

Stables

The "Old Stone Church"

A Presbyterian meeting-house about 8 miles North-East of Staunton, Augusta County, Va., erected by pioneers of the Valley of Virginia in 1748. Here worshipped and the Allens, Bells, Trimbles, &c., and hereabouts their remains lie buried. Photograph taken in April, 1897, 150 years after the building of the church.