Dear Victor.

It took quite a long time for this to reach me - I only got it this morning.

I do not think we should put any but Latin words in red at least in the body of the text. So ignore please my other underlinings.

Move the bottom of p 7. I think you are right not to break up the continuity by a strange arrangement. A simple new start would be better.

I took the liberty of making a couple of changes in the style - I hope you don't mind.

The title page is fine - the copyright should be on the reverse side, no? J. has only to reprint the same copyright line. No - this is not J. though, it will be Farrar's. I can find out. No emergency.

When will we see you? Monday 1st is out for me now. The other days are all right - I am next week except Saturday 12th.

As ever - with very best wishes.

In our love

L. M. Harris
