Thompson said. "It was a total team effort for them."

The Florida players thought that they were on top of their game because of their enthusiasm.

"It is very rare that we stay up all night," said Florida State sophomore Gabrielle Reece. "Usually when we win a game, we go back down and with a team like Kentucky there is no way you can do that."

The victory for Florida State will propel them into the Metro Tournament which will begin Nov. 18.

"It will boost our confidence going into the Metro next week," Reece said.

Lady runners capure NCAA district meet

Staff reports

The UK women's cross country team captured its sixth consecutive meet Saturday, winning the NCAA District III Meet by two points at Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina.

UK, which is ranked No. 1 in the nation, finished with 60 points while their closest competitor, North Carolina State, finished with a score of 62.

The Wildcats were led by junior Lisa Breiding, who finished third, and junior Valerie McGovern who finished fourth. Sophomore Kristi Orr was not far behind with her seventh-place showing.

The Wildcats were without Denise Bushallow and Donna Combs because of injuries, but both are expected to be back to compete in the NCAA Championship.

Meanwhile, the men's team also qualified to go to the NCAA Championship Meet with their third-place showing.

UK, which is ranked 13th nationally, finished with a score of 97 to second-place Clemson (80) and first-place winner Tennessee (75).

Student Wellness Party Planning Meeting

Tuesday, Nov. 15, 5 p.m.
Room 231 New Student Center

All SWell, BACCHUS, SADD members, new members and peer educators encouraged to attend

The Kentucky Kernel — Good Reading

NEED EXTRA MONEY?

CALL THE HONEY BAKED HAM COMPANY

We are currently hiring full- and part-time holiday positions.

- $4.25 STARTING WAGE
- CASH INCENTIVE PROGRAM
- DAY & EVENING HOURS AVAILABLE
- WE WILL WORK AROUND YOUR SCHEDULE
- COUNTER SALES AND FOOD PREPARATIONS POSITIONS AVAILABLE

CALL YOUR NEAREST HONEYBAKED FOR MORE DETAILS.

CLEVELAND
Parma — 351-1377
Mayfield — 461-1140
Rocky River — 356-0440
Maple Heights — 663-3450
Mentor — 255-3848

CINCINNATI
Kenwood — 891-9411
Northgate — 385-7440

COLUMBUS
McNaughten — 863-9963
Morse Rd. — 267-1016
Kenny Centre — 459-5350
West Broad Plaza — 275-3200

DAYTON Centerville — 439-0707
LOUISVILLE 426-0344
LEXINGTON 278-5090

A104 Physical Education

My first time tutoring was a night to remember. My student was something called Bone Crusher Reed, a.k.a. Billy Jo, defensive tackle for the football team.

I had the shock of my life when he answered his dorm room door. He was about six foot seven...in diameter. And when he shook my hand, I thought I'd never get it back.

So there I was, face-to-knee with the big man on campus, wondering how I was going to relate American Literature to The Hulk.

But then he pulled out a can of Orange Cappuccino. I was shocked! Could it be that this tough jock liked its delicate taste? And when Bone Crusher brought out the bone china, I was beyond belief.

Reading the expression on my face, he said, "What can I say? I like it. The Café Français is pretty good, too." Well, who's going to argue, I thought. As we sipped our Orange Cappuccino, I discovered that Billy Jo loves reading novels; his only problem was poetry. So I gave him tips on reading Emily Dickinson, and he gave me a copy of Ann Beattie's "Falling in Place."

All I could think was, Dad's never going to believe this!

General Foods' International Coffees. Share the feeling.

© 1988 General Foods Corp.

UK battles Sweden in exhibition game

Staff reports

The UK men's basketball team will play host to Sweden tonight in Rupp Arena in an exhibition contest starting at 7:30.

The Sweden game will give the Wildcats their first opportunity to test their skills against outside opposition following their intrasquad scrimmages.

The Cats will be without the services of point guard Sean Sutton, who broke his right cheekbone during UK's Blue-White game at Louisville on Nov. 1.

Three new walk-ons have been added to the Kentucky roster: Jeff Gimman, Chris Jones and Anthony Mathis.

The team from Ostersund, Sweden is making its debut trip to the United States.

It is considered the best rebounding team that Sweden has. The Swedish team has won the elite division, considered the premier league in all of Sweden, last year.

UK will be coming off its final Blue/White scrimmage held in Owensboro last Friday night.

Sophomore center LeRon Ellis scored 29 points to lead the Blue team to a 59-56 victory over the Whites.

Ellis made 13 of 23 shots and had seven rebounds.

Hesgie Hanson, a sophomore forward, added 14 points for the Blue and guard John Pelphey had 10.

Leading the Whites was freshman Chris Mills with 15 points. Mike Scott added 14 and Deron Feldhaus and Richie Farmer scored 12 apiece.

Only 3,012 fans attended the scrimmage in the 5,500-seat Sports Center in Owensboro.

"I thought we played better tonight, but we're still careless in some of our passes and some of our shots," Coach Eddie Sutton said.

Sutton had instituted a five-pass rule, meaning each squad had to pass the ball five times before shooting when on offense.

"They didn't always do it, but we wanted to shorten the length of the game, and you do that on offense," Sutton said.

ABOUT THE GAME

Match-up: Kentucky vs. Sweden.

When: 7:30 p.m.

Where: Rupp Arena.

Radio: Live on the Kentucky Network, WLW-700 AM, with Cawood Ledford and Ralph Hacker.

Television: None.

Leron Ellis pulls down a rebound in UK's Blue-White scrimmage game at Rupp Arena last week.

Wildcat golf team captures second at South Carolina

By WARREN HAVENS
Staff Writer

The UK men's golf team, first after 36 holes, finished second among 18 teams after Sunday's third and final round of the College of Charleston Invitational at Kiawah, S.C.

Kentucky senior Steve Flesch, a two-time Kentucky slate amateur champion, placed fourth among the 90 individuals. Fellow UK senior Olen Grant, who led the large and talented field by one stroke following Saturday's second round, slipped to eighth.

Grant, a native of nearby Charleston, S.C., was pleasantly surprised to be leading the 90-member field near his native Charleston on Saturday.

"I expected to play well but I didn't expect to be leading," Grant said. "It feels pretty good."

The long-hitting righthander said Saturday's strong wind gusts made the 6,700 yard course difficult to play.

"It was playing more like 7,000 (yards)," Grant said.

The Wildcats' first 12-over 300 Sunday for a three-round total of 896, 13 shots back of winner North Carolina. The Cats were tied with the Tar Heels atop the leader board heading into the final round. However, the Tar Heels fired a sizzling one-under 287 to outdistance UK by 13 strokes.

Flesch shot par 72 at Osprey Point Golf Course for a 54-hole total of two-over 218. Grant, who stood at even par 144 after 36 holes, shot seven-over 79 Sunday and carded a 227 for the event.

UK's five some this weekend is an untired lineup for UK coach Tom Simpson. Young and old make up the successful combination as seniors Grant and Flesch are aiming for success with three freshmen: Robbie Davis, Tim LeRoy and Alan Horwitz.

UK got solid play from these three newcomers at Kiawah. Horwitz (229), Florida native Davis (230) and LeRoy (233), a Lexington product, all placed in the top third of the field for Kentucky.

Simpson and his charges will now take a rest from tournament action for the winter before resuming competitive play early in 1989.

Katfish reap individual honors, lose to Purdue in opener

Staff reports

The University of Kentucky's men's and women's swim teams recorded their first loss of the season to Purdue.

The men lost 122-128 while the women lost by a score of 112-131.

Even though UK lost to Purdue, there were some positive notes as some of the women swimmers reaped first-place individual honors.

Senior Bartley Pratt won the 1,000-yard freestyle for the women with a time of 10:23.57. Pratt also displayed her winning style by taking the 500 yard freestyle in a time of 5:06.85.

Sophomore Kellie Moran won the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 24.70 seconds. She was followed by UK teammate Margaret Sumrall who finished third with a time of 25.15 seconds.

Sumrall also captured first place in the 100 yard freestyle with a time of 55.04 seconds.

Junior Peggy Sheets placed first for UK in the women's 200 yard breaststroke. She was followed by teammate Mary Jane Brown who placed second and Paula Gailey who placed third.

Diver Keri Connor placed first for UK in the women's three meter dive with a score of 278.41.

UK men's team also finished with some top scores for the afternoon.

The men's 400-meter medley relay, composed of Carter Gauthier, Mike McIntire, Gary Hope and P.J. Priesler, captured the first-place honors with a time of 3:29.

They were followed in victorious style in the men's 400 freestyle relay team of Chris Budvitis, Brad Kabe, Ed Weckaert and Thomas Rock swam to victory with a time of 3:10.38.

Kock also placed first in the 100 freestyle with a time of 3:10.3 and Budvitis was the victor in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 21.65.

UK diver Jim Hill placed first in the three-meter diving with a score of 201.55.

The UK Katfish will next host the University of Florida Nov. 19 at 2 p.m. in the Memorial Natatorium.

Hockey
The Cool Cats ice hockey team lost to Cincinnati 10-5 Saturday night at the Lexington Ice Center.

The loss dropped the Cool Cats to 3-2-1 on the season.

The Cats will travel to Tennessee for a weekend series with the Volunteers. The games will be played on Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m.

1988-89 Oswald Research and Creativity Program

The office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs announces the opening of the 1988-89 Oswald Research and Creativity Program. All current undergraduate students in any college or school of the Lexington Campus and Medical Sector are invited to submit papers and other projects in the following categories of the competition:

- (1) Physical and Engineering Sciences
- (2) Biological Sciences
- (3) Humanities: Creative
- (4) Humanities: Critical/Research
- (5) Social Sciences
- (6) Fine Arts (music, videotape, painting, sculpture, film, etc.)
- (7) Design (architecture, landscape architecture, interior design, etc.)

Awards in each category are $250.00 for first prize and $100.00 for second prize. Entries will be judged on originality, clarity of expression, scholarly or artistic contribution, and the validity, scope and depth of the project or investigation. There are no restrictions on the length or size of the projects, but an applicant may submit no more than one entry in each of the seven competition categories. No entry will be judged in more than one category.

The registration deadline for the competition is January 18, 1989. Entries (completed projects) must be submitted no later than February 20, 1989 in order to be evaluated by the judges.

Prizes and certificates (including those for Honorable Mention, which carry no cash award) will be presented at the Awards Program in April.

Application forms, official rules, and further information about the competition may be obtained in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, 207 Administration Building.

Contact Source: Anne Coke
Office of Academic Affairs
207 Administration Building
CAMPUS 0032
(606) 257-2605

Sign up NOW for STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, COLORADO

$356
With Bus Transportation
January 1-8

$50 Holds your spot

Come to Room 203 Old Student Center or call 257-8867 for more info!!!!

BLUE-ORANGE BATTLE FOR BLOOD!

GIVE BLOOD IF IT'S BLUE!
LET'S OUTPREW TENNESSEE!

MON-FRI, NOV. 14-18

CENTRAL KENTUCKY BLOOD CENTER

CKBC and Medic Regional Blood Center in Knoxville, TN have challenged each other. The Center collecting the most donations between Nov. 14 and 18 will be declared the winner at the UK-UT game on Saturday. All donors will be eligible for gifts donated by Wildcat Country in the Turfand Mall.

Drawings held Nov. 21.

Donate at 330 Waller Ave. Monday-Friday or at Patterson Office Tower on Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Interested In A Health Profession?

We have a healthy career plan for you!

Have a minimum of 2 years of college?

With a minimum of 2 years of college, you may qualify for admission into Northwestern's Doctor of Chiropractic degree program. Northwestern is a fully accredited professional college located on a beautiful 25 acre campus in the suburbs of Minneapolis-St. Paul. In addition to the main campus, 4 out-patient clinics are located throughout the Twin Cities. At Northwestern, you'll receive a challenging and rewarding education in one of the best academic programs in the nation.

Today is the time to consider a health profession that guarantees a lifetime of satisfaction. Your future as a Doctor is closer than you may have thought possible... at Northwestern.

Call toll free or write now for our FREE informational packet which includes a financial aid brochure describing our outstanding financial aid program.

NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE OF CHIROPRACTIC
2501 West 84th Street
Bloomington, MN 55431
1-800-888-4777

$25,000 in scholarships available to KY residents.

DIVERSIONS

Rob Seng
Arts Editor

UB40 blends influences in bringing reggae to the masses

By MARY ANNE O'CALLAGHAN
Associated Press

"We've never done anything by design. It's as if a bunch of angels are saying, 'Yeah, that's okay—go ahead and do it,'" says James Brown, the drummer for the melodic reggae band UB40.

Those angels have good instincts. UB40 is the largest selling reggae act in music. The band comes from Birmingham, England. Most of the members were on the dole when they got together. They borrowed their name from the unemployment form used in Great Britain.

That was eight years and nine top 10 albums ago. They've had 18 top 20 singles. Their latest record, UB40, on A & M Records, was number 54 on the Cashbox magazine Nov. 5 pop chart.

The release of the first single from the album has been delayed because "Red Red Wine," a song from their 1984 album, Labour of Love, entered the pop chart. It hit No. 1 on Oct. 15 after a disc jockey in Phoenix, Ariz., began playing the song and other radio stations picked it up.

That also didn't happen by design.

What has made this integrated English band so successful at reggae?

"We are geared to a pop audience," says Brown. "We listened to reggae and to pop. Some of that has drifted into our music. We've learned to adapt for the public something we're still learning. There could be some criticism that we aren't pure reggae but we are as pure as we can be. We are using all of our musical influences."

That blend of musical influences was responsible for their collaboration with Chrissie Hynde of the Pretenders. They first worked together on a reworking of the old Sonny and Cher tune, "I've Got You Babe," which became a hit in 1985. The single from a new album is another collaboration, "Breakfast in Bed."

Brown said, "Breakfast in Bed" is actually an old reggae tune by someone called Lauren Tenby. The song might be older than that. It's the only remake on the album.

I think this record is more upbeat in tempo and beat. The others were a bit more contemplative. In this one we aren't contemplating our navel."

Except for the single, the songs on the album were written by the entire band.

"We all sit around with our instruments and play until we hear something we like. We work on that bit until everybody has a piece of it. Then Ali Campbell does the lyrics. We only have as many words as are absolutely necessary. Ali goes through the songs and picks out what suits the music.

That's his territory and none of us would know how to do it.

I guess it would be easier if we had set people who wrote the songs but that's not the way we operate," Brown says.

The eight-man band also doesn't have one dominant voice that's heard above the others. "We don't have a front man simply because we don't have one," Brown says. "It wasn't by choice, really, although we do periodically kill ourselves that we were very clever to not have one."

The lack of a front man has enabled the group to live a somewhat normal life in their native Birmingham, although some members of the band, like Astro and Ali Campbell, are easily identifiable.

"At first I was bothered that I wasn't recognized because other people in the band were," Brown laughs. "But now I'm not. I'm a bit embarrassed by all that. I mean, what do you say to someone after they have said, 'Aren't you so and so?'"

"I'm not sitting around talking about my job unless I'm doing interviews. It's my job. I enjoy it but it's not the answer to life."

In addition to the music, the band—collectively and individually—has branched out to do other projects. That includes a film, "UB40 CCCP," an account of the band's tour of the Soviet Union. As a band, they have attempted to help other artists gain recognition. The cover for the new album is the work of Steve Masterson.

"His work is about anonymity and we thought that the whole collection would make an interesting cover. We fell across him accidentally," Brown says.

The previous album, Labour of Love, was a collection of old reggae songs that had influenced the band.

The band's interest in reggae came from the surroundings in Birmingham.

"Reggae chose me, really," Brown says. "I lived in an area that had a high immigration population—a lot of West Indians. They were always around and so was their music."

When UB40 formed, none of the members had any formal music training. They learned fast and well.

"I've only begun to feel comfortable now playing in front of an audience. Until a while ago, I felt like I was doing everything by the seat of my pants," Brown says.

He laughs. "Maybe the panic gave us an extra edge. It was hell to be up there not knowing how to play. Now, this tour we're playing Madison Square Garden, I think that's something to be proud of."

Brown thinks reggae will branch out and become mainstream.

"The problem with reggae is twofold: There are the bands that are popular in the dance halls and have a quick turnaround. Then there are the bands that are established and have had long careers. I'd like to see more artists with careers that extend over a long time and can get onto the charts."

"I'm not precious about reggae. I don't think it's the answer to the world's problems. I'd like it to be just another branch of popular music that is regularly on the charts."

The band didn't envision the extent of their success when they started.

"There was no way we could've predicted our success. There are some things we would probably change if we went back and did it over again. We made mistakes. Some were big mistakes musically and in other things but the band's success is a result of those mistakes. We wouldn't be the same band if we didn't make them."

Toy terror could become hot item on a demented Christmas wish list

By TIM FOGLE
Staff Critic

Right, I admit it. I was one of the 423 people who actually went to see "Howard the Duck" when it arrived in theaters a few years back. I was among the 27 who definitely liked it. I'm not ashamed to admit that.

The reason I mention that cinematic classic is because "Child's Play," the latest entry in the teenybopper slasher category, stars a "come to life" doll named Chucky, who, for all intents and purposes, is Howard in people's clothing.

And that's a lot bad. Call him lil' Freddy. Call him Bobcat Goldthwait as a hellbent toddler. But don't disregard him as a phony, because Chucky has that certain sense of style that makes for mega bucks at the box office and endorsements in the Spuds tradition.

The premise (and stupider is better in hatchet boy movies) concerns this hippie looking voodoo dude, who, after being shot by your local tough-ass cop (Chris Sarandon), realizes that he is dying.

He mumbles a little of that Jamaican mumbo jumbo and before you know it, he has transferred his soul into a doll patterned after a character in the "Good Guys" cartoon show.

Little Andy (Alex Vincent) is one those TV-anesthetized kids who just has to have his very own doll so he can play with a "Good Guy" every day. His neurotic mother (Catherine Hicks) has a nice career-advancing job in a department store and can't afford the $100 price tag on the retail doll, so she buys one from a bum in the alley way, not knowing she is about to give her son the gift of Chucky: The Doll from Hell.

After Chucky gets a friend who can lug him around and take the rap for his sadistic murders, he sets out to pay back one of his partners in crime and to get Sarandon, the cop who shot him.

And you can imagine how stupid it looks when Chucky finally reveals himself to everyone and starts spitting profanities and cracking people across the skull with toy hammers and slashing their faces with a little knife with paintings on the side.

This movie is a classic. "Child's Play" is quite possibly the best campy horror flick of the year. It's so bad it's good. And that's good. Chucky is destined to become the antithesis to all those wimpy Cabbage Patch dolls and little four-inch high G.I. Joes that degrade the real toys of my youth. Chucky is worthy of inclusion in that hearty group of tough toys from my childhood; the Big Jim, Six Million Dollar Man and the Evel Knievel trio. And we all remember how really cool those toys were.

"Child's Play," rated R, is now playing at North Park and South Park Cinemas

BLOOM COUNTY

by Berke Breathed

The Kentucky Kernel —
For students, by students, about students!

FUN • FOOTBALL • FIESTA
Free Feista Bar During Game
25¢ Draft
25¢ Kamikazes
$3.50 pitchers of Miller Lite
803!
Come in for Monday Night Football
Imperial Plaza • 233-1717

Pick up the Kernel —
And pick up on what's happening

The Kentucky Kernel

Editor in Chief	Jay Blanton
Executive Editor	Thomas J. Sullivan
Associate Editor	Jim White
Editorial Editor	C. A. Duane Bonifer
Arts Editor	Rob Seng
Sports Editor	Tom Spalding
Photo Editor	Randal Williamson
Adviser	Mike Agin
Advertising Director	Linda Collins
Assistant Advertising Director	Jeff Kuerzi
Production Manager	Scott Ward

The Kentucky Kernel is published on class days during the academic year and weekly during the summer session.
Third-class postage paid at Lexington, KY 40511. Mailed subscription rates are $30 per year.
The Kernel is printed at Standard Publishing and Printing, 534 Buckman St., Shepherdsville, KY 40165.
Correspondence should be addressed to the Kentucky Kernel, Room 035 Journalism Building, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40506-0042 Phone (606) 257-2871.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
Presents the 25th Transportation Forum
November 16-17, 1988

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE

- Careers In Transportation
- Prospects for the Future of Transportation
- Intermodal Freight Transportation
- Future Trends In Construction
- Public Transportation In Rural Areas

SESSIONS FREE TO FACULTY AND STUDENTS
(Meal tickets must be purchased separately)

CALL 257-1188 FOR MORE INFORMATION
(Sessions to be held in the Student Center)

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, THIS GUY IS IN CLASS.

If you're looking for excitement and adventure, you'll find it when you enroll in Army ROTC. It's not your ordinary college elective.

ARMY ROTC
THE SMARTEST COLLEGE COURSE YOU CAN TAKE.

Find out more. Contact: Captain Mark Fouquier, Room 101 Barker Hall or call (606) 257-2696

Just show up ...

Can you believe it?

Supposedly the most creative minds in the galaxy of promotions and that's the best they can do for the Kentucky Kernel staff meeting promo.

"Just show up."

Wow.

How about, "Well, you know, if you haven't got anything better to do." Or maybe, "Gee, er, if you've got the time."

This is a newspaper, for gosh sake.

The oft-maligned world of the latter days of the print media. And they say, "Just show up."

We'd be furious.

In fact, we — as a target market — would be irate. We'd march right into that staff meeting and say, "Hey, we want to talk to the lamo who does the meeting promos."

After we were calmed a bit by the editor, and realized his charm and grace, we'd probably want to stick around and see what was up.

In fact, we'd probably be so interested by the meeting that we would forget our anger altogether and take out a story assignment. Or a photo assignment. Or sign up to work a night or two a week doing layout or graphics.

Then we'd take a good hard look at ourselves — probably — and think, "Well, he's a lamo, but he's a well-meaning lamo."

Or not.

Anyway, just show up.

Monday, 3 p.m. Kentucky Kernel newsroom.
Room 035 Journalism Building. In the basement.
Near the Metro tracks. You can't miss it.