

JAN. -- 1901

The Faculty of the Department of Pedagogy met in regular Monthly session.

This being the first month of a new Term there was but little business before the body. Consultation was held regarding the cases of various students whose work was not wholly satisfactory, but it was decided to allow them another month in which to show a disposition to do improved work, before taking any definite action.

RMR:ark

Frank.