

Morning View
28 August 1957

Hello Mr. McCarthy,

In celebration of the fact that I can use both hands again, I am writing to say I hope you all are having a most relaxing and carefree vacation.

Have been thoroughly enjoying the recordings of your trips -- particularly the Western one which covered territory very familiar to me.

Hope you have not vanished forever in a cloud of cats and bantams.
