You're credited with an edition advocating pulling out of Southeastern Conference and recruiting negroes.

And become "leaders"

"Leaders" in what buster?

You're "sick" of having racial inferiority rammed down your throats. You mean you're tired of not having your way and integrating with the black race in every category most likely.

Take it up with the Kennedy clam, Hugo Black regime, and some of the big names in NAACP. They might arrange get a few thousand soldiers and Marshalls to help out.

Then too it could be your name would get before Look or some of the other several white supremacy haters and get you a write up or maybe an offer to join their editorial staffs.

You should transfer to Ole Miss where you could be a candidate for head of their student paper and advocate getting some more Merediths there some perhaps athletically. They recently voted out their paper president for her leaning to the dark race but before she was heaved out she had several offers to get on staffs and say her words in favor of integration and all the nice things that goes with it

Howard College would no doubt welcome having you with them. Or would they?

Wants Wildcats To Quit SEC

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Kernel, student newspaper at the University of Kentucky, advocated Thursday night that Kentucky withdraw from the Southeastern Conference and begin recruiting Negro athletes.

"What A Revolkin Development This Is,"
"Thank God for Ole Miss."
You intellectuals should go back NORTH—
