Mr. Robert Straus, Ph.D.

my dear Dr. Straus:

I thank you for your letter. I wrote to Elliot at Waterville, N. Y., and sent a copy of the letter from his stepdaughter. I also told him that I had been unable to get further information. I asked Mrs. Simpson when her mother died and how but simply received a Christmas card and she said that she would write later. I also told Elliot that I was far from well and said that I was thinking and hoping for him. That was all. Per-
