

Speaker's Room,

House of Representatives,

Washington, D. C., April 7, 1886.

Prof. J. K. Patterson,
Lexington,
Ky:

Dear Sir:

Your favor is received. From what I know of the sentiment of the House I am of the opinion that the bill to which you allude will be passed without difficulty if it can be reached for consideration. There appears to be very little if any difference of opinion upon the subject.

Yours truly,
G. C. Carlisle
