My Dearest Eddie.

No one here but me now Dear so I can write without being bothered.
Mr Wischart just went home.
He and I went out to Tremont Gardens (New addition on Rockville Road) this evening and just now got back. We had dinner at a farm house out that way and it sure was good.
Some time when you are up I'll take you out there for a good chicken dinner. Mr Wischart certainly is a Prince

Eddie and he couldn't be nicer to me if I was his own son. I would work my head off for him any time. It almost seems like I am his son some times the way he talks to me.

I suppose you got home all right didn't you, Dear? I sure hated to see you go one direction, Eddie, and then have go the other way myself. It just seemed all wrong that's all and I felt like I should get right on that damned bus and go along. I know you do care enough for me, Dear, and I know too that I can make you happy Dear; for although we have both changed some we have neither one changed in that way. You know too Edgil that you just dislike my disposition; but really old Pal it isn't so bad. Guess it's mostly because I've had to dig in for myself so much; that I'm hard nosed like I'm that of as being.

We drove back to Silmores by the Natl. Road last night, then Charlie ~~at~~ went up home with me. We went up town and got lucky gives us up a big supper and we had a regular stag party with Dad and we four fellows. Charlie and Rocky were like a couple clowns and I sang till I hurt.

We didn't leave till about 10:30 and got up here then about one o'clock. Was plenty tired and I didn't get down to work till about 8:30 this morning but even then I was about the first one here.

Gosh Eddie I had a good day today. Worked in the office till about 10 o'clock then had lunch and went up town and called on some business men in their office. They were men I knew had Hollands in their homes and boy the idea worked and I sold almost half as much cleaner business this afternoon as I did last week. Mr. Jarvis the head of the city Park Board gave me six jobs on one order and promised me more business for later in the season. Sure I had better ring off for I expect you're tired of this business review.

Yours always

Dear Eddie.

Last week when I had a letter from Mick, she said that you were planning on coming up this week end but since I haven't heard you say any thing about it I'm wondering whether you are or not and whether I should be expecting you.

I hope that you will come, Dear, for I would like to see you. I can't tell you how much I really do want to see you Eddie.

I'm working tonight. Making up a mailing list of customers in my territory. First of the month I'm going to start using a series of letters which I believe will produce some extra business.

Joe Harlan was up to the city for the day today. He and Cockey & I had dinner together this evening. Joe seems to be prospering with the Kinure Stone Co.

Let me hear from you Old Pal about Sat. and please come if you can make it. Yours as ever.

My Dearest Eddie,

Well its been quite a while since your last letter came and I guess thats because I havent answered it. I'm sorry Old Pal that I didn't answer it right away for about the time ~~time~~ I intended to write; well, that cold finally got the best of me and I've been in bed for a few days. Feel pretty good now again and started back to work yesterday.

We had quite a bit of excitement here at the house last Monday morning. Two of the fellows had about $75.00 stolen from their room across the hall. They had some detectives out, but as yet they haven't even an idea as to who might have gotten it.

Ben tells me that he and Mick are writing now and Cin certainly glad they are. Ben is a mighty fine fellow. He sure was glad to get that letter from Mick, and he said the other evening that if you came up again that he hoped Mick would come too. He should be home from school any minute then we'll go to lunch then both go back up Say, Dear, I found that key we lost the night of the dance. It was down in the lining of my coat. I guess it must have gone through a hole in the pocket.

Jerry Reynolds came out to the house about 10:30 last night and stayed all night. From what he says he hasn't worked since he came home Labor Day. Wonder if he'll ever stop just being a bum.

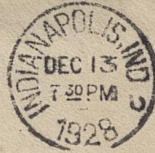

Listen, Eddie, what plans do you have for Christmas week?

Dear Eddie,
Just stopped in for my mail and found your Special card in the box. That verse is beautiful, Dear, and I sincerely hope that you can always think of me that way, and forgive me for some of the things I did that caused me to lose the one thing I treasured most. "Your trust"

Thanks, Eddie, Old Pal for the nice cards and all the nice things you say to me.
It's wonderful of you to send them and they mean a lot to me. Only each one hurts a little and makes me a little more blue for it only reminds me of what a miserable failure I've been in lots of ways. Again I say I'm sorry, Dear, and as true as God ever let any

My Dearest Eddie:

I'm home tonight all by my self so I'll try to write you a decent letter. I'm almost afraid to say that, for it seems like every letter I've written lately has been written in a rush and I don't suppose they did seem so good did they Dad Pal?

The main reason I'm home tonight is that I'm so full of cold that I can hardly breathe. It started Sat night and I had all kinds of chills and ect. then yesterday

I felt so tough that I stayed in all day. I went to work today but I think I should have stayed home and I may tomorrow if I don't feel better.

John Primer and I went to Englishes last night and saw The Front Page. It was a very good play but I certainly was surprised at some of the stuff that got by the censors.

I'm going down home Thursday and Rocky is going with me. Think we'll come back Thursday evening though for we'll both have to work Fri.

Sister Dear, what time can you come Friday? If you could get off early and come up on that train your mother came on I think that would be fine. However make it just when ever you can that perhaps you felt the same about writing as you do about seeing me.

I had planned on going to the

I was out to the Speedway Sat afternoon and saw Dury and Woodbury break the trial spin certainly were burning up the track

From your description it should That's funny about you dreaming about Uncle Frank's but you always are having the darndest dreams. You know Eddie I haven't been to their house but once this summer and ever time I see them they just about have a fit because I don't ever come.

I got up and went to Sunday School yesterday morning Dear and then went up home for dinner. Then in the afternoon Joe Harlan and Ginny and Dorothy and I went to Richmond to the show. Saw that play "The Cohens and the Kellys" at the were very good. The show was fine.

We went out to Glen Miller park and fooled around awhile and then came home.
