"All we have of freedom—all we use or know—
This our fathers bought for us, long and long ago."
—Rudyard Kipling

This collage by New York artist Fred Otnes was especially commissioned by Brown & Williamson for its permanent collection of fine art works.

The freedom to choose our livelihood was provided to us long ago. And it was typified by the struggle of immigrants to America in the early 1800's. People like Adam Gimbel, a humble Jewish peddler from Germany, who later founded the country's first department store. And individuals who became industrial giants, like Andrew Carnegie from Scotland, who built one of the largest steel producing businesses in the United States. America had given both of them the freedom. The freedom to choose.

A free individual does not live without choice. A free society does not prosper without it. Consider, if you will, the personal choices we make every day without intervention from others. Now consider how many we take for granted.

The right to choose is the basis of all freedom—political, social, artistic, economic, religious—for all people. But this right must be protected from those who would chip away at it...either deliberately for personal gain, or innocently for the "betterment" of humanity. It must be protected from those who would make their choice, your choice. These personal freedoms are our legacy as well as our responsibility...to protect and to pass on to those who follow.

Freedom. It's a matter of choice.

The University of Kentucky...

A Great and Growing University

By Bernie Vonderheide
UK Information Services

Truly one of the leading land grant institutions in the nation, the University of Kentucky has a national and international reputation in such diverse fields as medicine, business, engineering, law and agriculture.

More than 23,000 students are enrolled on the main campus in Lexington. Another 19,000 students are enrolled in the 13 community colleges operated by UK across the state at Ashland, Henderson, Cumberland, Hazard, Elizabethtown, Prestonsburg, Hopkinsville, Somerset, Louisville, Paducah, Maysville, Madisonville and Lexington.

UK has a graduate school and 17 academic colleges . . . Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Engineering, Business and Economics, Education, Home Economics, Library Science, Social Work, Architecture, Communications, Fine Arts, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Dentistry, Allied Health Professions and Pharmacy.

The UK library, one of the finest in the nation, has some 1.7 million volumes and ranks 13th in the nation in its microform holdings.

The UK Honors Program for students who have shown a record of academic achievement has more than 600 students enrolled. The UK debate team consistently ranks among the top debate teams in the nation.

UK has an outstanding faculty with some of the top teachers in the nation.

The UK mathematics department has seven faculty members who have been awarded the prestigious Sloan Fellowship and the political science department consistently ranks among the top such departments in the nation in the number of scholarly papers published.

UK also is noted for its research efforts, especially in the fields of energy, tobacco and cancer.

In the arts, thousands of people attend the many art, music and theater productions at UK. The UK Marching Band is one of the best collegiate contingents in the country, and the UK orchestra, the chorus and the theater offer sterling performances throughout the year.

UK's Center for the Arts contains

State Government

The Honorable John Y. Brown, Jr. Governor of Kentucky

John Y. Brown, Jr., became the 51st governor of Kentucky on December 11, 1979.

Born on December 28, 1933, Governor Brown graduated from Lafayette High School in his hometown, Lexington, and obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Kentucky in 1957. He graduated from the UK College of Law three years later.

The Governor served in the U.S. Army Reserve from 1959 to 1965.

He has been named the Outstanding Young Man of America by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce (1965), as one of the outstanding Civic Leaders of America (1967) and Louisville's Outstanding Young Man by the same group. Lions Club International gave him an Outstanding American Award (1974) and he is the youngest person to be named to the University of Kentucky's Hall of Fame.

This past summer, Gov. Brown was elected vice chairman of the Democratic Governors Conference and states' co-chairman of the Appalachian Regional Commission.

He has three children by a previous marriage, John Y. Brown, III (18), Eleanor (16) and Sandra (15). He married Phyllis George on March 17, 1979 and they recently added a fourth child to the family, Lincoln George Tyler Brown, born in June, 1980.

Ashland Oil has an infinite source of energy-the creative minds of our research scientists and engineers.

Instead of searching around the world for new sources of crude oil, Ashland Oil is developing alternative sources of energy in the laboratory. For example:

More gasoline from crude oil. Ashland Oil's new Reduced Crude Conversion (RCC) process makes it possible to get 24 percent more gasoline out of every barrel of crude oil we refine. This means that Ashland will be able to produce the same amount of gasoline we're producing now, using fewer barrels of expensive crude oil.

And if the RCC process is adopted by other oil companies, America could substantially decrease its dependence on foreign crude oil.

Crude oil from coal. America has enough coal to take us well into the 22nd century. At Ashland Oil, we're experimenting with coal liquefaction, the process which turns coal into synthetic crude oil. This new synthetic crude oil can be refined into gasoline and other petroleum products.

We now plan to build a major facility in Breckinridge County, Kentucky, to produce oil from coal commercially.

Both our RCC and coal liquefaction projects are under way at our refinery in Catlettsburg, Kentucky.

Gasohol from corn. Ashland will soon be able to meet 12 percent of America's goal for ethanol production from its coal-fired South Point, Ohio, ethanol plant.

By converting corn into ethanol (ethyl alcohol) and adding ethanol to gasoline, we'll be producing gasohol—a third important ingredient in America's formula for decreasing energy dependence.

At Ashland Oil, we're depending on one of America's greatest natural resources—new technology from our innovative research team.

OTIS A. SINGLETARY
University President

The University of Kentucky has become one of the major institutions of higher learning in the United States under the leadership of Dr. Otis Singletary, the eighth president of the University. His tenure has been marked by rapid growth and a commitment to excellence.

"The University, with all its problems, is still the single most important institution in the state," Dr. Singletary has said. "Its network of influence is felt throughout the state, not just in the instruction of the state's young people but in the great pattern of research, the things we are doing to improve the quality of human life and the wide range of services we are providing throughout the state.

"Contrary to popular opinion, our institutions of higher education are not operated exclusively for students, or for faculty members, or for administrators, or for trustees — or, for that matter, for all of these. Historically speaking, universities have been created and supported by our society to perform important functions for the common good of society. This is the larger meaning of the term, 'the public interest,' as it applies to institutions of higher education."

Before being named UK president in 1969, Dr. Singletary served as executive vice chancellor for academic affairs in the University of Texas system and as director of the Job Corps program for the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The Gulfport, Miss., native holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University. He is a nationally recognized history scholar and is the author of two books and several monographs.

In the 12 years he has been president, the University has grown to where there are now more than 23,000 students on the Lexington campus and more than 19,000 students in UK's 13 community colleges. UK has gained an international reputation in such diverse fields as medicine, business, engineering, law and agriculture. The University also is noted for its research in the fields of energy, tobacco and cancer. The Sanders-Brown Research Center on Aging is one of the first facilities of its kind.

The UK Alumni Association has recognized Dr. Singletary's special service by presenting him its Alumni Service Award. It is an honor rarely bestowed upon a non-alumnus of the University.

Dr. Singletary is in the second year of his two-year term as president of the Southeastern Conference. As University President, he serves as chairman of the board of directors of the UK Athletic Association, the body which maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program.

A Navy veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, he is commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot and Kendall.

The Singletarys live at Maxwell Place, traditional home of UK presidents.

Athletics Director

CLIFFORD O. HAGAN
Director

The story of Cliff Hagan's reign as chief of the UK Athletics Department has been one of fine attendance at the two big revenue-producing sports, increased attendance in Lady Kat basketball and men's baseball, and a steady upgrading of facilities.

The University will be host to the SEC Basketball Tournament in March of next year and the NCAA Championship Finals in 1985. The UK Relays were renewed this past spring.

Hagan, who has seen and overseen vast improvements in all phases of the UK athletics program since returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director in 1972, has under his command a total of 20 sports ranging from football and men's basketball in Level I, to women's basketball in Level II, and a baker's dozen sports in Level III.

He was named in 1972, assistant to Harry C. Lancaster and given the task of implementing the Blue & White Fund for 57,600-seat Commonwealth Stadium and later for Rupp Arena. Hagan replaced Lancaster as athletics director in July, 1975.

Hagan received one of his highest individual honors three years ago when he became the first University of Kentucky basketball player to be installed in the Naismith Memorial National Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). He went on to star in the NBA with the St. Louis Hawks and in the ABA with the Dallas Chaparrals as player-coach.

He received his M.S. in education from Washington University in 1958.

Head Coach

Fran Curci Enters Ninth Season At Kentucky Helm

With his second good recruiting crop in a row, Fran Curci enters his ninth year as University of Kentucky football coach with hopes of returning the Wildcats to their fine back-to-back seasons of 1976, when they finished 8-4 and were Southeastern Conference co-champion and Peach Bowl champion, and 1977, when they finished 10-1 and were undefeated in conference play.

Curci's victory total at UK now stands at 44 (44-43-2), second only to the 60 victories registered by Paul Bryant (60-23-3, 1946-53) and ahead of the 41 by Blanton Collier (41-36-3, 1954-61).

Youthfulness, inexperience and injuries took their toll of the Wildcats last year, when four games were lost in the closing seconds, including two with no time left on the clock, en route to a 3-8 record.

During his tenure at UK, Curci has been named SEC "Coach of the Year" by both wire services—UPI in 1973 and AP in 1977—and has finished high in the national balloting (1977).

He has produced four All-Americans and three Academic All-Americans at UK, which did not have an All-American of any type during the nine years before he came to Lexington. He also has produced 10 All-SEC players named 15 times to the honor squads.

Curci came to UK from the University of Miami, FL, where he was head coach two years. He started his career as freshman coach there in 1962 after earning All-American honors as a quarterback for the Hurricanes in 1959 and playing QB for the old Dallas Texans in the AFL.

Curci went to Tampa as head coach in 1968, putting together a 7-3 season that included victories over Mississippi State and Tulane and earned him the Florida Sports Writers Association's "Coach of the Year" award, a recognition repeated in 1970.

His 1969 team finished 8-2, while his 10-1 record in 1970 included a 31-14 triumph over Miami and brought the Tampanas the nation's No. 1 College Division ranking. Curci was runner-up for the College Division "Coach of the Year" honors.

He coached the Hurricanes in 1971 and 1972.

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Curci played his high school football in Miami, where he lettered three years as a quarterback at Archbishop Curley High and was All-City, All-Conference, Catholic All-State and his team's Most Valuable Player.

At Miami, where he was known as the "Mite-y Magician," he parlayed intelligence and desire to become All-America as a senior in 1959 after receiving All-America honorable mention in 1957.

He set Hurricane seasonal and career marks for total offense, most passes thrown, most passes completed and most yards gained passing. He was co-holder of the record for most passes thrown.

He rolled up 2,767 yards rushing and passing during his varsity career, breaking a total offense record that had stood for more than two decades. He captained the Hurricanes his senior year and climaxed his career by engineering a stunning upset of Michigan State.

After graduation in 1960 with a degree in marketing, he played one year for the Texans and then served as a lieutenant in the Army, coaching and playing football for the Fort Eustis team, which won the National Service championship in the Missile Bowl.

Curci has been selected seven times to coach in all-star games. He assisted Bear Bryant with the South team in Tampa's first annual American Bowl game five years ago, then served as South head coach the next year. He helped Charlie McClendon of LSU and Alex Agase of Northwestern direct the East in the Coaches All-America game and has also appeared at the North-South Game, Japan Bowl, East-West Game and Hula Bowl.

He was elected to the Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 1980.

Kentucky Kickoff Spotlights:

Larry Kirksey

UK receivers coach Larry Kirksey believes that the more things change in college football, the more they stay the same.

Kirksey was a standout wide receiver at Eastern Kentucky University from 1969-73 where he had 82 career catches for 1,155 yards.

"There's been a lot of changes since I played," he says. "It's a matter of disguising, really. Basically, teams are doing the same thing, they're just using a different alignment, different looks.

"The biggest change in college football in recent years has been with college teams going to man-to-man coverage. It's now a matter of the receiver just knowing what he needs to get done. You've got to ad lib a little bit because the defensive back, he's told to deny you the inside or outside.

"There have been changes but it is still a matter of the receiver going out and competing one-on-one and the best guy is going to win," says Kirksey.

The Harlan native came to Kentucky in 1977 from Miami of Ohio where he was wide receiver coach and supervisor of scouting. Before that he was a graduate assistant at EKU. It's no secret coaching appeals to the handsome young man.

"I enjoy coaching. You know, I played the game. The kids now, well, I coach in the manner I would like to be coached. But at the same time they understand what their job is and what they have to get done. Coaching is enjoyable because I enjoy working with young people.

"My philosophy is, if you are prepared the right way and do the best you can, well, that's all we can ask of you."

Athletics Department

Larry Ivy, who came to the University of Kentucky as director of housing in 1969, is involved primarily with the administration and management of the business operations of the Athletics Department. He helps to develop and initiate policies for accounting procedures and related financial management activities of the department also.

A native of Alabama, Ivy graduated in 1961 from Huntsville High School, where he lettered in four sports. He is a 1967 graduate of the University of Alabama and earned his MBA from Alabama in 1968.

He is married to the former Barbara Foster of Huntsville. They have one daughter, Kim. Ivy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Ivy of Huntsville.

LARRY IVY
Assistant Director of Athletics for Finance

Frank Ham became assistant director of athletics soon after Cliff Hagan succeeded Harry C. Lancaster as director of athletics.

A native of Scranton, Pa., Ham came to the University in 1969 as administrative assistant to football coach John Ray, and was reassigned to the athletic director's staff in 1972.

Ham graduated from high school at Niles, Michigan and completed his undergraduate work at Olivet College. He did graduate work at Indiana University and coached high school football and track at John Adams High in South Bend. He then returned to Olivet as athletic director and head football and basketball coach.

In 1962, he became assistant to the president at Olivet, with responsibilities in public and alumni relations. He was in private business from 1956 until 1968.

He is married to the former Rosemary Woods of Niles, Michigan. They have two sons, Michael, of Raleigh, NC, and Craig, a U.S. Army Captain, and two daughters, Mrs. Andy Hunsberger of Casopolis, Michigan and Jennifer a 1978 graduate of UK.

FRANK HAM
Assistant Director of Athletics

SUE FEAMSTER
Assistant Director of Athletics

Sue Feamster joined the athletics association July 1, 1979 with the merger of the men's and women's programs. Feamster had been the director of women's athletics prior to her appointment as assistant director of athletics.

A native of Frankfort, she came to the University as a graduate student in 1970, was named assistant director of campus recreation in 1972 and director of women's athletics in 1974.

Feamster graduated from Franklin County High School where she was an outstanding tennis player and athlete. While in college she earned letters in tennis, field hockey, basketball and track from Indiana University and Kentucky State University, where she earned her B.S. degree and graduated with honors.

A former teacher and counselor, Feamster is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Feamster of Frankfort.

BOB BRADLEY
Assistant Director for Academic Affairs

Bob is a native of New York who earned his M.A. at UK before serving as coordinator of counseling and head of finances at the Lexington Technical Institute. He joined the Athletics Association last year. Bob earned letters in football, baseball, basketball and track at Hornell High School (NY) and played football at Salem College in West Virginia.

UK Receivers Look For The Big Play

By Barry Bronson

Larry Kirksey is expecting big things out of the Wildcat wide receiver corps and he thinks they will mature down the stretch this season.

"Talent-wise, this is probably the best group since I've been here at Kentucky," said the young assistant coach. He's quick to add, however, that these guys are not long on experience.

"You have only Allan Watson who's actually played out there. He's a junior and has played since he was a freshman." The other starter, sophomore Rick Massie, isn't exactly a seasoned vet, says Kirksey. Neither are backups Joe Phillips and Eddie Simmons.

"These guys have more talent than guys here before, but I've had better players, such as Felix Wilson," adds Kirksey, a standout wide receiver himself at Eastern Kentucky University from 1969-72. Kirksey offered a brief description of each of his receivers.

"Al Watson is steady. He's a tough, hardnosed kid that will get open and catch the ball coming across the middle or in a clutch situation. His strength is, he works underneath, he won't get deep too often but he'll come across the field and get the ball for you.

"Rick Massie: his strength is that he's a pretty intelligent kid and he runs well-disciplined routes. And that's what you have to do as a receiver. You have to get open before you can catch the ball and right now, he's the best at getting open and catching the football.

"Eddie Simmons: his strength is his speed. Great speed. He has more speed and quickness than the others but again, he's like a freshman out there. He's got to learn to adjust to the run. He'll catch the ball if he gets downfield. His biggest weakness right now is catching the underneath passes," notes Kirksey.

"Joe Phillips is a freshman and it's just a matter of time before he is a regular. He has more natural ability than all the guys put together. It's just a matter of playing him a little more, not throwing him into the fire too early. He catches the ball early in the season and, all of a sudden, he's not catching anything. Sometimes he loses confidence.

"Steve Liakos: he's just a freshman. He has decent speed but he's got a ways to go, too. In time he will be strong. He's not now but in time he will be.

"And there are a bunch of walk-ons who give us a good look day in and day out and without those guys, we just couldn't make it," says Kirksey.

Kirksey certainly doesn't mind talking about the tight ends, one of the Wildcats' most talented groups. Jim Campbell, Rob Mangas and the most experienced of all the receivers.

"Rob Mangas is very good and the tight ends and he's just done a great job," adds Kirksey.

Kirksey is the Wildcat assistant coach who is constantly on the phones with the Kentucky staff in the press box. It often seems he is detached from the flurry of activity along the Kentucky sideline.

Rick Massie

Todd Shadowen are a talented trio that have been able to make the clutch plays.

"Jimmy Campbell is the type of kid who will go out on game day and play hard. You have to hand it to him, the way he played against Alabama. He'd been hurt all week. We look to Jim for the big play, he's consistent. He played quarterback in high school so he had to make the transition to tight end. He's going to be able to do the job for us.

"Todd Shadowen is back after a freaky accident this summer. He's probably our best blocker. He's tough and wants to play.

"Coach Greg Nord works with

Eddie Simmons

"I'm talking to (assistant coach) Mike Summers upstairs and what I'm getting from him is the basic secondary (lineup), what I see out there on the field. And at the same time I'm relaying a play to him upstairs and he's charting the plays that we are running.

"While that's going on he's giving me the down and distance, saying things like, 'that's second and six in-between to go,' things of this nature. At the same time, we're trying to get right personnel into the ballgame," adds Kirksey.

Football is more than just blocking and tackling. It is also a guessing game with the offense trying to throw a formation at a defense for which the defense is vulnerable. You like to get receivers into a single coverage situation as often as possible.

"We have two or three games a week on our opponent (in practice) before we play them," says Kirksey. "We find out what their alignment is going to be and formation and we try to dictate to them and not let them dictate to us. We try to make sure we know where they are going to be and that's the whole key in offense. As an offensive staff, we always, from week to week, go to the film, break down our formations versus their defense and try to make sure we know where they are going to be," he adds.

Coach Kirksey admits that the receiving corps could be contributing more to the Wildcat offense. But if hard work were the only measuring stick, this group would be difficult to top.

"They are all working hard and it's a matter of time and a little more experience. We'll have a decent receiving corps before the year is out," he says.

Kirksey and the UK staff have pinpointed the problem and it applies to the entire offense.

"As yet, we have yet to make the big play, the spectacular catch. That's what we're going to have to do to have a good football team. We're young but we're going to have to get more out of our receivers to get this football team to come along. We haven't proven ourselves at this stage," he adds. "But in time, we will."

"An authentic Kentucky bluegrass retreat is opening right in your own backyard."

Bill Marriott, President
Marriott Corporation

Tucked amid Kentucky's prized horse farms, the new Marriott Resort at Griffin Gate is convenient to the interstate highway system, downtown Lexington and Keeneland Race Track.

Marriott's bluegrass retreat is also a self-contained resort. Our 18-hole golf course is the only resort-hotel course in the area.

Choose from two restaurants for lunch and dinner: Traditional favorites in an atrium garden setting at Griffin's Garden, and Pegasus, where the chef is applauded for his dramatic veal and seafood originals.

Give us your next business or social guest list and we'll arrange the whole affair. Even if the number snowballs to over 500 people, you can be sure your guests will leave very impressed.

CHEVY CAVALIER THE ESCAPE HATCH

Escape to where you long to be.

Here's the kind of engineering designed to take you miles away from the middle of the road. The 1982 Cavalier Hatchback. A brand-new car that owes its creation to innovation. Not imitation.

Escape with the goods.

Reclining front seats, power brakes, side and rear window defoggers and a remote hatch release (quite a remote feature on ordinary hatchbacks) combine with 38 other standard features to make the '82 Cavalier the most complete new car we've ever introduced.

On the technical side, innovations in front-wheel drive, aerodynamic design and operating efficiency help add up to 43 Est. Highway/26 EPA Est. MPG.* And engine buffs will be interested to know Cavalier's standard 1.8 Liter, 4-cylinder engine actually delivers more horsepower per liter than some highly regarded V8s.

Plan your escape now.

Your Chevy dealer can help put your escape plan in motion, starting with a test drive. Get inside. Drive it around the block. Then all that's left to do is to decide whether you want to buy or lease a new 1982 Cavalier. Whichever you choose, one thing's for sure:

You won't have any trouble at all adjusting to your new freedom.

*Use estimated MPG for comparisons. Your mileage may differ depending on speed, distance, weather. Actual highway mileage lower. Chevrolets are equipped with GM-built engines produced by various divisions. See your dealer for details.

You know who the winners are. T

The simple pleasures of driving a Honda Prelude. Starting from the top.

We think you'll agree, it's a real pleasure to look at.

But our sportiest Honda also sports the kind of features that make it a thrill to drive.

THE POWER-OPERATED MOONROOF. FOR OPENERS, IT'S STANDARD.

At the push of a button, the tinted-glass moonroof slides back. At the same time, an automatic deflector helps keep the wind out.

When you're behind the wheel, you'll be pleased at what you see in front of it. This year, the instrument panel houses a separate tachometer and speedometer, a quartz digital clock, a maintenance reminder and an electronic warning system.

Of course, the Prelude is just as much of a pleasure to sit in.

Its luxurious interior features comfortable bucket seats and adjustable headrests.

SOME SIMPLE ENGINEERING FACTS.

Our sportiest car has front-wheel drive, four-wheel independent suspension, rack and pinion steering and a responsive 1751cc CVCC® engine. The fact is, the Honda Prelude is designed to give you years of good performance.

POWER STEERING COMES AUTOMATICALLY WITH THE AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION.

The 5-speed stick shift is standard. But with the optional automatic 3-speed, you also get variable-assist power steering.

And after you've weighed all your options, we hope you drive off in the Honda Prelude.

Tiger Outlook

Clemson Loaded With Talented Veterans

Coach Danny Ford is in an enviable situation. His entire offensive team from last season is back. In all, 50 lettermen return to a team that was 6-5 last season.

Quarterback Homer Jordan will run the pro-set offense. Last season, Jordan amassed more yards (1,683) than any sophomore in Clemson history, breaking the record held by 1978 Clemson grad Steve Fuller, now the starting quarterback for the Kansas City Chiefs (when not injured). The real spark on offense is senior wide receiver Perry Tuttle who should break every career receiving record at Clemson. "Tuttle is a very fluid athlete who is the fastest player on the team," says his coach, adding, "He catches the ball in a crowd very well and runs excellent patterns." The first team All-ACC last season led the conference in receiving yards and catches per game. Clemson has another big play receiver in three-year starter Jerry Gaillard.

The offensive line returns intact, headed by All-ACC selection Lee Nanney at tackle. Tony Berryhill returns at center and will play next to Brian Clark. Three-year starter Gary Brown is solid at the other tackle.

The Tigers leading ground gainer last year, Chuck McSwain, returns. The junior halfback was the ACC rookie-of-the-year in 1979. Fullback Jeff McCall is a devastating blocker and should help McSwain tremendously. JC transfer Braxton Williams will see action also at tailback. The deepest position might be tight end where Bubba Diggs (redshirted last year), Jim Wurst and Jeff Wells all could see action.

Six starters return on defense for the Tigers but Ford is concerned about depth in the defensive line. Clemson ranked third in the ACC in total defense but sixth against the pass. The Tigers gave up an average of 20.3 points per game, fifth best in the conference.

If defensive end Bill Smith stays healthy, it should help that potentially troublesome position. Another answer might be Andy Headen, a former quarterback and defensive back who was switched to defensive end. Former fullback Edgar Pickett also will vie for the other defensive end position. "The defensive front line is big and aggressive this year," said Ford. "James Robinson (tackle), Dan Benish (tackle), Jeff Bryant (tackle) and William DeVane (middle guard) are all proven players." The addition of freshman William Perry can't hurt, either. The Tigers employ a five-man front.

Linebacker Jeff Davis returns and the hard-hitting senior led the league in tackles last year. Said Ford: "No linebacker I ever played with at Alabama or have coached plays as well or hits as hard as Jeff Davis." Danny Triplett joins Davis at linebacker with Chuckie Richardson and Roy Brown waiting in the wings.

In the backfield, Terry Kinard, Hollis Hall and Anthony Rose return. The biggest problem for the Tigers is to find a replacement for the departed Obed Ariri, the NCAA's all-time career field goal kicker.

DANNY FORD
Head Coach

Danny Ford is the youngest third-year coach in Division I of the NCAA, but the 33-year-old Gadsden, Alabama native has been associated with more winning teams and programs than many coaches come in contact with in a lifetime. Including his years as a player at Alabama under Bear Bryant, Ford has been associated with college football for the last 14 years. Thirteen of those clubs have had winning records and 10 have gone to bowl games. Additionally, the 14 teams have had a record of 111-47-3, a .700 winning percentage.

Now in his third full season as head coach, Ford has led the Tigers to a 15-9 record and a pair of bowl games since taking over on December 10, 1978. That was a fine day in Clemson athletics because the University announced Charley Pell had relinquished the head coaching duties of the 1978 Gator Bowl to Ford. Nearly 40 years after hiring 31-year-old Frank Howard, Clemson had hired another gifted 31-year-old to lead the Tiger forces on the gridiron.

Ford conquered all kinds of adversity in leading the Tigers to a nationally televised 17-15 triumph over perennial power Ohio State in the Gator Bowl in his very first game as head coach.

But Ford did not rest on his laurels after that landmark win over the Buckeyes. In the last two years the Tigers have won 14 games (including wins over nationally ranked Georgia, Notre Dame and South Carolina), gone to a bowl game, nearly upset the National Champion and set countless Clemson records.

Ford began his association with college football in 1967 when he started for Bear Bryant at Alabama as Ken Stabler's sophomore tight end. He played three years for Bryant (including three wins against the Tigers), and was an All-Southeastern Conference choice, All-SEC academic selection and team captain during his senior season.

After receiving his B.S. degree in industrial arts in 1970, Ford remained at Alabama as a graduate assistant for the 1970 and 1971 seasons. Upon earning a master's degree in special education in 1971, he was made a full-time assistant under Bryant for the 1972 and 1973 seasons. The Tide went to four more post-season games while Ford was on Bryant's staff.

Clemson's current head man then accepted a position as an assistant coach on Jimmy Sharpe's staff at Virginia Tech. He remained in Blacksburg for three seasons (1974 to 1976), before he was beckoned to Clemson by Charley Pell, who had just been named the Tigers' head coach.

DR. BILL LEE ATCHLEY
University President

When Clemson went searching for a new president to replace Robert C. Edwards, who retired in the summer of 1979 after 22 years at the University's helm, the selection committee found one candidate that stood above the crowd.

BILL McLELLAN
Athletic Director

It is not an easy task to follow Clemson legend Frank Howard in anything, be it as a banquet speaker, football coach or Athletic Director. But Bill McLellan accepted the challenge and has been one of the most successful A.D.'s in the country.

In the last five years Clemson's sports program has made a meteoric rise on the national scene. McLellan's administration is the major reason Clemson's sports program has been ranked in the top 25 in the nation the last five years, and twice in the top five in the land in the last three years.

Only the third man to own the title of Athletic Director at Clemson over the past 47 years, McLellan was elevated to his present position in 1971, following what had been more than a decade of service to the University's athletic organization.

A native of Hamer, S. C., the 48-year-old McLellan graduated from Dillon High School and entered Clemson where he earned a pair of football letters, and was a member of the Tigers' 1952 Gator Bowl team.

He joined the athletic staff in 1958 from Clemson's Department of Agricultural Economics and Seed Certification where he had spent one year as assistant agronomist and two years as assistant economist.

ing Education and is a member of the Academy of Sciences and the Outstanding Educators of America. He even found the time to serve as the chairman of the American Society for Engineering Education in the Midwest, become a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, and sit on the West Virginia Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

Prior to his tenure at West Virginia, Atchley taught at the University of Missouri at Rolla from 1957-1975. He earned his undergraduate degree in Civil Engineering at Missouri in 1957 and finished his masters work in the same field in 1959 at Missouri. President Atchley then received his doctorate at Texas A&M in 1965.

He played professional baseball in the fifties with the New York Giants organization.

In 1966, McLellan was named Assistant Athletic Director and two years later was appointed Associate Athletic Director.

In 1966, McLellan was named Assistant Athletic Director and two years later was appointed Associate Athletic Director.

University of Kentucky Cheerleaders — Best in Nation

This year's University of Kentucky cheerleaders are one of the best collegiate squads in the nation.

They have already earned top honors from pre-season competition with other outstanding squads in the United States.

At the prestigious Universal Cheerleading Association competition this past summer, UK's cheerleaders came out with "best overall squad" honors — beating out Ohio State and Memphis State which were the No. 1 squads in the country the past two years. Now UK's cheerleaders are ready to turn on their many talents for the UK fans.

UK's cheerleaders are ably coached by T. Lynn Williamson, acting dean of students.

We salute the Kentucky Wildcats with the U of K pep song.

On, on U of K
We are right
for the fight, today.
Hold that ball
and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine.
We'll fight, fight, fight for the blue and white.
As we roll to that goal, varsity.
We will kick, pass and run
Till the battle is won and we'll bring home a victory.

Alumni Programs Contribute to UK Mission

By Liz Demoran

Editor, Alumni Publications

MEMBERS and volunteers make the alumni world go 'round. Right today more than 20,000 people support the effort of the University of Kentucky Alumni Association to serve the university and its alumni through their active participation in the Association.

Among the programs contributing to the mission of the university are the Association's scholarship, teacher recognition and student relations activities.

SCHOLARSHIP

More than 30 students are attending school at the UK Lexington or community college campuses with the help of scholarship monies designated by the Alumni Association.

Seven marching band students—Kris Deeds, Kelly Harding, LaShele Montfort, Christopher Peterson, David Bay, Steven Wade and Michael Turner—have received $700 scholarships this year. Four students—Anna K. Austin, Victoria Dee Riley, Thomas J. Hester and Marc E. Tissenbaum—hold the prestigious Alumni Loyalty Scholarships of $1,000 each. All 13 of the community colleges receive $500 which is often distributed to help two or three students each semester.

Alumni clubs in Christian, Union, Bourbon, Nicholas, Clark, Harrison, Jefferson counties, the Lake Cumberland and Cumberland Valley areas and Dayton, Ohio, and Houston, Texas, also sponsor scholarships, some to the main campus and some to community colleges. Alumni living in these areas raise funds often used to help prospective students in their hometown attend a UK college.

Additionally, several alumni have donated funds for the Association to administer on their behalf.

FACULTY

This year marked the 20th anniversary of faculty awards sponsored by the UK Alumni Association. Originally, the awards emphasized recognition of faculty for their research accomplishments. Since 1968, however, the awards have honored instructors of outstanding teaching ability. The faculty members selected for the 1981 "Great Teacher Awards" included three from the community colleges and two from the main campus.

The 1981 Great Teachers who were awarded a stipend of $600 each are Dr. Charles Ellinger, a professor of prosthodontics; Dr. William Lubawy, associate professor of pharmacy; Dr. Robert K. Berry, chairman of the division of chemistry and agriculture, Maysville Community College; Alice A. Cleveland, assistant professor of English at Jefferson Community College Southwest; and Michael B. Coyle, professor of fine arts and humanities at Elizabethtown Community College.

Six professors have been designated Alumni Professors, an honor which carries with it a $5,000 annual stipend so long as the teacher holds the alumni professorship. Currently holding this honor are Dr. Joseph Kuc, plant pathology; Dr. William L. Matthews, law; Dr. Jacquelyn Noonan, pediatric medicine; Dr. Charles P. Roland, history; Dr. Sidney Ulmer, political science, and Dr. Joseph L. Massie, business administration.

A successful student program introduced last year is the now-annual Presidents-ODK dinner hosted by the UK Alumni Association. Invitations are sent to presidents of all campus-recognized organizations to join in this special leadership activity. The dinner will be October 12. President Otis Singletary will address an expected crowd of 140 student leaders.

Two years ago students expressed an interest in revitalizing the annual student awards night which many of you will recall by the name "Stars in the Night." The UK Alumni Association now presents its "Great Teacher Awards" at the student program. In 1979, UK alumnus and pro football player Jeff Van Note was the speaker for the evening. Alumni director Jay Brumfield serves on the steering committee and is proud to say that attendance has been gradually increasing.

The Association also helps with such traditional campus events at Homecoming and the Little Kentucky Derby.

Today the University of Kentucky welcomes classmates from the classes of 1945, 1946 and 1947 who have returned to campus for a reunion. Following the game, this group will celebrate with an Oktoberfest at the King Alumni House.

Next week the class of 1951 will mark the 30th anniversary of its graduation with a brunch in the UK Student Center at 10 a.m. The schedule calls for an afternoon free to roam around campus, visit the UK Art Museum with its exhibit of woodcarvings by Edgar Tolson, a native of Eastern Kentucky, or go to the races at Keeneland. The day will be capped off by the UK-South Carolina game. There is still time to make reservations for the 1951 Reunion brunch by calling the King Alumni House, 258-8905 this week.

Spotlight Falls on High School Bands

Commonwealth Stadium today will be filled with the sound of music from four Kentucky high school bands and the UK Wildcat Marching Band.

Participating in the eighth annual University of Kentucky Invitational Band Day are the award winning Russell High School Marching Band, directed by Eddie Prichard; the Danville High School Marching Admirals, directed by David Gillum; the Franklin County High School Flyer Band, directed by Tom Brawner, and Lexington's Tates Creek Senior High School Band, "Kentucky's Musical Ambassadors," directed by Leslie Anderson.

UK's Band Day calls attention to some of the state's finest high school bands, based on UK music faculty scouting reports.

The mass bands—with some 800 young people on the field—will perform such familiar works as the fanfare from the movie, "Sound of Music," and "My Old Kentucky Home."

Lynda Long, a UK senior from LaGrange, is student chairman of this year's Band Day. Miss Long and 33 other UK band members have organized and arranged for special seating, food and facilities for the visiting bands.

Here's more about the four high school bands performing today:

The award winning RUSSELL HIGH SCHOOL BAND makes its debut today at UK Band Day. The 88-member group wears off-white Quiana shirts, maroon slacks with white and gold piping and maroon hats with gold feathers.

The drum major is Kelly Grosse. Capt. Michelle Rogers heads the eight-member Rifle Corps and Capt. Tracy Hobbs heads the 16-member Flag Corps.

Russell consistently wins a superior rating at the Kentucky Music Educators Association (KMEA) concert band festival. In 1980 they received first place for Best Parade Band and were named Grand Champion at Greenup County's "Old Fashion Days."

Russell also won first place in the Eastern Kentucky University Marching Band Festival, Class AAA division in 1980. In 1981 they participated in the Concert Band Festival at Six Flags Over Georgia in Atlanta, where they received an Excellent rating.

Russell High School, located in Russell, Ky., in Greenup County, has an enrollment of 950 students, grades 9-12. Richard Baker is principal.

The Kentucky Musical Ambassadors of Lexington's TATES CREEK HIGH SCHOOL number 142 members. Clothed in maroon and white uniforms, the students are led by drum majors Chip Hill and Joey Maggard.

Co-captains Karen Coomer and Wendy Wheeler lead the 31-member Kentucky Thoro-bred Flag Corps dressed in jockey silks and each representing different Bluegrass horse farms.

Dan Leve is captain of the nine-member Rifle Corps.

Tates Creek was the winner of the 1981 Midwest National Music Festival held in May in Chattanooga. Out of eight competitive categories, Tates Creek won in six and was second in two — an achievement that brings special pride to band director Leslie Anderson.

Tates Creek High School has an enrollment of 1,500 students and is headed by Principal Warren Featherston.

The DANVILLE MARCHING ADMIRALS, headed by Field Commander Tory Berka and directed by David Gillum are dressed in their traditional sailor suits. The band's ship theme matches the nickname of the school's athletic teams, "The Admirals."

Taunya Phillips is captain for the 16-member Flag Corps and Elizabeth Howard is captain for the eight-member Rifle Corps.

Recent honors for the Danville band include winning the Campbell County AA Division in 1980, named champion of the Murfreesboro, Tenn., band festival for the under-80 division and champion of the Murray State University band festival, in the same division.

On Nov. 6-7 the Danville band will travel to Johnson City, Tenn., to compete in the Marching Bands of America national competition. "We are most excited to be invited," director Gillum said. "This invitation places us in the top 12 'A' division bands in the nation."

Danville High School has 600 students in grades 9-12. Their principal is Don Turner.

The FRANKLIN COUNTY FLYER BAND, directed by Tom Brawner, fields 160 members clothed in navy uniforms with gold piping and buttons. A white overlay decorates the back.

Drum major for the Flyers is Brooks Giles. Co-captains Teresa Hilton and Jackie Shroat lead the eight-member majorettes.

Recent honors for the band include placing first in the 1980 International Music Festival, Wildwood, N. J., for both concert and jazz band divisions. Last spring, the band competed in the Daytona Beach, Fla., Music Festival placing first in concert, jazz and marching divisions.

The Franklin Flyers are currently preparing six different shows for each of their home football games. Rick Greenwood serves as assistant band director and Barbara Pennington is sponsor for the majorettes.

Franklin County High has an enrollment of about 1,000 students. The principal is Robert Hoagland.

Stadium Information

First Aid—The University of Kentucky provides, for your convenience and welfare, First Aid Stations on the ground level on both sides of the stadium. On the West side is Room 156, the East side, Room 172. An ambulance is available at each corner of the stadium. Twenty doctors on duty are spotted in each section of the stadium and are easily accessible to Boy Scouts and ushers. Two golf cart ambulances are equipped for immediate aid and located on the second level on each side of the stadium. Persons with any type of chronic medical problem are requested to leave their name and seat location with the nurse on duty at either First Aid station. A person in need of assistance with a health emergency should report the situation immediately to the nearest Boy Scout or usher.

Cardiac Care—In cooperation with the University Medical Services, the University of Kentucky provides a cardiac resuscitation program.

Crowd Noise Penalty—Uncontrolled crowd noise can result in a five yard penalty against your team. Please observe quarterback and official's signals for quiet.

No Horns—Horns are not permitted in Commonwealth Stadium and will be picked up at gates. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Keep portable radios at a low volume.

Liquors—Alcoholic beverages are strictly prohibited within the stadium as are all food and drink containers including hard surfaced materials of any type, bottles, cans, thermos bottles, ice bags, ice chests, and any object related to above. Gate personnel are instructed to enforce this rule in the interest of safety.

Signs—Signs and barriers are restricted for Commonwealth Stadium in accordance with University regulations and policies established by the Public Safety Division.

General Ticket Policy for Stadium

- All persons must have a ticket.
- No pass out checks permitted at any gate.
- All sales final.
- Tickets cannot be refunded or replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed.
- The University of Kentucky Athletic Association reserves the right to revoke tickets by refund of purchase price.
- Holder of tickets to University of Kentucky athletic events agrees to abide by stadium and University policies.
- Tickets may not be sold on UK premises (parking lots, stadium grounds, etc.) except by authorized personnel.

Sports Information

RUSSELL RICE

Sports Information Staff Director

Russell Rice was named sports information director at U.K. in May, 1969, after serving two years as assistant to Ken Kuhn, who retired after more than two decades of service with the University. Rice came to the Wildcats from The Lexington Leader, where he was a general reporter eight years and sports editor five years. A native of Paintsville, Ky., he won letters in football, basketball and baseball at Van Lear High, served with the U.S. Marines in World War II, attended Kentucky Wesleyan College and received his bachelor's at the University of Kentucky in 1951.

He has served as manager of the NCAA Mid-East Basketball Tournament (1969), and chairman of the Basketball Hall of Fame Committee of the College Sports Information Directors Association and was recipient of the 1971 Churchmen's "Sportswriter of the Year" award.

As a newspaperman, his duties ranged from agricultural hearings in Washington to spending three months as the traveling companion to a Kentucky gubernatorial candidate. He reported the activities of such Wildcat teams as football coach Charlie Bradshaw's "Thin Thirty" and "The Runts" of basketball coach Adolph Rupp. He is a former Kentucky area correspondent for Time-Life-Fortune magazines and was Kentucky editor of Tobacco Magazine and Religious News Service.

For the past 13 years, he has pursued a hobby of researching Kentucky basketball and football. He authored "The Wildcats: A Story of Kentucky Football," and "The Big Blue Machine: A Story of Kentucky Basketball." His latest work is the Kentucky portion of a "History of the Southeastern Conference," updates of "The Wildcats" and "Big Blue Machine," and a new work to be published in November. He edits the K-Men's Newsletter and has been named an honorary member of that organization. He also was honored by WAVE-TV for "Outstanding Contribution to Televised Sports." He was the first member of the Southeastern Conference Publicity Directors Association to be elected to a two-year term (1977-78) and recently completed his second year as president of the Blue Grass (Kentucky) chapter of the U. S. Harness Writers Association, which was organized in 1977.

UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical Center has a wide range of programs in education and research. The five colleges of the Medical Center — Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing, Pharmacy and Allied Health — have more than 2,000 students pursuing bachelor, masters and doctoral degrees in health-related fields.

Of major significance in the area of medical research is the Sanders-Brown Research Center on Aging, one of the first facilities of its kind in the nation.

UK graduates almost 6,000 students each year from the main campus and the community colleges. The UK Alumni Association, therefore, continues to grow in number of clubs (64) and paid members (22,000). Besides the 34 clubs in Kentucky, there are 30 organized alumni groups outside the state from Los Angeles to New York.

For old alums and other visitors to the University, there's a tour of the UK campus any weekday on a double-decker bus, "Old Blue." The free, guided tour of the campus departs each Monday through Friday at 2 p.m. from near the Administration Building.

The University of Kentucky has had only eight presidents since its founding in 1865. Dr. Otis Singletary, now in his 13th year as UK president, is a history scholar and nationally-recognized university administrator.
