

The Kentucky Kernel

July 24, 1973
Vol. LXV No. 12

an independent student newspaper

University of Kentucky
Lexington, KY 40506

President denies requests; receives subpoenas

By JEAN HELLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON —President Nixon flatly rejected two official requests for Watergate-related presidential materials Monday and was slapped with subpoenas from the Senate Watergate committee and the office of the special Watergate prosecutor.

Two subpoenas from the committee sought tape recorded presidential conversations and other White House documents.

The subpoena from the special prosecutor apparently sought only the tapes.

The subpoenas were served almost simultaneously, shortly after 6 p.m. EDT, to two White House lawyers who accepted them on Nixon's behalf. All the documents named the President.

The text of President Nixon's letter to the Senate Watergate Committee is on page 3.

EARLIER IN the day Nixon had flatly refused to turn over to the committee and the prosecutor's office any of the tape recordings. As his reason, he cited the doctrine of separation of powers.

Both the committee and the prosecutor

Jean-Pierre Laffont/Sygnia

SEN. SAM ERVIN

rejected that reasoning and announced that subpoenas would be issued. Several weeks ago the President said he would not turn over White House papers.

The impasse in what the committee and the special prosecutor want and what the President is willing to give brought the government to the brink of an historic constitutional confrontation.

THE COMMITTEE subpoenas were presented by deputy chief counsel Rufus Edmisten. Asked what he thought the chances were of getting the presidential material, Edmisten replied, "Hope springs eternal."

"It's been accepted, legally," Edmisten told newsmen after presenting the subpoenas to acting presidential counsel Leonard Garment. "What they do about it now, I don't know. The committee will be waiting."

The special prosecutor's subpoena went to special White House Counsel J. Fred Buzhardt. The substance of that subpoena will not be available until it is filed Tuesday morning in U.S. District court. The committee did not release the texts of its subpoenas.

"THE WHITE HOUSE counsel will examine the subpoenas," said Deputy White House Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren. "Whatever is done will be in the context of the letters issued today."

Continued on Page 3, Col. 4

Applicant loses $100; past refund deadline

By PRINCESS LAWES
Kernel Staff Writer

A PROSPECTIVE coed who requested a refund of her $100 housing deposit after she decided not to attend UK this fall was turned down because the request was made too late, according to Larry W. Ivy, manager of University Housing.

In a letter to the editor, the girl's father, R.J. Forsting, complained that his daughter had lost her $100 housing deposit although she had decided not to attend UK.

Forsting said his daughter applied for admission to the College of Nursing and was turned down. She later applied to and was enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences, but decided to work for a year before coming to UK.

AT THAT POINT his daughter requested her housing deposit be refunded, Forsting said.

Forsting said he had written several letters to Ben Black of the college of Arts and Sciences and to Ivy whom he referred to as "Poison" Ivy. He asked whether his money was being used for "a down payment on a new T.V. set for the rec room or some new athletic equipment."

Ivy said money would go into the general housing fund. He said the money was not returned to Forsting because the request came 16 days after the deadline date of June 1.

HAD MS. FORSTING cancelled her application before June 1, her money would have been automatically refunded, Ivy said. But, she had not cancelled with the admissions office.

"We are not trying to get $100 out of somebody," Ivy said, "but we have to have a deadline so we can know who is coming and how to prepare for them."

Ivy offered to hold the money in the girl's name until she decides to come to UK, he said.

HE SAID A refund would be unwise since he would have to do the same for every other student who applied for refunds after the deadline. This would result in chaos, he said.

Ivy said the notice "No refund of deposit after June 1 for Fall Semester" appeared on all the housing application and rental agreement forms.

RENTAL AGREEMENT
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY - Lexington
Residence Halls for Men and Women

THIS AGREEMENT shall be in full force and effect from the date hereon until the date hereinafter specified.

1. The student named in the following listing:

2. Shall rent the following room or rooms:

3. For the term of _____ months, beginning on _____ day of _____, 19____, and ending on _____ day of _____, 19____.

4. The monthly rental shall be $_____. Payment shall be made in advance on the _____ day of each month.

5. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all utility charges, including telephone, electric, gas, water, and sewer.

6. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges, including parking, library, and other services.

7. The student shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the room and its contents, except for normal wear and tear.

8. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all damages to the room or its contents.

9. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all fines and penalties imposed by the University.

10. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges imposed by the University.

11. This agreement shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the University's Rental Agreement for Men and Women.

12. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges imposed by the University.

13. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges imposed by the University.

14. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges imposed by the University.

15. The student shall be responsible for the payment of all other charges imposed by the University.

News in brief

from The Associated Press

- Hijackers off again
- Rickenbacker dies
- Search continues
- Peru drops France
- Tight money forecast
- Driver admits guilt
- Falsification imperfect
- Today's weather...

• DUBAI—A hijacked jumbo jet under terrorist command for the fourth day took off for an undisclosed destination early Tuesday after 70 hours on the ground here.

The four gunmen commanding the Japan Air Lines plane released an elderly couple just before the big jet took off with 141 persons aboard, seven minutes after Monday midnight 4:07 p.m. EDT.

• ZURICH, Switzerland—Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, America's flying "Ace of Aces" of World War I, died Monday. He was 82.

• PAPEETE, Tahiti—Rescue boats with floodlights searched the sea off Tahiti Monday night for victims of the crash of a Los Angeles-bound Pan American jetliner. There was only one known survivor among the 79 persons on board, authorities said.

• LIMA, Peru—Peru's military government severed diplomatic relations with France on Monday and said ties will not be re-established until France "halts once and for all its nuclear testing."

• WASHINGTON—A member of the Federal Reserve Board, Arthur F. Brimmer, Monday said the board plans to keep its tight money policy as a tool to combat continuing inflation.

• BAXLEY, Ga.—Accused hit-and-run driver Raymond A. McMahon said Monday that he was driving the vehicle which struck and killed two young sisters July 14. But he claimed it was an accident.

McMahon is charged with two counts of first-degree murder in the deaths of Raby Caton, 5, and her sister, Roxanne, 13. He surrendered to Appling County, Ga. authorities late Sunday.

• WASHINGTON—Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger Jr. said today he believed the Pentagon's falsification of reports to hide Cambodia bombing raids in 1969 and 1970 "was a little less than perfect."

The Pentagon confirmed last week that "responsible officials" in Washington authorized falsification of reports on the Cambodia bombing raids at a time when officials denied any U.S. military activity was occurring in Cambodia. The falsified reports indicated the bombing was being conducted in South Vietnam.

...it's a droop-dry day

No change is expected in today's weather. It will continue to be hot and humid with a high near 90 and a low of only 70 degrees. Chances of rain are 40 per cent today dropping to 20 per cent tonight.

It's time Nixon levels with America

President Nixon's refusal to voluntarily release Watergate-related tapes and papers to the Senate Select Committee and Archibald Cox, special Watergate prosecutor, caused both groups, to no one's surprise, to issue subpoenas for the materials.

Nixon contends his documents are confidential and protected by the doctrine of separation of powers and executive privilege. But Ervin and Cox have been doing their homework. They think the President is stretching his protective powers beyond the legal limit.

ERVIN MAINTAINS any Watergate-related material resulted in a Presidential campaign, something not required of a public official, therefore not an official action covered by executive privilege. The North Carolina senator also says any material which can be linked to criminal activity becomes evidence admissible in court or in investigations similar to the one being conducted.

Ervin also claims, because of the criminal activity of persons involved in the Watergate mess, not even separation of powers between the Congress and White House can shield the presidential records from the public.

Cox finds similar faults. Since he is working in the executive branch, he reasons, the separation of powers shield cannot be used to keep him from getting the presidential records.

Nixon's refusal to the Senate committee is as predictable as the sun rising in the morning. Since taking office, the President constantly has been at battle with Congress over the extent of his powers.

But to deny access to Cox is a slap in the prosecutor's face. Nixon promised in the spring Cox would be able to conduct his investigation without the fear of interference from anyone. If he meant everyone but himself, he should have said so.

AS IT STANDS now, Cox's role is reduced to little more than a presidential puppet subject to the chief executive's orders like anyone else in the executive branch.

New York Times

Yesterday Nixon, in his letter to Ervin, stated that the tapes support his previous statements. If this is true, he should be willing to release them. Logically, one could assume there is nothing to hide. By admitting some may interpret the taped conversations differently, Nixon gives Americans another opportunity to question his veracity.

Senator Howard Baker, Ervin's co-chairman, expressed the committee's sincerity. "I have no criticism of any person," Baker said. "I will not sit in judgment of any person, or the conduct of any person, until all of the evidence is taken."

AS HARD AS it may be, we, too, will not pass judgment of any person connected with the Watergate affair until all the evidence is in. We are even ready to wait three months for the Supreme Court to decide if all of the evidence can be seen.

Does the strike effect Gen Tel's service?

By MIKE CLARK

In case you haven't heard, over 1,100 employees, mostly operators, are on strike against General Telephone.

In a normal American community, this would bode ill for citizens accustomed to calling anywhere in the U.S. without a bother. Here in Lexington, though, telephone communications are a whole 'nuther game.

AFTER SPENDING a day of futile dialing, cursing, waiting and listening to recordings, I came to the conclusion General Telephone service was every bit as bad before the strike as it is during it.

I'll give you an example:

Having to make a long distance call to Indianapolis, I whirled "0" on the dial.

First time, I got a recording... "I'm sorry, the number you have dialed is not in service..."

DIAL "0" AGAIN... the operator hops on the line. "May I help you?" "Yes, I'd like to make a long distance call to Indianapolis..." and I continue with my spiel. And she dials.

Busy signal.
"I'll try again, sir."
Busy again.
"That signal didn't sound right, sir. I'll try again."

A RECORDING. "I'm sorry, your call did not go through. Please hang up and try again."

The operator apologizes. "I'll try again, sir."

Busy signal.
"That busy didn't sound right, sir. I'll try again."

A recording... "I'm sorry, your call did not go..."

"I'll try directory assistance, sir."
Another operator joins in. "What city, please?"

"Indianapolis," I answer, when I realize my operator isn't going to do it for me.

"ONE MOMENT PLEASE..." Yet another operator joins in, and dials the Indianapolis number.
Voila! It ringeth!

In a cheery voice (what right has she got to be happy after what I've been through?) the receptionist in Indianapolis answers. "Oh, I'm sorry, sir. You just missed him, and he won't be back until tomorrow morning. May I take your name and number and have him call you tomorrow?"

BY NOW I'M FIT to be tied, and I'd better be tied before I throw a fit.

Now, can you tell me if this phone call was placed before or after the strike was declared?

If you've been a patient user of the General Tel system, you'll probably have to spend some time deciding, and even then you'll never know for sure.

Which makes one wonder: the employees have a lot of gall to ask for raises when their absence has no apparent effect on the operation of the outfit.

Mike Clark is a senior journalism major and the Managing Editor of The Kentucky Kernel.

IF YOU THINK EVERYTHING YOUR GOVERNMENT TELLS YOU IS A LIE -

AND WE KNOW YOU THINK THAT -

AND WE GO OUT OF OUR WAY TO PROVE TO YOU WE'RE NOT LYING -

ARE WE STILL LYING?

OR ARE WE TELLING THE TRUTH?

AND BY NOW -

HOW WOULD WE KNOW?

Dist. Public Affs. Hall Syndicate

©1971 J&B Printing

8-29

Text of Nixon's letter to Ervin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here is the text of the letter President Nixon sent Monday to Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., rejecting use of presidential tapes in the Senate Watergate investigation:

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I have considered your request that I permit the committee to have access to tapes of my private conversations with a number of my closest aides. I have concluded that the principles stated in my letter to you of July 6 preclude me from complying with that request, and I shall not do so. Indeed, the special nature of tape recordings of private conversations is such that these principles apply with even greater force to tapes of private presidential conversations than to presidential papers.

If release of the tapes would settle the central questions at issue in the Watergate inquiries, then their disclosure might serve a substantial public interest that would have to be weighed very carefully against the negatives of disclosure.

Fire claims dairy barn

Fire destroyed a dairy barn on UK's Coldstream Farm Experimental Research Station Saturday. The building was hit by lightning during an evening storm, according to George Pendergrass of management operations.

The barn was one of the original farm buildings and was being used as a maternity barn for cattle. Hay, grain, and farm equipment were stored there.

A Coldstream spokesman said only one of the 43 animals housed in the barn was lost.

"We lost a lot of research equipment and a lot of grain," the spokesman added. Some of the larger equipment items were saved however, he said. A tractor, a wagon and a jeep were salvaged. He said the animals, however, were of primary concern.

The fact is that the tapes would not finally settle the central issues before your committee. Before their existence became publicly known, I personally listened to a number of them. The tapes are entirely consistent with what I know to be the truth and what I have stated to be the truth.

However, as in any verbatim recording of informal conversations, they contain comments that persons with different perspectives and motivations would inevitably interpret in different ways. Furthermore, there are inseparably interspersed in them a great many very frank and very private comments, on a wide range of issues and individuals, wholly extraneous to the committee's inquiry.

Even more important, the tapes could be accurately understood or interpreted only by reference to an enormous number of other documents and tapes, so that to open them all would begin an endless process of disclosure and explanation of private presidential records totally unrelated to Watergate, and highly confidential in nature. They are the clearest possible example of why presidential documents must be kept confidential.

Accordingly, the tapes, which have been under my sole personal control, will remain so. None has been transcribed or made public and none will be.

On May 22 I described my knowledge of the Watergate matter and its aftermath in categorical and unambiguous terms that I know to be true. In my letter of July 6, I informed you that at an appropriate time during the hearings I intend to address publicly the subjects you are considering. I still intend to do so and in a way that preserves the constitutional principle of separations of powers, and thus serves the interest not just of the Congress or of the President, but of the people.

Sincerely,
Richard Nixon

Not a flea in sight

A display of pocket knives seems to have drawn the attention of one curious shopper at a flea market last Saturday on the Georgetown Pike outside of Georgetown. Flea markets have become popular in rural America and have even spread to the cities in the form of garage and backyard sales. (Kernel photo by Kathi Millmet.)

President denies requests; tapes, papers under subpoena

Continued from Page 1

Warren did not elaborate but apparently referred to letters delivered Monday to the Watergate committee and the special prosecutor in which Nixon formally refused access to the tape recordings.

Nixon also apparently cancelled a promised meeting with the chairman of the Senate Watergate committee, Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.) The President said such a meeting at this time would be useless. The White House said later, however, the matter was still open.

IN ADVISING the committee of his decision, Nixon said that to turn over the tapes would be a violation of the doctrine of separation of powers. He added that he had listened to a number of the tapes and they would not help answer the central questions surrounding the Watergate affair, including the extent of his involvement.

"The tapes, which have been under my sole personal control, will remain so," Nixon said in a letter to Ervin. He also said he thought the content of the tapes was subject to misinterpretation.

The rejection to the special Watergate prosecutor, Archibald Cox, came in a letter from a consulting White House counsel, Charles Alan Wright. "I am instructed by the President to inform you that it will not be possible to make available to you the recordings that you have requested," the letter said.

IN A STATEMENT, Cox said that any presidential claim to privilege in withholding the tapes "is without legal foundation," and said his effort to obtain the tapes and other documentary evidence is proper.

"They may tend to show that there was criminal activity or that there was none," Cox said. "They may tend to show the guilt of particular individuals or their innocence. The one clear point is that the tapes are evidence bearing directly upon whether there were criminal conspiracy, including a conspiracy to obstruct justice, among high government officials."

In opening the afternoon session of the Watergate hearings, Ervin announced that he was issuing two subpoenas, one to direct Nixon to issue the tapes and the other requiring Nixon to make available other White House papers.

Before disclosing the subpoenas, Ervin read a letter from Nixon which said, in part, "I know of no useful purpose that would be served by our having a meeting at this time." To which Ervin replied: "At long last I have something I agree with the President with on this matter. If the President doesn't think there is any useful purpose in our meeting together, I will not dissent from that view."

You should know more about
Army ROTC
Barker Hall
Army ROTC

BEA MCCORMICK,
Realtor
We'll handle All your Real Estate needs.
367 Southland Dr.
277-6035
Multiple Listing Service.

Lonnie's Professional Barber & Hair Stylist
"SPECIALIZING IN"
layer cut Hair straightening businessmen cut facials
Shag cut Private Styling Booths
APPOINTMENTS AVAILABLE
Mon-8:30-6:00, Tues.-Fri.-8:30-5:30, Sat. 8:30-1:00
196 Walnut St. 252-9429
Free parking at front door

Investigate
INDEPENDENT STUDY
by Correspondence
150 Courses
FREE Catalogue
Visit: Room 1, Frazee Hall
Call: 257-2966

Lexington's Oldest Restaurant
119 South Limestone Street, Lexington
For Reservation Phone 233 1511

APARTMENT HUNTING?
Classifieds

Classified

RENTALS

A deposit now will hold it for fall! Extra-large 1 bedroom furnished apartments with carpeting, 4 closets, central air, disposal, and laundry facilities. Will accommodate up to 4 persons. All utilities paid. 266-5032.

ROOMS CLOSE to UK. Girls only. 347 Linden Walk. 269-1876. 24Aug7.

WANTED

CAMPUS REPRESENTATIVE. Peace Corps or VISTA volunteer presently a student at UK to work with ACTION recruiting. 20 hours a month. 2.50 per hour. Contact recruiters Student Center Lobby July 24-27 or call collect 918-987-1421. 24Jy26.

HELP WANTED. Peace Corps and VISTA. Needed are: all education majors including physical education and industrial arts, liberal arts, architecture, city planning, business, medical, social work, biology, zoology, chemistry, physics, geology, other science majors, and agriculture majors to serve in volunteer programs at home and overseas. Living allowance, transportation, medical coverage, and stipend included. For more information see recruiters at the Student Center July 24th through 27th. From 9:00 am to 4:30 pm. Seniors graduating in the spring of 1974 may apply now. 24Jy26.

STUDENT FEMALE to live with family in town as companion to 9 & 10 year old boys.

Can be free from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily except weekends. Transportation plus salary. Mail resume & latest picture to: Resume 176 East High St. Lexington, Ky. 40507

FOR HIRE

TYPING $60 page. IBM Executive Typewriter. Mrs. M. M. E. Buchanan. Beth Lane. 277-4954. 17Jy24.

PROFESSIONAL typing. Turabian, MLA, Campbell. Bill Givens, 253-3287, after 5:30 pm. 26A2.

MERCHANDISE FOR SALE

CHEVY II undrivable. most parts good. $95 or best offer. 266-2522. 19Jy24.

1968 GOLD TORINO. Good condition $1000. Call 253-5320 after 4:00. 17Jy24.

Why rent a refrigerator? When you can purchase a 2 cubic foot refrigerator for $30 or $35. Call 277-5782

Car Barn Foreign Car Repair

9 a.m.-10 p.m.
254-7912

WHY RENT A Refrigerator ?

When you can purchase a 2 cu.ft. refrigerator for $30 or $35

Call
277-5782

FURNISHED & UNFURNISHED APARTMENTS

$135-160

10 min. Drive
From Campus

2 Bedroom, Laundry Facilities
Dishwasher, Air Conditioning
Pool, Utilities Included
Except for Electricity

call 299-7822
AUGUSTA ARMS
1792 AUGUSTA CT.

The Kentucky Kernel

The Kentucky Kernel, 113 Journalism Building, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky 40506. Mailed five times weekly during the school year except during holidays and exam periods, and twice weekly during the summer session. Published by The Kernel Press, Inc. 1272 Priscilla Lane, Lexington, Kentucky. Began as the Cadet in 1894 and published continuously as The Kentucky Kernel since 1915. The Kernel Press, Inc. founded 1971. Second-class postage paid at Lexington, Kentucky.

Advertising published herein is intended to help the reader buy. Any false or misleading advertising should be reported to the editors.

KERNEL TELEPHONES

Editor, Editorial Editor	257-1735
Managing Editor, News Desk	257-1740
Advertising, Business, Circulation	258-4646
Sports, Newsroom	257-1800
Photography	258-5800

"I like Family Night at Ponderosa because..."

... every Tuesday night when I go there, a pretty girl takes my order, another pretty girl helps me with my tray, and another pretty girl says thank you when she takes my father's $1.09 Besides the pretty girls, I also like the steak."

Swinging 7-Year-Old

Two Locations

286 Southland Drive
1316 Russell Cave Road

The Barn Dinner Theatre

Presents

"Ladies Night in a Turkish Bath"

All the fun the title leads you to think of—and some it doesn't—happens in this classic laugh-riot comedy.

From Now thru Aug. 19

Sunday & Tuesday—Special Prices Return to The Barn! New Sunday Hours: 4:30; Dinner 5 to 6; Show Time 6:30. Tuesday thru Saturday, doors open at 6:30.

ANNOUNCING . . . Both Wednesdays and Thursdays are now Children's Night. Special price of only $5 per child.

KENTUCKY'S FIRST AND FOREMOST DINNER THEATRE

For Reservations, Phone 255-8547 or 744-2802

Blue Notes

by Jay Rhodemyre

Santana, McLaughlin 'collide'

CARLOS SANTANA and Mahavishnu John McLaughlin collide on their new joint album, Love, Devotion, Surrender. However it is not a collision resulting in any kind of a catastrophe. The result is a cohesive album, naturally featuring Carlos and John wrenching amazing music from their respective guitars.

Santana and McLaughlin

The album avoids all of the mistakes usually accompanying these joint ventures within the recording business. First of all they kept it down to a single album of exemplary merit rather than two albums of dull stuff. Secondly the two main players do not play over one another, but they take turns burning up their strings, complementing each other beautifully.

THE ALBUM FEATURES material written by John Coltrane as well as by McLaughlin. The songs were obviously chosen for their adaptability for guitar and they were chosen wisely. Overall it is a fine piece of work, as just about everything McLaughlin does these days.

Album and movie trends

STUDENT SERVICES reports that the top selling album for the week was Passion Play by Jethro Tull. Desparado by the Eagles was next followed by Cat Stevens' new release, Foreigner Rounding out their top five were Dark Side of the Moon by Pink Floyd and Mannassas (No. 1) by Stephen Stills.

BILLBOARDS TOP FIVE included Living In a Material World by George Harrison; Now and Then by the Carpenters; Dark Side of the Moon by Pink Floyd; There Goes Rhymin' Simon by Paul Simon and Red Rose Speedway by Paul McCartney and Wings.

Sound 2000 also had Passion Play as No. 1 this week. Foreigner was second followed by Whatever Turns You On by West, Bruce and Laing. One Live Badger by a group called Badger, featuring former Yes keyboard man Tony Kaye, was fourth. A general run on all Pink Floyd albums was also noted.

The top five movies according to Variety are Live And Let Die; Scarecrow; The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing; Shaft In Africa and 40 Carats.

HERE IS A correction for you. We reported to you that 2001 will be shown this fall as part of the Fall Student Center Board Film Series. It will not be shown at any time this fall.

Andrews signs pact with Indiana Pacers

Jim Andrews, UK's two-time All-Southeastern Conference center, has signed a contract with the American Basketball Association champion Indiana Pacers.

difficult to land a place on the Indiana roster. Only 11 Pacers will answer the season's opening bell in mid-October; it is unlikely more than one rookie will be able to crack that select group.

Andrews, a 6-11, 235-pounder from Charleston, W. Va., led the Cats to SEC titles in 1972 and 1973, after serving in a reserve capacity in 1971.

UK basketball coach Joe Hall feels Andrews "has tremendous ability. I don't think it would be a gamble for them to keep Jim."

ANDREWS' SIGNING was part of a four-player package revealed Saturday by the Pacers. Also signing were Tennessee's Mike Edwards, John Ritter of Indiana and Joe Wallace of Denver.

Andrews averaged 20.1 points and 12.4 rebounds per game in 1972-73, while leading UK to a 20-8 record and a berth in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Midwest Regional.

The four signees will report to the Pacers' rookie camp Sept. 5. Survivors will be invited to the team's training camp, which will open Sept. 10.

IN 1971-72, Andrews averaged 21.5 points and 11.3 rebounds while connecting on a school-record 57.7 per cent of his field goal attempts.

A Pacer spokesman said the four will likely be the only rookies at the camp. Free agents and veterans reporting early will fill out the squads used to evaluate the rookies.

Andrews completed his UK career with 1,320 points, 12th best in Wildcat annals. All players above him on the scoring list were three-year starters at UK.

IF ANY OF the rookies survive the camp, they will find it more

Big Jim set a career field goal percentage record, hitting 56.3 per cent. Andrews broke Dan Issel's old record of 51.8 by 4.5 per cent.