Orangeburg July 16th 1852

My Dear Son. Your Mother letted Cand duty to hand for which I thank you. I had become quite uneasy. I had felt quite uneasy about you upon account of the sickness as I could hear nothing about your return upon which I could rely. Mr. Preston knows no more what has become of you since than a man in the moon, given up as lost. I shall return in about twelve days; I do not want to ^{return} leave to your know much a head of your Mother. Take care of your health first of all. and then our guarder our friends and all quite well here and my own health is good.

Your Father
