Dear Edna

I received your letter glad to hear from you I saw the picture of some Hagerstown boys in the Sunday Star. You said I should write and tell you about the school I would graduate in January because I carried  $\frac{1}{2}$ and 7 credits the two last semester and if you have your credits you can graduate in three years. I would of have graduated in three years if I would of had all my English and algebra but I did not because of taking a commercial course first. Well I am anxious to see you & Edna I am going to Basket ball tomorrow night. And next Friday the sectionals begin manual is going to play Shadland in their first game. I am going to a banquet next Sunday evening.

Well girls simply do not know what else to write

He seems like a stranger I never saw him for about a half a year it seems like. Well I am so tired I got my night gown on all ready. It is nearly eleven o'clock I wrote about five letters, my hand and arm is nearly worn out. When we'll go back to Indianapolis I am so anxious to see you old kid. Well bye bye

Dearest Edna,

at last I answer your letter. Please excuse me for not writing sooner.
These few weeks we have been so busy. I tell the truth I never ans nobody's letters. I owe you two, Ethel & Frank three and some girl in Cincinnati one, my aunt about four and Oh, ever so many. Well
I went to a party

Last night, had a grand time. We went on a trip to Louisville a few weeks ago, I mean the whole Waltham League of Indianapolis we just had a glorious time. We left Sunday morning at 6 A.M. from Indianapolis and got back Monday morning at 3-4 M. How is Marie and all the rest of the folks? I saw Arent
the other day, never hardly speak to him!

Dear Edna.

At last. I picked up enough pep to write you a few lines, how are you anyway. I just got back from Cincinnati last week had a wonderful time while staying at my aunt's.
Lin is driving the car now. I took the folks out to Keosauqua today.
Well Lin is going to town so I better hurry. Edna is going with me.

I never got to see you anymore when you left that last time I called you Saturday night but you must of have been gone. Well I guess I'd better hurry because I must go to town before 3 o'clock we are out in the park now we ate dinner out here. Well I guess this is all so bye bye
