Alumni Offers One Four-Year $2800 All Expense Award Is Largest Single Grant

A $2800 four-year, all-expense scholarship, the largest individual academic award offered by the University, has been established by the alumni, according to an announcement from the Alumni Office.

Nearly 51000 have been given by alumni to the "University of Kentucky Loyalty Fund," from which the scholarship fund is to be taken. The drive was initiated in November and will finance other alumni-sponsored charitable projects in the future, in addition to creating scholarships for worthy students.

Alumni To Nominate

The recipients of the award will be selected from candidates nominated by members of the Alumni Association and clubs throughout the country. Nomination is now being accepted, and it is expected that the scholarship will be awarded before the opening of the Fall semester.

Scholarship Ability, Character, Personality, Extra-curricular Activities, and Need, will be the basis for the awarding of the scholarship, alumni officials said. The award may be made to any person providing he or she meets the qualifications and has the sponsorship of an individual member of the Alumni Association or an organized alumni club.

Must Maintain

To retain the scholarship, the recipient must maintain an academic average of 2 or above. If the student falls below this average, the scholarship may be withdrawn by the University scholarship committee.

John R. Bullock, Cincinnati attorney, has solicited contributions to the campaign, and other committee members are James A. Shropshire, Fayette County; Mrs. John N. Browning, Mayville; Samuel Manly III, Louisville; and Milton Smith and J. H. Smith, both of New York City.

Donations received by the fund total $3997.75, it was announced by Miss Helen King, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, and more pledges are on hand. It is planned to continue the campaign through June 30 and to offer another scholarship at a later date if sufficient funds are obtained.

Dairying Students Plan Travel Course In Southern States

A travel course in dairying which will include visits through several southern states has been tentatively planned for early summer.

The trip will be similar to the one last year which included visits to eastern dairies and received four hours credit for this course last year.

The year plans have been made for the tour to include visits to experimental stations at Virginia, North Carolina, South Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee. Also included are the dairy science meetings at Athens, Georgia, and a number of commercial dairy herds. The tour will be taken between the close of the Spring quarter and the beginning of the Summer term and will cover 14 to 16 days of travel.

Education Honorary Election Scheduled

N chapters of Delta Pi Epsilon, national honorary fraternity in business education, will hold its annual election of officers and accept recommendations for membership at 4 p.m. Tuesday in room 207 of White Hall.

S. Dickerson Jr., president of the chapter, represented the chapter at the annual convention in Bloomington, Ind., recently.

Artists To Show Exchange Exhibit

The University Art Club will send an exchange exhibit this week to the club at the University of Alabama. The show consists of 25 pictures done by former students in the Art Department.

According to President Leo Zimmerman, the exhibit at the University of Alabama students will be on display in the gallery of the department for two more weeks.

Independents Plan Dance

One of the first concrete steps taken by the Association of Independent Students to promote a social program for independent students will be a cabaret style dance in the ballroom of the SUB on Saturday, Feb. 28.

Music will be furnished by Dave Perry and his orchestra, and tickets are on sale at the SUB ticket booth for $1.25 in advance, or for $1.50 at the door, stag or girl.

Ellis Foster, president of the Independent students, called this the first step in a program for the independent students.

The success of this dance and program, Foster stated, "will depend upon the cooperation and participation of the independent students. The purpose of the independent organization is to provide a social program for the independents, and to bind independent student opinion on a participating voice in the affairs of the school."

The independent organization up to this time, has been very loosely organized. The committee is endeavoring to strengthen it so that it can take its proper place in the life of the campus.

Veterans Club Votes Monday

Only one slate of nominees for officers in the Veterans Club has been received by the Personnel Office, Dr. Lyle Croft, director of the office and faculty advisor to the club, announced today.

The nominations made by petition were closed Tuesday afternoon, and the election will be held Monday. The petition, signed by 22 members, nominated a "United Ticket" slate for the eight offices to be filled by the election.

As the club constitution prohibits "write-in" candidates, the election will be a mere formality, Dr. Croft stated.

United Ticket candidates include Sidney Neal, president; Charles S. Bogg, vice-president; Robert E. Albert, A. Cheek, vice-president for business; George S. Sakons, treasurer; Thomas A. Franks, recording secretary; and William P. Jones, corresponding secretary.

Altitude Record Trial Postponed Till Spring

Raymond Schlechter, student veteran who last October announced he would attempt to break the world's altitude record for light airplanes, said Thursday he has postponed this try until Spring.

Unfavorable, particularly heavy snow on the ground for the past few weeks, caused his postponement, Schlechter said. He was a radar observer with an army during the war.

All of Schlechter's equipment, including an especially "supep-10" V-8 automobile engine for installation in the low-wing monoplane, arrived shortly before the snow and snow weather, he said. Originally, he had intended to make the record attempt about mid-November, but was delayed by lack of an official National Geographic association borough for recording the altitude and other equipment.

The present record for light planes is 28,404 feet, established in 1939 at Godes, Germany.

Schlechter's first record, Oct. 25, 1947, was 28,404 feet.

FTA Aiding Institutions Outside States

The University chapter of the Future Teachers of America is conducting a program for giving aid to educational institutions in foreign countries.

The organization has recently sent ten or twelve packages of food and educational materials to a school in Baden, Germany, and has contributed to the Overseas Teachers Relief Fund through donations from students.

The FTA, which was reorganized here in November, 1947, has as its purpose academic betterment within the teaching profession, improving class relationship through association, broadening the aspect of the future teachers, and planned social activities for its members.

"Kentucky is now in dire need of 2000 qualified teachers to supplement the shortage that now exists," William E. Vick, president of the chapter stated. Vick asserted that Kentucky in 1947, 5200 of the 17,000 teachers were holding emergency certificates to teach.

Vick said chapter membership has grown from 24 members to 63 during the past year. He credited the increase to interest created by lectures and discussions by outstanding educators and foreign students, and a planned recreational program that precedes each meeting.

The FTA meets on the second and fourth Monday night of each month in the University Training School room. Faculty advisers for the FTA are Dr. Ellis F. Hartford, Dr. Frank Dickey, Mrs. Carl J. Boone, and Miss Nancy Trullinger. Chapter officers are William E. Vick, president; John W. Johnston, secretary; Dorothy Crugin, secretary; and Flem Jackson, treasurer.

Faculty advisers was organized by and is affiliated with the National Education Association, and is an affiliate of the Kentucky Education Association.

'YM' Honors Indian Leader

Dr. John Kulper, head of the Department of Philosophy, and the Phi Kappa Phi chapter, J. G. India and Jacob John, presented a program at the YMCA meeting last week paying tribute to India, revered leader, the late Mohandas K. Gandhi.

Dr. Kulper discussed the philosophy of Gandhi and his basis in the Hindu philosophy and religion. He stressed that Gandhi was one of the few great leaders who have refused to carry out their programs through "violence" and non-violence rather than by coercion.

He said Gandhi's use of "non-violence" was a moral persuasion which has inspired him from almost all other great political leaders.

Jacob John, graduate student in public health from Transvancora State University in India, told about Gandhi's life.

"When Gandhi died," said John "he was the poorest man in India." He emphasized that while Gandhi collected vast sums of money for charitable purposes, he was generous for himself, and was absolutely penniless when he died.

John and J. G. India, an engineering student from Santa Cruz, a suburb of Bombay, agreed in an interview that Gandhi's death made major outbreaks of violence between Moslems and Hindus much more likely. India, who met and talked to Gandhi in 1939, said the Mahatma's influence has in the past prevented civil war.

Both John and India agreed that no one could replace Gandhi as a political and spiritual leader. John expressed the belief that "Gandhi's death was the greatest catastrophe ever experienced by India."

Sydney Husain, graduate student in bacteriology from the Muslim state of Hyderabad, said that since a man of Gandhi's own faith had shot him, it would take some time for a reaction of violence to set in.

Barkley Favors Longer Term In Speech Here Constitutional Measure Would Combine Elections

WSSF Drive Begins Here This Week

The drive to raise $5555.55 for the World Student Service Fund began this week with solicitations being made in various residences.

Harold Pried, chairman of the drive, said that the drive is a practical one. He said the group sought support "of university people on the basis of their interest in the survival of university life throughout the world."

Last year students and staff contributed $275 to the national campaign which was supported by nearly 1000 American colleges and universities.

As a starter for the fund, members of the all-campus committee contributed more than $75 toward the goal, Pried said.

"Operations University" as the drive is known, got underway last week with a meeting of leaders from campus, social, religious and academic groups. It ends with special activities and public during the week beginning March 1.

Desklin, in charge of solicitations, announced the division of the campus on his committee. For sororities, Pearl Parker and Ann Lair; fraternities, Dick Pigman and Peter Black; and the Phi Kappa Phi, Paul Sanderson; women's representatives, Mrs. William A. Dunnington, Mrs. J. G. India, and Mrs. J. G. India; Phi Kappa Phi, Paul Sanderson; Phi Kappa Phi, Paul Sanderson; Phi Kappa Phi, Paul Sanderson.

Senator Alben W. Barkley told a convocation Wednesday afternoon that he favored an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of members of the House of Representatives at the same time the president is elected.

Senator Barkley, who has been one of Kentucky's senators since 1927, said he believed such a proposal would prevent stalemates in the functions of government.

In an interview afterwards he said, "I believe the president would feel more certain of his program if he knew the House was composed of a majority of his party."

Introduced by President H. L. Donnan, who reviewed the speaker's career, Senator Barkley outlined to the capacity crowd the duties of the majority leader in the United States Senate. He served in that position from 1917 until 1948, and said any person has ever held the office.

After outlining the growth of the committee system in Congress, which, he said, became necessary as all the problems of a complex civilization were brought to the doors of Congress, he explained the duties of majority leader.

These duties, he said, were chiefly to guide measures sponsored by the President or the majority party through the Senate.

He said that in a series of speeches brought to the campus by the Department of Political Science, he had outlined a practical view of the workings of government.

Prof. J. E. Reeves, acting head of the Department of Political Science, said that the speaker would be Wilson Wyatt, former member of the senate and former federal housing expediter.

Senator Barkley in discussing the committee system in Congress, said that the number of committees and the number of members of each committee would be amended from time to time as the needs of the country proved amendments necessary.

The Senator referred to Washington immediately after his address to attend meetings of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

In discussing the Marshall Plan for European aid, Senator Barkley without regard to politics but thinking of humanity, brought out a program that will give us peace and freedom, he said.

Foreign Relations Committee will justify the leadership the world has placed on our doorstep.

The Spice Of Life

By Amy Price and Helen Dorr

While trying to find an appropriate poem for Valentine's Day, Frank Dornheim came up with this: Her eyes held promise of rapture and bliss, he died young had expected a kiss.

But, ah, she was a practical miss, 'Tis Valentine's, when coeds expect a Confession kiss.

Think Ahead

Driving a car on ice, snow, or slush, is hazardous at best, but accidents may be prevented if the proper precautions are taken. A few simple rules, if remembered, would do the trick.

- Drive slowly. When the road is slippery, keep your speed down - 20 miles an hour, at the most. If you forget about the ice and have to stop suddenly, you've had it.
- Use brakes lightly. Whatever the situation which confronts you, don't stamp down on the brake pedal and lock your wheels or an automatic skid will result. Shifting into second and letting the inertia of the engine slow down your car is a good practice.
- Turn into the skid. If you do begin to skid, take your foot off the brake pedal and turn the wheels in the same direction in which the car is skidding.
- Use your head and think ahead. This is the most important rule of all. Keep your mind on the road and on any situation which might occur. If your mind is constantly alert, if you are ever ready for any and all problems, other accident prevention methods will not be necessary.

Prices are going up! Rooms are hard to get! Can't live on subsistence allowance! These and many more are the complaints heard on the campus. For the girls' men on the campus who want to enjoy supper's good food, there is one more suggestion: the hardships encountered in preparing a fairly decent meal at a fairly decent price. But since when does a wife of chicken and I mean wing only - cost sixty cents? Fresh vegetables are hard to get out of season but when they are to be had can't they be cooked before they are served? Now, suppose we overlooked the small portions and uncooked food, there is one more complaint. The food is very seldom served hot. I bought a meal yesterday that looked good only on the menu. Yet when I started eating, the meat and vegetables were seemingly relics of the ice-age and my ice-cream was almost melted. My dessert, the cold serving of the meal, was the warmest.

I don't mean to slam the work done but I do believe more care and consideration can be taken in the making up of prices, in the de-

Can't we please get some new typewriters?

This weapon of a writer is supposed to be a typewriter. Reporters, most of them, at any rate, have forgotten how to use pen and ink. And they tell us Journalism instructors have forgotten how to read handwriting. Therefore, the wix of the Kernel must type.

The simplest story, when written with a machine like this, comes out like this: "I've long... thumb". Please, can't we have just one typewriter that can type legibly?

SGA To Consider Bill For New Method Of Filling Vacancies

A Student Government Association bill proposing a new method of filling assembly vacancies, created by resignations or removals, was referred to the judiciary committee for action at SGA meeting Monday night. The bill, intended to replace the method of nominating on a party basis, would have the deans of the colleges submit lists of five students eligible for each office, inform the candidates of their nomination, and instruct them to appear at the next SGA meeting, where they would be discussed and voted upon. A resolution to affiliate with the National Student Association was referred to a committee headed by Harry Miller and composed of Assemblymen Dosker, Foster, Russell, Deiss, Welch, and Cox for preparation.

New UK Seal Gets Approval

Designed with the aid of Prof. Raymond C. Barnhart of the art department, a new University seal has been accepted by the board of trustees. The seal, already in use, is similar to Kentucky's official seal and gives the date of the University's founding and the motto, "United we stand, divided we fall." The new seal was created to replace old hit and miss designs which are inaccurate and now illegible. Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain, vice president of the University, said.

Housing Still Problem

The housing situation for married veteran students continues to be a major problem of the University. Dean A. D. Kirwan's office has announced that placing of veterans and their families in Cooperdown and Shawneetown is now 15 months behind schedule, and the situation may become worse. There are now 469 names on the waiting list for the 435 occupied units in the two "veterans" towns. An additional 18 units in Shawneetown will be ready for occupancy soon, Dean Kirwan said.

Scott To Be Guest Artist

Tom Scott, former University music student and a native Kentuckian, will be the guest artist on the Sunday Afternoon Musical program at 4 p.m. Sunday in Memorial Hall. The program will be the last by a visiting artist on the current series of musicals, said Dr. Alexander A. Capurso, head of the University Department of Music. Remaining recitals will be given by members and students of the music department. The women's glee club will present next Sunday's program. Scott, who studied voice, composition, and piano here and at the Louisville Conservatory of Music, has been acclaimed by audiences and critics throughout the country as one of America's foremost interpreters of native American folk music.

Vets Should Check On Tuition Changes

Due to the fact that a large number of educational institutions have increased their tuition rates, many veterans may find that their total eligibility time for study under the G.I. Bill will be decreased if the tuition and other appropriate charges of the school exceed $500 for an academic year. Veterans Administration Thursday emphasized that for each $2.10 which is expended for a veteran in excess of the $500 limit, the veteran exhausts one day's eligibility time. VA also pointed out that "subsidized" allowances do not increase despite tuition costs in excess of $500 an academic year. Further, VA will not increase the subsistence allowance for a veteran who acquires dependency status until the time he actually notifies the VA. In other words, if a veteran marries, thereby becoming eligible for increased subsistence allowances, and fails to notify VA until five months later, this increased subsistence allowance will not be retroactive to the date of marriage but only to the date notification was filed with VA.

Q. Will VA pay tuition for a veteran to attend school while he is taking on-job training under the G.I. Bill?

A. Yes. VA will pay for such schooling if his course of study is related to the vocation for which he is training, or if the school course is prescribed and recommended as a part of his job-training.

Two UK Electricians Save Capurso Steps By Installing System

The Department of Music, though in temporary quarters, can boast one of the best inter-office communication systems on the campus because of the ingenuity of two men in the University electric service department. Mr. Elmer Morgan and Mr. Roy Turpin have made it possible for Dr. Alexander A. Capurso, department offices and studios under his supervision without leaving his desk. To do this they installed war surplus telephones, connecting wires and push buttons to be operated through a control station received from the Western Electric Company. The control station, an item of the company's College Gift Equipment, was installed in the main office. This station makes it possible for simultaneous conversations to take place between pairs of stations outside the main office.

Cat Clippings

By Tom Hiskin

Youthful Emmett Lowery, the new head coach of the Tennessee basketball team, will make his first appearance in Alumni gym tomorrow night when his Volunteers meet the UK Wildcats. We hope that the Kentucky basketballers are red-hot and give him a nice warm reception, for Coach Lowery was quite instrumental in the 'ole 13-6 win over the UK eleven last fall on Stoll field.

Lowery turned in "one of the most complete, thorough and perfect jobs of coaching against Kentucky that I've ever seen," is what Head Football Coach Roy McKnight said of him at a dinner soon after the Tennessee grid season was finished.

Before going to the Orange and White, Emmett Lowery served as assistant football and basketball coach at Purdue University of Lafayette, Ind.

Next week the intramural basketball team will take much of the UK sports spotlight. The elimination tournament for the 42-9000 FM program is now underway, and the championship game is slated to be played at Saturday in Alumni gym—immediately preceding the UK-Georgia Tech fracas.

In the independent division four teams have been entertained: Kincaid hall, the "K" club, Jewell hall, and Pitt hall, the last three mentioned consisting of Wildcat football players. In the fraternity bracket, SAE and Sigma Chi are the posterboys as was the case last season.

A breakdown of the teams follows: The K CLUB—has a record of 7 wins, no losses, and a 47-points-per-game average. Top players on the squad are Lee Truman, Shelby Jamerson, Dick Martin, Ben Zank, George Blanda and Bill Bol-

Introducing... 'Lefty' Jim Line

By Stan Schill

Jim Line is neither All-American nor All-Conference, but he is all "Wildcat," and he knows how to use his class to best advantage. Last year this 185-pound, 6-foot 10-inch sophomore hit 86 of 206 tries, which gave him an average of 41.1. This season he's moving along at approximately a 38.2 clip.

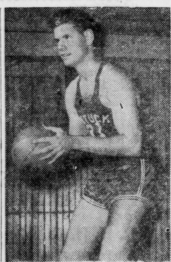

Basketball isn't the only accomplishment this 21-year-old Army veteran can brag of. His scholastic average is hovering somewhere around the 2.8 mark, and his major is, chemical engineering! It really takes a good man to play ball on the road as much as the "Ramblin' Wreck," and still keep up an average like that.

Line is one basketball player who rarely, if ever, seems to go stale. He's constantly improving. On his favorite shot, he passes a split-second, cooks that left arm, and lets fly for two more points.

Jim Jails from Akron, Ohio, where he hangs out for North high school. Shortly after graduation, he was inducted into the Army where during the war served in the U. S. Cavalry in the ITO.

Jim Line is more than just a good ball player. He's a steady dependable boy who can be counted on to make the scoreboard light up soon after he enters the game.

As one fan said during the last game, "Line is a real team player." The game against Texas A&M last season, Line hit eight field goals in 16 tries to take the scoring honors for that game—hitting 50% of his shots.

Jim Line

Line has quite a bit of competition in that part of the court where he hangs out. For company he has Web Jones, Cliff Barker, and Joe Holland. That's pretty stiff competition for any starting berth on any team. But even with that, "the man in the brown suit" is having trouble keeping this Cat on the bench. He just doesn't wanna stay put.

When Jim Line gets out on a basketball court, things start to happen. He plays ball like the fans enjoy seeing it played. He's become a master at Rupp's fast break.

Watch this boy. He'll be wearing the blue and white for another couple of years, and will be featured wherever Rupp's Rotators appear.

Three Independents, Two Frats Undeclared In I-M Basketball

By Allen Terluene

The weather isn't the only thing that's breaking and Bill McCubbinn intramural director, can vouch for that since he has just completed the pairings for the intramural basketball tournament.

Thursday night was the hardwood debut of the first round contestants headed by eight independent and eight fraternity teams vying for their respective championship trophies.

At the end of the round-robin play, the Independents boasted three undefeated teams, Jewell Hall, the "K" Club, and Kinkaid Hall. These three and the Pitt Hall aggregation were seeded in the twelve team independent tournament.

On the frat docket it was discovered that at the end of the first tourney, only two teams had survived with clean slates. They were the SAE's and the SAE's and were seeded accordingly.

The initial round of the independent division placed Kinkaid Hall against the Rose Street Barracks, the Jammers pledged to play the Dragons, Bradley Hall scheduled for the Atonics and the Turtles paired with Pitt Hall.

The first round also finds the Deltas playing the Phi Taus, Delta Chi pitted against the APO's, Lambda Chi Alpha competing with the PKA's and the Kappa Sig's billed with the Phi Sigs.

Kinkaid in the second round and stacked against each other are the Sigma Chi's and Phi Taus, SAE and SAE teams, in the fraternity division. In the independent group those seeded the second round are Jewell Hall and the Crumbs and the Hoodlums and the "K" club.

Bill McCubbinn has big things planned to decide the true university championship and according to his arrangements every thing will go like clock work.

It seems that both the winner and runner-up of the fraternity and independent tournaments will compete in a third tournament. The winner of the fraternity championship will play the runner-up of the independent affair and the champion independent quintet will play the runner-up fraternity team. Then these two winners will meet to determine the university championship basketball team.

Bowling This afternoon at 3 o'clock the doors close on entering teams in the bowling tournament which gets underway Monday afternoon at 4.

All games will be played at the Colonial Lanes, it was reported.

The intramural wrestling deadline has been set as Feb. 20, the intramural office announced.

It was suggested that all men who plan to enter the tournament begin working out in the basement of the gym where mats have been placed for that purpose. Mr. McCubbinn said that he will be available in the afternoon to give wrestling instruction to anyone who needs it.

Also deadline February 20 is the basketball tourney which swings to the court February 22.

It was asked by the intramural managers by the office and give the names of the men who have participated in intramural games this year. It was further pointed out that this should be done as soon as possible.

WAA NEWS....

By Em Asbury

The inter-society basketball tournament, which began on the hardwood of the women's gym last Monday, moved into the second week of play with all teams seeing action.

Four teams have scored decisive wins in their first games. The Kappa Delta's, in keeping with the weather, completely snowed under TAPA's by a 53-3 score. Led by senior forward, Ruth Wilde, who led away 31 very hot points, the KDA's scored early and often.

Sparked by Charlotte Knapp, the "kite-pin" girls from the Kappa Alpha Theta house soundly trounced the Alpha Xi six 29-8.

In a sharply contested game, the Chi O's sneaked by the ADP's 9-8. Largely responsible for her team's fine showing, was Marjorie Burton, a holdover star from last year's Chi Omega team.

The Kappa's took it on the chin twice, being dubbed by the ADP's 16-14, and the Chi O's 6-3.

In two of the closing games, the Tri-Delta's slipped by the fighting Alpha Gamma's 20-19, while the Theta's were annexing their second win, defeating the ZTA's 21-12.

A table tennis tournament is being organized, according to Miss Marjorie Murray. Any individual who wishes to enter must sign with her by Monday, February 16.

HALYARD'S SPORT SIDE SHOW

Featuring Today —
New Tournament May Produce
University Champ Instead Of Champ

The recent decision to pit the Independent champ and runner-up, and the Fraternity winner and second place team in a four team tournament to determine the University Intramural Basketball Championship is one of the fairest steps and biggest advances taken in the post-war Intramural program.

Intramural participation has undoubtedly hit its greatest stride lately. Never before in the University history has there been so great an interest displayed in Intramural play as in the last year and a half or two years. Both spectator interest and actual participation have grown tremendously.

This enthusiasm is due partially to two things. One is the better competition offered, and the other is the larger enrollment in school.

The big increase in interest comes in the Independent ranks. For with the large enrollment, the Independent organizations can still find enough boys to field teams after the Frats have latched on to those they want.

Now this strong Independent interest is new, but with the probable large enrollments that are due for a number of years, it shouldn't be ignored. It will be potential and should be encouraged by giving the Independent teams a fair crack at open competition. The Fraternities have always had a strong interest in the Intramural program, and always will have long after the large enrollments have come and gone, because there will always be that old inter-frat competition.

For the round-robin play the teams were divided into two groups of three division each with the Frats playing just Frats, and the Independent squads competing among themselves.

Elimination tournaments in each group are being held now to determine a champ for the Frats and a champ among Independents.

In the past the University champ has been determined in a game matching the two groups. However, when one group is stronger than the other this method isn't a fair means of choosing.

It is possible that two Independent teams should participate in the University championship game, or perhaps the Frats have the two strongest teams in the entire competition. Then they should meet for the championship.

This new plan will put the Independent champ against the Frat runner-up, and the Frat winner against the Independent runner-up in the first round. Then the two winners will play for the University championship.

While this makes it necessary to extend play another night for the finals, it affords either group which might be stronger fairer representation and comes closer to selecting the real champs.

Cats Invade South; Trounce Bama, Washington and Vandy

The University of Kentucky Wildcats, squaring back from the Notre Dame wound, sailed through the Southland last week, cutting down three victims, two of them Southeastern Conference foes.

The traveling, net-slinging Wildcats eased one bus-hopping day and a berth-switching night into Tuscaloosa, Alabama, only a few hours before their scheduled contest with the Crimson Tide.

Alabama, second in the nation, defensively, held the travel-weary Cats to an almost unbecomingly half-time lead of 17 to 15.

It was so unbelievable that here at home when Lewis Sawin, MC of the All-Campus Sing, announced the score at halftime, many persons in Memorial Hall suddenly believed Mr. Sawin to be a regular joker.

However, firey Ralph Beard came back strong in the first half to lead the Wildcats to a 42-22 victory, by dumping in 16 points. Joe Holland, after spending the night in the infirmary after the Notre Dame trip played one of his finest games of the season, and was rewarded by a starting position in the Washington U. game.

Saturday night the Wildcats met

Washington University of St. Louis, in Memphis, Tennessee in a game sponsored by Maxwell Early, Memphis sports writer. Sixty Wickliffe, Kentuckians and 4,477 Memphis, Tennesseans saw the Wildcats pummel an easy 69-39 victory.

Kenny Rollins, the pride of Wickliffe, and All-American Ralph Beard led the attack with 12 points each. Joe Holland and Barney Barnastable turned in good performances, the latter being sudden death on long shots.

The Wildcats roared to Nashville on the new streamliner and to the Vanderbilt Mediens' last season bossi "We'll get an improved basketball team next year," asked "What's up, Doc?"

Kentucky won 88-29 in the last Vanderbilt contest, so by comparative scores the Commodores did improve, as the Cats won this year by 82-51.

Gum chomping Ralph Beard again led all scorers, this time with 19 points. Big Al Groza followed with 17 points and Cliff Barker with 11.

Billy Joe Atcock, high scoring Vandy ace, held to three points while Rollins guarded him, racked up 16 for the night to lead the Commodore scoring.

S.E.C. Competition Scheduled For Wildcats' Final Home Stand

By Tom Diskin
Making their first appearance in Alumni gym in three weeks, the Kentucky Zip Kids meet Tennessee tomorrow night as the 1947-48 basketball season turns into the home stretch. Then on Monday evening, the Alabama Crimson Tide cagers will invade the Wildcat lair for their second meeting with the Kentucky five in less than two weeks.

After these contests, only Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, Temple and Xavier remain on the regular season schedule for the UK Kats.

The following student tickets will be good for the remaining home games.
Feb. 14 Tennessee No. 18
Feb. 16 Alabama 19
Feb. 20 Vanderbilt 20
Feb. 21 Georgia Tech. 21

Tennessee Has A 15-3 Mark
The Tennessee Volunteers, who were whipped 65-54 by UK last month in Knoxville, has compiled a record of 15 victories this season, with losses only to Kentucky, North Carolina, and Miami of Ohio. In their last start the Orange and White trimmed Georgia 69-60, for their seventh conference win of the season as Vols outdefeated Previews, the Vols defeated Alabama, 47-38, to show surprising offensive strength.

Captain Marshall Hawkins and Paul Walther, both forwards, are Coach Emmett Lowery's leading scorers for the current campaign. Each has an average of over 12 in a points per game. Hawkins, who scored 19 tallies against UK last January, stands 6'3", weighs 210 pounds, and hails from Huntington, W. Va., while Paul Walther, of Covington, is 6'2" tall and weighs 150 pounds. The lanky left hander from Northern Kentucky earned All-American honors at UTK in 1945 and played for a short time during the war with Auburn with the Navy Y program. He scored nine against UK in their first meeting of this season.

Other starters for the Orangemen are Art Burris, a 6'5" center from Nashville, Guard Ed (Briches) Montgomery, a 21-year-old cager who stands 5'11" and is from Knoxville, and Hugh Jones, the older brother of UK's Wah Wah, Hugh, who at an even six feet, is four inches shorter than Wah, scored 11 points against the Wildcats in the last meeting. This fracas will be only the fourth time that the Joneses have played against each other. Against the Vols, Alex Groza was high with 16, while Ralph Beard and Wah had 11 markers each.

Jack Thomas, a guard, is likely to see much action against UK for the Knoxvilleans. Other players are Forwards Don Graham, Jim Flynn, Joe Edinger, Center Hank Kinzel, and Guards Bill Byrd and Jay Center.

Alabama Here On Monday
Alabama, one of the top defensive teams in the nation, will attempt to slow down the swift UK offense Monday night in Alumni gym. On February 5, the Cats loked Bama's Red Elephants, 41-31, in a hard-fought game at Tusloosa— thanks to the superb play of Ralph son Tide eleven, Hayden Riley and McKenzie.

Kentucky's all-time record against the Bama basketball teams is 36 wins and seven losses; against Tennessee, the Big Blue has captured 31 games in 78 encounters.

Coach Floyd Burdette's basketekers use a slow cautious offense. They might well be called the "Oklahoma A&M of the South." In national ratings, only the Aggies of Coach Iba have a better defensive record than the Crimson Tide. The style of these two teams is very similar as Coach Burdette spent several seasons playing or coaching under Hank Iba at Oklahoma A&M and he now uses much the same system for his Bama quintet.

Top scorer for the cagers from the red clay country is Carl Schaeffer, a 6'2" forward from Indiana, who gathered eight markers against UK in their first meeting. Crumpler, another forward, had seven. The starting center for the Tidemen will be six-foot, four-inch Eugene Palmer, a sophomore, or Billy Dean, a six-foot, three-inch pivoman from Montgomery, Ala.

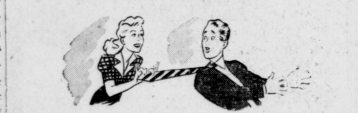

Guards are J. P. Sharp, the team captain, who hails from Birmingham and excels on the defense, and Dyson Hanner, a five-foot, nine-inch speedster from Selma, Alabama. The leading reserves are Rebel Steiner, star end on the Crim-
