Dear

OFFICE OF THE MILLENNIAL HARBINGER,
Bethany, Va., January, 1852.

J. E. Bullard

Enclosed you have a statement of your account, as it appears on our books, to the end of 1851. If, on examination, you find it correct, you will have the kindness to remit the amount, enclosed in a letter well enveloped, to me, per mail, at my risk. Your own currency will answer my purpose, and postage stamps for all sums under three dollars. Any errors which you may be able to point out in the account, will be cheerfully corrected.

I regret that the unusually large number of outstanding accounts has compelled me to strike from my list the names of all who owe for three volumes and upwards. But I believe that this is the best course to be pursued, both to myself and my subscribers. It will give you an opportunity of settling your account, and enable me to see, more clearly, the exact state of my affairs.

Should you, on settlement, wish to renew your subscription, it will give me pleasure to furnish you with the back numbers for 1852.

Very respectfully,

A. CAMPBELL.

Address your answer to A. Campbell, Bethany, Brooke county, Virginia, via Wheeling, Va.
