UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
LEXINGTON

From its modest beginnings in 1865, when it was known as State College, the University of Kentucky has grown into one of the nation's outstanding institutions of higher learning. As a comprehensive land-grant university, UK offers an educational experience that cannot be matched anywhere in the Commonwealth. In fact, only a small number of institutions across the nation can offer the wealth of opportunities that await students at UK. At the University of Kentucky, there is "A Tradition of Value."

Memorial Hall, dedicated in 1929 as a memorial to those who lost their lives in World War I.

University History

UK was founded in 1865 as a land-grant institution, and the present name dates to 1916. The Lexington campus has 673 acres. Dr. Charles T. Wethington Jr., is UK's 10th President.

Students

The University of Kentucky now has more than 72,000 students with 24,000 on the campus in Lexington and 48,000 at the 14 community colleges across the state. UK now educates 40 percent of all students in Kentucky attending a public or private college or university. There are 5,100 students enrolled in graduate school with 95 master's and 59 doctoral programs offered.

Faculty

There are 1,643 full-time faculty on the campus in Lexington and the Medical Center and another 1,096 faculty in the community colleges. Faculty brought in about $100 million in grants, contracts and gifts to the University during the last academic year.

Research

UK ranks among the Top 100 research institutions in the nation and is one of only 59 public universities in the United States -- the only one in Kentucky -- to be classified as a Research University of the First Class.

Library

The UK Library System contains more than two million volumes and is inter-connected by computer with each of the 14 community colleges. The Library is ranked 34th among the top 108 university research libraries in the U.S. The University is planning to build a new $58 million state-of-the-art facility.

Medical Center

The Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, including a 473-bed hospital, is located on the campus in Lexington. More than 3,700 students are enrolled in its five colleges -- medicine, dentistry, nursing, pharmacy and allied health professions.
