SPECIAL SESSION MAY PROVIDE FUNDS FOR U.K.

Governor May Call Legislature for Good Roads Purposes, as Suggested Last Week by Lieutenant Governor Thurston Ballard.

EX-SERVICELAW CAUSE

Governor Edwin P. Morrow will be asked to include consideration of measures for the relief of the University of Kentucky in his call if he decides to order a special session of the legislature for good roads purposes, as suggested last week by Lieutenant Governor Thurston Ballard.

Possibility of a special session was informally discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees of the University Friday afternoon. Several members were of the belief that a special session would not be held, but they were agreed that the University situation deserves the early, if not the immediate, attention of the State's lawmakers.

Senator-elect Richard P. Ernst, who is a member of the committee, assured the body that he would confer with Governor Morrow relative to the possibility of a special session and of the inclusion of a University clause in the call, if ordered.

No provision for the execution of the bill for the free education of ex-service men, shortness of funds appropriated for the institution by the 1920 Legislature, and the constantly increasing costs of operation, have combined to make a serious financial situation at the University of Kentucky.

The friendly suit which ex-service students are to file against the University in the near future, if won by the ex-service men, will call for an increased expenditure on the part of the University of approximately $80,000 in the next four years. No provision for payment of free tuition and other advantages now being given the former service men at the cost of more than $7,000 annually, was made by the legislature.

FRESHMEN EXPECTED TO REMOVE NUMBERS

The overzealous Freshmen who painted "24's" around the campus last week are probably beginning to doubt their discretion in the way of demonstrating their class spirit.

A meeting of the Freshmen boys in chapel at 3:30 Tuesday was called to discuss ways and means of apprehending and punishing the culprits. Talks were made by Seniors Bell and Rodgers, who urged the Freshmen to cooperate with them in ascertaining the guilty parties and stopping the obsolete custom of painting class numerals on the campus.

Immediate responsibility was placed on the officers of the class to produce the offender and see that the figures were erased.

LAST CALL FOR KENTUCKIAN SPACE

If you want space reserved in the 1921 Kentuckian, see Fred Augsburg, before Wednesday, December 1 and make the 25 per cent. payment. No space will be reserved after this date.

THANKSGIVING DAY AT HALL IS QUIET

Thanksgiving day has come and gone but the girls of Patterson Hall will long remember the dinner of that day and the feeling of freedom each and every one had, even though for so short a time. It was a grand and glorious feeling to stay in bed till 8 o'clock on a week day without the queer sensation of having slept through a first hour class.

Owing to the briefness of the vacation, only about forty girls were away from the Hall for Thanksgiving day, while about twenty-five guests came in. Among the guests for Thanksgiving dinner were Dean and Mrs. Melcher. The dining room was very attractive with its tables arranged in banquet style and decorated with chrysanthemums and bowls of nuts and fruit.

Immediately after breakfast a Thanksgiving service was held in the Recreation Hall, with Mary Archer Bell acting as leader. Prayers and songs of Thanksgiving were offered up during the short service, after which many of the girls attended services in the various churches of the city while others made ready for the memorable dinner.

STATE COMMISSION TO MAKE SURVEY

Will Give Educational Tests To High Schools in Nine Counties.

Prof. J. T. C. Noe attended a meeting of the State Educational Commission November 15, which is making a survey of the schools of Kentucky as provided for by the last legislature of Kentucky. Doctor A. Flexner is in general charge of the survey. The staff is composed of Frank P. Bachman, local director, M. E. Haggerty, dean of School of Education of University of Minnesota, advisor on tests, Frank L. Shaw, statistician. The meeting was held at the University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky, and was attended by representatives from the several colleges and normal schools of the State. A general discussion of the nature of the survey was held. The commission has decided to give educational tests to all of the schools in nine counties of the State from Letcher County in the extreme southeastern part of Kentucky to Carlisle county on the Mississippi river. These tests will be conducted by representatives from the colleges, normal schools, and University of Kentucky. Professor Noe will be in charge of the tests given in Clark county. He is now training ten students in the Department of Education who will conduct the tests. At the same time the department will make a survey of all the schools of Clark county at the invitation of the Board of Education of that county.

DR. BOYD ATTENDS MEETING

Dr. Paul Boyd, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, attended a meeting of the committee on accredited schools of the Association of Kentucky Colleges and Universities held at the State Capitol November 22.

ANNUAL GRID BATTLE WON BY VOLUNTEERS

Wilhelm Intercepted Pass, Ran 80 Yards For a Touchdown

SCORE 14 TO 7.

The Wildcats closed their 1920 season with a defeat last Thursday at the hands of the University of Tennessee Volunteers on Wait Field, Knoxville, by the score of 14 to 7. The Kentuckians played an excellent game and did well to hold the heavy Tennessee eleven to such a small score.

The Kentucky score came in the first few minutes of play when Wilhelm intercepted a forward pass and ran 80 yards for a touchdown. Server kicked goal. The remainder of the first half was nip and tuck between the contending elevens, the ball remaining in the middle of the field most of the time.

Tennessee got its first marker in the third quarter on a doubtful decision of the referee. The ball was advanced 20 yards by a Tennessee pass which was intercepted by Fest, but the latter was tackled by Janes and the ball got into the possession of the Tennessee player in the down. The referee ruled that if the ball was taken away from Fest he did not see it, and he must give the ball to Tennessee. With the ball within 30 yards of the Kentucky goal Tennessee pulled another forward pass, Lane receiving the pass just behind the goal line. The second touchdown was made in the fourth quarter after Tennessee had been held for three downs on Kentucky's one-half yard line and had been penalized five yards. The Kentucky line was holding so well that Tennessee would not attempt another line buck, but instead sent the fast little quarterback, Smith, around right end after a double pass had been made. This was the first double pass used in the game and it worked smoothly, Smith making a touchdown.

The Wildcats showed a decided superiority in breaking up forward passes, which is the result of days of labor on Coach Juneau's part. In the last quarter the Cats also pulled some wonderful passing of their own. Server sent the sphere down the field for three ten yard gains during about five minutes of play.

Hatcher, Tennessee captain and famous toe artist, was more than a match for either Wilhelm or Server at punting, his efforts often going 70 yards. At placement kicking, for which he is famous, he was a decided failure in the Kentucky game. Out of four attempts he failed every time. Holt, Campbell and Blair were a trio of backfield men that were outstanding Volunteers in the game.

The Kentucky backfield was even faster than the Tennessee backfield, but lacked the weight that is necessary for driving power in line bucks. Thornton and Fuller were at the halves, Wilhelm at full and Lavin at quarter. In the line were Heber, Murphree, Colpitts, Pest, Thompson, Server and Rice. Ramsey replaced Colpitts in the third quarter and Wiley replaced Wilhelm in the second quarter.

SEASON OVER, COACH JUNEAU GOES HOME

Coach William J. Juneau, head coach of football at the University of Kentucky, left Lexington Saturday morning for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he will be engaged in the real estate business until next September.

The University contract calls for the services of Mr. Juneau only during the football season. He will be on hand early next fall to begin training the 1921 Wildcats for their very promising season.

At the football banquet Friday night, the Coach said that his season at Kentucky had been exceeding pleasant, that he had enjoyed his association with the Kentucky athletes, and that he felt sure he had a nucleus in the 1921 football material out of which he could build a winning machine.

The results of the labors of the Kentucky mentor have been very favorable indeed. He has taught more straight football here than Kentucky has had in years. The ability to block forward passing is a monument to his untiring efforts. He has also given the team a sterling defense. Much of his time was required with teaching elementary tactics this year, but next season he will be free to build up an offense that will carry away many victories for Kentucky.

BASKETEER PROSPECTS EXCEEDINGLY BRIGHT

Seven Letter Men, Fifteen Other Basket Experts Will Be Out

The football season of 1920 is at an end and the attention of the student body is turned to the basketball prospects for the oncoming season. Last year the Wildcats were known as one of the strongest teams in this section of the country and lost the game deciding the State championship by the close margin of one field goal.

This year Coach Buchheit has a wealth of new material to work with and he is sure of developing a championship team. Very few of last year's letter men have failed to show up and the places can be ably filled by the new men who have reported. The old letter men who are seen on the floor this year are: Burnham, Hayden, Server, Lavin, Ridgeway, Zerfoss, Shanklin, Wilhelm, who barely missed making his "K" last year, will be out again.

Some of the best bets that have recently arrived at this institution of learning are: Bill King, erstwhile star forward of the Lexington High team; Paul Adkins, formerly of Centre and Cumberland College at which schools he starred on the basketball floor, playing in the position of center; Joe Claunch, phenomenal goal-shooting forward of Somerset High; "Chuck" Rice, all-state guard from Paris; Wiley, from Ohio Military Institute; McBee, from Tennessee Military Institute; Witherspoon, Van Zant, and Bottom from Anderson County High School; Campbell, Greb and Wallace from Lexington High, and Fufkins from Covington. Siler, a letter man from Cumberland

JIM SERVER ELECTED CAPTAIN AT BANQUET

Sixteen Members of 1920 Squad Are Given Letters By Athletic Council

(C. V.) WATSON, MGR.

James Milton (Big Jim) Server, Henderson was elected captain of the 1921 Wildcat team by the "K" men at the annual football banquet held at the Phoenix hotel last Friday evening. C. V. Watson, Brooksville, was made manager of the team for the coming year.

The Athletic Council announced that the following men would receive letters for this year: Eggar Murphree, John Heber, Robert Lavin, Jim Wilhelm, James Server, George Zerfoss, Arthur Shanklin, Fred Pest, Bruce Fuller, William Colpitts, David Thornton, Burkett Pribble, W. D. Thompson, A. T. Rice, Dell Ramsey, Ed. Wiley and Fred Houston-Shaw, manager of the team.

Professor Enoch Grehan, the toastmaster, likened the occasion to the peace table after a battle. He said, in part: "The football team this year may not have piled up as many marked victories as in years gone by but its fight for the honor of the University was as brave and honorable as any ever made. At no time has any member of the team shown a yellow streak." In referring to the scared and crippled condition of the team, he said: "The number of your injuries show the valor of your battles."

The election of the new captain was then conducted by Murphree, the retiring captain. After Server was elected, "Murph" thanked Coach Juneau and the members of the team for their work and the alumni for their cooperation and support.

Professor J. J. Tigert, chairman of the Athletic Council, in his speech on "Wildcats, Past and Present," referred

KERNEL NOW WILL BE ISSUED SEMI-WEEKLY

In order to get more news to the students in quicker time The Kernel has been tentatively divided into two issues of four pages each, which will appear on Tuesday and Friday of each week. By this plan the paper will be able to carry more real news and not be forced to print stories which are sometimes a week old when the paper comes out.

This is being attempted solely as an experiment and, after a test, it may be deemed advisable to resume weekly publication.

To facilitate the work of editing the Kernel twice a week, two complete staffs have been selected, one for each issue, with J. Donald Dinning as Managing Editor of one, and Fred Augsburg the other.

THANKSGIVING SMOKER AT DELTA CHI CHAPTER HOUSE

The Delta Chi fraternity entertained informally at their chapter house on North Mill street Thanksgiving evening. The house was decorated in buff and red, colors of the fraternity. About twenty-five guests were present.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY

The Kernel looks with great hope on the suggestion of Lieutenant Governor S. Thurston Ballard that a special session of the General Assembly be called by Governor Morrow in the next few weeks.

The primary purpose of such a session would be to provide funds for State highways, a grave necessity arising out of the failure of the Whiskey tax legislation of the regular session held last winter.

It is not The Kernel's place to discuss the methods which should be used in raising the funds. A tax on coal or oil may or may not be advisable.

It is to be sincerely hoped, should the special session be called, that Governor Morrow will include in the program attention to the needs of the University. President McVey's reports furnish sufficient evidence that money is urgently and immediately required to bring the physical plant of the University to conformity with the growth of the student body.

O-K-O

"OUT, DAMNED SPOT"

An inescapable duty is forced on the Senior Court by the activity of the young criminal who painted "24" on the fountain and by the inactivity of University authorities.

Some Freshmen, besides the perpetrator, know who he is. It is inconceivable that they can by any extension of the definition of "being a good fellow" sooth the still, small voice that urges them to divulge the name of the responsible party.

The Kernel urges the Senior Court to go to any length in holding the culprit or culprits to the uttermost accountability and to exhaust every means to attain that end.

O-K-O

Dollars vs. Ideas.

You have a dollar, I have a dollar.

We swap. Now you have my dollar, And I have your dollar, And I have neither gained a whit.

But you have an idea, And I have an idea, We swap. Now you have two ideas, And I have two ideas.

That is the difference between Dollars and Ideas.

BASKETEER PROSPECTS

College is also a candidate for the squad.

With this constellation of basketball stars the team should be the best one Kentucky has had in years and the Wildcats should be reckoned as one of the strongest teams in the South.

Several of the men have been coming out every afternoon for the past few weeks, practicing goal shooting, and doing light scrimmaging. A great many of the candidates, however, are on the football squad and will not have the opportunity of coming out until next week when they will have ample time to get limbered up after the Thanksgiving relaxation.

Athletic Director Boles has not completed the schedule, but is completing it as soon as possible. The following games have been booked.

- Jan. 26.-Cincinnati-there. Feb. 5.-Georgetown-here. Feb. 14.-Georgetown-here. Feb. 21.-Vanderbilt-here. Feb. 28.-Vanderbilt-there. Feb. 26.-Tennessee-there. Games are being contemplated with Centre, Cumberland, and Kentucky Wesleyan.

SIGMA NU GIVES SKATING PARTY

The Sigma Nu fraternity entertained last Friday evening with an informal skating party at the skating rink in Nicholasville. The fraternity chartered an interurban car to take the party, which numbered about seventy-five.

Mrs. Falconer, Mrs. Ehrlich, and Miss Dora Berkeley were the chaperones. The guests were: Elizabeth Gorman, Ellen Hughes, Dayise Lee Erdman, Luck Smith, Sip Akers, Ruth Tinsley, Minnie Mae Robinson, Mary Elizabeth James, Catherine Fuller, Lillian Collins, Anna Louise Connor, Louise McKee, Frances Ripy, Arabelle Ehrlich, Nan Hornsby, Sara Metcalf Piper, Margaret Smith, Virginia Moran, LaVerne Purcell, Elizabeth Allen, Louise Connell, Margaret Harbison, Elizabeth Kimbrough, Dorothy Blatz, Laura Hubbard, Mamie Miller Woods.

THE ALUMNI CLUBS

Plans are being made to reorganize alumni clubs which have been inactive since the beginning of the war; also in some cities preparations are being made to organize clubs where before there were none.

Such a movement supplements greatly the work of the general association of alumni in service to the University and to alumni and former students. It serves also to stimulate interest in the Association. Knowledge of the whereabouts of men and women from the University and of their training or business qualifications—the alumni secretary intends to supply this information—will prove of mutual benefit to employers and to prospective associates. Social features deserve some consideration. The principal advantage in all this however, is the opportunity for greater service to the Alma Mater.

We hope ready co-operation will be given universally to those who are seeking to organize the alumni clubs and to further the work of the Alumni Association.

"BIG JIM" TO HEAD 1921 WILDCATS

Server To Take Murphree's Place as Captain—Last of Old Squad.

At the annual football banquet held in the Phoenix hotel last Friday evening, James Milton Server, of Henderson, was elected captain of the 1921 Wildcats. "Big Jim," as he is called, is a Junior in the College of Agriculture and has played three years on the varsity football team.

Server came to the University of Kentucky in 1915, during which year he played on the Freshman team, being ineligible for the varsity. In 1916 he made the team, and gained a reputation as one of the best tacklers in Kentucky. When the war broke out Jim gave up school life to answer the call of the colors and spent the next two years in the army, a greater part of the time in France.

He returned to the University last year and played football. This year "Big Jim" proved himself to be one of the greatest linemen that ever wore a blue jersey, and he was picked by several coaches and sport writers for the mythical All Kentucky eleven. He played all season in the position of left tackle and did most of the punting. He was not out of the game a minute all season. He succeeds Eggar Vaughan Murphree as captain of the Wildcats.

PILGRIM PAGEANT IS GIVEN IN U. K. THEATRE

Students Represent Pilgrim Fathers in Interesting Program.

The 1920-21 Little Theatre season opened Tuesday, November 23, with an elaborate Tercentary program commemorating the landing of the Pilgrims, given in the University chapel by student players. The program was taken partly from Percy Mackay's "Pilgrim and Book" and consisted of three parts.

The first part was a curtain oration by Patrick Henry Vincent, and was an excerpt from an oration delivered by Edward Everett in 1824 in honor of the Pilgrims.

The second part of the program was a short play on the familiar theme of the "Courtship of Miles Standish." The four characters were especially well played by Mamie Miller Woods as Priscilla, Laurine Wells as Dame Hadley, Robert Davis as Captain Standish, and Troy Perkins as John Alden.

The last part of the program was a Pilgrim Pageant, comprising four episodes. The first deals with the Pilgrims in their religious persecution in England; the second with the Pilgrims in their afflictions of poverty, disease and death after their arrival in New England. The third depicts their successful quest for religious and political freedom. The four episode represents Columbia offering homage to the Pilgrims for their gifts of Endurance, Education, Religion, Justice, Thrift, Law and Liberty to America.

The entire pageant is symbolic. The Pilgrim folk are represented by one character. M. T. Brooks took the part of the Pilgrim. The voice was taken by F. M. Heath and Columbia by Mary Elizabeth Downing.

The entertainment was concluded with the "Pilgrim Chorus" from Tannhauser by the University orchestra and Glee Club, directed by Professor Lampert.

The program was presented under the direction of Mr. Mikesell, professor of English, assisted by Professor Warren, who furnished the incidental music.

Murphree, Heber, Zerfoss To Leave Wildcat Squad

With the closing of 1920 football schedule Thanksgiving day at Knoxville, Tennessee, three Wildcat stars made their exit from University of Kentucky football.

Three veterans, two of whom had served their team as captain and had played in the Blue of Kentucky for four years, discarded the moleskins forever. For the three warriors Kentucky has nothing but praise and thanks for their inestimable services.

Eger Vaughn Murphree is the retiring captain of the present band of Wildcats. His 190 pounds are a familiar sight at right tackle and a very important factor in the Wildcat machine.

John George Heber, captain of the 1918 squad, with his face smeared with dirt and blood, his football togs tattered and muddy, is the most typical "Wildcat" possible. He has always been a sure tackler and a consistent player.

George Zerfoss left end, has only been with the squad three years but will retire from football because of graduation next spring. Last year he played directly opposite his brother who was playing with Vanderbilt, and gave his big brother quite a bit of trouble.

to the recent criticism of the team by an alumnus and condemned persons who criticize without knowing real facts. He said: "I don't regard the team as unsuccessful. I think we have made a great deal of progress in the last four or five years and we have also progressed in athletics. It used to be hard to have two teams practicing throughout the season. Now about six teams are out all year. The Athletic Council also stands better financially—it has cleared more money than ever before."

"Success is not measured by the number of games won but by the way the team played. The team has shown wonderful fighting spirit."

Mr. Grehan also said: "The University of Kentucky does not desire ring-ers and paid athletes."

R. S. Webb, who has given such staunch support to the team said he was always willing to do all he could to help the team and athletics. He offered to find work for any man who wanted it, if he would come to him. Referring to the season, he said: "I don't think the team needs any criticism."

"Doc" Rodes, who was present, pledged his support to the team and said he had seen a marked improvement over last year. He ended his talk by saying: "My one ambition, desire, hope and prayer is to beat Centre."

Coach Juneau expressed his appreciation not only for the cooperation he received from the team but also for that given by the Athletic Council and Kentucky alumni.

E. B. Webb, speaking for the alumni, said that the team has been successful, and though all the results were not victories the games were all hard fought. He added: "Centre has a wonderful team; every dog has its day! We want men who will fight because they love their institution." He also said: "Some institutions have good athletics and poor educational facilities; some have good educational facilities and poor athletics. The University of Kentucky," he continued, "was going to combine the two and have good athletics and good educational facilities." He announced that plans had been made to bring a wealth of material to Kentucky next season, "but there won't be a hired one among them."

Besides the Athletic Council and the first team, the Junior class team, the Freshman class team and a number of students, members of the Lexington High school team were present as guests.
