ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Annual Report

Copies of the 1977-78 annual report for the Library System have been distributed to department heads. The reports will be circulated in each department. If you have need for a personal copy please see Pat Lloyd.

Reminder

Time sheets for the pay period beginning December 16 and ending December 29, 1978 should be turned in to the Director's Office on Thursday, December 21.

Effective December 15, all hours should be turned in to the Director's Office (Ann Short) rather than Administrative Services. Paychecks will continue to be issued by Ann Short also. The main reason for this change is to consolidate the record keeping, thereby enabling the Library to respond more efficiently to payroll problems.

Work Study Students

We have been informed by Work Study that we cannot continue our practice of putting work study students on the Library payroll after their work study money runs out. However, Mr. Halsey asked the Library to emphasize that work study students who feel the financial need to continue working after their money runs out should contact his office and he will review their situation.

Architecture Library Plays Santa

FREE DAY - NO FINES. Architecture Library will accept their own books all day Friday, December 15.

Reclassification Unit

The Reclassification Unit still needs extra students during the semester break. We will give those interested as much as 40 hours per week from Tuesday, January 2 through Friday, January 12. We are especially interested in students already on the Library payroll who would like extra hours during the holidays--at the new 15¢ per hour increase. Anyone interested should see Joan Gatewood, Reclassification Unit, 7-3831.

About the Librarians

Harry Gilbert attended a SAALCK meeting at Murray, Kentucky, to represent the Director.

New Pressroom Assistants

New Pressroom assistants at the King Library Press are Ginger Rickenbaker, Paul Holbrook, Susan Clay.

"There ain't no flies on me"

One of the student assistants in the Architecture Library was in a Disco Contest during the halftime of the Lady Cats-Czechoslovakia game.

A Call for Contributions

To THE KENTUCKY REVIEW: a Journal of the University of Kentucky Library Associates. The editorial board is soliciting articles and other contributions for this new journal that will appear in the spring of 1979. 3 issues a year are planned. The editorial board is seeking general essays in the humanities as well as articles on books, manuscripts, papers, and other research materials in the Libraries' collections. The scope of the journal will include all aspects of the University Libraries and their collections and will not be limited to items of regional or local interest. The journal will also serve as a means of communication for the Library Associates and will publish notes on recent acquisitions, lectures and special library programs, bibliographies, catalogs, and other items. Serving on the editorial board will be Steven Channing, John Clubbe, Guy Davenport, Joseph Engelberg, David Farrell, Joseph Jones, and Paul Willis. Deadlines for contributions to the first two issues is 1 February and 1 July 1979. Contributions should follow A Manual of Style published by the University of Chicago and be directed to:

Don't We Look ...

My, don't we all look festive. Christmas trees and candy canes, holly wreaths and fattening goodies everywhere we turn.

In Time for Christmas

A new publication from the King Library Press: THE CONFECTIONARY OF MONSIEUR GIRON by William Kavanaugh Doty. Including an Afterword by Burton Milward. 25pp., 1 illustration, 6" x 9". 100 copies . . . $30.00 (price to members: $24.00).

"The Confectionary of Monsieur Giron," a new edition of the rare 1915 Kentucky classic, tells the story of the unusual man and the establishment that was a center of Lexington social life in the second quarter of the 19th century. The King Library Press edition includes a measured elevation of the building as it appeared in 1915 (half of it still stands on Mill Street in Lexington between Main and Short Streets) and is limited to 100 copies. The book was printed on handmade paper and bound by hand by apprentices on an antique Washington handpress.

The following are also in print and available at the Press:

THE RABINAL (an ancient play of the Quiche-Mayan Indians), translated by Eleanor Wolff with notes by Herbert Steiner and Christopher Meatyard. Illustrations by Christopher Meatyard. (44pp.), 9-1/4" x 12-1/2", 65 copies . . . $200.00 (price to Members: $160.00).

KIKKULI, THE HITTITE TRAINER OF HORSES, SPEAKS...Translated by Gerhard Probst. Illustrations by Carolyn Whitesel. (14 leaves), 9-1/2" x 4", laid in case. 125 copies...$50.00 (price to Members: $40.00)

THE PRIDE OF PETER PRIM, or proverbs that will suit the young or the old, (third in the King Library Press chapbook series), set from 1831 original. Fifteen handcolored illustrations. (32pp.) 4" x 6". 100 copies. . . $20.00 (price to Members: $16.00)
