Dear Carolyn:

Here at last is the first splash of the Pond. It is quite an education trying to edit a magazine, for many reasons!

We can talk of all this when we next meet, which I hope will be next Saturday. And I hope it is as nice as today is turning out to be. I look forward to it. (If you have any New Yorkers saved-- I can use the ads etc for my long poem)

Thanks for the card from Florida. Yes, a nice big pond, but the picnics there cannot equal those on the shores of Monks Pond.

My best always

Tom
