New Homecomin Look

Thousands of alumni from all over the country will pour into Lexington tomorrow to see, for the first time in history, Kentucky's Wildcats favored over Georgia's Bulldogs in a Homecoming game. They'll meet old friends and take walks across a campus that may look quite different to them.

We believe they'll see ODK tags galore, plenty of freshman beanies, fine Homecoming decorations, a redombed Skly leading cheers they can follow on mimeographed sheets, a snarling wildcat on a leash and a very sharp Best Band in Dixie.

We hope they'll see a student body that will cheer its team throughout the game, and celebrate just as heartily after the team wins. We hope that if the team loses, the same students will be able to say along with Coach Bryant: "It's still our team!"

A Change Of Scene

An excellent crowd met the triumphant Wildcats last Saturday night at Bluegrass Field. We only wish the team had arrived in time to see the thousands more who were there at 9 o'clock. It was heartening to see that many fans show so much interest in a team that certainly deserved all that and more.

There were a great many disadvantages, however. Nobody can be blamed for the late arrival, but it was a terrific drain on the spirit of those who stood for two hours, waiting. It was also the reason many more were not there to see the plane land.

But worse still, nobody but those on the front two rows in the crowd (and the two men standing on a statue) could see the cheerleaders or the team. The resulting cheers were often as flat as the area on which the cheerleaders stood. The new cheers and unfamiliar songs were completely out of place, also, but even on old reliable ones, the crowd could not be expected to follow the leaders well.

We suggest that in the future, when the team returns from a trip, the welcome be given in the gym or on Stoll Field. Such action would offer many advantages.

First, the crowd would probably be much larger—many people had no way to get to the airport. Second, the long wait, which might happen on any occasion, would be much easier sitting down. Everyone could see the cheerleaders, who could use their own public address system.

And in addition to these advantages, there would be no dangerous traffic jam at the airport.

We believe the team should be welcomed, win or lose; but it could be done just as well here on campus.

to the Editor

Editor, The Kernel:

Wants Recognition At Game
As a former UK student who has spent back-breaking and nerve-racking hours on a Homecoming Display—and as winner for the last two years, I would like to call attention to the injustice shown to the contest winners and to the tireless committees who make it possible.

Homecoming represents one of the two largest and most competitive events on the UK campus. Many winning themes are conceived months in advance and no small amount of time, energy and ingenuity are spent in planning and construction.

Not only are the pre-arrangements worthy of comment but the actual labor and anxiety of Homecoming morning add the stress that break the camel's back. Every student who has ever been "in there pitching" on a display knows what it's like to get up at the crack of dawn, tear around like mad for hours while others leisurely dress in their Sunday best, go to a Homecoming breakfast, drive through the streets to see the decorations and exuberantly stroll to the game in time to get a good seat.

Yes, Homecoming is a gala occasion for everybody but the tired, blue-jean clad committees who wear 'til noon, jump into decent wearing apparel, fly over to Stoll Field in time to sit behind the goal line, and spend the next two or three hours trying to recuperate in order to enjoy the "parties" which they will attend as soon as the game is over.

But all this could be made worthwhile if SIKKY would arrange for the justified pride proclamation of the winners! Personal satisfaction compensates for loss of sleep and energy. But what satisfaction is gained when the winners are announced to a handful of people at the SUB dance, twelve hours after the displays have been judged?

"So I see, 'Who ever heard of a homecoming game at night?'"

Why can't the winners be announced to the thousands of spectators during the halt at the game? Why can't the trophies be presented in the middle of the field. Can anyone question the added thrill and satisfaction the winning organizations, as a whole, would experience?

The Homecoming decorations are traditionally one of the outstanding features of the day. It is only right that they should be given a fair share of the lime-light.

This year it will be slightly altered because of the night game. However, it is still unjustifiable, to me, for SIKKY to sacrifice the gratification of the winners, for a scheme to get more people to attend the SUB dance. It hasn't worked in the past—it has only succeeded in diminishing the incentive to have the winning display!

Whether afternoon or evening—let's have those trophies presented at the football game!

Sincerely,
Marilyn Morris

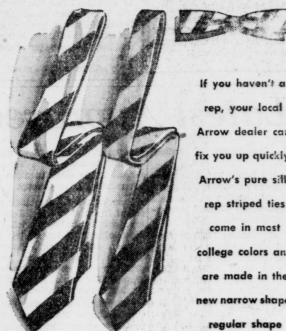

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

LOOK AT Sheedy who puffed up with pride. And to think that only last week he almost cracked when he found he couldn't pass the Finger-Nail Test. Then a friend put him wise to Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. Now he's the big noise on the campus. Non-alcoholic Wildroot contains Lanolin, keeps hair neat and well-groomed all day long. Relieves annoying dryness, removes those ugly dandruff. So if you haven't switched to Wildroot, better hop to it right away. Get Wildroot Cream-Oil in bottles or tubes at your nearest drug or toilet goods counter. And don't forget to ask your barber for professional applications! (One at a time, of course!)

Gams' Spirits Bopping

Editor, The Kernel:
For two long years we have bemoaned the fact that the University offered neither jazz club benefits nor jazz concerts, so Friday's announcement of a possible answer to our pleas sent our spirits bopping. It's time UK did what other campuses have been doing for so long. You can count on us for full support of a jazz concert program, and we'll be more than delighted to handle any of the many tasks required to put such a program in motion.

Very sincerely,
GS Alpha Gams

Editor, The Kernel:
Three cheers for the guys interested enough to give their time and talent to a jazz concert on campus! I, for one, would like to hear some live Dixieland.

The Spice Of Life

Homescoming! Homescoming! At last you're here! 'Tis the best time of the whole fall year. We'll laugh and dance, cheer at the game. Show the alums the truth of our fame. Our triumph and happiness will be worn like a crown. UK and the Wildcats will never go down!

Last weekend was a goodie; the Dome, "Basic Boogie," and the Kappa Sig formal provided much fine times. Boiling Springs is the spot for a dance. Atmosphere all over the place.

Bill Simrall is the only campus clown who has actually seen "Under Water Orangetang." Maybe that is what inspired him to polish his car for Nancy Lou Eden.

What a cute little blonde kept Gardner Combs spellbound by feeding him popcorn at Joyland last Friday night?

Boyd Hall has a complaint. The fella's all stop by to say hello and then go to Pat for their dates! Just patient. It takes 'em about a month to recuperate from the frosh invasion.

George Montgomery, Chenny Everett, Joe Newell, and Fiebus Lebus took sail for Ole Miss after the Count Basie party and from all reports the trip was more than any boat ride!

Other tales from the Mississippi "merry-go-round" are being told by Lloyd Chilton, Harry Rouse, and Wynn Moseley. 'Tis said they tore up a Yandy pep rally on the way and showed the "rebel" sign the right way to go after game time.

CONN-COX 'UNS

By Earl Conn and Bob Cox

We feel as though about anything can go in the old joke column this week for who will read it anyway? Eve's mind is on more serious things at the present time—like Georgia for instance. But possibly some soul seeking some enlightenment (?) as to what is the latest (?) in the line of good (?) jokes (?) may bear with us, as here we go off in another area and don't say we didn't warn you.

Did you hear the one about the two fraternal men—

BB: What's the name of that book you're reading?

Joe: What 29 Million Women Want.

BB: Let's see if they spelled my name right.

Office Manager: Pardon me, young lady, but in the matter of your dress, don't you think you could show a little more discretion?

Tigart: My goal. Some of you guys are never satisfied.

Our poem of the week:

Despite all the rules
Of a body's creation
A tight sweater won't
Hurt a girl's circulation.

Prof. Joe: Do you still wake up with a grunch?

Prof. Blow: No, I got a divorce.

WAA Opens Drive For Membership

The Women's Athletic Association for 1949-1950 has enlarged its scope to include all women's athletic activities on the University of Kentucky campus. The annual membership drive is now underway. Anyone who is interested in team sports, or such sports as swimming, bowling, and tennis, is encouraged and invited to join. Instruction is given in the team sports since the University of Kentucky's WAA plays other schools in hockey and basketball.

This year's membership is expected to greatly exceed that of any other year. Until this year the WAA has been a rather restricted organization made up of girls with practically professional aims in hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball. The WAA council has now taken over the management of the intramural tournaments between the girls' residence units, sororities, and

Scholarships Listed By Engineer Firm

The James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation of Cleveland has announced its third annual competition for engineering undergraduate awards.

The awards and scholarships are valued at $650. Papers prepared by undergraduates on arc welded design, research, fabrication, or maintenance will be judged.

All resident engineering undergraduate students, including agricultural and architectural, registered in a school or college in the United States are eligible for competing for the awards.

Schools and colleges in which the three top awards are made to students will receive amounts of money equal to those awards to be used as scholarships.

Rules and conditions may be obtained by writing the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio.

UK And Lexington Y Offer Swim Courses

Courses in swimming instruction, sponsored by the Lexington YMCA and the UK physical education program at the Lexington center, 161 N. Mill Street, will begin Tuesday.

The program includes instruction for non-swimmers, beginners, advanced swimmers, and courses for instructors.

A fee of 35c will be charged all students not holding a current YMCA membership card.

Trunks and towels are to be furnished by the individual student.

States are eligible for competing for the awards.

Entering his third campaign as the Ole Miss football coach, John Vaught's the 26th Rebel grid tutor since 1883, the fifth since 1925.

NOW HEAR THIS

By T. J. Clark

No doubt most people are too busy sucking their teeth and wondering what the Wildcats are going to do to Georgia to pay much attention to my ramblings about ye olde radio studios. But commitments are commitments, and deadlines are deadlines, so I write. And having writ, I shall no doubt move on, be weighed in the balance, and found wanting.

New understand that I don't want to put my'f away with you as a radio drama critic, for the only qualification I have along that line is ears. But I can lay it on with a trowel when it comes to putting praise in the right place. According to listener reports, the Dudley Saunders-Gene Arkle chiller series, Tale of Edgar Allan Poe, is already a steady success. Next up is "The Park in the Case of M. Valdemar." (WBKY Thursday, 8:00 p.m.)

WLP Saturday, 8:15 p.m.

The current master production out of the University of Kentucky Radio Service is the Kentucky Radio Writers series by the Kentucky Radio Writers. Last Sunday night's dramatization of "Hedda Gabler" "City Limit" turned out to be the biggest thing that hit radio Lexington in many months. The next production, "The Last Days of Pompeii," is scheduled for Thursday, 8:00 p.m.

WLP Saturday, 8:15 p.m.

Old faithfuls at the radio studios are beginning to trickle back for the season. Dick Picman, a balladeer with a perpetual folksy kick, took the air last night in the opener, and the fall, strictly homespun and very pleasant, J4 suggest you add him to your Thursday evening schedule. (WLEX-WBKY, Thu., 8:45 p.m.)

The Show-60-Watch Department we add the new "Gershwin Song of America," which features Reynolds Large as George Gershwin and Bill Gordon as Ira. Music is furnished by the WBKY staff orchestra under Jack Fourchard. (WBKY-WKTX Mon., 8:30 p.m.)

Also in the SW Department, you might check on the revival of the Airline Theatre, now expanded to a full half hour of dramatic action. Right now the link is the whelpherry, shrouded behind turmoil and red tape (a common radio ailment), but any looker who put you five or six on the air last night in the opera, one that the end result will be good. (WBKY-WKTX Tuesday, 8:15 p.m.)

If you happen to be in jazz and the like by the whelpherry, there's a chap by the name of Keller Dunn who has been borrowed, or stolen unboundedly quantities of the

Center Joe Jackura are earning their fourth letters; LT Nick Peher is after his third; LG Henry Love and RT Dick Yelvington are playing their second years. They average 100 pounds and grow like Bulldogs. Georgia's speedy backfield is led by 60-minute man, Halback Eli Marlich. Playing his fourth and last year, Marlich tied up the North Carolina game last week with zig-zagging 88 yard punt return to pay dirt. He's smart and quick, has a knack for spotting plays while on defense.

Halback Billy Mison, the pride of Georgia as an all-state high schooler, averaged seven yards a try last year, but stumbles easily when slightly hit. Big Al Bodine will crack the line from the fullback position. Coach Bryant's lineup depends on the flip of a coin. If Kentucky recieves, the probable lineup will read from left to right: Benny Zaranaka, Bob Gain, Bill Wannamaker, Doug Moseley, Dick Holway, Samitty Yorwark and Nick Odilivak. Representing Kentucky's best backfield in years will be Babe Parilli, Dopey Phelps, Jim Howe, and Bill Leskovar or Clayton Webb.

Frosh Eleven To Meet Tennesse At Kingsport

Coach Joe Atkinson's Freshmen-Kittens open their 1949 three-game football season tomorrow afternoon when they go against the University of Tennessee Frosh at Kingsport, Tenn.

The Kittens go into their first game handicapped by short practice sessions and numerous injuries, but several players have emerged as standouts.

"I don't know how good the Tennessee frosh are," said Coach Atkinson, "but I do know this team has shown a lot of scrap and will give a good account of themselves."

Starting at ends tomorrow will be Bob Fry and Jack Hollis. Fry is a 6' 3", 160-pound Cincinnati boy, while Hollis tips the scales at 200 pounds and 6' 2" tall. He is from Aurora, Ill. Both are excellent pass receivers.

Smith and Weber at Tackle

The tackles will be Calvin Smith from Barboursville, Ky., and Carl Weber from Ambridge, Pa. Smith weighs 215, and Weber is a 185 pounder. Both are rugged on defense as well as offense.

At guards will be a Kentucky and an Indiana boy—William Johnson from Louisville, and Eugene Donaldson, who hails from East Chicago. Donaldson was captain of the Frosh in their game with the Rebels last week. Both are very fast and adept at pulling out of the line to lead the interference. Johnson weighs 185; Donaldson 205.

The Kittens' center will be R. B. Hodge, a Elysville, Ark., lad who has 220 pounds draped over a 6' 3" frame. Hodge has been performing well at the pivot post and will be an important factor in the game tomorrow against the Baby Vols.

In the backfield will be Bill Daniels and Harry Jones at the half-back posts, Jim Farley at fullback, and Bill Farley will direct the team from the quarterback slot.

Daniels, the 152-pound speedster from Paragould, Ark., has been hampered by a bad ankle, but should be ready to go tomorrow. Harry Jones, who looked good on pass defense in the recent Frosh-Reserve game, runs from the right-half position. He weighs 154, and like Daniels, is extremely fast.

Jim Farley, who will do most of the kicking, hails from Danville, Ky., the home of Dopey Phelps.

He is a 150-pound line-buster.

Bill Farley at QB

Bill Farley, no relation to Jim, will handle the all-important quarterback position. He is an accomplished passer and a competent ball handler. Bill calls Charleston, W. Va. home. He is 5' 11" tall and weighs 172 pounds.

Also slated for duty in the back-field tomorrow are Tommy Fillion, who has shown promise as a runner; John Brainerd, who is the star for the Reserves in that game last week; and Allen Buckner, who will be used as the defensive full-back.

The squad leaves for Kingsport at 8 p.m. today. Game time tomorrow is 2 o'clock.—By Bob Gorman.

BOB WALSTON, is a six-foot, 185-pound end from Columbus, Ohio. He led the SFC last year in pass receptions with 25 snags, for 525 yards and four touchdowns. He is a 59-year old junior. Walston, in high school, played football, basketball, and baseball and was a member of the swimming and track teams in his spare time.

Cats Make Big Mess Out Of Ole Miss

Kentucky's up-and-coming Wildcats spoiled the Ole Miss Rebels' homecoming last Saturday with a smashing 47-0 upset victory.

The Cats, who went into the fray a 6-point underdog, outgated the Rebels at every turn to record the most lopsided win ever handed the Rebels on their home field.

This victory evened the Kentucky-Ole Miss rivalry at three apiece, and catapulted the Blue and White into the role of a major contender for the Southeastern Conference crown.

Here's how they did it:

Touchdown one: Luskover went five yards over guard after a 15-yard penalty against the Rebels. Bolter added the point to make it 7-0.

Touchdown two: Parrill squeezed one yard through guard following another 15-yard penalty. Bolter again added the point. 14-0.

Touchdown three: Howe took a 29-yard pass from Parrill on a boot-leg play. P.A.T. missed. 20-0.

Touchdown four: Bolter dashed around left end for nine yards after Jamerson intercepted a pass on the Ky. 25 and ran it back 60 yards. Bolter added the point. 27-0.

Touchdown five: Jamerson went off-tackle for 53 yards and made it 33-0.

Touchdown six: Don Frampton grabbed an attempted lateral and scampered 86 yards to make it 39-0. Brooks added the 40th point on the p.a.s.

Touchdown seven: Tackle Jim McKenzie intercepted a pass in the Ole Miss backfield and loped 25 yards to paydirt. Brooks again converted to make the final score read 47-0.

Herald-Tribune Gives Forum Tickets To UK

The University has been allotted two student tickets and one faculty member ticket for the New York Herald Tribune Forum to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, on Oct. 24-26.

Anyone interested in going to the Forum should call at the Dean of Women's office as soon as possible.

The Forum began in 1930 when a group of community organizations, asking program guidance, came to the editors of the Herald Tribune. Annually, representatives from all over the United States gather in New York to discuss world affairs and problems. Information concerning programs and leadership is also given.

Block And Bride Plans Fall Festival

Plans for the Block and Bride annual fall festival, of which the main feature is the awarding of various scholarships, were begun at a recent meeting of the club.

Another feature of the Block and Bride fall program will be the showing of stock in a national contest to be held in Chicago. The date of the contest will be announced later.

A barbecue sponsored by the organization will be held Thursday, Prof. W. P. Carrigan, advisor for the group, announced.

Glikstein Elected Tau Kappa President

Arthur Glikstein was recently elected president of Tau Kappa. Other officers are Paul Wright, vice president; and Ben Cohn, secretary-treasurer.

Munro Elected Chamber President

Willis Munro was recently elected president of the College Chamber of Commerce. Other officers elected are Jim Moka, vice president, Glenn Wills, secretary, and Jim Inman, treasurer.

Directors elected for the group are Betsy Billiter, Bob Tutbill, Jerry Inman, Gene Ward, Jack Strother, and Carl Turner.

Johnston To Address Women Voters Group

J. Pelham Johnston, city manager of Lexington, will be guest speaker at the first meeting of the League of Women Voters at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Music Room of the SUB. His topic will be "The Importance of Youth's Civic Interest."

All those interested in becoming members are asked to attend.

Roland Dale of Magre is the second tackle to captain the Ole Miss team since Brainer Kinard led the Rebels in 1937. The 48 captain was Doug Hamley of Lake Providence, La., who winds up his career this season.

Player Of Week

BABE PARILLI

The Kentucky Wildcats' magnificent win over the Ole Miss eleven last Saturday was definitely a team victory. Practically every member of the UK team who saw action turned in a fine performance.

As a result The Kernel has selected as The Player of the Week, Babe Parilli, because he was one of the outstanding players not only against the Rebels, but also in the LSU and the Mississippi Southern contests. In the Ole Miss tilt, Parilli completed six passes in 11 attempts. For the season, the lad from Rochester, Penn., now has a record of 25 completions in 43 tosses. Of these, only one has been intercepted.

Although UK's quarterback of last season, George Blanda, is rated as a better kicker than Parilli, Babe is more dangerous threat to the opposition because of his ability to carry the ball if necessary. He is a better than average runner, which combined with his outstanding passing talents, make him a big headache to the opposing defense.

This is only Babe's second season at handling the T-formation quarterback duties. He acquired valuable experience last fall with the freshmen eleven.

In high school, Parilli played both fullback and quarterback. "We used mostly the single wing system, with just a few T-formation plays."

"Did you ever play against Bob Benik (the 'Cat') formation quarterback in high school?" asked.

"Yes, one of the most exciting games I ever played was against Bob. He was captain and quarterback for Ambridge High (Pa.) and I was named as game captain for Rochester High. About 21,000 people turned

Johnny Owens, Varsity Cagers Stranahan Win Start Practice

By Bob Graham

Johnny Owens, captain of the UK golf team, and Frank Stranahan, former British and Canadian amateur king, defeated Cary Middlecoff, the National Open champ, and Jim Coleman, former Ole Miss titleholder, 1 up, in an exhibition golf match last Saturday at Oxford, Miss.

Played as part of the Ole Miss homecoming festivities, the match was a forecast of what was to happen in the afternoon when the Wildcats stomped the Ole Miss footballers, to ruin the whole day for the Rebels.

Owens, who had trouble with his wood shots all morning, nevertheless turned in a respectable 36, par for the course, by making some beautiful recovery shots out of the rough. Stranahan was low man with a five-under-par 31. Middlecoff had 33, and Coleman a 24.

After halving the first hole, Owens and Stranahan went 1 up on No. 2, when Stranahan dropped a 35-foot, downhill putt for a birdie 2. Coleman evened things on the next hole when his pitch from about 15 feet off the green dropped in for a birdie 2.

They halved No. 5, but Owens had his best hole of the round on No. 6. After a long drive, his second shot landed about six feet from the pin, and Johnny dropped his putt for an eagle 3 on the 46-yard, par 5 hole.

Middlecoff and Coleman took the next hole to flat the match again, and the eighth hole was halved. But on the last hole, Stranahan uncorked a 225-yard drive, and his approach left him a one-foot putt for his fifth birdie and the match.

UK Judging Team Places Tenth At Iowa

Led by Thomas H. Porter, who tied for second place in the judging of Brown Swiss and Ayrshire dairy cattle, the University of Kentucky's dairy judging team placed tenth in a field of 30 contestants at a recent meeting at Waterloo, Iowa. The announcement was made by Dr. Dwight M. Seath, faculty adviser for the group.

The team, consisting of Porter, Edgar A. McDavitt, Carl Hamilton and Forburn Weakley, placed fourth on Brown Swiss and fifth on Ayrshires.

Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Congratulations to Coach Bear Bryant and his Wildcats for their terrific victory over a good Ole Miss football team Saturday. It was undoubtedly the greatest win for a Kentucky eleven in recent years, if not since the inception of sports here in 1881.

For the Mississippi Rebels, the 47-0 defeat was the worst they have suffered on their campus in 56 years of football competition.

One point has been somewhat overlooked, we believe. That is the tremendous scouting jobs that Coach Bryant's assistants have been doing, getting inside the UK five-yard line just once. Ole Miss never got farther than the eight-yard stripe of the Wildcats.

One Rebel player said after the game that "Kentucky always seemed to know what we were going to do."

As a result of Kentucky's win over Mississippi, Coach Bryant was named as the Southeastern Conference's "Coach of the Week." Of the 26 votes cast by sportswriters in the South, the UK head mentor received 19. LSU's Gus Tinsley got six votes; while Vandy's Bill Edwards received one.

Tomorrow night's game with Georgia will be one of the most important ever played on Still Field. A win for the amazing Wildcats will very probably move them into the upper 10 teams in the nation. Going into the Bowling Green, the Lexington Lynxmen are now ranked as the No. 14 team in the country. Georgia should not be underestimated. According to the Kentucky scouts, Weepin' Wally Butts' bruises are stronger than last season, when they clipped the Cats at Athens, 35-12. Our scouts believe that Georgia's most dangerous runners are Brezzy Reid, who was out of the Carolina game last week with an injury; speedy Eli Marlichich, a beautiful broken-field runner; Halfback Billy Mixon; and Fullbacks John Tillitski and Al Bodine, both of whom played prominent parts in last year's win over the Cats.

A Kentucky win over the tough Bulldogs would be one of the sweetest homecoming victories in the 68-year-old history of UK football.

Charlie Bradshaw will definitely be missed this season on offense. Coach Bryant wasn't just saying words when he said Charlie "was a great competitor, a good leader and a very fine player."

Charlie seemed to improve with each game. Against the Rebels last week, the Montgomery, Ala., led made one of the finest catches of the season on a Farrell pass. Bradshaw snagged the aerial while falling to his knees and with an Ole Miss defensive back practically hanging on his neck. Charlie was the leading pass receiver this season with seven, good for 75 yards.

We couldn't help but notice the wonderful school spirit shown at Ole Miss last week. Despite the fact that their team was losing by several touchdowns, the Mississippi students never gave up. They encouraged the Rebel team with cheers throughout the entire game. All the blue-capped freshmen sat in a group and yelled for their graders from the opening kickoff until the final whistle.

We sincerely hope that the students here will be just as enthusiastic for the big homecoming weekend and turn out in full force for the big SuKy pep rally planned for this evening. Let's back our team, SuKy and the newly-formed Spirit, Inc., one hundred percent.

The biggest threat to a very successful season for the Kentucky Wildcat football team right now is overconfidence. All this week we have been hearing about how the Cats are going to take Georgia. Although we are favored to win by one touchdown, a wet, slow gridiron will definitely help the big Bulldog line. Coach Wally Butts always comes up with a fine team. The Georgia eleven is nationally known for the excellent condition they maintain. MANY times in the past seasons they have worn down rivals by sheer power and then won the game in

The visitors from the Cracker State also well remember the last time they played on Still Field, when UK whipped them, 26-0. We'll settle for a one-point victory by our Wildcats tomorrow.

Bradshaw Out; SEC Says End Is Ineligible

Senior End Charles Bradshaw was ruled ineligible for further varsity play last Tuesday by Commissioner Bernie Moore of the Southeastern Conference nullifying his attempt to complete his fourth year of competition for the Wildcats.

Bradshaw's status hinged on the interpretation of a wartime ruling. The rule states that a player enrolled prior to July 1, 1947, may play four years of football provided one of these varsity years is played while a freshman scholastically or if the player participates in one year of freshman and three years of varsity football.

Bradshaw entered school in 1947, played one semester and enlisted in the Marines. He did not play football that year. In 1946, he returned to UK and played three seasons. Charlie, a converted center, has played offensive right end in the Cats' first three games.
