

Coach Turns Colonel

UK's new head football coach, Charlie Bradshaw (left), receives a handshake and a Kentucky Colonelship from Gov. Bert T. Combs. Coach Bradshaw was introduced to the 1962 General Assembly last Thursday.

'Moot Maid'

Students To Publish Humor Magazine

Plans are being made by a group of UK students to publish a humor magazine, Moot

Such an endeavor has not been tried since the early forties when the Wildcat was banned by the Board of Trustees because of a cartoon concerning the statue of President Patterson.

and humorous stories produced by local talent, the editors plan to publish the "best humor" from about 30 university publications.

A monthly feature of the humor magazine will be the "Moot Maid," a coed selected by the editors and presented through a picture story. Nominations for the beauty honor may be made by sending a name and bodie. by sending a name and photo-graph to the magazine.

Just as Playboy has a rabbit and Esquire uses a tophat, Moot will be symbolized by a knight. Cre-ation of the magazine was insti-gated by Jack Duarte, a sophomore journalism major from New Orleans, La.

"The University is supposed to be progressive and needs a humor magazine to help it prestige-wise," said Duarte. Believing that talent in humor writing is going to waste at UK, he feels Moot to be the answer. Duarte said "Students may submit articles for publication, and if used, the writer will be well paid.

"My associates and I realize that independent students really make up the biggest percentage of UK so these are the people we'd like to appeal to. They will be our judge and jury."

Other members of the new bus-

Moot will not be Universityrie, managing editor; Nick Pope, sponsored, but plans are to sell it throughout the campus and Lexington. Representatives of sororities, fraternities, and dormitories will deliver the magazine to each subscriber's room monthly.

Along with the jokes, cartoons,
Deitz, staff writer; and Rob
Deitz, staff writer.

from Dr. Dickey At Dinner

Dr. Frank G. Dickey will be a key speaker at a dinner for the District Three Conference of the American Alumni Council which opens tonight at the Phoenix Ho-

"Operation: Fundamentals" will be the topic for the conference which will run through Saturday.

Presiding at the conference will be Miss Helen King, University of Kentucky director of Alumni Affairs, and Bruce Cotton, vice president for External Affairs at Transylvania College.

Waldo C. M. Johnson, director of the Yale University Office of En-rollment and Scholarships, and president of the American Alumni Council, will speak to the conference Thursday at a dinner meet-

Approximately 200 alumni workers from nine southern states, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida, are expected to attend.

Geological Survey Issues Sixth Booklet

Sixth in the series of booklets describing the geology of Kentucky's scenic attractions has been issued here by the Kentucky Geological Survey.

Sixth in the series of booklets is still accessible as a tourist attraction.

Earlier reports have described the geological features of Marm moth Cave. Natural Bridge. Cum.

"The Geologic Story of Diamond Caverns," was written by Preston McGrain, assistant state geologist and survey staff member.

Diamond Caverns, in the heart of Kentucky's famous cave coun-tey, is located near Mammoth Cave National Park. It is one of the few caves in the state which Earlier reports have described moth Cave, Natural Bridge, Cumberland Falls, the Breaks of the Sandy, and the Carter and Cascade Caves area.

Dr. Wallace W. Hagan, state geologist and director of the Ken-tucky Geological Survey, said the booklets are of general educational interest and are particularly helpful to the tourist visiting the parks or scenic areas.

The Kentucky

LEXINGTON, KY., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 17, 1962 Vol. LIII. No. 57

Eight Pages

Student Congress Budget Receives Final Approval

Kernel Daily Editor

For the third time in two months the Student Congress budget reached the floor of the SC Monday night, and this time it was legally approved.

The budget, based on an income f over $11,000, is probably the largest in the governing body's history. It now includes $3,000 granted by the Board of Trustees granted by the Board of Trustees and another $1,000 promised by Dr. L. L. Martin, dean of men and ad-viser to SC. The bulk of the con-gress' income, $7,100, is allotted from student tuition fees.

The budget approved Monday night now includes financial sup-port for academically-related organizations such as the debate team, the cattle judging team, Law Day, and Stylus, a campus literary

These activities were not in-cluded in the previous budget when a check of Student Con-gress' income revealed a $1,000 drop due to a miscalculation of student fees. At this point, Dean Martin offered to find the extra needed to support these

Part of the $3,000 allotted Student Congress by the Board of Trustees will be used to finance a Washington seminar, one of SC's special projects.

In other action Monday, the organization voted to grant Jim Daniel, SC president, $100 to pay expenses for a trip to Washington, D. C. during the semester break to lay the ground work for this seminar.

Martin

Gene Harris, treasurer for the Adds $1000 organization, noted that any of the money the president does not use will be returned to the governing body.

In answer as to whether somean answer as to whether someone who lives in Washington could be sent in order to save on expenses, Harris replied that since Daniel had worked in the Capitol before he would be better able to make the necessary contacts.

Bob Scott, representative from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, gave a short report explaining the Southern Universities Student Govern-ment Association of which UK is a member.

Scott, who is the University's representative to SUSGA, said UK is the only school in Kentucky which is a member of the organization. He reported that he has contacted five other schools in the external plant to talk with them. state and plans to talk with them about SUSGA.

The Agriculture representative said the annual conference of SUSGA will be held April 26-28 at Clemson University, Clemson, N.C. Scott said that all interested students may attend the meet-

During the conference, students from the 39 member schools will discuss campus traffic, foreign stu-dent relations, the judicial systems, and financing student govern-

The promise of Dr. L. L. Martin, dean of men and adviser to Student Congress, was fulfilled Monday night when the new budget appeared with $1,000 added to support the academically related-activities.

In the estimated income, the new In the estimated income, the new budget shows a "balance carry-over" of $561.72 and a $510.31 rise in student fees during the first semester and summer session of this year.

Gene Harris, treasurer of Student Congress, said that Dean Martin did not indicate where the $500-figure of carry-over actually came from. The dean just explained it was a balance left from last year's SC budget.

However, Harris said that the Student Congress vouchers of Sept. 15 show that the organization had five cents to begin operations this semester.

The remaining extra $510.31 was returned to SC after a second re-evaluation of the income received from student fees for first semester and the summer session was made. First semester will yield $410.31 and

Kappa Sigma Mascot Dies; Funeral Services Today

Balthasar Cossa, II, English bulldog mascot of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, died at Del-Tor Veterinary Hospital late Monday evening after a linger-

Born June 29, 1956, the son of London Barrister, the original Mack Truck Bulldog, and Boxton Miss Lizzie, he was named Char-leen's Rodeo Jim.

Upon arrival at the Kappa S house at the age of two months as a contest prize, Rodeo Jim's name was changed to Cossa, after a figure in the fraternity's history.

A frequenter of many campus events in the past years, Cossa has received publicity in many newspapers and through the Kappa Sigma national system.

Among Cossa's newsworthy adventures were his overnight stays in various sorority houses, and the merry chase after various members of the football team as they passed his Hilltop Avenue home.

During the years spent at the Kappa Sig house, Cossa had be-come very fond of pizza and other unusual foods not commonly con-

Steve Webb, Kappa Sigma president, said that a story of Cossa's death had been sent to Chet Huntley and David Brink-ley of NBC news, and was placed on the news wire of the Associ-

Cossa, the Kappa Sigma mascot, is shown lounging in one of his lazier moods at a Kappa Sig party earlier this year. The English bulldog died late Monday evening, after a life of adventure and frolic during his five and one-half years as mascot to the Kappa Sigmas.

Chamber Music Concert

This piano quartet, composed of faculty members of the Depart-ment of Music will present a chamber music concert at 8 p.m today in the Memorial HMI. They will play selections from Becthoven, Dohnanyi, and Mozart. From the left are Kenneth Wright, violin; Howard Karp, piano: Paul Todd, viola; Gordon Kinney, cello.

'Just This Once' Says Dean Elton

The registration and examination schedule facing students this semester is "just a one time happening," said Dr. Charles this semester is "just a one time happening, said Dr. Charles F. Elton, University registrar.

The present registration problem was caused by the new classification system now in use. The calender in use this year was made out in October of 1960 and approved by the faculty. The calender allowed one day, Monday, for registration, but when the new system went into effect, two extra days were needed.

The calender was set up to al-system went into effect, two extra days were needed.

The calender was set up to allow a certain number of teaching, days for each semester; therefore, the two extra days had to come out of the semester vacation. The present schedule cannot be changed without the approval of the faculty, and the exam schedule had already been drawn up and circolated.

Dean Ellon said that in next year's calender registration for both fall and spring semesters will be on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Coporation of Houston, Texas, the indicated this situation "won't happen again next year."

Senior Engineer Receives Award

C. David Chittenden, senior electrical engineering major from Paducah, has been awarded a $500 scholarship.

The schloarship was given by the Schlumberger Well Surveying Corporation of Houston, Texas, the condition of the power of the service of the condition of the service o

Junior College System Planned By Combs

Gov. Bert Combs said Monday that he wants to set up a State system of junior colleges that would have "advisory boards of trustees" but would be administered through the Making the two-year community colleges part of the UK system would go against a recommendation of the Governor's Commission on the Study of Public Higher Education. The commission has urged that regional colleges be independent of the University.

Combs said that he felt otherwise and plays to meet soon with.

Tuesday by Kathy. Roper White

Combs said he plans to follow his commission's recommendation that two-year colleges be built at "Prestonsburg, Hopkinsville, Somerset ,and perhaps the Blackey-Hazard area. No timetable has

Elizabethtown center authorized by

He said the five extension centers and the season term and the season term of the season urged that regional colleges be independent of the University.

Combs said that he felt otherwise and plans to meet soon with the presidents of the State colleges and the University "and thrash this thing out so it will be a workable system?"

For that reason, the governor called his plans tentative and subject to change. He said details remain to be worked out on the relationship of the junior colleges to the University.

Combs said he plans to follow his commission's recommendation that two-year colleges be built at music director, Kathy Fitzgerald.

NOW SHOWING Glenn Ford — Bette Davis Hope Lange

"POCKETFUL OF MIRACLES"

NOW SHOWING

"HEY LET'S TWIST"

"THE PURPLE HILLS" STARTS THURSDAY Ernie Kovacs—Carolyn Jones
"Sail A Crooked Ship" "20,000 EYES"

NOW . . . 3rd WEEK! "FLOWER DRUM SONG" STARTS FRIDAY

DEBORAH KERR In a Real Wild Wierdey! "THE INNOCENTS"

Sign Later
Veterans and war orphans who want their checks must sign up Jan. 20 through Jan. 25 (final examination week). This can be done by reporting to the Veterans office in the Administration Building.

White Hall was formerly a men's dormitory. Opposite it was a com-bination mess hall and dormitory which later became Neville Hall.

It's easy to feel that way when you can't seem to get ahead of financial woes. Eut, things prob-ably aren't as bad as they seem. ably aren't as bad as they seem. A good way to begin your financial planning is through life insurance. And a good time to begin is now, when you'll profit by lower premiums. Many new plans and features, especially attractive to college students, deserve your consideration.

Stop by our campus office, or telephone for more information,

GARY DENTON Campus Representative 460 HILLTOP Phone Ext. 8011 or 8021

LEONARD "BABE" RAY 305 DUNN BUILDING LIME AT MAXWELL Phone 3-1792

> PROVIDENT MUTUAL of Philadelphia

PASQUALE'S PIZZA :

SERVING THE FINEST IN ITALIAN FOOD

Pizza — Ravioli — Spaghetti — Chili — Sandwiches and Fresh Donuts

WE DELIVER FROM 5 P.M. TO 12 P.M.

Phone 4-6685 .

284 S. LIMESTONE

Right Now ...

WE ARE PAYING

TOP PRICES

FOR

USED BOOKS

'We Buy And Sell Anytime'

CAMPUS BOOK STORE

McVey Hall -

Women Show Optimism For Future Social Activities

By The Associated Press
Women are optimistic in their
A least 50 per cent see no point building fallout shelters, and ture was shown in an Associated Press survey of women of various ages, educational, financial, and social backgrounds across the country.

"I' don't want a fallout shelter," says Mrs. Martha Blake, Birminsham, Mich., housewife and mother where we are going to have a nortelear war," says Mrs. Martha Blake, Birminsham, Mich., housewife and mother whether we are going to have a over a wide area during the days and chances are they couldn't get to the shelter in time.

"I' think mankind will continue"

"I' think mankind will continue it is in the offing only problems, women worry about the they et toge
"I' think mankind whill continue it is in the offing only problems, women tworry about the they et toge
"I' think mankind whill continue it is in the offing only problems, women tworry about them at they get toge
"I' think mankind whill continue it is in the offing only problems, women tworry about men and take such they toge.

"I' don't want a fallout shelter, and dates and careers. Wives worry about men and dates and careers. Wives worry about men and dates and careers. Wives worry about men a

A mood of optimism and of faith in the future seems to un-derlie most of the thinking, al-though no one underestimates the desperate challenges ahead. As for nuclear war, a majority

CLASSIFIED

ROOM FOR RENT—Downstairs bed-room, adjoining bath, linens furnished. Kitchen privileges. 516 Oldham Ave.

MISCELLANEOUS DENNIS
BOOK STORE

1862 Also Nassau, spring vacation of 1962 Also Nassau, spring vacation of
1962 Por information call Raleigh Lane
PDT house, 3-2042 or 4-8996 at 330
Citton Ave.

"If we should, whoever gets to the shelter in time.

"I think mankind will continue for a long time. The future of our for a long time. The future of our for a long time. The future of our fashions—while secretly wishing the pushbutton first is going to win. But if we trust in our country, and in our God, we are not going to panic.

"I don't believe any woman will."

"I don't believe any woman will."

"I don't believe any woman will."

"I think mankind will continue for all wind in a secretly wishing they could (1) afford them, and or two going to panic.

"I think mankind will continue for all wind in a secretly wishing the sound (2) wear them with any degree of insouciance—the survey comes up with a majority vote in favor of current trends. Easy-fitting for going to panic.

"I don't believe any woman will panic."

Women Are Individualists
Her opinion is not necessarily representative. Women seem to have the troublesome knack of not thinking like each other.

About the only real unanimity is in the hope for peace—in their own time, but especially in their children's.

A mood of optimism and of faith in the future seems to underlie most of the thinking, at though no one of the thinking, at the popular tries with their 'ability they could (1) afford them, and of the thinking to go through many crises. We with their 'ability they could (1) afford them, and of the typing times and made it. I think they will."

Costs, Wages Balance
Surprisingly, most women are not complaining — at least out the adjectives used.

As usual, henlines are the big-quest elsew. As usual, henlines are the big-gest elsew. Leggy Americans by the people I know are having a hard time making ends meet."

The Big Issue

Education, which concerns the following they could (1) afford them, and of a to think any degree of insouciance—the survey comes up with a majority vote in favor of current trends. Easy-fitting, fe-minine, comfortable are the chief adjectives used.

As usual, henlines are the big-gest elsew. Leggy Americans by with real bitterness. As usual, seem the chief of the complaint and the problem generally in the popular trends. The big they could (1) afford them, and of the popular trends. The supplies and the problem generally in the cost of living. Many think that the problem generally in the popular trends. The big they could (1) afford them and the survey of the complaint and the problem generally in their cost of livin

The Big Issue

Education, which concerns mothers these days almost as much as childhood diseases, gets a pretty good report card. A majority think that education generally is greatly improved over what it was in their own schooldays.

Suggestions for improvement include more emphasis on basics, stricter discipline, teaching youngsters how to study and budget their time, more homework, foreign languages at early ages, less crowding ADVERTISING RATE — 5 cents per terms word; 75 cents minimum; 25 percent time, more homework, foreign lancopy Deadline—24 hours before publication date. Phone NICK POPE, 2306 between 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. Monday the humanities.

ne numanities.

Biggest headache for fond moth-FOR RENT—Two modern apartments, undurnished, 365-375 per month, No children to UK. Phone 2-9152 for 1224.

FOR RENT—2 rooms for boys, walk-in closets. Convenient and quiet. Very near campus. Apply 161 Bonnie Brae closets. Convenient and quiet. Very near campus. Apply 161 Bonnie Brae light are learning phonics, thank Drive.

The Universal Problem

Biggest headache for fond mothers seems to be: Johnny can't spell. FT. CARSON, Colo. (AP) — A pt. Carson soldier who claims to be a descendant of Jesse James instant of Jesse James instant progressive spelling era. They can't spell for beans. My grandchildren eight are learning phonics, thank havens."

The Universal Problem

The Universal Problem

But war and peace, and youngsters and their ABC's aren't the ton, Tex., says his father, Stanley

M. James, "claims that although sters and their ABC's aren't the Bob Ford shot Jesse in the back,

5-0934 night 3-2942.

RIDERS WANTED—to Miami, Fia. Coll combed so that it actually logis Roomie at 3-2955.

LOST—I pair ladies black-rimmed glasses in gray case. Phone 6208.

LOST—Raincoat with heavy lining. Saturday night at Jewell Hall. Size 38, who will be sufficiently as does a similar elliptical style phone 6201—David Bolin. 12334.

With property of the sum of the same colors of the same colors of the same colors of the same colors. edges in the same colors.

> Central Kentucky's Largest USED BOOK STORE (Other Than Text)

DENNIS

Elections

Hamilton House

Hamilton House many major from 2 from Pikeville, now stationed at Fort reasurer.

Hamilton House recently elected a member of Sigma Phi Epgilon the following officers: Linda Midfraternity.

Nancy Jo Butt, a sophomore Arts and Sciences student from Pikerille, recording secretary; Sue Hicks, ville, to Donald Maynard from treasurer.

Judy Hopkins, corresponding se-

Meetings - cretary, Lynda Snelling, social chairman: Norma Willhite, activities chairman; Margo Hagnilton, historian; Kay Thornbury, assistant historian, and Jonelle Simmore Weye Hall

The new members are Anne W.

Colleen Carter, a sophomore Kuhn, Carol Daughtefty, Arthur S. Luchsinger and Eric Reckmann.

The honorary members are Dr. more physics major from Louis-Adolph E. Bigge, head of the De.

Grange, and a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Chi Alpha fraternity.

Carter, a sophomore Major from Lagrange, and Dr. Paul T. Whitaker, profector of Germanic language and Dr. Paul T. Whitaker, profector of Germanic language and literature.

Engagements

Jo Ann Snider, a sophomore mathematics major from Taylors-ville, to Emil Baker, a junior phar-macy major from Taylorsville, and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon

QUIET STUDY ROOMS

For Final Exams At The

Downtowner

MOTOR HOTEL

347 East Main Street at Rose

SPECIAL STUDENT GROUP RATE $11.00 Per Room

Will Accommodate 4 Students Phone 2-3968 For Reservations

105 West Main

368 Southland Drive

ACROSS FROM THE S.U.B.

CASH FOR BOOKS KENNEDY BOOK STORE -

Welcome, Coach Bradshaw!

The coming of Charles Bradshaw as head football coach will be cheered Rabid football fans love the man already. He is a reminder of gridiron glory achieved here under Paul Bryant, for only several days ago Bradshaw was still offensive coach for Bryant's University of Alabama team, national champions last year.

Too, the real fans are impressed by Bradshaw's declaration to find out "what we have to do to win." And the new coach is speaking their language when he says he must "hire the best young assistants in football today."

If indeed Bradshaw does discover how to win football games at UK, he will surely be welcomed by the University's numerous fair-weather football followers (the people who never support a losing team, but are always on hand to cheer a winning squad). All this may eventually mean that students will stop passing women over their shoulders at Stoll Field and start watching the game.

Finally, Bradshaw's selection as head coach should please even the Faculty and campus intellectuals. Unlike many in his profession, Bradshaw believes in stiff academic standards and does not object to his men having to pass courses.

'You don't win with dumb ones." he said at his first press conference here. "We are going after the better athletes and the better students. The day of the tramp athlete is gone.

Of course Louisville and Lexington sports writers who had campaigned for lower admissions standards reeled with surprise at Bradshaw's words. Now, it seems, they alone advocate the idiotic doctrine that more "dumb ones" is what this University

To all this, the Kernel would like to extend its own cordial welcome to Charles Bradshaw. From all we hear, he has the makings of a great coach.

We've Got The Habit

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

The nation is beset with TV tables, TV dinners, TV cushions, TV robes, TV Guides, TV repairmen, TV parties, TV snacks and TV hounds. hounds

America is addicted to television and no narcotic has ever had such a habit-forming effect. The home without a television set is practically unheard of. Even the poorest of shacks has that familiar antenna towering into space.

The introduction of television to the child is begun the moment he is brought home from the hospital. The baby soon learns that he has to wait for the commercial to have his diaper changed or his bottle heated. The first word learned after he has mastered "mama" and is TV.

By the time the child starts to school e may not know where Gulliver traveled, or who Winnie the Pooh was or that Mother was a Goose, but just ask him about Captain Kangaroo or Dennis the Menace or the Three Stooges and he has all the answers. Maybe he can't sing "Mary Had a Little Lamb" or "Jesus Loves Me," but he has those musical nmercials down pat.

Parents have the best babysitter they could want. Who could expect them to deprive a child of his natural rights by censoring the shows he sees and providing him with a book to read or taking him to a community event when undesirable programs dominate the air?

Television is subtly threatening the future success of our democratic form of government. Not only are children getting a lopsided background, but adult Americans spend numerous hours vicariously fighting crime and settling the West when they should turn their attention to newspapers or magazines in order to keep informed for their role as responsible citizens.

The possibilities television offers for educating the masses about national and international affairs, about music, literature and science are unlimited. Gradually more programs of this type are being incorporated into the TV schedules, but all too often they are "spectaculars" or once-a-month presentations and not a part of everyday fare. Classroom programs are still shown at 6 a.m. for half an hour while the shoot-em-up, knock-me-down gets at least an hour in the evening.

The sponsors refuse to take the blame for the mediocrity of most American shows. They insist that they must give the public what it wants if their expense is to be justified. What they don't say is that they are the ones who mold and shape television taste.

"It's the sponsor's fault, all right," you'll assure yourself tonight after you have finished sitting through the program that has a remarkable sameness week in and week out, but which you never miss. - (THE DAILY REVEILLE, Louisiana State University).

Kernels

It is a poor and disgraceful thing not to be able to reply, with some de gree of certainty, to the simple questions, "What will you be? What will you do?" - lohn Foster.

The New (?) Look

National magazines, manufacturers, and promoters have for years been designating various days, weeks, and months to commemorate "somethingor-other." It is becoming a fad. For fear of being called non-conformists, we would like to designate this week at UK as "Grub Week."

For those who might not understand this term, be patient, it will be demonstrated to you during the next few days.

Girls' hairdos will seem less bouffant (no time for ratting), fingernails chipped, and makeup lacking. UK's answers to "Esquire" will be attired in crumpled shirts, unshined shoes, and fuzzy faces.

What's the reason for this razzledazzle, cloddish dress? A barrage of term papers and burning the candle at both ends for finals. What else?

Happy grubbing!!

Faulty Communications

In these young days of the Peace Corps there have been many discrepancies noted and publicized throughout the world about its ineffectiveness and shortcomings.

We recentyl have seen more results of the program here at the University.

A check with the Placement Service has revealed that two applicants for the corps were accepted for training, but when notified of their acceptance they already had been employed elsewhere.

Which brings up the question: How effective has been the dissemination of information and communication concerning the program?

A further check reveals that there has been a lack of coordination in publicity and setting dates for interviews. It was noted also that there has been little time to give the proper treatment to the publicity of the Peace Corps program because of the lateness of material arriving.

Sometimes the Placement Service has had as little as two days notice in which to spread the word.

Although the turnout of applicants has been light, it seems much could be done in the way of communication from the higher echelons of the corps down to the student level.

If there is an improvement along this line, it seems the corps will not flounder in the throes of adolescence

Algeria Violence Shakes French Republic

AP News Analyst

PARIS-French authorities waging a struggle on two fronts in Algeria-caught between diehard European settlers and Moslem Rebels.

Savage ambushes beset French troops charged with holding down Moslem forces on the FLN (National Liberation Front) in the North African territory, and in the cities police vainly try to combat rising terrorism from the right-wing secret army determined to keep Algeria French.

There was no sign of progress, meanwhile, that the French and the Algerian nationalist rebels were heading toward agreement even though President Charles de Gaulle wants an independent Algeria with close economic and social ties with France

Near anarchy prevailed in Oran,

Algeria's second city where Moslems and Europeans battle daily in the city's streets. The economy of the once-thriving seaport has been seriously damaged. French officials admit they are no longer in control of the situation.

The toll of killed and injured mounts steadily throughout Algeria in an almost endless procession of sidewalk shootings, lynching of Moslems by European mobs, and the crackle of gunfire as the Algerians

Plastic bombs, the trademark of the secret army, blast business establishments of owners who refuse to pay tribute to the right-wing cause. Moslem terrorists strike down Europeans, and attack their own people who decline to help fill rebel coffers.

The secret army has stepped up what appears to be a psychological campaign in clandestine radio broadcasts. Code sentences are read out with all the drama of World War II's cross-channel messages to Nazioccupied Europe.

The cigarettes are lit," "The orange trees will soon blossom," are two recent code signals.

Somewhere in Algeria, ex-Gen.

Raoul Salan, secret army chieftain, directs his followers. Salan, whose old army nickname is "the mandarin." has been sentenced to death in absentia for the abortive putsch of the generals last April. He has been sheltered by sympathizers ever since, and takes to the air on some secret radio broadcasts.

The Kentucky Kernel

Entered at the post office at Lexington, Kentucky as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Published four times a week during the regular school year except during holidays and exams.

SIX DOLLARS A SCHOOL YEAR

ED VAN HOOK, Editor

KERRY POWELL, Managing Editor
BEN FITZPATRICK, Sports Editor
DICK WALLACE, Advertising Manager
BILL HOLTON, Circulation Manager

WAYNE GREGORY, Campus Editor JEAN SCHWARTZ, Society Editor RICK MCREYNOLDS, Cartoonist BOBBIE MASON, Arts Editor

WEDNESDAY NEWS STAFF JACK GUTHRIE, News Editor

BEN FITZPATRICK, Sports

TONI LENNOS, Associate

commentaires par les a mateurs

An analysis of the comedy of the 19th Century Frenchman Moliere must first be concerned with the satirical pur pose of his drama. Moliere was primarily a satirist, and the actual comedy of his plays is secondary to the poignant messages of his wit. He makes little attempt at creating large comic characters, as his main concern is a critical analysis of the social condition rather than pure entertainment.

Because Moliere is such a satirist, his characters take on fewer comic aspects than one would ordinarily expect in a comedy. The entire spirit of Moliere's drama is an unusual satire, not a thoughtless comedy of words, with humor developing from situations rather than from witty lines. Moliere's objective is a search for truth, with the intention of moralizing through a comic medium. Thus his interest is in the "interior" man, not his external actions. Rebelling against an age when man was made into an artificial being, he upholds instinct and the central goodness of human nature.

His so-called comedy, "Don Juan," for instance is one of his "comedies of character," in which he is interested in seeing dragon? what Don Juan will do and what will happen to him as a result of his character. The other characters are subsidiary, merely necessities to support the larger figure, and Moliere gets carried away with his hero, his caprices taking him to un-

Is Don Juan a tragic figure-or a comic character? Moliere might say he is just a character, a man capable of good and bod, an undeniably incoherent character. Egotism, impiety, fraud, hypocrisy, and debauchery are only some of Don Juan's qualities. He is a durable character through his elegance, his courage, and his libertinism, and a certain sincerity in his very hypocrisy. He is not a heretic because he does not take a position vis-a-vis orthodoxy. Instead he chooses nothing.

Thus, as a comedy, "Don Juan" merely suffices. We cannot always laugh, nor really ever cry. However, as a satire, and this is the spirit of Moliere, "Don Juan" is a good example. But here too Moliere was attacked for his ambiguity and people still wonder what he really meant.

Moliere was viciously attacked for opposing Christianity, because he embodied the Christian element in the figure of Don Juan's valet, who in the end is more interested in his money than in virtue. Because it is he who must uphold the existence of God, there is a question of whether he truly represents Christianity, for he never abandons his master, the atheist Don Juan, even though he is honest enough to criticize his vices

'St. George' In Paris

Who Has 'St. George'?

Who owns the work of the noted Florentine painter (1397-1475)? The National Gallery of London? Or the Musee Jacquemart-Andre of Paris? Or are both genuine Ucels? Or perhaps, neither?

Those who love mysteries in art an go to the National Gallery in

The Paris museum has loaned its "St George" to the National Gallery for two months. The museum got its Uccello in 1899.

The National Gallery acquired its "St. George" in 1959. The British art gallery coyly terms the painting "attributed to Uccello." That means there is some doubt

By The Associated Press Logdon on wand stare at both which is the real Uccello painting of St. George and the description of St. February 2 The Paris museum has loaned The National Gallery's Uccello has been much discussed since the painting of St. George and the description of

The Paris work was in doubt ful condition and has been re-stored.

Many of Uccello's works have

'St. George' In London

i. e., Pornography

Writer Analyzes 'New American Poetry'

Some day somebody's going to write a book about the poet as a human being. It won't sell, of course, but a few people might read it and the idea might stick. Then we can talk sanely about

I become faintly ill when I realize that most of the I become faintly ill when I realize that most of the poetry of our generation is academically based, academically to the controlled, and is reverting to a Parnassian perfect-little-poem concept that supposedly went out with Arthur Symons.

Poets like Richard Wilbur and Peter Viereck (pre-

Arthur Symons.

Poets like Richard Wilbur and Peter Viereck (predated by Elizabeth Bishop) while writing admittedly delightful verse, have either contented themselves with depicting the object as euphoniously as possible or writing a rather precious moralistic verse relying on a rancid classicism. And this, I may warn, is not, an adolescent judgment. I don't regret Wilbur's metrical facility, or Viereck's felicitous punning, but I do contest their whole-hearted boycott of the "poetic market," to the exclusion of what they, from their quasi-Gothic citacles, call the "protest" movement.

This movement (which needs an apter name), centered in San Francisce, has been roundly snubbed by the common verse magazines, which has necessitated the creation of "its own journals, Origin, Black Mountain Review, and others; and the publication of an anthology, "The New American Poetry 1945-1960."

These publications give them a rostrum which many of them take too seriously, expounding from this cynosure an admirable, though obseene, rhetoric. The more pornographically-minded of us would do well to purchase this volume. There's more pornography than poetry in the book, and that's no prudish statement. Indeed, I find it exceedingly difficult to find quotable and printable material. Between the dull autobiographical data and hackneyed expletives there are only exclamation points.

Disgusted with that, I turned to the back of the tome to the "statements on poetics" by such poets as Robert Duncan, Denise Lovertov, and Lawrence Ferjlinghetti, and was surprised, after having read their declarations on form, to find them discussing technique ad nauseam. The typewriter, in particular, I discovered, is to be the poetic instrument of the fut much can be gained, as Charles Olson says, of the future because through the use of

'multiple margins'

and extraneous (alphabetically speaking) symbols *) ('&-: and extraneous (appaperically speaking) symbols '1' &-:
I'm not being fair to Mr. Olson, who has a cogent philosophy of verse at least, and doesn't print Chaos as Chaos as do many of his comrades. But that's enough divagation. I should like to point out some of the beauties of the volume, as well as its more hideous aspects, and I could begin with no more beautiful, good, and true, poem than Robert Duncan's "This Place Rumored To Have Been Sodom:" Have Been Sodom:

This place rumored to have been a City surely was, separated from us by the hand of the Lord. The devout have laid out gardens in the desert, drawn water from springs where the light was blighted.

How tenderly they must attend these friendships or all is lost. All is lost.

How tenderly they must attend these friendships or all is lost. All is lost.

Only the faithful hold this place green.
This could have so easily been a Rexrothian, mystical mess, had not the cadence been so sure, the feeling so great. It's purely lovely, and all because of passion.

Hafe you a gold cup dedicated to thought that is like clear water held in a flower?

"The Question," more delicate, and more meandering, still maintains this intensity peculiar to Duncan in this book. Miss Levertov is obviously greatly influenced by Williams, a debt which she admits quite honestly:
Wear scarlet! Tear the green lemons off the tree! I don't want to forget who I am, what has burne@in me, and hang limp and clean, an empty dress—a"

"The Five-day Rain." Still, she@has a percipience@all her own, ase strictly feminine as Williams is masculine.

thoroughly delightful poem, nor Jonathan William's hilarious, "A Little Tumescence"—I refer my reader to the volume. The "Vaquero" of Edward Dorn deserves

The cowboy stands beneath a brick-orange moon. The top of his oblong head is blue, the sheath of his hips of his hips is too . . .

Imagist influence is apparent in this, as in so many of these poems. But they've adapted the method well and it doesn't seem so rigid and artificial in them. They've successfully acclimated it. Briefly, Lawrence Ferlinghett interesting, especially "Coner Island of the Mind" bus his stichomythic 'entrechats' sometimes bore; Allen Gineberg: the only really famous Beat, his Catullan imitation (unprintable) is excellent; Barbara Guest: wonderful, strong love poetry influenced, strangely enough, by Elizabeth Bishop (re: "Parachutes, My Love, Cou' Carry Us Higher"); and everyone must read Kenneth Koch's slapstick parody of Frost, "Mending Sump."

T've saved the best poet (my opinion) till hat
Brother Antoninus, a Dominican lay brother, writes harsh verse, Hopkinsian in technique and seemingly in harsh verse. Hopkinsian in technique and seemingly in harsh verse, Hopkinsian in technique and seemingly in substance, yet strictly individual. It's harsher than Hoy-kins'. His deliciously consonantal "Canticle To The Waterbidrs" is too long to quote fully and one stanca doesn't do it justice but here's the final one: Curlews, stilts and scissortalis, beachcomber gulle; Wave-hunters, shore-keepers, rockhead-holders, all cape-top vigilantes, Now give God praise. Send up the strict articulation of your throats. And say His name.

And say His name.

I can't say anything about that.
What's good about this poetry is its concrete imagery, its new cadences, its interest in exepriment; what's bad is its preoccupation with the quasi-religious (Keroute, Ginsberg) and the terfole-erotic. The good overcomes the bad; and what's good is good. These criticisms are personal; I have no pontifical pretensions; and I hope.

I've offended no one crinally everyone who loves poetry should but his book.

Sportalk

By Ben Fitzpatrick

That number two ranking really looks good to followers of the Cats and no bunch of boys desearves it more than Adolph Rupp's chargers. Checking the papers down South early this week, especially the Atlanta Constitution, it appears that those sportswriters have already conceded the conference race to Kentucky. About two weeks ago, Jesse Outlar, sports editor of the paper, dubbed our Larry Pursiful . . . Mr. Unmerciful. Of 13-1 this was seen in local papers when a columnist on the from Cotton Nash and Larry Pur-Herald originally suggested that Pursiful be nicknamed unmerciful-this was four or five days ago.

For one, this writer is sure the Cats won't believe that they are the SEC champs until they win it and won't take the rest of their conference games for granted. Perhaps the Wildcats have only two stern tests remaining-the home game with Tulane and what in all probability will be a football game with Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

There are times when one has to listen to the UK games Kentucky (95) G F Reb. P T over the radio and indeed these are trying times. Possibly, Burchett ... 7-12 7-13 8 4 21 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-12 7-13 8 4 21 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 6 6 2 4 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 6 6 2 4 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 7-10 8 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 8 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 7-10 8 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 7-10 8 Possibly, Burchett ... 7-10 8 Possibl UK is the only college that has three radio stations cover a its games-both home and away.

This writer spent most of the first half switching from Jack Lorri to Claude Sullivan to Earl Boardman, all of whom leave something to be desired, finally leaving the dial of WLAP and Lorri Lorri gives the best color on a basketba game that I have heard, but sometimes he becomes so er grossed in his work that he forgets to mention minor thing like who committed a foul. However, it is the same on a othe stations when it comes to the details of a game.

Lorri's description of the Cotton Nash-Sid Elliott fisticul exhibition was excellent and almost took one to the court i self. Jack Lorri is a very controversial person because he quite frank and rather outspoken-two traits that do not make many friends, but can make a person rather successful. I you want an example-Adolph Rupp. It isn't known when Lorri ranks with the other two sports announcers, but his vivi descriptions of the games should please most rabid UK sport fans. (Please, Jack, tell who commits the fouls, though)

Now that Blanton Collier has been rehired by the Cleve land Browns, after an absence of eight years, it will be interes ing to see how the Browns' offense shapes up under his technically proficient guiding hand.

One thing for sure, he will have tremendous material to F work with and we hope that Collier can help mold the likes of Jim Brown, Ernie Davis, and Milt Plum into the NFL's most explosive backfield combination.

Babe McCarty, Miss. State coach, said that he would call Babe McCarty, Miss. State coach, said that he would call Cotton Nash an All-America if he averaged 23 points like Bailey report that North Carolina quart-Howell did when he was a soph. Well, Nash has raised his average over the 22 point mark and has a 30.5 average against SFC teams.

Nash, Pursiful, Burchett Pace Cats Past Vols with three players conecting of points, Kentucky chugged and whirled to a 95-82 SEC win over Tennessee before a near capacity crowd of 6,500 at the UT Field House Monday night.

The Cats, in running their record to 3-0 in the conference and overall, received 30 points siful, and 21 from the 'hook,' Carroll Burchett.

Kentucky took the opening tipoff and set the pace for the fast-moving game when Larry Pursiful whipped under for a basket after :11 had elapsed. Hot as the Sahara Desert in August, Rupp's rifles tossed in seven of their first nine shots and had 16 points at intermission.

Kentucky managed to keep its double-figure lead throughout the second half, at one time jumping to a 21-point edge. The Vols would not break and matched UK basket-for-basket and even outscored the Cats in the second stanza by four Tommy Wilson a junior double-figure lead throughout the second half, at one time jumping lead, only to see UT roar from to a 21-point edge. The Vols would behind to trail by one, 35-34 at lattime. In a foul-marred second half, the Baby Vols pulled away from the frequently fouling frosh four. Tommy Wilson, a junior of Kentucky to their win. The guard, really kept the Vols in the game by hitting clutch buckets at ton fouls and two more with four times when it appeared Kentucky was going to blow the lid off the gym.

Wilson tossed in 11 goals and 12 free throws for a game high total of 34, his collegiate high.

In the preliminary game Tennessee's Baby Vols handed Kentucky's Kittens their third loss in the last four starts by an 89-81 count.

RUPP AND NCAA HEAD DEBATE BIG-TIME COLLEGE BASKETBALL

"In other words, they know that they'll get five or ten good offers from schools all over the country, and they like to spend their free time running back and forth and visiting these schools with all expenses paid.

CHICAGO (P)—Kentucky Basketball Coach Adolph Rupp says the NCAA should take action to tighten regulations concerning the number of schools a prospective collegiate athlete is allowed to wist.

"I believe we have allowed the boys that are seeking these athlete scholarships to become shoplers," Rupp said in the current issue of a national magazine (Saturday Evening Post).

The three words that he was the law of the company of the post density o tion at one school, he may not take a scholarship at another school unless for some exceptional rea-son," Rupp said in the Post debate with Frank Gardner, Drake Uni-versity, a powerful figure in the NCAA.

"... And I would suggest, as you (Gardner) have, that every athlete be required to maintain progress in his academic work up to the standards of his class," Rupp said.

SUPER SMOOTH SHAVE

New "wetter-than-water" action melts beard's toughness-in seconds. Remarkable new "wetter-than-water" action gives Old Spice Super Smooth Shave its scientific approximation to the feather-touch feel and the efficiency of barber shop shaves. Melts your beard's toughness like hot towels and massage -ia seconds.

Shaves that are so comfortable you barely feel the blade. A unique combination of anti-evaporation agents makes Super Smooth Shave stay moist and firm. No re-lathering, no dry spots. Richer and creamier... gives you the most satisfying shave...fastest, cleanest—and most comfortable. Regular or mentholated, 1.00.

	Roberts	2-3	0-0	6	2	. 4
11	Nash	13-27	4-5	11	4	30
	Pursiful	13-17	4-6	2	4	30
	Baesler	3-8	2-2	2 4	5	8
	McDonald	0-2	0-0	4	0	0
n	Feldhaus		0-0	77	0	2
11	Deeken	0-1	0-0	ó	0	0
n	Totals	19-74 1	7-26		21	95
11	201010 11111111			-		00
n	Tennessee (82)	G	F	Reb.	P	T
	Moss	5-9	1-2	3	2	11
11	Elliott	4-14 2	0-2	11	4	8
	Bowling	5-13	5-9	14	3	15
1-	Parker	5-14	4-4	3	4	14
	Wilson	1-21 1	2-13	6	3	34
S	Parker	0-0	0-0	1	0	0
	Martin	0-1	0-0	3	1	0
11	Totals3	0-72 2	2-30	41	17	82
-	Kentucky				1-95
	Tennessee				5-82
Ef	Officials-Georg	ge Co	nley	and	Da	ve
	Scoby.
t-	Attendance-6,5	500.
			-		_	_
is	UK Frosh (81)			Reb.		T
	Rolfes1	2-30 1	2-16		4	36
e	Radabaugh	3-10	0-1	5	5	6
re	Adams		4-5	17	5	18
f	Mobley	1-10		5	5	2
	Harper	5-12	0-0	10		10
e	Kennett	1-5	0-0	0	5	2 7
	Hill
d		3-6		3	4
	Cornett	0-1	0-0	0	1	0
-	Cornett	0-1	0-0	0	1 0	0
ts	Cornett	0-1	0-0	0	1	0
-	Cornett	0-1 0-2 32-95	0-0 0-0 7-25	0 0 58	1 0 30	0 0 81
-	Cornett	0-1 0-2 2-95 1	0-0 0-0 7-25	0 0 58 Reb.	1 0 30 P	0 0 81 T
ts	Cornett	0-1 0-2 32-95 1 G	0-0 0-0 7-25 F	0 0 58 Reb .	1 0 30 P 5	0 0 81 T 20
-	Cornett Simpson Totals	0-1 0-2 2-95 1 G 9-16 3-9	0-0 0-0 7-25 F 2-4 1-2	0 0 58 Reb . 10	1 0 30 P 5 3	0 0 81 T 20 7
ts	Cornett	0-1 0-2 2-95 1 G 9-16 3-9 8-14	0-0 0-0 7-25 F	0 0 58 Reb . 10	1 0 30 P 5	0 0 81 T 20

N. C. Fumble

..35 46—81 ..34 55—89

ing 11 times against Clemson wa erroneous. He kicked only 10 times

AUTO RADIO ON THE BLINK? See a Specialist

Davis Service Center 417 S. Mill

Drive In Facilities While You Wait Service Radio and TV Repair Specialists

UNIVERSITY STYLE CENTER

Corduroy Suits Continental and Ivy Styling $29.95 and up

Bulky Knit Shawl Collar Sweaters Latest Fall Tones $5.95 and up

Latest in Fall and Winter Outerwear Jackets, Surcoats, 3/4 and Full Length Coats

Levis Beltons All Colors and Sizes $4.95

Discounts to Groups

Formal Rentals

Phillip Gall & Son

Monday Night STARS

COTTON NASH
Nash continued his hot shooting against SEC foes by tossing in 30 points against Tennessec. The 6-5 Bayou Bomber hit 13 of 27 from the floor and hauled down II rebounds. So far, against SEC competition, Nash has scored 35, 31, 26, and 30 points. 31, 26, and 30 points.

LARRY PURSIPUL
Pursiful is a native Kentuckian who loves Tennessee—that is, to play against the University of Tennessee. Larry tossed in 30 points against the Vols Monday night and in two games against uT, he has canned 30 of 43 floor shots. Amazing shooting!

DON ROLFES
Even though the Kittens were upended by UT's frosh, Rolfes was the outstanding player on the floor as he meshed 36 points in the losing cause. This brilliant performance came on the heels of a disappointing four point effort against the YMCA,
two nights before. DON ROLFES

CARROLL BURCHETT CARROLL BURCHETT
The big redhead had one of his biggest nights against the Vols as he hooked in seven of 12 floor shots and added seven gratis tosses for 21 points. Playing a strong defensive game, he latched a cordon around 6-10 Ordo
Bowling and held him to 15 points.

Kentucky Moves Up; Rank 2nd In AP Poll

By The Associated Press
Undefeated Ohio State is again the unanimous choice for first place in the Associated Press major college basketball poll today, surviving a major shakeup that lifted Kentucky into the runner-up position and knocked for, a loop Mississippi State and Villanova.

The powerful Buckeyes, the only remaining major unbeaten team, were placed on top by all 41 sports-writers and broadcasters participation in the balloting. In its only game last week, Ohio State trounced Michigan 89-64.

Kentucky, the Southeastern

By The Associated Press

Major Chief Press

Weekend while the Blue Devils turged back Clemson and Maryland.

Bowling Green advanced one notch to eighth after defeating Toledo and Miami of Ohio.

ed Michigan 89-64.

Kentucky, the Southeastern Conference pace-setter, moved into second place on the strength of victories over Vanderbilt and Louisiana State. The Wildeats changed places with Cincinnati's Bearcats, who were upended by Bradley 70-68 in overtime. Bradley, unranked last week, moved into ninth place.

4000	-
-	AP CAGE RANKINGS
1.	Ohio State (41) (12-0)	410
2.	KENTUCKY(12-1)	358
3.	Cincinnati(11-2)	322
4.	Kansas State(12-2)	269
	Duquesne(11-1)	165
6.	So. California(12-3)	162
7.	Duke(11-2)	111
8.	Bowling Green (12-1)	109
9.	Bradley(10-2)	97
10.	Mississippi State (10-1)	63

ley, unranked last week, moved into ninth place.

Mississippi State, which suffered its first setback Saturday night, 100-36 to Vanderbilt, fell three notehes to the No. 10 position. Villanova, sixth a week ago, dropped from the first 10 after losing its second of the campaign, 87-66 to Xavier of Ohio.

Kansas State, winner over Kansas 70-45 and Oxlahoma State 50-44, advanced one place to fourth while Duquesne, which whipped Dayton and Carnegie Tech, climbed from eighth to fifth.

Southern California dropped from fourth to sixth and Duke moved up three places to seventh. The Trojans split two

Up And In

Ted Deeken, 6-4 sophomore, lays one in. Deeken has been used sparingly so far this season, but whenever he is in action, he keeps the fans buzzing. Possessing great speed, a crowd-pleasing hook shot, and a deadly one-hand push, Deeken is slated for certain stardom as soon as he gathers enough experience. Deeken was the second-leading scorer on the frosh team that was led by Cotton Nash. Ted averaged 17.7 a game and 10.1 rebounds.

STRIKE

L.S./M.F.T.

THE PROFESSORIAL IMAGE. It used to be that professors, as soon as they were 28, took on a father image - rumpled tweeds, tousled hair, pipe. But these days, the truly "in" professor has the "buddy" look - Ivy suit, crew cut, Lucky Strikes. It seems that students learn more eagerly from someone with whom they can identify. Alert teachers quickly pounce on the fact that college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Have you pounced on the fact yet?

CHANGE TO LUCKIES and get some taste for a change!

Product of The American Tobacco-Company - Tobacco is our middle name

Air Newspapers

Dr. Niel Plummer, director of the University School of Journalism, was one of three civilian judges who appraised the Air Force Logistics Command newspapers. From the left are John Stempel, chairman of the Indiana University's Department of Journalism; Dr. Plummer; and Arthur Bostwick, of the Ohio State University's School of Journalism. The Brookley Spotlight, of Brookley AFB, Mobile, Ala. was the winning newspaper.

Student Teachers Display Materials

A display of materials collected organizations which provide inand constructed by 60 student formation for student teaching, teachers will be given from 10 a.m.
to 5 p.m. today in the Taylor Education Building Gymnasium.
All of the materials were obtained by writing to various firms and sociology.

Europe Moves Ahead

Common Market Causes Competition Problems

By ELAINE LYTTLE Kernel Staff Writer

The United States competitive problems due to the policy adopted by member countries of the European Common Market.

"The purpose of the Common Market is the gradual abolish-ment of tariff between member countries, and a gradual move-ment toward a common tariff against non-member countries," plained Dr. Amry Vandenbosch, di-rector of the Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Com-

The effect the Common Market policy will have on the import and export market of the United States is not definite as vet.

Many problems have been cited and many solutions have been proposed. "The United States is presently faced with a decrease in agricultural exports. Currently U.S. agricultural exports to Eu-ropean countries amounts to 1.1 ropean countries amoun billion dollars annually.

Agriculture experts have predicted that 300 million dollars lost yearly due to the European economics, said, "This raises prob- States as well.

common market policy.. The Wall lems for countries now trading Street Journal, December 19, goes with Britain without any tariff. on to state that, "A decline in farm exports would make it harder for a member and they do not? New the U.S. to dispose of its surplus. The extra supplies also would tend to depress prices farmers would receive for their crops. Loss of trade from these markets would make the current balance-of-payments problem of the U.S. worse.."

Dr. Sullivan went on to say that perhaps Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and Austria may become associate of not full members. Finland is closest to the threat of

As stated in the Courier-Journal, January 16, 1962, "Loss of imports from the U.S. would be bad eco-nomically for the European coun-tries involved, namely: France, Belgium, West Germany, Luxem-bourg, the Netherlands, and Italy."

The U.S. and a group representing the countries listed above are now trying to come to an agreement about reducing tar-iffs on certain items, particularly farm products from the U.S. This would have a stablizing economic effect for all countries involved, the Courier-Journal reported.

Great Britain is now negotiating to become the seventh member of the organization as reported by the December 20 issue of the Wall Street Journal.

Dr. Sullivan went on to say that perhaps Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and Austria may become associate of not full members. Finland is closest to the threat of Russia, and it is doubtful if she would enter into this organization. As for Spain, Portugal, and Greece, it is thought that they will not join in the near future.

Dr. L. Zsoldos, assistant professor of economics in the Patterson School of Diplomacy and International Commerce stated that he thought it would be hard for these countries in the common parties or a paint size. market organization to avoid su-pernational politics due to the economical set-up.

Great Britain is now negotiating to become the seventh member of the organization as reported by the December 20 issue of the Wall Street Journal.

Dr. M. R. Sullivan, professor of processor and the companies and "This raises probability of the United States as well as the Common Market policy was inaugerated in 1957 and is scheduling to go into full effect June 30, the organization as reported by the 1967. Italy was the first to purpose the standards of the policy. In this way competition with Russia will be greater. This policy will mean competition for the United States as well.

Honors Plan Seeks Students

Students interested in otbaining information about the University Honors Program may inquire in Room 2, the Fine Arts Building, from 2 to 5 p.m. today through

The program is open to quali-fied freshmen and sophomores. The purpose of the Honors Pro-gram is to help provide suitable intellectual opportunities for stu-dents of unusual ability and achievement.

Participation in the program is on a volunteer basis. All students enrolled are expected to maintain a grade point average of 3.5.

Freshmen in the program are together in an honors section of English and in a non-credit hon-ors collocuim that meets one night each week.

Sophomores also enroll in a weekly non-credit collocuim, and a e in an honors section of Humanities.

Fitness Test

Physical Fitness tests will be given Saturday afternoon, Feb. 3, by the Physical Education Department. All students now enrolled in the University who desire to take the test must apply to do so between January 22 and January 26, in Room 3, Alumni Gym.

PHARMACY

The Prescription Center

- * Prescriptions
- * Fountain
- * Men's Toiletries
- * Cosmetics

FREE PARKING REAR OF STORE en 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Automatic cars with button and lever controls may seem far out right now. But Ford Motor Company scientists and engineers are busy prying out and buttoning down some fantastic computercontrolled guidance systems for future Ford-built cars.

Among the controls now under study at Ford is a radar system that warns a driver when he gets too close to the vehicle ahead. Another is a short-range radio frequency device that extends the limits of drivers' senses by giving advance information on road surface and weather conditions, evaluating and appraising obstacles in the driving path ahead. When developed, control systems like these will enable drivers to enjoy safer. faster driving without fatigue. Advanced studies of this nature are but

