

Minutes of the University Senate - June 2, 1937

content, preparation, province and subject matter, legislative drafting, means of making laws effective, mechanics, interpretation, operation, amendment, abrogation and repeal, relation of traditional law to legislation. Three hours per week, second semester. 3 credits.

There was some discussion of our present practice of using S before the number of a course in the summer session and R in the regular session to denote reduced credit. A request had been made to increase the credit of a course in the summer session. A motion was passed that S be used to denote increased credit and R, reduced credit at any term or semester.
