LINKED with the courageous story of Kentucky's growth, is the life of the University of Kentucky. Its high standard of learning, sportsmanship and chivalry are indelibly stamped upon the characters of the youth who have passed beneath its portals.

Lexingtonians are justly proud of the prestige of the University located within the confines of their city. The Athletic Association is to be commended for its efforts in building up cooperative efforts in athletics, particularly exemplified in the game of football, which requires the coordinated movement of the team as a whole.

From a well wisher who joins in the tribute of acclaim to the University and its student body.

Football and Other Things

By NIEL PLUMMER
Program Editor

Greatly concerned over the outcome of today's battle between Duke University's Blue Devils and Kentucky's Wildcats are several thousand football fans, approximately 100 football players—and the two gentlemen whose pictures appear below.

The gentlemen—the Honorable Wallace Wade, glorifier of the Red Elephants and now the Blue Devils; and the Honorable Harry Gamage, who has led his Wildcats from the slough of 1926 to a position of respect among the nation's football teams.

COACH WADE

That these gentlemen should be interested in the outcome of today's game is to be expected. Mr. Wade has what may be considered an unnecessary number of victories over Kentucky football teams. At least the number can be said to be discouraging for Kentuckians. As for Mr. Gamage, a victory today would be a sweet tidbit to carry away some of the bitterness of last week's Washington and Lee game at Roanoke, Va. It is bad enough to lose when your team plays its best—but it is worse to lose when the result could have been different.

There is little to say about this game today. Duke is undefeated—

HARRY GAMAGE

Kentucky has four victories and one defeat. It should be quite a battle... there may be a repetition of that great Georgia Tech-Kentucky game. In that event it would be well for partisans of both teams to cast their dignity over the stadium walls and begin bellowing "Fight Blue and White." That will go for both sides, for those colors lead both teams.

Now on with the game, and we might suggest that you keep your eyes on one Mr. Freddie Crawford, Duke's great tackle, and Kentucky's one and only Mr. Ralph Kercheval of kicking fame. Somebody's All-American team is going to carry the names of these boys when the football season is over. See you again at the V. M. I. and the Tennessee games on Stoll field.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO FLY THE MAIL AT NIGHT

● A. M. WILKINS has flown the night air mail over 150,000 miles for TWA. It takes healthy nerves to hang up a record like that!

● WILKINS joins a fellow pilot, W. Niedernhofer, at Newark Airport, for a chat and a smoke. "Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves," Wilkins says.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, living up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself.
