Miss. Borgia,

Your note to hand this morning. I regret very much indeed that it was not received a little sooner. Unfortunately, that is for me, I had made an engagement only a short time before, which will of course prevent me from calling Sunday, and which, to say the least, I regret exceedingly.

I will call for an hour Monday eve and trust I shall be able to satisfactorily answer your oft repeated questions
