

The pastors of these churches are anxious to serve the university students in every possible way. Call upon us for any service that we can render through your organizations. Come and see us and feel free in talking over with us your problems.

All these churches invite you to their services and other activities. Make yourself at home in any of them. Find some one church where you think you will feel at home and identify yourself with its life while you are in Lexington. You will look back on that experience as one of the most helpful features of your university career.

A. W. FORTUNE, Ph. D.,

Pastor of Central Christian Church.

VARIOUS SALUTATIONS

"How do you do?"—English and American. "How do you carry ourself?"—French. "How do you stand?"—Italian. "How do you find yourself?"—German. "How do you fare?"—Dutch. "How can you?"—Swedish. "How do you perspire?"—Egyptian. "How is your stomach? Have you eaten your rice?"—Chinese. "How do you have yourself?"—Polish. "How do you live on?"—Russian. "May thy shadow never be less."—Persian. All mean practically the same.

A MAN'S CREED

I would be true for there are those who trust me. I would be pure for there are those who care. I would be strong for there is much to suffer. I would be brave for there is much to dare. I would be friend to all—the foe—the friendless. I would be giving, and forget the gift. I would be humble, for I know my weakness; I would look up—and laugh—and love—and lift.
