STARS IN HOSPITAL

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Dec. 16.—(INS)—The Cardinal grid squad today went about its practice for the Rose Bowl game without the services of Roger Munger, reserve end and ace pass-snagger, and Monte Moserip, All-American end. Both men were in the hospital today.

PEACE PLANS ATTACKED

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The Hoare-Laval proposals for peace in East Africa were attacked as "abominable" in a Parliamentary statement in the House of Commons today which gave warning of the bitter fight the Government will have on its hands during the open debate on the issue next Thursday.

RANSOM SUPPORTS CHILD

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—(INS)—It was ransom money, stained with the blood of the murdered Lindbergh baby, that provided Bruno Richard Hauptmann with the long awaited and necessary funds to have his own child, the Evening Journal declared today in a copyrighted story based on hitherto unpublished testimony in the famous case.

A. A. A. UNDER FIRE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The government again went before the Supreme Court today with a defense of the Espionage program. The issue slated for argument is constitutionality of the amended A. A. enacted by Congress in the last session to cure defects in the original act.

Fervent Appeal For Peace Is Joiced By Pope Pius XII

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 16.—(INS)—A fervent appeal for peace, accompanied by the significant statement that "we are struggling to secure it," was voiced by Pope Pius XII today at the secret consistory which he created twenty new cardinals, the largest elevation to that rank in a century.

"We do not neglect in the past and will not neglect in the future, to affirm and solemnly repeat to all men of good will, to whatever they may belong, that we ardently desire peace," the Pope said.

The Pope's allusion to the consistory, attended by 22 cardinals, recalled his reasons "for joy and sadness" during the year just closing.

Among the joys he enumerated "the triumphal demonstrations of faith" at the Lourdes pilgrimage and the Eucharistic congress at Buenos Aires and Cleveland, Ohio.

His reasons for "profound sorrow" included "events in Russia, Mexico, and in part, also in Germany."

"Turning, then, to the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, His Holiness continued:

"We do not want to mention those conflicts which preoccupy not only Europe and Africa, but which

CATS WILL PLAY BEREAVEMENT GAME OF SEASON

Tonight's Fray to Aid Alumni Fund; Will Take Place of Convest with Former U. K. Netmen

FOE EXPECTED TO BE GOOD OPPONENT

Coach Rupp Will Start Same Lineup as in Georgetown Game

"Kentucky's practice-weary varsity basketball team will bring into action at 8 o'clock tonight for the second time this season when the Wildcats take the court against Berea College in a game sponsored by the University alumni association.

Former years, the 'Cats have opposed a representative Alumni court team in an annual early-season contest for the benefit of the Alumni association fund, but this year arrangements were made to bring Berea here in order to provide a harder test for Coach Rupp's cats.

Because this game is not a regularly scheduled one, students will be asked to pay ten cents with their student books. General admission will be 25 cents and box seats will cost 40 cents.

Although Coach Rupp has been trying hard for the past two or three weeks, he was unable to schedule another college team to play the Kentuckians a workout before the Pittsburgh engagement next Monday night.

Coach Rupp said yesterday that he would start the same five men who were in the lineup at the opening of the Georgetown game.

He will have Ray Carlisle, high scorer to date, and "Smoky Joe" Hagans at the forward berth, Garland Lewis at center, and Captain Andy Anderson and Warfield Donohoe in the backcourt.

Two guards, James Gortch and "Duke" Ellington, who have been pressing closely on the heels of Donohoe and Anderson, have been on the casualty list but will probably see action tonight.

Ellington has been troubled with blisters which became infected, while Ellington has been suffering with a wrenched back.

If the first-stringers show up well enough to warrant their removal, Rupp will use Carlisle, Biles, Spicer and "Red" Craig as forwards and J. Rice Walker at center.

Further down the list are Bill Spier and "Red" Craig as forwards and J. Rice Walker at center.

His letter disclosed the fact that he would like a reply, which is being filed. Aikie, only hopes that Eddie isn't colored.

Y. M. C. A. Will Hold Membership Banquet

Second in Series of Dinner Meetings to Be Held Tonight

The second of a series of YMCA membership banquets will be held today at 6 p. m. at the First Methodist church on West High and Upper streets.

The drama will present faculty members enacting the roles of several well-known stars.

A faculty radio drama will be one of the main attractions of the night of series of Faculty dinners to be held at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening in the Commons.

The drama will present faculty members enacting the roles of several well-known stars.

In addition to the radio skit the program will include vocal music and readings, group singing and a recitation "A Visit from St. Nick" with sound effects.

FRAT HOLIDAY CEREMONIES

The sixty-sixth anniversary of the founding of Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, was celebrated Friday by a banquet given at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. The program consisted of a short history of the fraternity given by Jack Keyser and the origin of the local Y. M. C. A. given by acting Dean Murray.

CONVOCATION TO BE DECEMBER 19

President McVey to Discuss Student Problems; Men's Glee Club to Give Christmas Program

The annual "Between Us" convocation will be held at 10 a. m., Thursday, December 19, in Memorial hall with Pres. Frank L. McVey as speaker.

Doctor McVey's talk will be an informal discussion of the problems of student life, and will offer suggestions to students on taking advantage of their opportunities.

A special feature will be the presentation of Christmas songs by the Men's Glee club.

Dedication—Franz Battle of Jericho—Negro Spiritual, Alma Mater.

Interpreted throughout the entire program will be the singing of Christmas carols by the audience, to be led by Prof. C. A. Lampert.

This type of convocation is held every year and has become a tradition on the campus. All third hour classes will be dismissed.

Note Sealed in Bottle Returned To Co-ed at U.K.

When Alice Bailey, University student, put her name and address on a piece of note paper, sealed it in a bottle and threw it in the Kentucky river last July, she probably didn't expect ever to see it again.

She received a real surprise last Tuesday afternoon, however, when, on opening a letter postmarked Louisville, Kentucky, she drew forth the message of love.

The bottle had been found by Eddie Hilger, Louisville, while he was target-practicing on the river bank Thanksgiving morning.

Collecting bottles along the river bank to use as targets, Eddie found the one with the enclosed and sealed note.

His letter disclosed the fact that he would like a reply, which is being filed. Aikie, only hopes that Eddie isn't colored.

Annual Christmas Carol Program Is Given By Vespers

Large Audience Attends Impressive Sunday Musicale

By DAVE SALYERS

The largest crowd to listen to a Sunday afternoon musicale in several seasons heard the University Christmas, under the direction of Miss Mildred Lewis, present their annual Christmas carol program as the eighth in the series of vesper programs Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. in Memorial hall.

This year's performance by the singers, who were assisted by Leo Crook, violinist, Lea Cullis, organist, and Mary Rudicle, harpist, far surpassed any previous presentation.

The blending of the voices of the tonal quality, and the attack and releases of the singers combined to create the best possible effect in each number.

The singers were dressed in black robes and white surplices and stood in choir arrangement on a stage impressively decorated with Christmas greens.

The entire program was presented by candlelight. As in the custom, the audience joined in the singing of old familiar carols during the intermission.

The choicest element of the program was the "Carols of the Night." An organ solo, "Christina Evening," from the "Sicilian" by Massenet, was played after which the "Carol of the Russian Children" was presented by the ensemble.

ENGINEERS HEAR COL. J. H. GRAHAM

Dean Graham Discusses Need of Efficient Engineering Corps; Was A.E.F. Colonel During War

At the meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held at 7 o'clock Friday evening, Dean Graham spoke on "Military Engineering in France during the War."

Dean Graham, a colonel in the Engineering Corps of the A. E. F., served in France during the conflict. He emphasized the importance of an adequate and efficient engineering corps to the success of any warfare.

He described, with the aid of a large military map of France, the location and building of works, railroad terminals, hospitals and roads.

During the latter part of the war, Dean Graham was in charge of building docks at various points on the coast. He also described the difficulty of maintaining roads along the front line.

Colonel Graham stated that a "military engineer's entire view point during the war, for money and materials do not count; time being the ever important factor."

Britain Wants Scrap Settled On League of Nations Basis

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(INS)—The British government stands firm on its thesis that any settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute must be consistent with the League of Nations covenant.

Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, said today in the House of Commons today.

Although avoiding most opposition, Eden's statement was followed on the issue of the Hoare-Laval peace proposals, Eden did say that consistency with the covenant was an "indispensable condition" of any settlement which the British government would approve.

Eden said he would wait for Thursday's debate for a "full statement" on the widely-attacked Anglo-French peace plan, which he expected Thursday, when Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, will appear to defend his proposals.

Eden also avoided answering questions on the projected oil embargo against Italy, the one sanction believed capable of bringing Italy up short and halting her invasion of Ethiopia.

Today's Parliamentary outburst was in sharp contrast to what was expected Thursday, when Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, will appear to defend his proposals.

The following letter from O. B. Chisholm, B. S. '09, from Wynberg, Cape Province, South Africa, will also be of interest to alumni and students of the University. P. O. Box 78 Capetown, South Africa 25th October, 1935

The Secretary University of Kentucky Lexington, Kentucky, U.S.A. Dear Sir: Having just received the September issue of the Kentucky Alumnus, I revived very pleasant memories of my association with the University, and reminded me to supply you with a few up-to-date details of my position.

I came to this country in 1909 under contract with the old Transvaal Government before the Union of South Africa came into being. Having completed a three years agreement with them, I joined The United Tobacco Co. (South) Ltd., of the above address, with whom I have been for over 22 years. I started with them as an itinerant tobacco buyer, subsequently opening one or two new branches in various parts of the country. I was appointed to a directorship six or seven years ago, and have remained on the Executive Board of Directors since.

During my association with this company, business has been done over practically all of the developed districts of South Africa, and as far north as the present border of Tanganyika Territory. I therefore feel that I really know South Africa better than my home country. Occasionally I see W. B. Wilson, an old Kentucky boy, who is located in Southern Rhodesia, where he is in the business of growing Turkish tobacco.

J. du P. Ootzen of South Africa, but who attended the University of Kentucky, is also with this company and received his directorship at the same time as myself, and is therefore one of my close associates in head office. I believe one or two other South African boys have attended the University of Kentucky and are in business of the Civil Service in various parts of the country, but unfortunately I do not know them personally and have not come in contact with them since their return from America.

I married Ethel Forest Baldwin of Paris, Kentucky, in 1917, and it looks as if we have definitely settled in this country for good, as we have built a home and have all our interests here.

We still get a thrill from the American football news over the radio, and last Saturday night, 9 p. m. South African time, we listened to a running commentary on the game between Notre Dame and Antwerp, broadcast through Round Brook, N. J. We try to tune in on America for news or music most nights.

I would be pleased to correspond with any Alumnus wishing information from this country. Yours truly O. B. Chisholm, '09 The member Alumni Association Residential address: O. B. Chisholm, "Ki-Sha-Gua" Torquay Avenue, Wynberg, Cape Province, S. Africa."

On his recent member blank received at the Alumni Office, he says: "I used to attend the New York K. U. Alumni Association dinners, but the well known depression stopped that. Would like to start again but have lost contact with the Association and other Kentuckians in the city." Mr. Lindsay's home address is 186 Kings on Ave., Floral Park, Long Island, N.Y.

G. Lee McClain, A. B. '19, was appointed acting adjutant general by Gov. A. B. Chandler as his first official act after having been sworn in as Governor of Kentucky, Tuesday, Dec. 10. As a student, Lee took active part in campus activities; he was a member of the Kernel staff, and was on the staff of the Kentuckian. He served also as director of a battalion. He was class orator in his senior year. After graduation, Lee enlisted in the army and served as lieutenant in the World War. He is a former state commander of the American Legion and a member of the Kentucky Ex-Servicemen's Board. From 1929 to 1932, Lee was on the staff of the Eastern Kentucky State Teachers' College and later accepted the position as the Kentucky representative of the Allyn and Bacon Publishing Company of Chicago. For the past year he has been associated with the John C. Winston Co., Lee has kept in close touch with his alma mater and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association.

Wm. P. Richardson, A. B. '32, has been advanced to the priesthood of the Episcopal church at an ordination service held at St. Matthews Church in Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 17. After graduating from the University, he attended the General Theological Seminary in New York City last May, and since his ordination to the diaconate in June at Christ Church in Lexington, Ky., his home, he has been minister in charge of St. Matthew's Church in Rochester.

Kenneth Davis, '15 (Engineering and Journalism), political writer for the Cincinnati Enquirer, has gained a national reputation for remarkable accuracy in predicting the outcome of the municipal elections of 1933 and 1935 in Cincinnati. The recent editorial in the New York Times paying him tribute for his accuracy in his prediction was based on the following facts: on the morning of the election in 1933, his paper predicted the "Charter Group" would receive 51 percent of the popular vote and win five of the nine council seats. The "Charter Group" received 51.3 percent of the popular vote and won five council seats as predicted.

His predictions on the 1935 election made immediately after the 1933 election were: with an independent candidate in the race the Charter Group would win four seats, the Republicans four, and the Independent one seat (4-4-1), and the Charter Group's vote would be 48.69 per cent of the first choice votes. The result of the election was as he had foretold with only a difference of 54 hundredths per cent in the total first choice votes.

1918 William R. Lindsay, '18, is construction superintendent for the installation of "invisible glass show windows, with business address at 240 East 43rd St., New York City.

On his recent member blank received at the Alumni Office, he says: "I used to attend the New York K. U. Alumni Association dinners, but the well known depression stopped that. line from his defensive fullback post. All in all, this first team chosen by the collegiate sports writers...

Included on the second conference team were Stanley Werner, Kentucky's captain-elect at one of the tackles and Bert Johnson, the Ashland Express, in a halfback position.

Jimmy Long, Gene Meyers and Sam Potter all received honorable mention at this respective posts.

Sports editors of students papers at Tulane, Auburn, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Mississippi, Sewanee, Florida, Alabama and Kentucky voted in the poll.

Kentucky's Wildcats will tee off tonight against Berea College in their second start of the current campaign.

Tonight's game will serve a double purpose. It will give Coach Adolph Rupp's cagers some much-needed work and will also measure the ability of the Alumni association.

The association has branched out considerably this year and is doing some progressive work keeping graduates in touch with the University.

"Windy" Cline, the boy from the Bronx, who has been announcing the intramurals is doing a nice job... he particularly gives the impression of a minor Joe Humphries...

Stanley Werner, Kentucky's new football captain, was one of the guests honored at a recent tea... which should qualify him to act as Emily Post to the rest of the squad...

Ralph Kercheval is back in town for another successful season with the Brooklyn Dodgers pro football team... Kercheval finished the season as the league's sixth leading scorer...

Other backfield posts went to Bob Davis, Kentucky, Ike Pickle, Mississippi State and Jesse Fatherson, L. S. U.

Davis, second leading scorer in the conference and a constant threat to opponents all season, finally secured the recognition which so many of the other selectors denied him.

Ike Pickle was Mississippi State's greatest threat. A great ball carrier, Pickle led the State team in its victories over Army and Alabama...

Fatherson, L. S. U. fullback, was a big factor in the Tiger drive to a Southeastern conference crown this season. A hard hitter on offense, Fatherson was also a defensive back, strengthening the line from his defensive fullback post.

High School Press Meeting Adjourns

Kernell, the Phoenix Amusement Company, Lexington, leader, and the Lexington Herald, in discussing a site for the next meeting, it was decided to hold the session at the University again next year, unless an invitation from some other school is accepted by the association.

The 1935 "Astratum" Henry Clay High yearbook, was awarded first prize for the best all-around and best designed annual. The Henry Clay "Hi-Times" received four certificates of merit, in heading, advertising, news story, and editorial writing. The "U-Hi Lights," University High school publication, received second prize for the best all-around newspaper in the B class division. Other high schools winning certificates of merit in the various divisions were: The "Hi-Spy," Mt. Sterling; the "Homsapum" Somerset; the "Echo," Berea; the "Viking Voice," Morehead; and the "Progressors," Nicholasville.

Representatives of various schools placed on committees headed by the various divisions were: The "Hi-Spy," Mt. Sterling; the "Homsapum" Somerset; the "Echo," Berea; the "Viking Voice," Morehead; and the "Progressors," Nicholasville.

Vespers Present Christmas Program

(Continued from Page One) by Gevaert; a women's chorus, "The Virgin at the Manger," by Perilhou; "Bring a Torch, Jeanette, Isabelle," and "Gesu Bambino (The Infant Jesus)," by Pietro Yon, followed by the intermission. Carols sung by the audience and singers during the intermission were "Joy to the World," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing."

Numbers included in the second part of the program were: "Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning," by Combs; "Meditation," by Metzke, in which the singers were assisted by Lee Crook at the violin, Leila Cullis at the organ and Mary Rudicle, harpist; "Adoramus Te," by Palestrina, and the final number, the familiar "Shepherd's Story," by Dickinson. Featured in the final number were Virginia Murrell, soprano soloist, Morton Potter, tenor, and Harmonie Dean, Jr., baritone. The last number was one of the most outstanding and served as a fitting climax to the entire presentation.

A great deal of credit for the able performance is due Miss Mildred Lewis, the director of the singers. Miss Lewis has directed and produced these annual carol programs for the past several years and has made the program one of the most popular of the vespers series.

The next vesper program will be presented Sunday afternoon, January 12, 1936, in Memorial hall, and will feature Lawrence Cook, organist.

FROSH NETTERS TOP M. S. T. C., 25-19

The University of Kentucky freshman basketball team defeated a surprisingly strong freshman Morehead State Teachers college team, 25-19 Thursday night, December 13 at Morehead.

The Kittens led by Adams, former all-state Indiana player, and Curtis were crossed throughout the game by the well-balanced and strong Morehead aggregation. Arnsen and Thornton were the line-line scorers for the losers, while Curtis, Adams and Thompson led the Kittens' attack. Opper, sensational crowd from New York, was also an important factor in the Kittens' victory.

Coach Paul McBrayer will take his freshman netters to Lawrenceburg Tuesday night for a tilt with the Lawrenceburg High Bulldogs, one of the outstanding C. K. C. teams. Coach McBrayer said that he was expecting a difficult game. The lineup for the Morehead team was as follows:

Morehead (19) (25) U.K. Fresh Arnsen (5) ... Curtis (6) ... Adams (2) ... Thompson (4) ... Opper (2) ... Smith (2) ... G... .. Rose ... .. D... .. Long (2) ... .. (2) ... .. Head, Cassaday (2), Ishamel, Lacy, Green.

ROBERTA ATKINS IMPROVED Improvement in the condition of Miss Roberta Atkins, University student who was injured in an automobile accident December 11, was reported by attendants at the Good Samaritan hospital yesterday. Miss Atkins, who suffered a fractured pelvis, is in a cast from her shoulders to her ankles.

The holiday schedule of the University library is as follows: week days, 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.; closed on Saturdays. The regulation will be in effect from Dec. 22 to Jan. 7.

SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX By JOE QUINN Kernel Sports Editor

While the open season for all-star selections is still on, we intend to rush the latest All-southern conference team into print. The best part of this late fall sport is that a selector doesn't have to purchase a license to participate.

In a poll conducted by Dan Frank, sports editor of the Mississippi State College student paper, The Reflector, all the other sports editors of student papers in the Southeastern conference schools were given the opportunity to select their team.

We duly filled out a ballot and only yesterday received from Brother Frank the results of the polling. We think it a representative team and just about as good as any that has been selected thus far by other nominators.

In the first string lineup Gaynell Tinsley of L. S. U. and Willie Geny of Vanderbilt are the ends. Tinsley, said to be the best end in the South since Jerry Dairymple of Tulane, has been mentioned prominently
