UK SCHOLARSHIP IN THE HUMANITIES

The Gaines Center for the Humanities is offering its second annual Scholarship, available to any full-time, non-faculty staff person. You don't need a college degree or be enrolled in a degree program to be eligible. The scholarship includes tuition payment for two courses, a book allowance, and financial compensation for the working hours missed while you are in class. No formal application is required, however you must submit a brief professional resume and a statement of intention (why you desire the scholarship). Application must be delivered or postmarked no later than March 14. For more information contact: Nancy Howard, Gaines Center for the Humanities, 232 E. Maxwell. Speed Sort 0344. Phone 257-1537. Hours are 9am-1pm weekdays.

SAFETY AWARDS

Nominations for UK's annual safety awards are due March 7, 1986. The Don Cash Seaton Award is for an individual who has contributed to safety in a special way for the entire campus. The Safety Achievement Award is for the individual who has substantially improved safety conditions within their department. For more info contact Garry Beach at 257-6326.

SOLINET WORKSHOP ON BOOK REPAIR

April 3-4, 1986 is when all the fun people will head to SOLINET's Book Repair Workshop in New Orleans. The two day workshop is $45 for members and $50 for others. Registration deadline is March 21, 1986. Only 25 people will be accepted, and the last workshop was highly successful. For more info contact Lisa Fox or Susan Brown, SOLINET, Plaza Level, 400 Colony Square, 1201 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30361. (404) 892-0943. For a copy of the brochure contact Kerry Kresse at 257-5954.

MORE SOLINET GOODIES

Two introductory workshops, "Administration of photographic collections," and "Basic conservation: planning and techniques," are offered by SOLINET and the Society of American Archivists. The first, dealing with photographic collections, is instructed by Gerald Munoff, formerly of UK, and will be held March 24-26 in Jackson, Mississippi. The second, basic conservation, will be held in Atlanta in July. For more info contact the Director's Office at 257-3801 or Patricia Palmer, Program Coordinator, Society of American Archivists, 600 S. Federal, Suite 504, Chicago, IL 60605. (312) 922-0140.

SPEC KITS

SPEC KIT #120, "Exhibits in ARL Libraries," has been received in Reference. This kit, based on a survey of ARL member libraries, discusses staffing, goals and purposes, themes, preparation and local policy.

RUSSIAN ODYSSEY

So you don't want to go to Mammoth Cave again this summer. Looking for somewhere off the beaten path for your summer vacation? How about Minsk? Leningrad? Kiev? Moscow? North Texas State University and the University of New Mexico are sponsoring a Study Tour to the Soviet Union, June 15-30, 1986. The price, which includes everything but passport fees and laundry, is $1577. Included in the trip are meals, tours, theatre tickets and hotel. For a copy of the brochure call Kerry Kresse at 257-5954.

NUTRITION AND HEALTH SERVICES IN THE AMERICAS

This conference, made possible by a grant from Ashland Oil, features Dr. Abraham Horwitz, Director Emeritus of the Pan American Health Organization. It will be held on Thursday, March 6, and all sessions will be held in the Health Sciences Building, College of Nursing, Room 115. Call 257-7036 or 257-8776. All sessions are free and open to the public.

SECOND ANNUAL KENTUCKY CONFERENCE OF FACULTIES

This year's conference, held March 7-8, 1986 at the Capital Plaza Hotel in Frankfort, will address "Faculty Advocacy for Higher Education." The entire conference (including registration, Friday night banquet, Saturday programs and lunch) is only $27. For a copy of the pamphlet call Kerry Kresse at 257-5954 or Jean Pival at 257-3763.
