ELIZABETH HANSON, 1903-1981

Elizabeth Hanson, head of the Serials Department from 1930-1967, died on December 5, 1981. She was born on September 4, 1903, in Winchester, Kentucky, and was the daughter of William N. and Irene Redmon Hanson. She graduated from Lexington Senior High School in 1921, received an A.B. from the University of Kentucky in 1925, and received a B.S. in Library Science from the University of Illinois in 1927.

Miss Hanson came to the University of Kentucky in June 1930, after having been a cataloger at the University of Tennessee from 1927-1930. She had been a Catalog Reviser at the University of Illinois in 1927.

She was active in campus, local, and professional organizations. She was twice president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Lexington, Kentucky; Vice-President of the Kentucky Library Association; Exhibit Chairman for the Kentucky Library Association Annual Meeting for fifteen years; Editor of the KLA Bulletin; and, Secretary-Treasurer of the Serials Section of the American Library Association.

Miss Hanson's sense of dedication to the Library and the University was unequalled. Her pleasant personality, strong sense of humor, and willingness to help was appreciated by faculty, students, and colleagues.

FROM LSO

GARDENING TIME - LSO has decided to sponsor several Brown Bag lunch hour programs for the staff this year. Our first guest will be Mr. Bill Fountain from the U.K. Department of Horticulture, who will give us some pointers about vegetable gardening in this area. The program will be on TUESDAY, APRIL 6TH, from noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Staff Lounge in King North. So mark your calendars, pack that lunch, and join us for a look at gardening!

ATTENTION ALL CHEFS!! How would you like to be "Chef Tell" for an hour or so? Do you have a favorite dish you would like to demonstrate for your friends? As a Brown Bag lunch hour idea, how about demonstrating the secrets of preparing your specialty? It could be crepes, souffles, or even a salad -- what may seem simple to you may be a brand new idea to someone else! If you are interested in being "Chef Tell", call Andrea Bryant (8-4644) or Cathy Hunt (8-2800). We'll see what we can set up!

WAX BEAN -- The WAX BEAN will be issued sporadically as the need arises. The WAX BEAN is by and about the staff as well as LS0. Please remember to submit your news to the WAX BEAN so we can pass along personal information or your thank yous to the staff.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PANEL APPOINTMENT

Bill James, Law Librarian has been reappointed to the Equal Opportunity Panel by President Singletary. Bill's term will expire on August 31, 1985.

APPLIED ANTHROPOLOGY PROJECT

Once again Special Collections and Professor John van Willigan of the Anthropology Department have received some recognition for the work being done in the control of the literature in this area. In the February issue of REFERENCE AND SELECTION NEWS from the University of California over a page is devoted to the project.

REAL ISSUES IN SOCIAL SECURITY

The College of Social Work; the University of Kentucky Graduate School; Multidisciplinary Center on Gerontology; and the Council on Aging present a free public seminar entitled "Real Issues in Social Security" on April 2nd at 2 p.m. in the Student Center Theatre. The featured speaker for this seminar is Eveline M. Burns, Professor Emeritus, Columbia University School of Social Work. A reception follows in the University Club Dining Room in the Student Center.

IRA's?

The AAUP will sponsor a panel to present several sides to IRA's. The program will be a dutch breakfast held in the Student Center Cafeteria at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, April 6th.

KLA

The combined Spring Meeting of the Academic and Special Libraries Section of KLA will be at Cumberland Falls State Resort Park on April 15 and 16. The topic for this year's program is "Coping with Financial Stress: Strategies for Librarians". If interested contact Tari Keller, King Library, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky 40506. Registration deadline is April 7th.

NEED A RIDE TO KLA

We have room for three more people in our car for KLA. We will leave on Thursday to be at Cumberland falls in time for the first program and return on Friday following the morning business. If you are interested in a free ride contact Lillian Mesner or Toni Powell at Agriculture Library (8-2758).

OVGOTSL MEETING

The Ohio Valley Group of Technical Service Librarians (OVGOTSL) will meet May 14-15, 1982, in Terre Haute, Indiana. Mark Kovacic of the University of Cincinnati is the Chairman.
