LINKED with the courageous story of Kentucky's growth, is the life of the University of Kentucky. Its high standard of learning, sportsmanship and chivalry are indelibly stamped upon the characters of the youth who have passed beneath its portals.

Lexingtonians are justly proud of the prestige of the University located within the confines of their city. The Athletic Association is to be commended for its efforts in building up cooperative efforts in athletics, particularly exemplified in the game of football, which requires the coordinated movement of the team as a whole.

From a well wisher who joins in the tribute of acclaim to the University and its student body.

Football and Other Things

These Kentucky-V. M. I. football games have been a part of Southern football for several years. During the early years the Kaydets held the upper hand in victories, but more recently the Wildcats have been the victors. Quite often the victories have been by rather imposing totals.

BILL RAFTERY-HEAD COACH

Southern Conference. Two games have already been dropped to members of the old organization.

Next Saturday the Wildcats return to their own circle—The Southeastern Conference. They invade New Orleans for their battle with the Green Wave of Tulane University. After that game only the annual homecoming-Thanksgiving Day game with Tennessee—this time at Lexington—remains on the schedule.

To Coach Harry Gamage some credit must go for these conquests of V. M. I., for before his time it was extremely doubtful that the Wildcats would be able to hold their own with the Keydets. As we recall it, Coach Gamage's initial victory in the Southern Conference was scored at the expense of V. M. I.

The game was played at Charleston, W. Va., in 1927, and the Wildcats were the most lowly of underdogs. But the Wildcats came to their own on that day. Warner Ford was one of the reasons, and the final score was 25 to 0. The next week the Wildcats scored an overwhelming victory over Centre College.

Neither Kentucky nor Coach Raftery's Keydets have been any too successful this season, and today's game carries no particular significance, unless it is the fact that in this game the Wildcats have their last chance this season to win a game in the

Presenting the Champions

Above is shown Coach A. F. Rupp and his Southeastern Conference basketball team. Front row, left to right: Biggerstaff, Settle, Gates, Nugent, Tucker, Jackson, and Lawrence. Second row: Coach Rupp, Athletic Director S. A. Boles, Kercheval, Bill Davis, Johnson, Darby, Trainer Frank Mann, Assistant Coach Miller. Back row: Blair, L. B. Davis, Morris, Captain Sale, Captain-elect DeMoisey, Yates, Kreuter, and Manager Maxson.

SOME FACTS —

Kentucky's Wildcats were hailed at the tournament at Atlanta as the greatest team ever seen in the South.

Led by Sale and DeMoisey, the Wildcats broke all scoring records for the tournament.

The sweep of the tournament left the Wildcats undefeated by any member of the Conference for the entire season.

Coach Rupp's three-year record now stands at 50 victories and only 8 defeats.

Out of a possible 15 all-Southern players in three years, the following Wildcats have won this honor under Coach Rupp: "Little" McGinnis, Carey Spicer, George Yates, Jake Bronston, Ellis Johnson, Forrest Sale, John De Moisey, and Darrell Darby. Sale was named All-American.

The Wildcats will have another good team in 1933-34, despite the graduation of two all-Southerns and an all-American.

We salute Coach Rupp, of Kansas, and his Kentucky Wildcats—the champions.

1934 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

The University Athletic Council and Athletic Director S. A. "Daddy" Boles are completing the 1934 football schedule. It will be announced soon. Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, and Tulane are already assured, and Auburn, Vanderbilt, Washington and Lee, V. M. I., Maryville, and either Cincinnati or Xavier may round out the 10-game schedule.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO FLY THE MAIL AT NIGHT

● A. M. WILKINS has flown the night air mail over 150,000 miles for TWA. It takes healthy nerves to hang up a record like that!

● WILKINS joins a fellow pilot, W. Niedernhofer, at Newark Airport, for a chat and a smoke. "Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves," Wilkins says.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

A

BLEND

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, living up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself.
