Archetype Landscapes and Invisibility II
If perspective limited exclusively to Gentleman Farms, will suppress larger context and possible linkages.

- Slaves—division of labor, housing, farm's functions. Post Civil War labor needs and creation of African-American hamlets.
- Tenants—cleared and broke new land, later removed by "ejectment" legal action.
- Immigrants—day laborers, turnpikers, stone masons. Irish
- Middling Farmers—neighbors, market for blooded stock, payers of tolls and taxes.
- Towns—county seats, road and rail centers, markets, retail, fairgrounds
