

West M College March 25, 1891

Pres. Loos inquiry answered in the affirmative

Faculty met in call session. The President was authorized to answer the inquiry of the President of Kentucky University "As to whether the oratorical contests held between the students of the different colleges had justified in call to the West M College in the affirmative."

Catalogue 1891-92 Public exercises to be superintended by a committee.

Prof. Patterson and Prof. Pence were appointed to take charge of the catalogue for 1891-92.

Prof. Kastle, Roark and Stanton were appointed a committee for the remainder of the year to look into the public exercises to be held by the societies.

A committee for the arrangement of a system of demerits.

Prof. Kastle, Patterson and Newman were appointed a committee to arrange a system of demerits and submit it at the next Faculty meeting.

J. V. Newman
Sec of Faculty

West M College April 1, 1891.

V. E. Murney awarded first honor.

Faculty met in call session. Object of meeting to award first and second honors to graduates. First honor (Valedictory) was awarded V. E. Murney. Second honor (Salutatory) was awarded Miss Callie Warner.

Callie Warner awarded second honor.

The other graduates Berry, A. S. Hardy, W. L. Wallis, W. R. were given permission to deliver orations.

J. V. Newman
Sec. Faculty

West M College April 1, 1891.

Commandant Cadet's Clay sustained.

Faculty met to consider the appeal of Cadet's Heatherby, Wood, L. M. Bailey, King, J. D., King, B. C., Williams, J. B., Cassidy, J. S., Sandusky, L. W. The action of Commandant's Clay in reducing the above officers to the rank of privates for insubordination was sustained.