Kentuckian Plans Pictures For 1950

Sittings Will Start Monday in Y-Lounge

By Rosemary Hilling
Sittings for individual pictures in the Kentuckian, University yearbook, will begin Monday, Charles Patrick, editor, has announced. Juniors and seniors must make appointments in the Y-Lounge of the SUB immediately to appear in the class section.

Clubs Must Report

Organizations that want group pictures in the annual should make appointments in the Kyian office, located in the sub-basement of McVey Hall. Ben Williams, Lexington photographer, will take all group pictures.

Paper contracts and information sheets which have already been sent to all campus organizations should be returned immediately to Jeanne Wilson, business manager of the Kyian.

Subscription Drive

A subscription drive, during which the price of the Kyian will be $4, will begin Monday in the Y-Lounge. After the drive, books will cost $5. No deposits will be accepted because of the small number of subscribers who formerly failed to pick up their annuals last year, Patrick explained.

Individual pictures appearing in the Kentuckian must be taken by the Royal Atelier Photography Studio of New York, official staff photographers for the 1950 annuals. The fee will be $12, with a charge of 20 cents for each additional individual picture appearing in the annual. The yearbook will be ready for distribution at the end of next semester.

Keck Speaks At Meeting

On the campus Monday afternoon visiting with students holding State Highway Employment Scholarships was Kentucky Commissioner of Highways, John A. Keck.

At an informal meeting, Mr. Keck spoke to the highway scholarship students, outlining their opportunity to have possibilities in Highway employment. Other guest speakers were D. H. Bray, State Highway Engineer, and Dean D. V. Terrell of the College of Engineering.

Kentucky State Highway scholarships, which have been granted since 1948, are part of a long range state plan to alleviate the increased demand for more well-trained personnel in the field of highway engineering.

Homecoming Display Trophies To Be Given

Homecoming decorations for the annual Homecoming football celebration on Saturday, Oct. 8, must be ready by 10 a.m. on Homecoming Day.

Tro trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner-up in each of the three divisions—varsity, co-ed, and local merchants' displays. There are duplications in the displays, the organization which sent its theme and plan in first will be given the official approval.

Italian Film Featured In Memorial Hall

"Shoe Shine," an Italian film will be shown at Memorial Hall Friday. The afternoon show will begin at 3 p.m., and the first evening show will begin at 7 p.m. Admission is 40 cents.

Fall Enrollment Figures Show Drop Far Less Than Expected

The fall semester enrollment of the University has reached 7503 with two days still remaining for part time students to enroll in night classes and in extension department classes to be conducted in several districts throughout the state.

Of the 7503 total enrollment, 6883 are on the Lexington campus, 244 at the Northern Extension Center at Covington, and 222 at the College of Pharmacy in Louisville. Night classes are expected to increase the enrollment to approximately 7600, according to Dr. Lee Sizoo, registrar.

Expected Higher Drop

This figure, only 900 below last year's all-time high of 7900, is less than half the drop expected by University authorities who had predicted a decline of 10 to 15 per cent. A total of 3061 enrollees or 41 per cent of the total enrollment have

Grant Applicants To Apply To Dean

All girls who would like to be considered for the Frances Jewell McVey scholarship are asked to apply at the Office of the Dean of Women as soon as possible.

The scholarship is valued at $500, and any Kentucky girl enrolled at the University is eligible.

Kernel Grows This Summer

By Bill Fluty
During the hot weeks of summer school a group of little men mused themselves with haphazard town walls in the basement of McVey hall and hauling away the debris. They were making room for a bigger and better Kernel printshop.

The printshop, which once consisted of four rooms in the south basement wing of McVey, now occupies more than half the area of the same floor. With increased floor space several new machines have been added. The press room has acquired two automatic cylinder presses, the binding room sports a new "gang" etcher, and the composing room has added a late model linotype machine.

A number of small modern machines have been installed, including automatic type-setting machines used for setting newspaper headlines. The new machines have greatly increased the production capacity of the Kernel.

Working conditions of printshop employees have been improved considerably. The new shop has fluorescent lighting throughout. More storage space for printing supplies has been added. The cramped conditions existing prior to expansion.

Another advantage of the expansion program is that the Kernel printshop can now offer more positions to students wishing to work part time. Several new full-time employees will begin work in October.

'Y' Announces Membership Drive

The annual YWCA membership drive is scheduled for Oct. 4-7, according to Martha Swofford, drive chairman.

Workers will solicit in dormitories, sorority houses and other residence units and booths will be set up in the Student Union Building and other campus buildings.

Each new member is to select a commission for which to work, depending on her special interests. The commissions include: personal and campus affairs; social responsibility; world-relations; and Christian heritage.

Special committees have been set up for those members who wish to participate to a greater extent than merely attending meetings. Miss Swofford, the Registrar's office announced Tuesday.

New members will choose from worship, Live Y's, WBSF, race relations, social, public, social service, membership, and Dutch lunch committees.

BSU To Meet

The Rev. John E. Husz, pastor of Lattin Baptist Church, Covington, will speak at 7:30 tonight at the first of this semester's King's Hour programs of the Baptist Student Union.

Reading Knowledge Exams

Reading knowledge examinations in French, Spanish and Italian will be given Sat., Oct. 15 at 10-12 a.m. and 1-2 p.m. at the third floor of Miller Hall, Dr. J. E. Hernandez announced.

The veterans will be for advanced degrees only, and those who wish to take them are advised to bring a dictionary if they feel they need one.

Future Teachers Meet At Training School

The first meeting of the Future Teachers of America will be held Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the recreation room of the University Training School.

Anyone interested in joining F.T.A. is asked to attend the meeting. Refreshments and entertainment will be featured after a short business session.

Community Papers Of Today, Yesterday Is Theme Of Library's Latest Display

By Joe Lee
Presently on display in the foyer of the Margaret I. King Library is an interesting exhibit of Kentucky community newspapers. Ending October 6, the exhibit features a collection of state newspapers typical of the localities where they are published.

Posted alongside up-to-date issues of some of the newspapers are copies of the same papers from bygone days, illustrating how the publications have grown modern with the times. In some cases, then-and-now pictures are displayed revealing how the newspaper plants also have been modernized.

Interestingly enough, Kentucky's first newspaper, the Kentucky Gazette, published in August 1787, was a community paper in a vital sense of the word. John Bradford, founder, editor and publisher, wrote this to the early settlers at Lexington as one of his reasons for establishing the Gazette. "It will afford us an easy method of understanding one another and of coming to a better agreement in the execution of every design which may be necessary for the common good." This Kentucky's first community newspaper was dedicated, as are today the state community papers of the present, to serving the public good.

Community newspapers are of especial interest at UK. Exclusively, the university library receives more than 2000 periodicals. Of these, community newspapers are serving the interests of the people in the localities where they are published.

Medals Given To Rifle Team

Medals were presented to nine members of the University's national championship rifle team by President H. L. Donovan in a ceremony at Buell Armory Tuesday.

Fagan, Stansfield, Tester, and Welch, the squad's new lettermen, were presented swastars.

The tenth member of the team, Lt. Edwin S. Walters, now on active Army duty, was awarded a medal in July for top individual score.

UK won the national intercollegiate title last June, edging their opponents by 10 points. The victory was the University's second successive national championship.

Library Opens Lecture Series

"Kata," the Washer-Woman's Daughter," a Bibliographical study, an address to be presented by Howard Peckham, director of the Indiana Historical Bureau, the first in a series of bibliographical talks to be sponsored by the Margaret I. King Library. Tentative plans are that the lecture will be given in the new Guignol Theatre.

The talk to be given at 8 p.m. Oct. 13, is based around a letter written to George Washington in 1775 which Mr. Peckham has been written in two forms; with and without a scandalous paragraph which John C. Fitzpatrick declares to be a forgery.

Mr. Peckham will contest this point of view. As the author of "Invitation to Book Collecting," a vademecum for the bibliomaniac, and the authoritative biography of Panton, Mr. Peckham has earned a reputation as a scholar and bibliophile. Material for these two books was gathered while he held the position of curator of printed books at the William L. Clements Library in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Ole Miss Favored By Six-Point Margin

A homecoming crowd of approximately 30,000 Mississippians is expected to be on hand tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. when the big Rebels' Ole Miss tangle with Kentucky Wildcats at Farmington Stadium.

Football fever at Ole Miss this weekend will be higher than the August temperature in Arizona. Victims of a major bowl bid are seen by Mississippi followers. Last season, it will be remembered, Ole Miss, which finished with an 8-1 record, was strongly considered for the Sugar Bowl and the Orange Bowl.

It was a bitter disappointment to Rebel rooters however, when their Ole Miss was overlooked. This year they are more bowl-happy than ever.

'47 SEC Champs
Ole Miss has taken on a "new look" since their acquisition of an ex-TCU All-American guard (1932), namely 40-year-old Johnny Vaught. The Rebel and blue was the conference crown in his very finest season there (1947) and finished runner-up to Georgia last year.

It was under Vaught that Charley Cooney developed into one of the greatest players in football history. In 1944, UK won 27-7. Kentucky opened the '46 campaign with a 20-0 verdict over the Rebels; and in '47 and '48 Ole Miss clipped the Cats by scores of 14-7 and 20-7, respectively.

Missack, who has a veteran, experienced squad as evidenced by the fact that 13 of the players are over 21 years of age.

Bobby Jabour, 23, is the top quarterback right now. He is being pushed by a pair of former All-Southwest high school wizards, Rocky Byrd and Dick Puckett.

Jimmy Crawford, alias "The Tank," is a 292-pound package of power. He is a strong candidate for All-American honors. Crawford is a hard-hitter and one of the best in the country.

Back again in the backfield are speed demon Bobby Wilson, hard-running John Dottle, and Red Jenkins, an excellent open field flanker, who starred in the '47 UK tilt.

Gain Back In Lineup
The Wildcats' declivity to the passing of Babe Parilli and the running of Dopey Pettus, Jim Howe, and the condition of the line, Ed Truman and Clayton Webb.

Bob Gain will see some action, depending on the condition of his weak knee. Ben Zaranks is out of the contest according to reports with a bad hand. Ralph Gentry and Bob Brooks are still somewhat hampered by bad knees.

Mississippi Magazine has been surprised in the first two games this season beating Mississippi Southern, 17-7, and LSU, 19-8. However, impartial observers figure that Ole Miss will be too tough for the Cats. Head coach, Ed Schemm, and Bob Brooks are among one of the top teams in the country. One national magazine listed the Rebel and Blue

Critic To Open Lecture Series

A return engagement to the University campus by Robert Frost, America's leading poet, is scheduled for this year's English lecture series, according to Dr. Herman Spivey, head of the English department.

Though the lecture schedule is not complete, the program will start in October with Bernard DeVoto, novelist, critic, and columnist of Harper's magazine.

On Nov. 7 and 8, John Jacob Niles, famous folksong collector and "bad" humorist, will be on the campus. The following performance will be that of the Margaret Webster Shakespeare Company.

The players' first presentation will be "Julius Caesar" on Dec. 9, to be followed by "The Taming of the Shrew" on Dec. 10.

Negotiations are nearly complete for the visit by Edward Westcott, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, along with two or three other well known spokesmen from the company.

In late February several well known Kentucky writers will appear for a series of programs in the gymnasium of local authors. Dr. Spivey added.

"We'll take this one."

causes me sorrow, because these two masters were my idols during my student days at UK.

One consolation remains, however—the knowledge that the influence of these great teachers will be carried on in some measure at least by those who were privileged to have been their students.

Certainly no one who studied with Prof. Lampert could keep from absorbing the inspiration of this grand man who so loved and practiced the fast-fading "grand manner" in music.

Likewise, Prof. Taylor's boundless energy, his zeal, and his personal pedagogical approach sent many a student teacher forth to the educational field well-strided for the fray with ignorance and evil.

There are yet others at UK like Lampert and Taylor and it would be well if present-day students would seek to emulate their qualities now, before they too pass on to their reward.

Very Truly Yours,

ments to write in to the Kernel their approval or disapproval of the idea. The musicians have agreed that if the students are with them they will do their best to bring to the campus some real good modern music as they want to hear it played.

Sincerely yours,
Bob Cox

One Way Out...

Many complaints have recently reached the Kernel concerning the textbook situation on the UK campus. Protesting letters have been printed, and seem to represent student opinion accurately.

Obviously, the bookstore's percentage of profit is very high. No other retail business we know of counts depreciation values so high when buying and so low when reselling. Few, if any, other businesses know exactly what stock will be salable in the future as does the bookstore.

As one letter suggested, this situation is the result of a monopoly. With no competition such action is to be expected.

In recent years, the monopoly has continued largely because of the big enrollment of veterans. They could pay the prices asked and suffer later losses because the government paid the bill. Also, it is far more difficult for a vet to order books from other places because of the endless paper work and red tape involved.

With the present non-veteran enrollment, however, we believe that a student book exchange can be successful. They have been at other schools under the same circumstances.

Since SGA has a fund guaranteed (though controlled), we suggest that Suky might profit from such an operation. With a mere 10 per cent profit, Suky should be able to regain much of its campus prestige. At the same time, students would save a great deal of money.

In addition, as one letter suggested, the co-op could exchange book lists with other colleges in an effort to find where books no longer in use here could be sold at reasonable prices. That should discourage the man who visits here occasionally and pays a quarter or half a dollar for a whole stack of books.

And One Way In

At least one textbook used here is a downright racket. It is called "Societies Around the World" and was prepared by members of the UK faculty. There could well be complaints about the style and format of the book, but another is far more telling.

At the beginning of each semester, every student taking the course must pay $4.50 for a set of materials which includes the book, several mimeographed instruction sheets and a world atlas.

Everything in the kit can be reused except eight maps bound in the back of the textbook, which is of notebook size and has a flexible cardboard cover. These maps are torn out and used for exercises, and after that the entire kit is useless for further use in the course.

As a result, the student is left at the end of the semester with a cheap atlas, several mimeographed pages of instructions and a mimeographed book about the Eskimos, the Navajos and one entire group in Africa. Members of the next class (and classes are always large) each ante $4.50 and the sales-building continues.

If the maps were bundled into an envelope and sold for 50 cents (a high price at that), students could save at least 25 per cent even after bookstore profits.

If a very large number of the books have been published with the maps included, an immediate change would be costly. But whenever the present stock of them is exhausted, some action should be taken in order that they will be of use beyond the period of one semester.

Many professors here are receiving royalties from texts used in the conventional manner. We realize that until and unless salary limits are increased, some such supplemental income is important, even necessary. But there is no excuse for such undiluted waste.

Want Some Jive?

The jazz concerts proposed by a letter this week should arouse a great deal of interest on campus. The offer, as we understand it, was made by two well-known campus bands. The formal atmosphere of dances, and the unwillingness of many couples to dance to jazz tunes, prevents their playing such music on those occasions.

Most musicians enjoy the comparative freedom of jazz, and many of them get together of their own accord to play it. These concerts, with at least the first of them free, might be held at the Student Union. If you like the idea, why not write the Kernel and let the boys know about it?

LETTERS to the Editor

Wants SGA to Act

Three cheers for the Junior who wrote that letter last week about the way the bookstore is handling the sale of new and second-hand books.

It seems rather strange that the veteran has to take second-hand books when he usually prefers the new ones. On the other hand the non-vet has to pay the full price for the new books when he has to scrape bottom to dig up enough cash for used books.

But, the bookstore argues, the GI bill states... Even they will admit that it's a matter of interpretation. It's about time somebody does something about this situation and SGA is the only organization powerful enough to do it.

How about it SGA? The whole campus will be behind you I'm sure. W. G. B.

During our freshman year at UK we enjoyed reading the Kentucky Kernel very much. This year, though we vigilantly watched our mail boxes, no Kernels arrived. Jazz Concert?

Editor, The Kernel:
A group of very talented musicians on the campus are interested in performing a series of jazz concerts. This has been done successfully on other campuses, and with the support of the student body it could be possible here.

It would be the purpose of this group to bring to the campus a concert, for listening pleasure, of Progressive, Dixieland, and other forms of jazz, and a little bebop and re-bop tossed in for good measure.

It would like to ask you to cooperate in this effort by inviting stu-

The Spice Of Life

By Jobie Anderson

Rush is o'er, the gala all won. Now 'till there is time for regular fun. This weekend'll be a ripper in UK style. Let's just hope we all can smile on Monday morn!

A "left bank" existentialist party was held in the Emporium during the L.S.U. game. Ask the stumbling Greeks about it.

Doesn't Ann Kirtley ever get tired of making Al Wieman worry or better still, doesn't Al ever get tired? Saturday found quite a few couples enjoying the game along with a little toddy for the body. They were Charlie Mears and Frankie Atkins; Nean Schlegel and Sonny Connel; Joan Hendricks and Bud Durnell; Marcia Middleton and Bill Davis.

By the way, the Middleton, Hughes, and Davis triangle has narrowed down to just Marsha and Bill. Jimmy "Scoop" Burlew has a gleam in his eye for Ann Douglas. The Cottage sure did go stag Friday night and many a lonesome boy got "down". Sorry that preference might keep you all away from Ray Anthony. Let's all make it out to the Joyland to hear the "Count"!

Andy Moats started the semester with Jean Rudd but has changed brands and now Louisa Wilson is the lucky lighter.

Mary Erickson is having decision trouble. Which is it, the Phi Sligs or the Sigma Nuts? Correction! With an "F" and an "O" and an "S-S-E-T"! That's how you spell our "Leaky's" name!

What's wrong with you Wildcat boys? Among those seen "checking Ray" were Any Price and Jim Line; Margaret Tombs and Ollie McCormick; Sue Arvere and Ralph Tatum. Beta and that Tatum, Revere, and Henden Short are forming another interesting three cornered affair.

Bill Harding won a jitzebugging contest at St. Joe's hospital. Those nurses can also hop can't they Bill? The SN pledges have active, and sorority members in an uproar. After stealing silverware and collecting jagers we wonder what will happen next. Priced autographed editions of Critshaw, Gray, Bird, Dadd, and Healdy will now adorn the Mole Hole.

Kenneth Felty is taking up most of Sue Rogers' time. Wonder what became of Bob Burlew? Pinned: Polly Day and Tom Smith; Joan Johnson and George Lawson; Betty Ann Skoll and Joe Russel. Sitty's brother from U of L; Eva May Seal and Joe Brunst.

The Lambda Chi hayride was a top notch party and no one even thought of being cold. Ann Powell Bush and Bobby Link are mighty regular couples these days. I can remember the days when . . .

Bob Nax, you have a new competitor! Bob Cregor is out to vie for your title of "Capacity Unlimited".

Married: Evelyn Ewing and Harry Glass; Barbara Warren and Jack Platter; Alice King and Irvin Monday; Joan Kloecker and Bill Griffin; Dick Martin and Peggy Smith. B. Vaughn and Tommy Langston are unpaired. Guess that Eskimo crack caused the ice. Also on the unhooked list are Frances Barnett and George King.

Lucas Floyd wants to start a whispering campaign. Watch out you campus daredevil! Josh Denam has just said "come in" to Mary Lou rrtetty. It's not Astair and Rogers it's Sherman and Inman! Just watch those two shake a leg.

Ramon Morgan has been squirting "Tootsie" Crafton. Good combination we'd say!

Frank Hare, Transy transfer, is investigating all the gals dorms. Boyd is his favorite at present. Hey Mary Lou! Where is Garland???

"Happy birthday dear Omar" (Ralph too!) was the occasion for the Delta party last Saturday night. Joan Haffler and Earl Casdell; Jenny Caudill and Jerry Inman enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

New Tennis Coach

The University has a new tennis coach. Appointed last week to tutor the Cat netters was Andy Paton, who is a commerce instructor here.

Cats Out

Phelps Leads In Yardage
Pacing the UK offensive attack along with Parilli's passing, is Don 'Dopey' Phelps, who now leads the Cats in total yardage for the first two games with 139 yards gained in 23 attempts for an average of 6.0.

Clark also is making a strong bid for the nation's No. 1 punt returner. In three runbacks, the little Carlie, Ky., lad has scampered 81 yards for an average of exactly 27 in scoring, there is a three-way tie, among Lawson, Phelps and Howe, all of whom have 12 points.

Parilli has been responsible for 264 yards on passing. He has connected with 18 in 32 tosses, with only one interception. Fucci has 4 good in 7 attempts, while Dopey Phelps completed his only passing try. Little Bob Benk had his only aerial intercepted.

In viewing the first two games, the Kentucky line is still somewhat of a mystery as to its caliber. It must be pointed out however that Southern and LEU were not able to score through it. Only one TD has been tallied by UK's opponents, that via the airwaves, which speaks well of the Cat forward wall.

Such of Kentucky's success this season will undoubtedly depend upon such huskies as Jim McKenzie, John Ignanski, Doug Moseley, John Netoskie, Al Bruno and Don Prampont. If these gridders come through for Bryant, and avoid any serious injuries, Kentucky might possibly upset one, two or three teams of the 'Big Four' that UK plays this season.

The guard position seems to be somewhat stronger than last year thanks to the addition of the sophomores. At tackle, Smitty Yowarsky, Wendell Vance, Bob Pope and Lloyd McBeth have been greatly aided by the second-year men in carrying the load.

Doug Moseley has been a pleasant surprise and shows indications of pushing Capt. Harry Ulinski out of the starting offensive center assignment.

The backfield is strong. Ten of the 21 backs are sophs and some of them are very promising. Clark, Lawson, Hamilton, Leskovar, Parilli have all looked very good.

head in the end zone as the half ended.

As the third period ended, the Freshmen again grabbed a fumble on the Reserves' 48-yard line. On the first play, Freshman Tommy Fillion raced off tackle out to the sidelines, and scored standing up. But the officials ruled that he stepped out of bounds on the 38-yard line.

Two more tries at the line by Fillion and Homer Meads netted 20 yards, but on the next play, Fillion fumbled and the Reserves recovered on the nine-yard line to end the threat.

For the Freshmen, Bill Farley, Meads and John Cron were outstanding in the backfield. In the line, it was Jack Hollis, Bob Huber, Carl Smith and Gene Donaldson who did the bulk of the work.

The Reserves were sparked by John Brainard and Ray, two transplanted Fresh, in the backfield, and Bill Dawson and King in the line.

Wildcat Varsity Reserves Beat Freshmen Team, 6-0

By Bob Gorham

The varsity reserves, aided by three frosh backs who changed sides for the game, nipped the Freshman Kittens, 6-0, last Saturday afternoon in a rough-and-tumble pickup session on Stoll Field. The Reserves pushed over a second quarter score that proved to be the margin of victory. The biggest part of the battle re-occurred between the 30-yard lines.

The only touchdown of the game came as the result of an intercepted pass that was run back 55 yards to the frosh 25-yard line just before the first quarter ended.

Just after the second period opened, Quarterback Paul Jones faked an end run and then threw a jump pass from the 17 to End John Griggs in the end zone for the TD. Griggs was surrounded by red-shirted Freshmen, but caught the ball without a hand being laid on him.

The p.a.t. attempt by Unis Sawyer, varsity student manager, was wide.

Frosh Fall Chances

The yearlings got breaks that allowed them to go deep into Reserve territory on two occasions, but they couldn't score.

In the second quarter, Jim Farley's punt was bobbled by Ray, a freshman "Reserve," and the ball was recovered by the frosh on the 15-yard line. But the Reserve line stiffened, and a fourth-down pass was over the intended receiver's

DisKentucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Three times in the last four years, the huge Ole Miss team has hung the first defeat of the season on the Kentucky Wildcats. Now it appears that Mississippi might pull the same trick again, for the Rebels have been established as a 6-point favorite to whip UK's plucky, but unlucky eleven.

Should the Cats upset mighty Mississippi, it would be one of the greatest victories in many years for the Blue and White.

Only three men are gone from the Rebel line which Assistant Coach Kernal Allen said last year was "the best I have ever seen" for a college team.

The Kentucky Cats can be relied upon to give a good account of themselves against the Meigs and more experienced Rebels. But win or lose, the UK students should give the Cats a royal welcome home. Remember it is our team and the boys need our support.

According to Athletic Director B. A. Shively, the squad should arrive back at Blue Grass Air Field on Versailles pike, between nine and ten o'clock Saturday night. Let's all try to be there or at Alumni gym to welcome them back. We hope Saky and some of the band members will also be on hand.

Johnny Owens, captain of the Kentucky golf team, will represent UK Saturday morning at Oxford, Miss. in an exhibition golf match which will include Dr. Middlecott, PGA champion and Ole Miss alumnus; Wilford Werle, well-known pro from Evansville; and Jim Coleman, the Rebels' No. 1 golfer. This match will be part of the extensive homecoming program planned at Ole Miss this weekend.

UK's McLean Stadium (on Stoll Field) now is the sixth largest in the Southeastern Conference (SEC). The seating capacity for each of the 12 conference schools is as follows: Tulane Stadium—50,735; Tennessee's Shields Watkins—53,000; LSU's Tiger Stadium—46,000; Georgia's Sanford Field—46,000; Ga. Tech's Grant Field—46,000; Kentucky's McLean Stadium—35,500; Mississippi State's Scott Field—35,000; Mississippi's Hemingway Stadium—34,000; Vanderbilt's Dudley Field—27,500; U.F.'s Florida Field—25,000; Alabama's Denny Stadium—25,000; Auburn's Clifford Hare Field—22,500.

Mississippi often plays a couple of "home" games each season in Memphis. This fall they opened there against Memphis State and will play Tennessee in that city on Nov. 12.

Auburn plays its home games all over the state of Alabama. They have two games carded for Mobile; one at Montgomery; one at Birmingham; and only one tilt on the campus at Hare Field.

The University of Alabama is about the same way. They play three games on its campus at Tuscaloosa; one at Mobile; one at Montgomery; and three at Birmingham. Florida is another school that varies its "home" contests. On the campus at Gainesville, the Gators have four games on tap. They will also play once at Tampa (against our Wildcats); and twice in Jacksonville.

For a time, Kentucky used to play one home game in Louisville. The Cats last appeared in the Falls City was in 1945 against Alabama. I will omit the final score for humanitarian reasons.

Basketball season will be here in about eight weeks. Meanwhile, Coach Rupp and his assistant, Harry Lancaster, are looking over the new freshman prospects.

Members of the Fresh squad are: 6-2 Dwight Price, from Lexington's University High; 6-4 Jimmy Box of Birmingham, Alabama; 5-11 Lindie Castle, from Clark County High of Winchester, Ky.; 6-1 Dick Pirkone of Chicago; 6-3 Frank Ramsey and 5-11 Chesley Riddle both of Madisonville, Ky.; Donald Dick (not Duke), 6-5 lad from Rocky River, Ohio; 6-3 Ray Fritz of Waco, Ky.; Wendell Jones, a six-footer from Maytown, Ky., and last but far from least a guy tagged Lou Tsoropoulos, 6-foot five-incher from up Lynn, Mass., way.

In addition to these players, another 6-5 youth, Reed Morgan, of Milwaukee, Wis., who was here at UK last spring will also be on the freshman team.

At the start of last season, many of the conference coaches and sportswriters lauded Tennessee, Tech, Vanderbilt and Alabama as the top. Just a few picked Georgia to win. What did take the SEC crown with a 6-0 loop record and an 8-1 regular-season performance. Mississippi, tagged for about sixth, surprised more than a few by finishing as runners-up with a 6-1 conference record and eight wins in nine tilts for the entire campaign.

One of the few that selected Georgia for the title before the season started was Coach Bryant. So after the Mississippi Southern game, we asked him to name the teams to beat for the '49 scrap.

The Kentucky monitor said "Right now, I'd say that Tulane, Mississippi and Georgia are the toughest teams in the conference." He went on to say that "by November," Vanderbilt and Tennessee will be rolling.

The Wildcats have missed Bob Gain not only in the line but also for his place kicking. In the first two games, the Cats were able to convert only six times in 14 point-after-touchdown attempts. Missing an all-important placement in the forthcoming games with Ole Miss, Georgia, SMU and Tennessee might prove disastrous.

In many parts of the South, the University of Mississippi is better known as "Ole Miss." However, few know how this two-word nickname originated.

The origin dates back to 1896, when the students there sought a proper name for the U.M. yearbook. Ole Miss was suggested and was accepted. For this name suggests the ante-bellum dandy who knew the wife of the plantation owner by no other title than "Ole Miss" and the daughter as "Young Miss."

Long John Dottley, Ole Miss' power plant at Fullback, averaged 30-yards per carry against Memphis State in the Rebels' first '49 game. A 165-pound junior, from McGehee, Ark., he's rapid as well as rugged.

BOBBY JABOUR, above, is the starting quarterback for Ole Miss. He played an excellent game against Auburn last week. Jabour, a 6-2, 190-pound junior from Vicksburg, Miss. The 27-year-old signal-caller is a pre-med student at Mississippi.

JACK STRIBLING, above, is Mississippi's top end. He is 5-11, 168-pound senior from Philadelphia, Miss. Big Jack is extremely fast which made it possible for him to intercept six passes last season. The 32-year-old ex-Navy veteran is trying for his fourth football letter.

When it comes to being a newspaper scribe I'm about as far from being a success as Lexington is from being a part of call for the Eagler Channel packet lines. This, you will observe, is plenty far. However, benevolent spirits have given me the privilege of writing this column about the people and activities at the University radio station, and when it comes to writing about radio I qualify on the grounds that I am just two steps below a moon — namely an idiot. Therefore, as a supplement to my other mental tasks, I will drop pearls of wisdom about the University of Kentucky radio service.

Are there any deep thinkers reading this column? With that sober challenge I'll start by suggesting that a viewpoint or two might be gained by listening to the UK Roundtable on Sunday morning. The ray after tomorrow Dr. Gifford Blyton of the department of English will lead a discussion treating the question: When is a Communist dangerous? (WHAS, Sunday 10:30 a.m.)

Also this coming Sunday "City Limit," a novel by U.K.'s Hollis Summers, will be dramatized by the Kentucky Radio Players. Producer Lin Stafford is opening the series on Kentucky writers with this story, and he reports that the cast includes the Gaitner's Mrs. Lela Robinson and students, Louise Hill and Dudley Saunders. (WKIX, Sunday, 6:30 p.m. WKBY, Tuesday, 8 p.m.)

One runs into many interesting people up at the station. Ever hear of a guy by the name of Bob Bledit? He is a chemist, I believe, and it was rumored that Bob has an orchestra. So the studio brass quickly tricked him into agreeing to have "what is known in the broadcasting vernacular, as a radio program. The name: Music Unlimited. (WKBY, Thursday, 9 p.m.)

By the way, did you ever hear a program that definitely should not happen. Believe it or not, there's a regularly scheduled show of that general type. Yak, yak, yak, bang, bang, yak, plink. It's the "Tom Tom" Show, with comedy (?) and music (?) and all that fol-de-rol. In featured spots are radioamateurs Tom Carlisle from Transy, T. J. Clark (Mr. Modesty), and others including Bill Gordon, the Johnny Ward Band, and guests. (WKBY-WLEX, Tuesday, 6-8 p.m.)

For the second straight game, Kentucky's surprising Wildcats did better than was expected. The UKats entered the LSU game last Saturday at Baton Rouge, La., a seven-point favorite but proceeded to whip the Tigers, 19-0, before approximately 35,000 fans.

It was the Cats' eighth consecutive game without a defeat. Their last loss being to Vanderbilt, 26-7, here last October.

First Score The first time the Big Blue got the ball, they scored, on a 22-yard pass from Babe Pailili to Dopey Phelps. Bobby Brooks' placement was wide.

Late in the first half, Phelps took a lateral pass from Pailili, faked an end run, then jumped high in the atmosphere and hurled a long pass to Jim Howe standing near the goal on the other side of the field. Howe scored easily after making the catch. Brooks again missed the p.a. try.

The final tally was made by the Fullback Clayton Webb in the last quarter on an off-tackle run, which netted the necessary 12 yards for the third UK touchdown. Brooks converted.

Score by quarters: Kentucky 6 0 0 7-19 La. State 0 0 0 0-0 Kentucky scoring: Touchdowns—Phelps, Howe, Webb. Point after touchdown—Brooks (placement).

Player Of Week

Dopey Phelps

Don ("Dopey") Phelps, the dashing ceman from Danville, Ky., has been named by The Kernel as Kentucky's Player of the Week for his outstanding performance in the Louisiana State scrap last Saturday at Baton Rouge.

It was very difficult to decide between Dopey and Babe Parilli, the Wildcats' fine sophomore quarterback. Perhaps, in the end, it was sentimentality that was the factor that made us finally pick Phelps, who is staging a brilliant comeback.

Other outstanding players for UK last week were Lee Truman, who turned in a great defensive game against the heavier LSU Tigers, Big Bill Leckover, Jim Howe, Clayton Webb, Charlie Bradshaw, Nick Odilwak, Dick Holway, Ben Zaranka, Jim McKenzie and numerous others.

Parilli, who is living up to his previous buildup, connected with 7 passes in 13 attempts for a net yardage of 59. He now in two games has a passing record of 10 completions in 31 tosses, which borders on the seasonal side especially considering his lack of varsity experience.

Like "Duz"
But getting back to Phelps, he is like "Duz" as he did everything with a football. Here are Dopey's feats in the LSU tilt.

He scored the first touchdown of the game, when with less than two minutes of play gone, he took a Parilli pass near the goal and dashed across into pay dirt. This was Kentucky's first play from scrimmage in the contest and covered 30 yards to shock the 35,000 spectators in Tiger Stadium.

With just 30-seconds left in the first half, Phelps flipped a long pass to Jim Howe good for touchdown No. 2, after first taking a shovel pass from Parilli and faking an end run. It was a beautifully executed play.

In ball kicking, the 175-pound senior speedster picked up 57 yards in 14 attempts, for an average of slightly over 4-yards per run. Dopey, to make the evening complete, also got off two nice quick kicks to set the Tigers back on their heels.

Against Mississippi Southern in the season's opener, Halfback Phelps carried the pigskin nine times for a net 98 yards, or an average of 10.89 per try. He also caught one pass for a gain of 24 yards.

Big Season Expected
Dopey Phelps has had a turbulent career here at Kentucky. He was a sensation as a freshman in 1946, scoring four touchdowns in one game against Michigan State on Still Field.

In his sophomore and junior 1946 and 1947.

In his first year with the Wildcats, Phelps, who is as solid as a bride's first cake and as slippery as a greased ice cube, led the nation in kickoff and punt returns. He averaged 42.3 yards on the kickoff rumblings and 19.0 on punt returns.

Dopey is a physical education major, but hopes to play some professional football before turning to coaching.
