

hence bad writing and spelling do not let any one see this

Tell Sam to burn his note up

March the 8th 1868

Mrs Mollie Wood

Dear Aunt Mollie

I received your very welcome letter ~~friday~~ friday. and was glad to here from home I didn't think you would write to me a tall I had come to that conclusion. Miss Carrie Nicholas just left here she came over to see the Loggie and myself her Pa came after her before she sit down. I don't expect she will come to school any more. you must write me word whether you have made your camp out of my old dresses or not. you must make it by the time I come home.
I would <sup>like</sup> to see you all the best kind I don't expect you would see me I have fished up so much. I thought that Ralph would of written to me long ago ~~but he~~ I expect he has forgotten me tell Ralph I have not forgotten him yet. I wrote to Eliza ~~last~~ Sunday