ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Faculty Elections:

The Faculty Nominating Committee has submitted the following slate of nominees in accordance with the Organizational Procedure. Nominations are also welcome from the floor. Elections will be held at the 6 August Faculty meeting.

For secretary: Bill James, Frances Kelley, Claire McCann.

For Administrative Council: Terry Birdwhistel, Bess Clotfelter, Gerry Webb.

For Administrative Committee: Rhoda Channing, Gail Kennedy, Ed O'Hara.

Also on the ballot: An amendment to the Organizational Procedure, proposed by David Farrell, to make the Information Coordinator/Newsletter Editor an appointive position separate from the Faculty Secretary.

Last Minute Notes on the Picnic:

(A map to Carnahan House is attached.)

We are expecting approximately 160 people. As the picnic pavilion seats approximately 80 people, we would appreciate it if some of you would bring blankets and/or lawn chairs so that your family can eat dinner on the lawn.

We have been cautioned that everyone, especially children, should remain within the confines (the surrounding stone fences) of Carnahan House. The adjacent property is used for grazing livestock.

Two aluminum carts will be provided for garbage. Please utilize these instead of the smaller receptacles which are also located in the picnic area.

Restrooms and a pay telephone for our use are located just inside the south entrance of Carnahan House. The rest of the house will be closed, however, due to cleaning operations on Friday.

We plan to eat at 6:00 PM. We do have some activities planned for beforehand. Horseshoes, croquet, volleyball, softball, and badminton equipment will be provided. There is also a playground area. We hope to round out our picnic with guitar music and a sing-along.

Lexington Technical Institute:

The library at Lexington Technical Institute is progressing toward a late fall or, at the very latest, January opening. We still expect to occupy the building by the middle of August, though our furniture will not arrive until late September. Hopefully, we'll be presentable by dedication, which is scheduled for October 2. The building is to be named in honor of former-UK President John Oswald, now President of Pennsylvania State University.

We have expended our initial funds and now have a (very) unorganized collection of approximately 1200 titles. Two full-time library technicians have been employed to start processing and organizing the collection. Mary Sexton, LT III, formerly of the Inter-Library Loans unit in King, started Monday, July 12. Barbara Koon, LT II, has been with the Student Center but also has several years of library experience. She will begin work on July 19. We expect to start processing materials via SOLINET in the near future. We have decided to classify our materials by the Library of Congress Classification System. All our holdings will be entered into the M. I. King author-title public catalog.

I appreciate the help and encouragement we've received from the M. I. King faculty and staff and look forward to continued interaction. Though we're still a long way from opening the library doors, our movement toward that fine day is at least becoming perceptible.

Travellers:

Bill James, Cheryl Jones, Ellen Mawhinney and Susan Csaky attended the 69th annual meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries held in Boston on June 20 through June 24. Some of the most interesting events were the tour of the Harvard Law Library as well as the panel discussions on new developments in Technical Services, new developments in Reader Services and networks in Law Libraries. Bill James and Susan Csaky also completed some committee assignment obligations while at the conference.

PERSONNEL

Trudy Purcell has been promoted to an LT II in CSR. Karen Boucias will be going to Reference in August and Sharon Breeding will be going to Architecture the last week in July.

Terminations:

Carolyn Puckett in CSR.

Openings:
