

Elgin Ill.

July 17, 1928.

Dearest Mable:-

I promised I would write you a few lines so you would get it before you get home but I'm afraid you won't get this until Monday. I am going to get those pictures this afternoon so won't mail this letter until I get them.

Now while I am writing this letter you're some place between here and your home. Hope you've had a wonderful