

4. if Marie wrote to you, but then I guess you'd just have to read it again.

Marie told me when you intending to come & that's just grand. In your next letter let me know for sure if your coming because I want to try to get my days changed. Now listen pal you can't let me down you've got to come & don't let anything this side of hell stop you. Is Mary coming & are you coming on the train & when, or is your chauffeur bringing you down? (Who is the chauffeur?) Now wouldn't you like to know. I'll give ya three guesses. You just gotta let me know all about when you're coming & I'll be waiting.

What new songs do you go for lately? I could sorta go for "Moon Over Miami" in fact I've went for it already. I

Dearest Rose Ellen -

Well pal - I guess its my turn to write now. I guess you know why I haven't written before - or at least I hope you do - but Marie thought it would be better like this so here I am writing you now instead of then ^{the way}.

Well my dear, we arrived home Okey Dakey - after spending one of the swellest nights & having one of the grandest times in Milwaukee. But then I always have a swell time when I'm down there - you oughta know that by this time. In one way I sorta hate to come to Milwaukee because I'm always so disatisfied when I get back home. I always have such a perfect
