PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT THE MARGARET I. KING LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, LEXINGTON, KY. 40506

INSTITUTIONAL SELF-STUDY

The University of Kentucky, like each other institution with lengthy membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, must have its accreditation reaffirmed normally every ten years. A significant part of the reaffirmation process is the Institutional Self-Study Program in which institutions participate according to a schedule established by the Southern Association's Commission on Colleges. For the University of Kentucky, however, the University System and each of the community colleges in the Community College System engage in separate self-studies and have their accreditations reaffirmed independently. The University's thirteen community colleges started their self-studies about one year ago.

A Steering Committee has been formed and it will be charged with the responsibility for organizing the University System Self-Study and seeing that it progresses on schedule. The Committee, in turn, will be recommending the establishment of at least twelve other committees concerned with the individual accreditation standards and with planning for the future. Additionally, the Steering Committee will arrange for all colleges and most departments and other educational units to conduct self-studies during the 1980-81 academic year.

It is expected that the Self-Study will, after appropriate preliminary activities, start on September 1, 1980, and conclude in the 1982 spring semester with an evaluation by a Visiting Committee appointed by the Commission on Colleges.

KENTUCKY SOLINET USERS' GROUP

The Kentucky SOLINET Users' Group will meet at King Library in the Gallery on Friday, July 25, 9 a.m. until mid-afternoon.

The agenda includes a business meeting and program. The program (late morning and afternoon) will include speakers from the University of Louisville Library and the Kentucky Department of Library and Archives who will be discussing their libraries' uses of SOLINET/OCLC in acquisitions and interlibrary loan. In addition, Ken Thomas, SOLINET Training Coordinator, will be here to describe SOLINET's developing COM catalog service.

The meeting is open and all those interested are encouraged to attend. Coffee will be served in the King North Lobby at 8:30 a.m. preceding the start of the meeting.

Mrs. Sarah Leach
Director, Medical Center Library

Dear Mrs. Leach:

Over the ten years that I have been at the University of Kentucky Medical Center, the library has been a constant source of joy and intellectual satisfaction. Now, it has become the time for me to move to another institution and I would like to take this opportunity to thank you personally as well as your entire staff for the constant support and help that you have provided me in so many ways.

I have known many medical libraries including those of Yale and the University of Rochester. None of these can best Kentucky in terms of services provided and the general helpfulness of the library personnel. Keep up the good work and I do hope that I will see you from time to time.

Sincerely,
Ward E. Bullock, M.D.
Professor of Medicine
Division of Infectious Diseases

CICERO SAID

To add a library to a house is to give that house a soul.

(Editor's note: not to mention a lot of wooden scrolls and furniture to house them!)
