BAGS AND BODIES NEEDED

The Library Associates' annual Book Sale is scheduled this year for April 27 and 28. There is a larger than usual number of books available for the sale, therefore we will need more volunteers and grocery bags for the sale than in previous years. Please call Paula Pope at 7-9407 if you can take some time away from work on either day to work during the book sale. Grocery bags, either paper or plastic, may be taken to Paula Pope in Special Collections or Trudy Day in Collection Development. (Submitted by Paula Pope.)

BOOK SIGNING

Charles Bracelen Flood, author of Lee -- The Last Years, will be autographing copies of his newest book, Hitler: The Path to Power on Sunday, April 23 at Joseph-Beth Booksellers in Lexington Green. The signing is scheduled from noon until 6:00 p.m.

LSO BOOK SALE

LSO will once again be selling used books in conjunction with the Library Associates Book Sale April 27-28. Any staff members can donate books to the sale; hardbacks, paperbacks and children's books are all needed.

Books can be brought to the Bindery Unit in Tech Services on the third floor of King North. They may also be given to any LSO officer (Judy Brown, Patty Hornback, Mary Geyer or Mary McLaren). The deadline for donations is Wednesday, April 26. (Submitted by Mary McLaren.)

STAFF ACTIVITIES

Terry Birdwhistell, Special Collections, will be one of the featured speakers at a one-day workshop, "Conversations with the Past: Oral History as a Teaching Resource," to be held at the Holiday Inn in Danville on May 13. The workshop is sponsored by the Historical Confederation of Kentucky and the Kentucky Oral History Commission.

ABOVE AND BEYOND

John Bryant, Assistant Director, has sent the following open letter to "the many UK librarians who volunteered April 5-7 at the ACRL meeting in Cincinnati":

I want to extend my sincerest appreciation for the excellent support you gave to the local arrangements committee. We had no complaints about room arrangement (maybe some on size) or the hospitality table which you generous people helped coordinate and staff for three days.

Sandee McAninch, head of the Government Publications Department, received the following letter from Dr. John D. Kiefer, Assistant State Geologist.

Thank you for the copies of Federal ground-water legislation I requested. They have proven extremely beneficial in putting together a University initiative in ground-water research as requested by Dr. Roselle and Dr. Royster. Your timely service is greatly appreciated.

LSO 1989 MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The LIBRARY STAFF ORGANIZATION'S annual membership drive is now in full swing! LSO sponsored a full and exciting roster of events in 1988, thanks to the combined efforts of many, many participants who worked together to make things happen.

Some of the projects/events which LSO sponsored last year included: memorial donations, retirement gifts, sending condolences, acknowledgments, and get well wishes, sponsoring craft and bake sales, the Summer Picnic, a Tree Walk, a Fall outing. LSO also assisted with the Honors Day exhibit, the book sale, and purchased supplies for the Staff Lounge. Special holiday functions included solicitation and delivery of food and donations for Thanksgiving baskets and God's Pantry, donations for the U.K. Hospital's Pediatrics Ward, toys for the Salvation Army, and of course, sponsorship of the Library's annual Christmas Luncheon.

For those of you who may be new to the system, LSO is a social organization open to all library personnel, both classified and professional. It is designed to enhance the personal and working experiences of staff members through social events and programs. Membership dues for the calendar year are five dollars.

The operating budget of LSO is totally dependent upon membership dues, profits from fundraising events, and admission to events from non-members. Without these incoming funds LSO's activities would be sorely limited.

LSO has already sponsored its first fund-raiser of the year, the Valentine's Day Bake Sale. The next event will be the Book Sale to be held in April.

The officers for 1989, Mary Geyer, Treasurer; Patty Hornback, Secretary; Judy Brown, Vice President (President Elect); Mary McLaren, President, are looking forward to another successful year. This can only be realized through high staff participation and attendance. We hope all previous members will renew their memberships at this time and all non-members will consider becoming members. Please plan to join us for another eventful year.
