ABBAY OF GETHSEMANI
TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

Oct 11, 1961

Dear Dr Thompson:

There is really no serious objection ~~to~~ a discrete use of the material in exhibition in the library. Such exhibitions are in any case most discrete. The only thing would be to make sure no special attention was drawn to the author in the way of "personal" emphasis. But the mss, and things like that, would do no special harm. Indeed they might help the books, for instance when the New Man comes out in January, or New Seeds of Contemplation in December. I cannot say that any of us here request such an exhibit, but in a discrete way there seem to be no objections. Especially as the same kind of thing has been done in the past and is done again at Marquette and around Chicago.

I will keep sending things along as occasion arises.

I was very sorry to hear Mrs Thompson had been ill. Please give her my best wishes and say I am glad to hear she is getting well. I certainly keep you all in my thoughts and prayers, but will make a special reference to her needs these days.

May God bless all of you.

With very cordial good wishes,
in Christ
