INTERCLASS GAMES ON SATURDAY'S SCHEDULE

Juniors To Play Seniors and Fresh To Fight Sophomores

HARD STRUGGLE SURE

Class athletics will be resumed at the University Saturday afternoon when the Seniors and the Juniors will attempt to make mince meat of each other on Stoll Field and the Fresh and Sophs will stage the same stunt, with each other in the role of mutual prey. According to reports all four classes are confident of being returned victorious, but so far as a straw vote can disclose the race will be about as close as the recent Hughes-Wilson affair.

All four classes have been hard at work for the past two weeks getting their machines in shape and form little short of varsity class is expected to be shown. The teams will appear in full panoply of war, including head-gear and jerseys. Dr. Tigert having promised to lend the necessary articles. According to an agreement between the managers of the teams and the coaches no men will be allowed to participate who have been out for the varsity team this year or who have earned a K.

The Freshmen and Sophomores have not announced their line-ups yet, but the Seniors and Juniors will probably go into the fray with the following order:

Juniors.	Seniors.
Ireland .....	Clark
	End.
Fuss .....	A. S. Kelly
	Right Tackle.
H. E. Maddox .....	Hodges
	Right Guard.
Park .....	Crum
	Center.

	Left Guard.
Garred .....	Potts
	Left Tackle.
Clark or Waterfill .....	Schwant
	Left End.
Richey (Captain) .....	Harney
	Quarterback.
Reusch .....	Hopkins
	Right Half.
Ellis or Irvine .....	Hubble
	Left Half
J. D. Maddox or Finley .....	Collins
	Fullback.
Senior Substitutes—Jones, Rawlins, Schirmer and Mayhew.

HISTORY CLUB WILL MEET MONDAY NIGHT

The History Club will hold its regular November meeting in the Education Building Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. The program will consist of miscellaneous topics of interest and all are invited to attend. After the regular program the Seniors will hold a conference with Dr. Tuthill.

ALPHA ZETA HOLDS PLEDGING EXERCISES

Seven Juniors Become Members of Honorary Ag. Fraternity

CHAPEL IS CROWDED

The following Juniors in the College of Agriculture were pledged to Alpha Zeta, the national honorary agricultural fraternity, Friday morning in chapel: E. P. Bleidt, B. B. McInteer, J. B. Taber, J. G. Stewart, E. M. Johnson, Tilford Wilson and Louis Reusch, Jr.

The entire chapel hour was devoted to the pledging exercises and the members of the active chapter who officiated were Orem LaMaster, C. W. Bennett, L. A. Bradford, J. E. McMurry, J. A. Hodges, George Gumbert, W. W. Owsley, C. L. Morgan, the Sophomore honor man last year, R. B. Hays and Frank Street. The last named presided.

Professor George Roberts, dean of the Agricultural College and a member of Alpha Zeta, addressed the students before the pledging exercises on "The Place the Fraternity Should Occupy in the College of Agriculture." Professor E. S. Good spoke, emphasizing the importance of the agricultural graduate returning to the farm because intensive farming is the only remedy for the high cost of living. Professor T. R. Bryant also made a short talk telling of the $100 loan fund which was subscribed by the Alpha Zeta to help deserving men thru college. A large number witnessed the pledging exercises.

BLEVINS REPRESENTS Y. M. C. A. IN CHINA

Chas. E. Blevins, a graduate of the University, and familiarly known as "Chief," will leave soon for Hangchow, China, where he will represent the Y. M. C. A. For several months Mr. Blevins has been connected with the physical department of the "Y." at Jacksonville, Fla. He will be sent to China by means of a fund raised for that purpose by the Georgia Tech. College. Mr. Blevins has always been interested in athletics and while a student in the University often acted in the capacity of assistant instructor of athletics. He was also assistant football coach and assistant physical director.

EXCITING CHESS CONTESTS BEING HELD IN "Y" ROOMS.

Professors Miller and Pence engaged all comers simultaneously at a meeting of nine chess players in the University Y. M. C. A. rooms, Monday night. No records of the games were kept but there were several lively contests. Four of the strongest players of the Lexington clubs will be invited out next Monday night and the University students are invited to witness the contests.

A DEADLY PARALLEL.

LEX. HERALD NOV. 1. LEX. HERALD NOV. 4.

The intersection of Limestone Street and Virginia Avenue was the particular sacrificial altar in Lexington last night for humble worship to the Hallow'een.

A huge bonfire was built in the middle of the street and its heat melted a great hole in the asphalt.

A fire alarm was turned in from a box in that vicinity and firemen responding to the call found the fire alarm box wrenched from its post and utterly destroyed. The cost of installing a new box will finance the city's damages $125, but a fine of from $25 to $100 in awaiting the guilty party if he is caught.

LOUISVILLE CANCELS GAME WITH WILDCATS

Injuries and Men Ineligible Given As Reason For Action

OTHER GAMES CARDED

The Louisville game was called off Wednesday at noon. Manager Briggman and Coach Duffy, of the University of Louisville, met with representatives of the University Athletic Committee and stated that they were willing to do anything that Kentucky wished, and that they cherished the friendly rivalry that had existed for so many years between the two schools, but because the Louisville team was disorganized and a number of the best men had been declared ineligible, the game would not be satisfactory if played.

The straight-forward manner in which Coach Duffy stated Louisville's position, and the fact that the U. of L. boys were willing to carry out any suggestion made by Kentucky, caused Dr. Tigert to allow the game to be canceled without requiring the $200 guarantee that would have been due had Kentucky not given her consent to having the game canceled.

No big game will be played this week. Next week it is probable that a game with Marshall College, of Indiana, will be added to the schedule. Marshall has already wired that she will play any day Kentucky sets. It is probable that the game will be played Monday or Tuesday.

The Mississippi A. and M. game will either be kept as it is scheduled, for Saturday week, or be changed to the early part of the following week if that arrangement would be satisfactory to Mississippi.

Definite details for the switches in the schedule that will be caused by the cancellation of the Louisville game have not been arranged but will be announced as soon as concluded.

PI KAPS TRIM PHI DELTS BY 25-0 SCORE

The Pi Kappa Alpha and Phi Delta Theta fraternities bruised each other up in an alleged football game on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon just after dinner. The Pi Kaps say the score was 25 to 0 in their favor and the Phis get mad every time anybody asks them what the score was and won't tell. "Doc" Rodes was referee and Charley Haydon acted as umpire. Pendleton was head linesman.

The Pi Kaps have a fast-going bunch that work well together. The Phis showed lack of teamwork and were hardly in mid-season form. Hedges, Newman, Burnley and big Bill Collins were in the backfield for the Pi Kaps and played star games. Ed. Cobb played quarterback for the Phis and ran the team well. "Pinky" Robinson also played a good game.

AMATEUR NIGHT WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

List of Entries Is Large—Program Presented in Chapel

ELIMINATION TODAY

NOTICE, AMATEURS!

All persons who are entered in the "Amateur Night" of the Strollers tomorrow night are hereby notified that a preliminary contest will be held in the chapel this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Due to the fact that the list of entries is very large it will be necessary to eliminate a number of those entered. No one will be allowed to appear on Friday night who fails to try-out in the elimination contest this afternoon. If it is impossible for you to be present this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, come as soon after that time as possible, but do not fail to be present.

JOHN R. MARSH, Stage Manager.

Tomorrow night, Friday, November 10, is the time for the annual big "Amateur Night" performance of the Strollers. The program will be presented in the chapel starting at 8 o'clock and the entire student body, the faculty and all friends are invited to be present as the guests of the Strollers. There will be no charge for admission.

The list of entries is larger this year than ever before, nearly forty students having entered and the program should be even more entertaining than that of last year, which made a hit with an audience that packed the chapel. Only the best acts entered will be presented on Friday night, which will insure an interesting program, which will not be too long. Two prizes are offered by the Strollers, one of $5.00 for the best act presented by a single person, and a prize of equal amount for the best act presented by more than one person.

The list of entries is varied and includes one-act plays, comedy skits, musical acts, dramatic monologs, humorous monologs and readings of all kinds. The elimination contests will be held in the chapel this afternoon starting at 2:30 o'clock, and all who are entered are notified to be present at that time. No act which does not appear before the judges in the elimination will be allowed to enter the competition on Friday night.

When the entries closed last night the number was most gratifying. Miss Margaret Wilkinson and Frank Shinnick will present an original one-act play, written by Miss Wilkinson. Lawrence A. Bischof, Henry H. Barker and H. J. Vowell will appear in an original skit. Messrs. Richey, Harney, Irvine and Gardner, the well-

ALLEGED COUPON FRAUD UNDER INVESTIGATION

Hereafter no Detached Coupons Will Be Accepted For Admission

Fraudulent substitution of a coupon for admission to the Kentucky-Seewanee game is being investigated by the Athletic Committee. A gate-keeper turned away a student at the gate who tried to pass thru on a coupon No. 24, from which the "2" had been erased, according to a report made to the committee. Coupon No. 4 was used at the game and it is thought that the student sold the original ticket. When the guilty student is found, the case will be turned over to the Discipline Committee.

On account of these fraudulent substitutions, the Athletic Committee has announced that hereafter no coupons detached from a student's athletic book will be accepted for admission to any athletic contest.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

The Woman's Club of the University will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. Paul Anderson, on Kentucky Avenue, with Mrs. Pence and Mrs. Anderson hostesses.

LIBRARY CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

Large Number Present To Enjoy Story-Telling Program

The story-telling hour which was the feature of the last Library Club meeting was a decided treat to those who were fortunate enough to be present. A brief outline of the art of story-telling was given by Miss Vivian DeLaine, after which nursery rhymes and stories, both American and Japanese, were charmingly told. Dean Anna J. Hamilton presented the club with a beautiful Mother Goose calendar for 1917.

The Library Club is not an organization for only those interested in or taking the course in Library Science, as many think, but is a club for every one interested in literature, arts and science. Students in any department of the University are eligible.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday, November 15 at 4:30 o'clock in the club room in the basement of the Library Building. "Contemporary American Novelists" is the subject of the program. All who admire Jack London, Booth Tarkington, James Lane Allen, Mrs. DeLand, Kate Douglas Wiggin, Harold Bell Wright, and scores of others, are invited to come and hear something new and interesting about them. The club will receive some interesting biographical sketches direct from the publishers of these and many others which will be placed on the Library Club shelf in the Library reading room.

HEADLINER BILL AT ADA MEADE THEATRE

The Ada Meade Theatre offers one of the best attractions of the season the latter part of this week. Girls, comedians, music, and dancing are only a few of the many features of the show at the popular playhouse. The management is trying to give better attractions this year than ever before, and if what the dramatic critics of the East say about his week's attraction is to be taken at anything like par value, this show will prove the best ever seen at a popular priced playhouse in Lexington.

On account of the patronage given the Ada Meade by University of Kentucky students, every effort is being made to please them and this show will prove no exception. It is seldom that the management takes upon itself to praise one of its own programs, but the one this week is too good to be kept secret. Lack of space will not permit a detailed enumeration of its merits, but everyone who sees it will concede that it is "some show."

REDDISH ADDRESSES PRE-MED SOCIETY

Dr. W. D. Reddish, a prominent Lexington physician, addressed the Pre-Medical Society at its regular meeting Monday evening. The meeting was well attended and Dr. Reddish's talk was a very interesting one. The society has arranged to have local and prominent out-of-town doctors to address it in the future.

BOARD OF WOMEN TO MANAGE PATT HALL

Mrs. Elizabeth King Smith, Mrs. A. M. Harrison and Mrs. Shelby T. Harrison were appointed a board of control and management for Patterson Hall by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky in special session Wednesday.

An act appropriating a special fund for building and furnishing Patterson Hall, provided also for a board of three women to draw up regulations for the discipline and control of students in the dormitory, general supervision of the hall and semi-annual reports on receipts and expenditures.

A committee appointed at the completion of the hall continued in office until June, 1915, consisted of Mrs. Solomon L. VanMeter, Mrs. O. L. Bradley and Mrs. F. A. Atkins. When about to elect a successor to Mrs. Caroline Wallis, matron, who resigned in June, 1911, the Board of Control was informed that a matron had been appointed already and the dormitory would be managed under a different plan. Since then no board had been named until last week, the hall having been managed by Dean Hamilton, under the direction of President Barker.

None of the appointees has announced whether she will accept the charge.

PROFESSOR FARQUHAR AND JUDGE CHALKLEY SPEAKERS.

Professor E. F. Farquhar, professor of literature, and Judge Lyman Chalkley, professor in the College of Law, will speak before the Women's Club Saturday afternoon. The former will talk on "Immigration in the South," and the latter on "Americanization."

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY ORGANIZES.

The Junior Assembly Club of the University has organized for the season and chosen the following officers: Felix Renick, president; Addison G. Foster, secretary, and Thomas T. Richards, treasurer. The first of a series of dances will be given at the Phoenix Hotel November 24. Club members will have the privilege of inviting outside guests.

JILTED BRETHREN TO RUN SPECIAL TRAIN

Two Lonesome Beattyville Girls Looking For Sensible Men

NO BEAUTY HANDICAP

If there are in this University two gentlemen of good sense, who could look after extensive oil interests, a job is awaiting them at Beattyville. Two young ladies of that city desire to correspond with such persons, because all the available men in that country have gone to the border and they want to be helped along on the road of matrimony.

Those interested may write to Miss A. B. C. and Miss X. Y. Z., box 301, Beattyville, Ky.

It is rumored that the Jilted Brethren will run a special train to Beattyville this afternoon.

My house is large and free; it is my own.
Your house is small and dark; you live alone.
Your window's filled with bars and framed in stone.
We've lived such different lives, the people say,
But from my house to yours is but a way.

How great the distance is, no one can tell
For you, who went that way, don't know it well;
You took each forward step as in a spell.
But that our hearts are different, who can say?
Ah, from my house to yours is but a way. E. D. V.

STUDENT BODY HEARS ADDRESS BY SEERLEY

Noted Lecturer Makes Powerful Talk in Chapel Tuesday

"The man or woman, who has formed good habits when his or her character has been molded, may be said to have found himself or herself, as the case may be," said Dr. F. N. Seerley in an address on the "Formation of Habit" to the students of the University Tuesday morning in chapel.

Dr. Seerley is of Springfield, Mass., where he is engaged in the preparation of secretaries and physical instructors for work in the Y. M. C. A. He is now making a tour of the Southern colleges and Universities, his visit here being arranged by the University Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock he delivered another interesting address to the battalion and other students on "Sex Education." Secretary Johnson, of the University Y. M. C. A., announced that Dr. Seerley would be delighted to grant an interview to any student interested in the preparation of Y. M. C. A. secretaries and physical instructors.

WILDCATS ARRANGING STRENUOUS SCHEDULE

From present prospects the Wildcats will have a strenuous season next year with the best teams in the South as contenders. Dr. Tigert is already looking ahead and games with Vanderbilt, Sewanee, Tennessee, Mississippi A and M, Indiana and Miami look like sure things. Indiana and Miami have not been on the schedule for some years. Indiana will be a newcomer, should the game with that university be arranged. The Indiana club is coached by Director Steihm. Dr. Tigert has been in correspondence with Director Steihm and arrangements have almost been closed for the game with the Bloomington aggregation.

Miami is an old rival of the University of Kentucky but games between these colleges have not been played for a long time. When Miami and Kentucky engaged in an annual squabble there was almost as much interest over the game as there was in the Thanksgiving game. Miami always has a clean, well-coached bunch of fighters.

The University of Louisville will probably be retained on the menu card. It now seems probable that the Wildcat management will be able to arrange for games with such teams as Vanderbilt and Sewanee in the South and still keep the annual Thanksgiving game with Tennessee.

LEGHORNS LEAD THE EGG-LAYING CONTEST

The White Leghorns are leading in the National Egg-Laying Contest, which is being held at the Experiment Station. One hundred and eighty birds have entered the contest which promises to be one of the most successful ever held.

Prizes will be awarded monthly to the highest producing pens, and the highest producing hen. A prize of $50 and a silver pitcher and a $25 prize and a silver pitcher will be awarded at the end of the year to the highest producing pens and similar prizes to the highest-producing hens.

GET YOUR OWN PAPER.

The Kernel wishes to request every student to go to the University postoffice on Thursday morning after 11 o'clock and get his own copy of the paper. No one is expected or allowed to take more than one copy, as there is only one for each student, and when more than one is taken some one else is deprived of his. The management regrets that it is necessary to make this request, but some persons have been taking more than their share of the good news and the custom will have to be stopped.

Let Justice Be Done.

Does the University of Kentucky get a square deal from the press and the people of the city of Lexington in the matter of criticism for disorders? The same question applies to the officials and the police force of the city. The spirit of adverse criticism which seems to animate Lexington at times in its attitude toward the student body was exemplified in a particularly aggravated form last week, when Hallowe'en disorders, both on the downtown streets and in out-of-the-way parts of the city, were attributed promiscuously to the students of the University, without due regard to facts and before a fair investigation had been made concerning the identity of the law-breakers.

We reprint in other columns of this issue reports from The Lexington Herald of last Wednesday and Saturday, which show how little pains for accuracy were taken by the writer or by his informant. The reports are reproduced as they appeared in the Herald and the latter one asserts that the damage attributed to law-breakers on October 31 was magnified to an inexcusable extent. This paper stated that the crowd which attacked a street car on South Limestone Street that night was composed of students, but up until this hour no evidence has been discovered to prove that any student was connected with this act of vandalism.

The Lexington Leader of Wednesday contained an editorial censuring the University, the authorities and the student body for Hallowe'en frolics, in which the whole city took part. No one except those connected with the University was given any blame in this editorial, which stated that "the discipline at State University, it may well be said, is notoriously bad." The Kernel wishes to retort that the discipline at State University, or to be accurate, the University of Kentucky, is not notoriously bad, except in the eyes of reckless and thoughtless writers seeking opportunity to exploit either their mendacity or their ignorance of facts, that they may embarrass those who have no redress. No matter whether ignorance or political prejudice instigated this attack, the fact remains that a large number of excellent young men and women have been wronged.

But the most unkindest cut of all was that which came when the Honorable Judge of the Police Court, who has so long kept vigilant eye upon the morals of Lexington, lectured severely on the iniquitous condition of the University of Kentucky, particularly when compared to another unnamed college in the city. Four students of the University were arrested on the streets Tuesday evening and their cases will come before His Honor tomorrow morning. We are not aware of the character of the testimony which the arresting officers will make before the court, but we do know that the same men admitted to the University Discipline Committee that the boys were taken in because they "happened to be at hand," and not because they were really guilty of acts that could be construed as derogatory to the peace of Lexington or the safety of her citizens.

Several thousand persons were on the street for the Hallowe'en celebration and it is doubtful if more than one-tenth were University students. Why were our students singled out for arrest and punishment?

In the course of his remarks, as quoted in the Leader, Judge Riley said: "Considerable property was destroyed Tuesday night. I do not say that students did it, but it is noteworthy that students are usually accused of being present in numbers when vandalism of this kind is done." Here we agree with the good judge. University students are always accused of being present when property is destroyed. That is what the Kernel objects to. We want to know why the public accuses them of being present before proof is adduced.

The Kernel would be the last to condone law-breaking on the part of students or any one else, and recommends that if any one be proved guilty of the offenses charged by our reckless contemporaries he be punished commensurately with the degree of his crime. But we object to making the student body of the University of Kentucky the scape-goat for all the sins of the city. We take the liberty of suggesting to His Honor of Water Street that he instruct the police to look for law-breakers when crimes are committed and not for University students.

In the controversy that has been opened, the Kernel feels that it has before it ample material for recrimination against the city officials who delivered themselves of harsh sentiments concerning us, but as we are not ourselves without sin we refuse to recast the stones which the papers and the public not so long since took great delight in heaving at them. We ask only for justice for the University.

In this connection, it might be well for our own authorities to make a little more staunch defense of us and not quite so much abject apology.

Now that Hallowe'en and the election have passed and left us in a nervous condition, but unscathed, let us turn once more to the gentle art of football, suh.

Lykelle Prose.

The Autumn sun broke fair on the little city of Lexington. 'Twas the morning after Hallowe'en and the city, bruised by the wild orgies of the night before, lay like a wounded thing under the dim mist of the dawn. Presently there was a stir. Newsboys cried the morning papers in the streets and citizens began to learn of the terrible havoc of the night before. Later in the day the afternoon papers corroborated the morning's news and added gruesome details. A garbage can, valued at several hundred dollars, had been completely demolished. A rusty hitching post had been torn up and damaged to the extent of $150. Some vandal had burned a gaping hole almost as large as a dollar in an old board fence and caused a loss of $75. Several persons had been arrested charged with the heinous crime of cheering for Harris Kuller, the poor man's friend, and so on.

Strange to say, the newspapers were almost accurate and fair to all persons concerned in their stories of the night's revels. But stranger still was the fact that all of the vandalism committed was not charged to the students of the University of Kentucky and that the poor old University, for so long the goat of Lexington wrongdoers, received only its fair apportionment of blame.

Why Let It Live?

(Campbellsville News Journal.)

A crowd of youngsters from town chaperoned by splendid chaperones, were out in this and surrounding communities Saturday night taking the advantage of a splendid invigorating moonlight pedestrian and vocal exercises, and they surely made the welkins ring with exhilarating laughter and noisy babble.

That Hick Again.

Quick: "I see in the paper where young Fulbak hurt his knee in the joint."

Hick: "I tell you them places oughta be closed—every durn one of them."

MESS HALL TO CLOSE.

In an interview yesterday afternoon, President Barker stated that the University cafeteria would be closed the fifteenth of this month unless it was placed on a self-supporting basis. The mess hall has lost money steadily this fall, and the President says that the students are not supporting it as they should.

ELECTION IS CLOSE.

The vote in the Presidential race between Charles E. Hughes and Woodrow Wilson was very close at the time the Kernel went to press, with the returns indicating the re-election of the President. The early results of Tuesday night, most of them from Eastern States, were strongly in favor of Hughes, but this lead was offset when Western reports came in.

Probably more political dope was upset in this race than in any preceding election. Several Western States, which were regarded as certainly Republican, gave pluralities to the Democratic standard bearer, and several Democratic strongholds went in the opposite direction. Kentucky gave Wilson a majority in excess of 25,000.

A number of University students who spent the week-end at home preparing to vote have begun to straggle back to books and classes.

STUDENTS TESTIFY ABOUT HALLOWE'EN

The University Discipline Committee has held several sessions investigating the alleged participation of students in disorders on the evening of October 31, and quite a number of students have been called to testify concerning the wrecking of a street car and damaging of a fire alarm box. No information in regard to the proceedings of the committee have been made public yet and President Barker is authority for the statement that none will be forthcoming until the entire matter has been gone into.

Judge Riley, of the Lexington Police Court, made the statement last week that the University ought to be able to control its students and an editorial in The Lexington Leader urged the officials of the University to call on the civil authorities to aid in preserving discipline among the students. So far the committee has not indicated that it will request the aid of police. The investigation will be continued today.

SENIOR AIDS FOREIGN BOY THRU UNIVERSITY

College life, with its meringue of happiness, sunshine and troublesome trifles, has also its filling. One pictures it as a zig-zag puzzle with crazy, criss-cross cut-outs. Cadet nops and lost collar buttons, Patterson Hall and ten-thirty, chapel hour and hamburgers at "Brits," Seniors and canes, George and turkeys, Hallowe'en and street cars, drill and new shoes, tug-of-war and bad cold, Ada Meade and first-hour class, football and celebrations, cramming and conditions—all go to make up the multi-colored picture.

But the real stuff is under the crust. One foreigner of the University is working his way thru college. The first few weeks he was having a hard time. Not long ago one of the Seniors, who lives in Lexington, heard he was having trouble "getting by." He called the foreign student aside one day and told him this:

"If you ever need any money let me know. I may be able to lend you a little myself and if I can't I can raise some among my friends in town."

The deed passed on and the Senior did not say a word about it. The foreigner has gotten "on his feet" now, and tells the story. It is just one of the many little things that pass unnoticed in the student life of the University.

2,000 Farmers of State Are Expected To Be Here January 2-5

Officials at the Experiment Station are busy arranging a program for Farmers' Week, which will be held at the University, January 2 to 5 of next year. In addition to the usual lectures and demonstrations, many other attractions have been provided and it is expected that 2,000 representative farmers of the State will attend this year.

Farmers' Week is an annual event held for the purpose of getting the farmers together in order that they may learn scientific principles about farming. The best and most attractive premium lists ever offered have been arranged this year and will be sent over the State in a few days. The county agents are aiding the movement and are working up interest never before manifested.

The scheduled program follows:
Tuesday, January 2, Kentucky Dairy Cattle Club, Kentucky Corn Club.
Wednesday, January 3, Kentucky Beef Cattle Club, Kentucky Alfalfa Club.
Thursday, January 4, Kentucky Swine Breeders' Association, Kentucky Bee Keepers' Association, Marketing Conference and Kentucky Jack Breeders' Association.

Friday, January 5, Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association, Kentucky Horticultural Association and the Kentucky Sheep Breeders' Association.

COLLEGE OF MINES WILL ISSUE ANNUAL

At the regular meeting of the Kentucky Mining Society held Monday night in the Mining Building it was decided to issue an annual this year, the purpose of which is to promote interest in the College of Mines and Metallurgy. Louis Ware was chosen editor-in-chief and E. B. Jones, business manager. They will have the privilege of selecting a staff. The annual, which will contain between 100 and 150 pages, will be put on sale about May 1.

J. J. Hume, of Covington, addressed the meeting on his experience in the borderland of West Virginia. Eugene Elder spoke on "University Affairs." The society was requested to send its picture and information about the college for publication in the monthly bulletin of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. W. C. Eyl, president of the society, presided.

SHOULD BEAUTIFY CAMPUS.

There is scarcely a college or even high school that does not pride itself on the beauties of its campus. Each college thruout this country makes some provision for maintaining the natural beauty and augmenting the artificial beauty of their campus.

The University of Kentucky has naturally a beautiful campus, but this natural beauty has been marred by improper use. The grass has been cut into triangles by paths that are neither beautiful nor useful. The lawn has been made a pasture for all loose stock in the community. The grounds have been used as a playground for all the children (white and colored) of the adjacent neighborhood. The shrubbery and flowers have been broken and pulled by these same children. Young trees that were put on the campus by classes and individuals have been stolen. It is time that such trespassing should be stopped.

The movement has been started and all loyal students should join in to help make it a success. A short time ago Professor Frank T. McFarland, of the botany department, was appointed to see that our campus was respected and made the place beautiful. Since then the old fence has been taken down and a number of trees have been trimmed.

Professor McFarland plans to have certain trees taken out and new trees put in their place. Shrubbery is to be given a conspicuous place and flowers are to bloom around all the buildings. The catalpa drive in front of Agricultural Hall is to be extended around to Mechanical Hall.

These are a few of the things that are planned. Students, one and all, should join in the movement, push it along by work and suggestions, and make our campus the most beautiful to be found in the South.

ANDERSON ADDRESSES Y. M. C. A. MEETING

An enthusiastic number of students heard Dean F. Paul Anderson speak on "Efficiency" at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday night. His talk went to the core of what goes to make a successful student or man. Physical health was taken as the first requisite of efficiency. Dean Anderson said that the student who smoked, drank or did anything else immoderately would never gain efficiency in the classroom. He said that the mind and body could not be alert or active after spending late hours in fun.

However, he advised the students to participate in the pleasures of college life and said that too much work was as bad as too much play. The advice given by Dean Anderson gave the students who heard him a much clearer conception of what the highest type students should be.

Y. M. C. A. ESTABLISHES "FIRST AID" COURSE.

The Y. M. C. A. has begun its special training course in "first aid to the injured" at the Morton High School. Two classes have been organized and a total of fifty boys have registered for the course. The course will also be established in other schools of Lexington in the near future.

WORK RESUMED ON UNIVERSITY ROADWAY.

The Executive Board of the University at a meeting last Wednesday decided to rush the work on the roadway from Patterson Hall, across the old lake, to the University. Professor Frank T. McFarland, superintendent of the campus, was placed in charge of the improvement, and the work is now progressing rapidly. No announcement was made concerning the plans to convert the lowland into an Italian garden or a lake, but it is probable this will be taken up later.

HOME EC. CLUB TO ENTERTAIN NEW MEMBERS.

A very important meeting of the Home Economics Club was held Thursday afternoon. It was decided at this meeting to have a tea for the new members of the club at Patterson Hall and committees were appointed for invitations and refreshments. Miss Linda Purnell was appointed to have charge of the refreshments and Miss Leilah Gault was selected for the invitations.

Miss Leilah Gault had charge of the meeting and various conference songs were sung. The Y. W. C. A. room will be ready for the meeting Sunday night and Miss Hamilton will speak to the girls.

PATT HALL PARTY.

"Farmer Jenkins" and his "wife" entertained the Philosophian Literary Society at Patterson Hall Wednesday evening with a barnyard masquerade. Farmer lads and lassies, with a few city "sports," members of Patterson Hall household, attended this party, held in the basement of the building.

The costumes were original and ridiculous, many of the girls taking the part of boys, while the others were very comical country girls with pig-tail hair and rosy cheeks. Prizes were awarded those wearing the most original costumes. Miss Alma Bolser won the first prize and Miss Lena Clem, representing an old farmer, won the second prize. The rooms were decorated in black and gold festoons, cats, witches, leaves and cornstalks. In one corner was the old well and on the other side of the room the chicken yard enclosed by a "pallin" fence.

Dancing and games were enjoyed. During a relay race Mrs. Henry S. Barker surprised even "Farmer Jenkins" by serving ice cream cones. The evening was one of excitement and joy, and refreshments, consisting of cider, apples, doughnuts, stick candy and peanuts, came the most thrilling time. The lights were put out excepting that in one pumpkin face, and Miss Eyrl Richmond told a ghost story and lizards, tadpoles, frogs, snails and all such things began to creep about. This ended the evening and all the girls when leaving congratulated "Father Jenkins" and his "wife" on their fine party.
