

Boston rather than here. I don't believe I would - unless, of course - if my heart was there. We all are very much pleased with it and enjoying everything & anything.

We are living on Berwyn Ave and have an apartment, so we feel as though we were really "at home". We've been almost everywhere I believe, and last Sunday, we went to the Edgewater Mission Church and had the pleasure of listening to Professor, David Nyvall speak.

It's been very hot here lately, but I imagine it's just as hot at home. One consolation, we have the lake to take a dip in when we want it, and as someone has just suggested swimming - I'll close with best regards to Pastor Segerstrom and

Best love to you -

Doris

1349 Berwyn Ave.
Chicago, Ill.
July 21, 1926.

Dear Mrs. Nyvall: -

I wonder how we happened to meet each other on our trip, for it seems that we no sooner arrived here than I received your card from home, saying that you intended to leave Thursday. Which all proves that there are some disappointments in life.

I was so glad to hear you had a pleasant trip and enjoyed your vacation. It certainly is my idea of a pleasant way in which to spend one, and we too, enjoyed every minute of it.

We left home on July 6th, at 6:30 A.M. Quite early for such a little girl as I am, but I was awake with the birds and all excited to go. The weather wasn't especially agreeable, but we made the sun shine out -