Der Brother

I am going to write you a letter. At the time Willie wrote you that letter. I wrote one to ~~Bro~~ Cousin January but I have not got an answer yet. I am in a new geography. you need not think that I do not know how to spell that word. We are almost through our Latin Grammar. We are on verbs. as soon as we go through the verbs this time we are going a Latin Reader. I suppose Willie told you about Cousin Laura Miss Sallie Hodge is down here Willie and myself know how to play a duet on the piano. I have read the history of United States, and Rome and the first volume of Greece. I aint read the history of England yet. Willie has read the history of United States and the first volume of England he aint read the histories of Rome and Greece. We have take up all the flowers. We have got a letter from aunt Emma saying that Andrew had to be examined by the superintendent of the school I wrote a letter to Annadouglass but she had not answer it yet she told me to write to her. I dant think up anything more except Willie took the pen and I had to take the pencil your affectional brother
