

Dear Papa:-

This is certainly an ideal spot to be in and I wish we could stay a month. If Topsy would only wait until Oct. to be married. Majorie is so happy to have me here and Mrs. Durham says she seems happier than she has since she came back. It sure seems good to be here with her. She wants to write a P.S. so I'll leave her a little room.

Write soon to

P.S. We are still giggling.
The lady next door says we are trying to run opposition to her two little children.

Darling Lewis.

We are now rustivating in one of the most beautiful places I ever saw.

We are certainly having a splendid time resting, and climbing up the hills, and walking the beach, and listening to the waves, and watching the cute little power boats, and canoes, and rowe boats, and the girls go rowing, any time in the day or night. and I have been all through the fine vegetable garden, and the apple orchard, and we can eat apples all we want to.

The ferns are grand, really beyond description. I am feeling better now, but this week I feel badly, but will enjoy every minute of the time I am here.

I don't like to be away from Leslie but I am certainly having a fine time here.

We eat out on the porch and watch the
