

left his room when master arrested. From investigation it appeared that Carol Rice was acting under orders, as the senior had slipped from his room to the room opposite to admonish the inmates to quiet. Happening that he acted in ignorance and in good faith, the charge against him was dismissed and he was ordered to be admonished. — There were appointed to ^{serve} act in conjunction with Col. Clark on the Board of Discipline for the ensuing year: For November⁸⁷ Prof. White and Shackleford, for December 1887 Prof. Nettle and School. For January 1888 Prof. Potter and Logan, for February 88 Prof. H. H. Patterson and Brewitt, for March 1888 Prof. Pease and Scoville, for April 1888 Prof. Craudall and Schreividy, for May 1888 Prof. White and Shackleford. There being no other business, Faculty adjourned.

J. M. Elliott
Secy

A. M. College November 18th 1887

Faculty met in called session at 12.50 P.M. in the President's room. All present except Prof. Craudall and Schreividy. Col. Clark wishes a committee appointed to fix on a scale of demerits. Pres. Patterson appointed as such committee Col. Clark and Professors Shackleford & School. Prof. White moves that Friday after Thanksgiving day be given as a holiday. Seconded. Carried. For the better preservation of the records of the students' standing, it was resolved to have record books provided for each Department. Prof. White and Pease are appointed to devise a suitable form for same. Moved and seconded that the Faculty adjourn. Carried.

J. M. Elliott
Secy

A. M. College, Dec. 20th 1887

Faculty met in called session at 1 P.M. in the Pres. room. All present. There appeared before the Faculty on the report of Board of Discipline ^{Charles May} charged with disobedience to orders. On motion of Prof. White he was suspended from College to the end of the session. —